THE COACHES

Dick Nolan • Red Hickey • Tom Landry • Jim Myers • Ermal Allen

TOM LANDRY — Head Coach

Tom Landry enters his sixteenth professional football season this year and the way his contract reads, he'll still be with the Cowboys when he enters his 26th season.

A native Texan, he was a natural choice to coach Dallas' entry in the National Football League when the club franchise was granted in 1960. On Feb. 5, 1964, Cowboys owner Clint Murchison announced he had signed Landry to a contract running through the 1974 season. It was the longest contract in the history of pro sports, as well as newsmen could determine.

"It's in line with my philosophy that when you get a good man you want to hold onto him," Murchison explained.

Landry played college football at the University of Texas, with time out for World War II bomber service, and joined the New York Yankees of the old All-America Conference in 1949.

When the two leagues merged in 1950, Landry went to the New York Giants where he was to spend the next ten years as a player, player-coach and defensive backfield coach.

A native of Mission, Texas, Landry has made his home in Dallas for the past eight years with his wife Alicia and three children—Tom Jr., 14; Kitty, 11; and Lisa, 6.

ERMAL ALLEN — Offensive Backfield Coach

Ermal Allen joined the Cowboys in 1962 after 14 years as a coach at his alma mater, Kentucky, and in his first Dallas season the Cowboys ranked second in the NFL in total offense, touchdowns and points scored.

He quarterbacked the Wildcats in his undergraduate days ('39-'41) and was a member of the Fort Benning and Army All-Star teams during World War II and a defensive back with the Cleveland Browns in 1947.

Returning to Kentucky, he worked under Bear Bryant from 1948 through 1953 and under Blanton Collier from 1954 through 1961.

Allen, 43, earned three letters each in football, basketball and golf in college and is a top amateur golfer. His son, Ken, is a half-back at Georgia Tech. The other Allen children are Ann, 18, and Amy, 9.

HOWARD (RED) HICKEY — Offensive End Coach

A newcomer to the Cowboys staff, Red Hickey is no stranger to the National Football League. He's been around the NFL since 1940 (with time out for four Navy years) as a player, assistant coach and head coach.

A native of Clarksville, Ark., Red graduated from the University of Arkansas in 1941 and was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers. He was traded to the Cleveland Rams before the 1941 season and played with them five seasons ('41 and '45-'48) in Cleveland and Los Angeles.

He remained with the Rams for six more seasons as an assistant coach, then joined the San Francisco 49ers in 1955 as an assistant coach, taking the head job in 1959 and remaining as 49er head coach through part of the '63 season.

Red's family—wife Celia and three sons—moved to Dallas in the summer of 1964.

JIM MYERS — Offensive Line Coach

A long-time coach in the collegiate ranks, Myers joined the Cowboys in 1962 after four years as head coach and athletic director at Texas A&M.

He was an assistant coach at Wofford College, Vanderbilt and UCLA and head coach at Iowa State before going to Texas A&M.

The 42-year-old Myers played his college ball at Tennessee ('41-'42 and '46) and Duke ('43). While at Duke in the Marine V-12 program, he was named All-Southern Conference guard.

Jim and his wife have three daughters — Susan, 18; Kathy, 15; and Carol, 14.

DICK NOLAN — Defensive Backfield Coach

Nolan joined the Cowboys as a player-coach in 1962, retiring as a player the following season to limit himself to coaching.

The 32-year-old Maryland product was reunited with Landry last year. They were teammates in 1954 and '55 when Landry was a player-coach for the New York Giants. Nolan was also Landry's pupil in 1956, '57 and '59 when the latter was full-time defensive coach. Nolan was with the Chicago Cardinals in 1958, returning to the Giants for the three following seasons.

A native of White Plains, N.Y., Dick is the father of five children — Richard Jr., 9; Nancy, 8; Michael, 5; Kelly, 4; and Lisabeth, 2.

CLINT HOUY — Trainer

A native of Fredericksburg, Texas, Clint Houy has an extensive background as an athletic trainer despite being only 30 years old.

"Pee Wee" Houy started as a student assistant at the University of Texas, where he received his bachelor of science degree in 1955.

His first job was at the Air Force Academy when it opened for the first time in 1955. He fulfilled his military obligation while serving as athletic trainer there and was with the Air Force team that played a scoreless tie with TCU in the 1959 Cotton Bowl game.

With the Ottawa Rough Riders in the Canadian professional league in 1959, Houy returned to his native state to become the Cowboys' trainer in 1960.

JACK ESKRIDGE — Equipment Manager

A basketball player who holds one Kansas University scoring record that even Wilt Chamberlain never bettered, Jack Eskridge has been in most every phase of athletics since graduating from high school in Independence, Mo.

The 39-year-old Kansas City, Kan., native played pro basketball for two seasons (1949-50) with the Chicago Stags and Indianapolis Jets of the NBA, after playing at Kansas in 1946-47-48. He also coached five years in Iowa and Kansas high schools and five years at Kansas University. He joined the Cowboys for their first season in 1960.

GIL BRANDT — Player Scouting Director

A native of Milwaukee, Gil Brandt is another 30-year-old who has managed to crowd a maximum of experience into a few years.

This is his tenth season of professional football talent hunting, his seventh year at it on a full-time basis.

After his graduation from the University of Wisconsin in 1954, Gil scouted on a part-time basis for the Los Angeles Rams from 1955 through '57.

In 1958 he became a full-time scout for the San Francisco 49ers and remained with them until joining the Cowboys in the winter of 1960.

Coaching Staff — Bill McPeak (fourth year), Chuck Cherundolo, Abe Gibrón, Ed Hughes, Bucko Kilroy, Ted Marchibroda, Tim Temerario.

Series History — The Cowboys have won two, Washington has won three and two ended in ties. The Redskins won in DC Stadium last season, 21-17, and the Cowboys won in the Cotton Bowl, 35-20.

The ties, 28-28 in '61 and 35-35 in '62, were both in Dallas and were among the biggest offensive shows the Cowboys have staged. In the '61 tie the Cowboys once trailed by 14 points and in the '62 tie, the Redskins twice trailed by 14.

In Washington's 26-14 victory in '60, Cowboys Eddie LeBaron and Dick Bielski teamed up on a two-inch touchdown pass — shortest in NFL history. The Cowboys' 38-10 victory in '62, largest margin in the series, was before 49,888, largest crowd ever to see a sporting event in DC history.

Coaching Staff — George Halas (37th year), George Allen, Jim Dooley, Phil Handler, Luke Johnsos, Sid Luckman, Chuck Mather, Joe Stydahar.

Series History — The Bears have won both previous meetings, 17-7 in 1960 and 34-33 in 1962.

The loss in '62 marked only the second game in the Cowboys' history in which they missed extra points. Joe Fortunato blocked Sam Baker's kick after Dallas' first touchdown and it proved the difference. Prior to that game the Cowboys missed two extra points in their second league game in history and lost to the Philadelphia Eagles, 27-25.

1963 Record — Won 11, Lost 2, Tied 1; All-Time Record — Won 305, Lost 198, Tied 28.

Coaching Staff — Vince Lombardi (sixth year), Bill Austin, Phil Bengston, Red Cochran, Tom Fears, Norb Hecker.

Series History — It has been a short series and like all Packers series since the Cowboys entered the league in 1960, it's been a sweet one for Green Bay. Their only previous league meeting was in '60 and the Packers routed the Cowboys, 41-7, en route to the first of their three straight Western Conference titles.

The clubs have met in every pre-season with the Packers winning each time from 1960 through '63. Closest score was the first, 28-23. Since then they've met in Dallas' annual Salesmanship Club game with these results: 30-7 in '61, 31-7 in '62 and 31-10 in '63. They were also scheduled to meet in the '64 pre-season.
