THE MANAGEMENT

SCHRAMM

The Dallas Cowboys are owned by a former 130-pound halfback for Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The Cowboys are run by a former sports writer.

This combination has, while nursing along an expansion team until it became a division champion, proved to be a most effective combination.

The ex-halfback is Clint Murchison, Jr., the wealthy Dallas businessman, who, until a year ago, served as president of the club. He is still chairman of the board.

Texas E. Schramm is the former sportswriter who served as vice-president and general manager until being named president last year.

There are few better qualified club presidents than the California native, who has become recognized as one of the most progressive administrators in professional sports.

Schramm holds a BA degree in Journalism from the University of Texas, acquired between 1939 and 1947 with timeout for a four-year hitch in the Air Transport Command where he made Captain.

While still in school, Schramm was a member of the sports staff of the Austin American Statesman and later sports editor.

In 1947 he joined the Los Angeles Rams as publicity director, and in a 10-year career there, rose to general manager.

He left the Rams to join Columbia Broadcasting System as Assistant Director of Sports in 1957 and was there until summoned by Murchison and Bedford Wynne to guide the Cowboys.

One of his major assets is to be a sound judge of men. It was Schramm who brought Pete Rozelle into pro football as publicity man for the Rams.

Aside from the development of the Cowboys, perhaps his major achievements have been his work with scouting systems, both with the Rams and Cowboys, and the merger of the NFL and AFL.

It was Schramm and Lamar Hunt, owner of the Kansas City Chiefs, who handled all of the preliminary negotiations for the merger.

THE COACH

Tom Landry is a Texan who has managed to be in his native state while achieving some of his most noticeable successes.

Born in Mission, Texas, in 1924, Landry was an all-regional high school fullback there prior to enrolling at the University of Texas in the fall of 1942.

And in 1966, again in Texas, he reached another peak. He was the concensus coach of the year for the National Football League while leading his Cowboys to the Eastern Division championship and a narrow miss in the championship game with Green Bay. He repeated the Eastern championship in 1967, and again barely missed an NFL title.

He has not limited himself to success in Texas, however, having displayed his skills in such places as England and New York.

It was in England where he earned his wings as a B-17 pilot while flying 30 missions with the Eighth Air Force.

And it was in New York, where, in a 10-year career with the New York Giants, he not only was an all-pro defensive back, but also first became recognized as a genius at coaching defensive football.

Landry's first stay at Texas was short. After only one semester he entered the air force.

After his discharge in November of 1945, Landry returned to the University of Texas and played football three years. His stay there was marked by some of the strongest teams in Texas' history. He was co-captain his senior year and second team All-Southwest Conference his junior year. Landry was a mainstay on the Longhorn teams which whipped Alabama in the 1948 Sugar Bowl, 27-7 and then Georgia in the 1949 Orange Bowl, 41-28.

In 1949 Landry joined the old New York Yankees, playing half-back, both offensively and defensively. When the two leagues merged in 1950, Landry began his long association with the Giants and began building the solid reputation he holds today.

He was an active player from 1950 through 1953 and player-coach in 1954 and 1955, handling the Giants' defense. As a player, he was a defensive halfback in Steve Owens' famed umbrella pass defense, and he played it well enough to be named to the All-Pro defensive team in 1954. In 1956, he retired as a player and became the full-time defensive coach.

The Giants enjoyed some of their greatest successes during Landry's stay with them. They lost a playoff to Cleveland in 1950 for the Eastern Division championship. In 1956, Landry's first year as a full-time coach, the Giants won the world championship in a 47-7 rout over the Chicago Bears. They won the division title in 1958 and 1959, after which Giant head coach, Jim Lee Howell called Landry "the best defensive coach in the business".

Among the many defensive records the Giants set during Landry's stay with them are these NFL firsts: recovered 27 of 48 opponents' fumbles in 1950; intercepted 41 passes in 1951. During Landry's tenure as full-time defensive coach, the Giants fashioned a 33-14-1 record in regular league play, never finishing worse than third in their division.

Before moving here, he lived in Houston during the off-season. Landry received an industrial engineering degree from University of Houston in 1952 and was employed there as an engineer.

Landry enters his 20th professional football season this year and the way his contract reads, he'll still be with the Cowboys when he enters his 26th season. On February 5, 1964, Cowboys' owner, Clint Murchison announced he had signed Landry to a contract running through the 1974 season. It was the longest contract in the history of pro sports, as well as newsmen could determine.

"It's in line with my philosophy that when you get a good man you want to hold on to him," Murchison explained.

The wisdom of Murchison's decision was borne out during 1966 when the Cowboys stormed to their first Eastern Division title and emerged as the talk of the football world with their multiple offense.

There was one other major accomplishment for Landry in his home state.

It was at TU he met his wife, Alicia, and they were married in January, 1949, four months before he received a bachelor of business administration degree. They have three children, Tom, Jr., Kitty and Lisa. Young Tom is attending Duke on a football scholarship.

ALLEN

FRANKLIN

THE ASSISTANTS

ERMAL ALLEN Offensive Backfield Coach

Ermal Allen joined the Cowboys in 1962 after 14 years as a coach at his alma mater, Kentucky, and in his first Dallas season the Cowboys ranked second in the NFL in total offense, touchdowns and points scored.

He quarterbacked the Wildcats in his undergraduate days ('39-'41) and was a member of the Fort Benning and Army All-Star teams during World War II and a defensive back with the Cleveland Browns in 1947.

Returning to Kentucky, he worked under Bear Bryant from 1948 through 1953 and under Blanton Collier from 1954 through 1961.

Allen, 47, earned three letters each in football, basketball and golf in college and is a top amateur golfer. Allen and his wife Allie, are grandparents, thanks to their son Ken, a former halfback at Georgia Tech. They have two other children, Ann, recently married, and Amy, 13.

RAYMOND BERRY Offensive End Coach

The all-time great receiver in the NFL, Berry makes his coaching debut this year with the Cowboys, although he has for several seasons been helping John Bridgers at Baylor in spring ball.

Berry, 34, grew up in Paris, Texas. He was a star at SMU before joining the Baltimore Colts where he was to team with Johnny Unitas to form the deadly passing duo. A three-Time All-Pro, he caught 631 passes for 67 touchdowns. His high was 75 catches in 1961.

Berry and his wife, Sally, have two children, Suzanne, 4 and Mark Raymond 2.

BOBBY FRANKLIN

Defensive Backfield Coach

In his first year with the Cowboys, Franklin brings with him one year's coaching experience as an assistant at Georgia Tech, and an excellent playing background.

A native of Clarksdale, Mississippi, he was a multisport star as a prep. He attended Ole Miss where he was the regular quarterback under Johnny Vaught for his two final years. The Rebels played in three bowls during his stay.

Drafted 11th by Cleveland in 1960, he was a regular in the secondary for three years and a sometimes starter thereafter in a career that went through the 1966 season.

He is married to the former Beth Koehler of Junica, Mississippi. They have one son, Bobby Ray, Jr., 6.

JIM MYERS

Offensive Line Coach

A long-time coach in the collegiate ranks, Myers joined the Cowboys in 1962 after four years as head coach and athletic director at Texas A&M.

He was an assistant coach at Wofford College, Vanderbilt and UCLA and head coach at Iowa State before going to Texas A&M.

The 45-year-old Myers played his college ball at Tennessee ('41-'42 and '46) and Duke ('43). While at Duke in the Marine V-12 program, he was named All-Southern Conference guard.

Jim and his wife, Carolyn, have three daughters and two grandchildren. Their oldest daughter is Mrs. Harrison Jones. Kathy, 19, and Carol, 18, are still at home.

RAY RENFRO

Pass Offense Coach

Renfro brings a solid background of playing and coaching with him in his first year with the Cowboys. Last year he coached the potent Washington offense, the best passing game in the NFL.

He also coached at Detroit after wrapping up his 12-year playing career at Cleveland where he saw duty both as a running back and flanker, although he was used exclusively as a flanker after 1959. He was All-Pro six times.

The 38-year-old Whitesboro, Texas, native was a small college All-American at North Texas where he averaged 7.7 yards per carry and was a 9.5 sprinter.

Renfro and his wife, the former Sandra Clarke of Fort Worth, have three children, Mike 13, Mark 11 and Mitch 9. He makes his home in Fort Worth where he has a dry cleaning establishment.

RENFRO

ERNIE STAUTNER Defensive Line Coach

Ernie Stautner joined the Cowboys staff in 1966 after a season with the Washington Redskins, preceded by two years as player-coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

One of the most honored and popular interior linemen of modern times in the NFL, Stautner begins his 19th year in the league. He played 15 years with the Steelers as a 235-pound defensive tackle and played in nine Pro Bowl games. He was All-Pro in 1958 and '59 and, along with former roommate Bobby Layne, is something of a legend in Pittsburgh.

Stautner played four seasons with Boston College after completing a 1943-46 hitch with the Marines.

He and his wife, Helen, have three children: Joseph Robert, 13; Teresa Anne, 12; Carol Anne, 7.

JERRY TUBBS Linebackers Coach

Jerry moves into the full time coaching job well prepared. The 33-year-old Breckenridge, Texas, native wound up his active days last year as a player-coach, capping 11 years as a pro after an outstanding collegiate career at Oklahoma.

Tubbs was a three-year regular for Bud Wilkinson and the recipient of the Walter Camp Award as the nation's outstanding player following his senior season in 1956. He was drafted No. 1 by the Chicago Cardinals, but traded a year later to San Francisco. He was one of the 36 original Cowboys and played as a regular for six seasons, making All-Pro in 1962.

Jerry and his wife, Marlene, have two children, Alan, 10, and Kayla Lynn, 5.

GIL BRANDT – Player Scouting Director

A native of Milwaukee, Gil Brandt is a 34-year-old who has managed to crowd a maximum of experience into a few years.

This is his 14th season of professional football talent hunting, his 10th year at it on a full-time basis.

After his graduation from the University of Wisconsin in 1954, Gil scouted on a part-time basis for the Los Angeles Rams from 1955 through '57.

Under Brandt's direction, the Cowboys have topped all pro clubs in the signing of free agents who made the grade.

He is married to the former Joan Wettergreen of Marion, Ohio.

DON COCHREN – Trainer

Don Cochren joined the Cowboys in June 1965 after one year as head trainer at the University of New Hampshire.

A graduate of Purdue University who gained his physical therapy certificate from Pennsylvania, the 36-year-old Cochren spent two years as trainer at Case Institute in Cleveland and four years as trainer of the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian football league. He also spent two years as a physical therapy officer in the Air Force.

Don and his wife, Imogene, have three children, Diana, Mickey and David.

LARRY GARDNER – Trainer

Almost a native Texan, Larry Gardner was born and reared in Louisiana and graduated from McNeese State in 1961. The 29-year-old, who joined the Cowboys staff in June of 1965, graduated from the Hermann Hospital School of Physical Therapy at the Texas Medical Center in Houston in 1962.

He spent two years at the University of California, with time out for a six-month tour of duty in the Army, before becoming football trainer at Stanford University in 1964.

Gardner was born in Lake Charles, La., and attended school in Sulphur, La. He is married to the former Carol Burden. They have one daughter, Mimi Carol.

JACK ESKRIDGE – Equipment Manager

A basketball player who holds one Kansas University scoring record that even Wilt Chamberlain never bettered, Jack Eskridge has been in most every phase of athletics since graduating from high school in Independence, Mo.

The 42-year-old Kansas City, Kan., native played pro basketball for two seasons (1949-50) with the Chicago Stags and Indianapolis Jets of the NBA, after playing at Kansas in 1946-47-48. He also coached five years in Iowa and Kansas high schools and five years at Kansas University. He joined the Cowboys for their first season in 1960.

Eskridge's KU basketball record: He scored 30 points in a half.

THE PLAYERS

ANDRIE, GEORGE

Ht: 6-7

Wt: 250

Defensive End

Born 4-20-40

Marquette

7th Year (D-6 for '62)

PRO: George Andrie played his college football, what there was of it, at Marquette. The school eliminated football before George could play his senior year. With that Milwaukee background, it might seem surprising that George was the Cowboy who suffered the worst case of frostbite in the championship game in Green Bay. But not really, as George, one of the men in the Cowboys rugged front four, was part of Ernie Stautner's crew who was asked to play without gloves in case a fumble should become available. It did and Andrie scored one of the two Cowboys touchdowns when he picked up the loose ball and rambled in for a touchdown. While excellent play is not surprising—he's been in three straight Pro Bowls—the spotlight is rare. He is shielded from that somewhat by playing along side Bob Lilly. Together, they form the right side of the Dallas front four. The Cowboys have led, or been right there, in quarterback traps for three years and Andrie is the leader. Andrie, who possesses good speed (5.2), became a regular as a rookie in 1962 and has improved steadily since.

COLLEGE: Missed his entire senior season when Marquette dropped organized football, yet the Cowboys took him in 6th round . . . Played end in college under Coaches Lisle Blackbourne and John Druze . . . weighed 247 as collegian.

PERSONAL: Native of Grand Rapids, Mich., where he attended Catholic Central . . . married Mary Lou Lovscheider of Waukesha, Wis. . . . They have two boys—George, 4, and Michael, 3 . . . lives in Dallas where he is salesman for Phil-Ross Real Estate.

Running Back

Born: 7-24-44

2nd Year (D-12 for '66)

PRO: "I'd say the bright spot last season at running back was the development of Craig Baynham", says Landry. "If he can continue to improve as he should, he'll have a bright future." Drafted as a future in 1966, Baynham was used to back up both Don Perkins and Dan Reeves and as a kick-off return man. He returned a dozen kicks for a 27.6 average in regular season play. And he had a terrific day in the Eastern Conference title-game against Cleveland, scoring three times, once on a pass and twice on runs. Has everything—size, speed and hands—to make it.

COLLEGE: An outstanding sprinter at Georgia Tech, his 9.6 stood as a school record until last year. A two-year regular as a wingback, he caught 30 passes and set school record of seven touchdowns as a junior. He captained the track team and was a student leader during his stay. He played in both the Gator and Orange Bowls. Injuries hampered his senior season.

PERSONAL: Craig spent the off-season continuing his work for the Campus Crusade for Christ in which he actively participated in college. He is married to former Marti Smith. They have two children, Wade 2, Matt 8 months. Hometown is North Augusta, South Carolina.

Tackle

Born 9-11-38

Heidelberg

9th Year (D-9 for '60)

PRO: Knee surgery prior to the 1967 season slowed Boeke some, but not enough to prevent him from being perhaps the best reserve offensive tackle in the NFL. A regular the season before, Boeke became a back-up tackle when John Niland became a starting guard and Tony Liscio was moved from guard to tackle. Extremely fast (5.0) for his size, Boeke took advantage of an injury situation to claim a starting berth in late 1954 and he held that job until last season. Boeke, who excels in open field, cut blocking, came to the Cowboys from the Rams for Les Josephson, who at the time was a rookie free agent.

COLLEGE: Received Little All-America mention at Heidelberg in Ohio Conference. As college soph, at 210 pounds, he ran 51.9 quarter.

PERSONAL: Was born in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, where he attended high school . . . Married, he practice teaches in the Los Angeles area, his off-season home . . . Has had bit parts in movies and TV . . . Has one daughter, Andrea Dawn, 1 year.

After Christensen was cut by the Washington Whips soccer team, former Cowboys quarterback Eddie LeBaron heard about him and gave him a look. Eddie recommended the Cowboys sign him. He has kicked consistently from 50 yards away in summer practice.

CLARK, PHIL

Ht: 6-2

Wt: 207

Defensive Back

Born: 4-28-45

Northwestern

2nd Year (D-3 for '67)

PRO: Clark was drafted third for 1967—the Cowboys first pick that year since both Nos. 1 and 2 went to Houston in Ralph Neely deal—and saw considerable action for a rookie defensive back due to the injuries to Mel Renfro. Primarily, this free safety area was where he played, although he saw some corner duty before Mike Johnson developed. Clark had some injuries, but has size and speed (4.7) to become good one.

COLLEGE: The fastest man on the Northwestern team, he was an all-Big Ten selection and made second team All-America. Big, he played roving linebacker as a junior before moving into deep spot for senior year. He intercepted three passes as senior. Played in East-West game and Hula Bowl.

PERSONAL: Clark's hometown is Cincinnati . . . Single, he spent his off-season in military service, stationed in Austin, Texas.

Born: 1-16-35

Utah State

9th Year (D-12 for '60)

PRO: A man on the spot last year when regular center Dave Manders was lost for the season in a pre-season game at San Francisco, Connelly responded to hold down the job all season. That he played so well was not totally unexpected. He had been the regular center for four years (1961-64), losing the job himself due partially to an injury. Manders had held it for the last two while Connelly had provided excellent back-up services both at guard and at center. Exceptionally fast (5.0) and strong, the ex-Marine is, along with Don Meredith, the oldtimer on the club in point of service. They were both active the first year the club was formed, Connelly joining the Cowboys after being released by Los Angeles. Not only an exceptional reserve, Connelly is an able performer on the specialty teams.

COLLEGE: Started with Washington State, then after hitch in the Marines, went to Utah State where he played center and linebacker and was team captain in '59 . . . All-Skyline honors in '58 and '59 and All-America mention in 1959.

PERSONAL: Born in Monrovia, Calif. . . . grew up in Pasadena where he was standout football and baseball player . . . Married the former Ann Meisenhimer of Pomona, Calif. . . . they have a boy, Greg, 6, and a girl, Lynne, 3 . . . lives in Dallas and works as stock broker.

DANIELS, DICK Defensive Back Pacific U. (Oregon)
Ht: 5-9 Wt: 180 Born: 10-19-44 3rd Year (FA for '66)

PRO One of the many free agents on club and the last man signed in 1966, Daniels moves into third season with good reputation for speed and hitting ability on specialty teams, but still owns little game experience. Daniels was active early in rookie season, taxied for a time, then re-activated late in campaign. Then last season he was used sparingly as highly touted rookie Phil Clark played free safety behind Mel Renfro. Coachable, Daniels could make his presence felt in critical third year.

COLLEGE: Was two-year All-Northwest Conference halfback choice at Pacific and made the All-District NAIA team . . . Majored in P.E.

PERSONAL: Native of Portland, Oregon . . . Single . . . Resides in Dallas in off-season.

DETERS, HAROLD Kicker North Carolina State
Ht: 6-0 Wt: 200 Born 1-16-44 2nd Year (D-12 for '67)

PRO Although drafted in the 12th round, Deters was a product of the Dallas Kicking Karavan and came close to winning a job last year.

He did in fact for three games, but was taxed after the Los Angeles game Back for another shot, Harold has a good chance with a strong leg. He kicked a 46-yarder in pre-season game at Kezar last season.

COLLEGE: Deters established five Atlantic Coast field goal records during his career, hitting 21 of 42 for career, including shots of 49, 47, 44, 44 and 41 yards. He once hit a 55-yarder in practice and didn't miss an extra point in college.

PERSONAL: A native of Pennsylvania, Deters is still going to school in the off-season. He was married August 20, 1966, to the former Barbara Ann Garcia.

Rice

Ht: 6-1

Wt: 185

Born: 1-17-37

9th Year (D-2 for '59)

PRO: Dial, a veteran campaigner who had some great seasons with Pittsburgh, faces stiff comeback test after back ailment and subsequent surgery kept him on shelf entire 1967 season. Drafted second by New York in 1959, the Giants didn't like what they found and gave him his release. Buddy immediately hooked up with Steelers and teamed with Bobby Layne for outstanding years. He came to Cowboys prior to 1964 season for draft rights to No. 1 draftee Scott Appleton (Texas tackle). Injury and surgery in the 1964 season kept him out most of that year, too. Dial's forte has been quickness and good hands, making him one of the best one-on-one men in NFL. While he has yet to have big season for Cowboys, in 1966 he led club in lowest percentage of passes missed.

COLLEGE: All-American at Rice, Dial played double-duty at end, made his rep as one of SWC's all-time great long receivers... Led SWC in receiving as junior in 1957 (21 catches).

PERSONAL: Born in Ponca City, Okla., and raised in Magnolia, Tex., where he was all-state end and versatile athlete... married Janice Howell of Houston and they have three children—Darren, 7, Kevin, 5, and Sherri, 1½ yrs... they live in Dallas where Buddy does public relations work for Allied Chemical... he is also an excellent singer, has cut an album of religious-folk music; and a record "Baby."

DONOHUE, LEON
Ht: 6-4 Wt: 245

Guard
Born 3-25-39

San Jose State
7th Year (D-9 for '62)

PRO: Donohue was one of several Cowboys undergoing surgery during off-season, after playing on shaky knee all season. And indications going into training camp were that the knee, which had been operated on before, might be the best it had been since he came with the Cowboys. That was just before the 1965 season when Dallas gave a third round draft choice to San Francisco for Donohue, who had served as a regular for two seasons for the 49'ers. Sound on fundamentals and strong pass blocker, Donohue is vital key to 1968 success. If his knee permits him to return to full speed and the same is true for his right side running mate at tackle, Ralph Neely, then the Cowboys running game should be better than in 1967.

COLLEGE: Played end and tackle at San Jose State and was named school's outstanding lineman as senior...played for Coach Bob Titchenal, former 49ers . . . captained team.

PERSONAL: Was born in Star City, Ark., but grew up in San Jose, Calif., where he was all-city in both basketball and football... has four brothers, two sisters...married Judy Metcalf, his high school sweetheart on March 19, 1960, and they have three girls—Kerry, born Oct. 19, 1961; Lindy, born Jan. 16, 1963; and Janie, born Nov. 20, 1965 . . . teaches during the off season in San Jose, Calif.

DOUGLAS, JOHN
Ht: 6-2 Wt: 212

Linebacker
Born: 9-6-45

Missouri
First Year (D-4 for '68)

Played only two years of college football because he left to work awhile after his freshman season. Unanimous all Big Eight choice as a senior, he was selected to play in North-South Senior Bowl games. Douglas has good speed (5.0) and was recognized primarily as a "tough" player, although his pass defense was good. In first varsity game against Minnesota he intercepted a pass and returned it 21 yards for a touchdown. Douglas was co-captain along with quarterback Gary Kombrink his senior year. He is single. Hometown is Columbia, Missouri.

EDWARDS, DAVE
Ht: 6-1 Wt: 228

Linebacker
Born: 12-14-39

Auburn
6th Year (FA for '62)

PRO: "Everything started to come clear to me. So much of the time I knew what was going to happen." This is Edwards' simple explanation for having what was easily his finest season as a pro in 1967. It was Edwards' third year as a regular at linebacker and his fifth in pro ball. But it does take time to learn, particularly when the college career was spent as an offensive end. Edwards is one of the free agents who found a home in Dallas. He flunked his first year as an offensive player, but made it a year later on defense. His strength is his speed, which is 5.0 for 40 yards. Strong and consistent, Edwards picked off three passes last year, including one for a touchdown.

COLLEGE: All-SEC end at Auburn in '61 . . . Played under Ralph Jordan . . . Degree in PE.

PERSONAL: Born in Columbia, Ala., grew up in Abbeville, Ala. . . married Gail Toomey of Miami, Fla., in 1967 . . . lives in Dallas in off-season.

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 205

Born: 7-23-44

3rd Year (D-5 for '66)

PRO: Walt has passed all tests except that of being a regular and that only because of Don Perkins. He broke in well as a rookie two years ago after being drafted No. 5 for 1966, and he didn't let up last season. He has excellent agility and balance and good (4.8) speed. Other than back-up duty, he has been used mostly as kickoff return man and has performed well there. He has a bright future.

COLLEGE: All-time star at Oklahoma State . . . two-time all-Big Eight selection . . . rushed for 730 yards as junior and 924 as senior, including 121 against unbeaten Nebraska and 173 against Kansas State . . . played in East-West and Senior Bowl games.

GAECHTER, MIKE

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 190

Safety

Born: 1-9-40

Oregon

7th Year (FA for '62)

PRO: Last season Pete Retzlaff was talking about Gaechter: "He's the most underrated player on the team. I said it as a player, and it still goes." San Francisco coach Dick Nolan used the same "underrated" terminology. Mike is the strong safety. And with the job, goes the primary responsibility of forcing the run. As a result, the traffic is often heavy, something which doesn't bother him as he must rate among the top two or three "hitters" among the Cowboys. That's a strong reputation for one better known as a track man at Oregon. But Gil Brandt made the final decision to sign him after watching a "hit" at the goal line by Gaechter. Super fast (4.55) Gaechter came as a free agent and broke in with five interceptions as a rookie. Since that time, he's been a regular for the most part, except for a stretch in 1965. Gaechter's candid view of the underrated tag last year was: "I may not look like I'm having a great year, but I think I am."

COLLEGE: Lettered only as a senior at Oregon, where he was more noted as trackman . . . won "Most Improved Player" award as senior halfback . . . in track was a 9.5 sprinter and 14.1 high hurdler . . . ran leg on 40 flat sprint relay team and was member of NCAA championship track team of '62 . . . majored in education.

PERSONAL: Born in Santa Monica, Calif., but grew up in Lancaster, Calif., where he was 150-pound halfback and track standout . . . married the former Barbara Clarke of Columbia, S. Carolina . . . lives in Dallas and owns his own janitorial supply service.

5th Year (FA for '64)

PRO: Injuries—both early and late in the season—and the development of newcomer Lance Rentzel cost Gent his starting job at flanker, but not his big, sure hands. In 1966 he caught 27 for 474 yards, and he had a couple of big days last season. A good blocker, his 6-4 height makes him an excellent target. Defensive Back

Born 2-10-40

7th year (FA for '62)

PRO: San Francisco coach Dick Nolan says Green is as good as anybody at stripping the receiver on turn-ins. "He discourages some from running it altogether," Dick says. "You can tell the right time to hit them," Green says, "because their arms go up. I hit them with everything I've got . . . my arms, my body . . . I'd use my fingernails if I could. If you can shake them up enough they'll start looking for you. When they do that they're playing your tempo." This attitude, along with the idea he's never been beaten, has made Green one of the top two or three cornerbacks in the NFL. He's made All-Pro for the past two seasons and has been in the Pro-Bowl for three straight years. Not bad for a free agent basketball player. "I don't think basketball was any hindrance," he says. "You come into the league and everybody has it all to learn anyway, whether they know it or not. And basketball may have helped my quickness." Quickness is only one of several attributes which make Green a great one. He has confidence, concentration, pain tolerance, size and good speed (4.8). He had seven interceptions last year for the second time in his career, and teams with Mike Gaechter to provide strong threat for blocking kicks.

HARMON, ED

Ht: 6-4

Linebacker

Born: 12-16-46

Louisville

First Year (D-3 for '68)

Despite tremendous size for a linebacker, Harmon has run a 5.0 40 in full gear. Drafted as a linebacker he'll get a long look there. But should he falter at linebacker it wouldn't bring too much despair for he is big enough to play defensive end. Harmon, team captain in his final year, played offense until his senior year. He originally came to Louisville as a fullback. Harmon married a Louisville girl, Candy Hulbert, the Saturday after the draft. Hometown is Tonowanda, New York.

HAYES, BOBEnd*Florida A & M*Ht: 5-11*Wt: 185*Born: 10-20-42*4th Year (D-7 for '65)

PRO: "Bob Hayes is our game breaker," says Landry. "Even if most teams double team Bobby, we still have to hit him." The statistical evidence is there as the Bullet has scored 35 touchdowns on pass receptions in his three seasons in the NFL. Only one man in NFL history has recorded more in a three-year stretch, Don Hutson scoring 10, 17 and 11 in 1941-1943 for 38. The following year Hutson had nine for a four-year total of 47. A typical Hayes year will equal the four-year standard by Hutson. Hayes' yardage totals of 998 for 49 catches were off slightly last season, thanks to increased production of newcomer Lance Rentzel at flanker and to some tonsil problems. The tonsils are gone. That's good. Rentzel isn't. So is that. The dual defensive problems should make for a continued happy Hayes, one of the Cowboys "loose" guys. While his receiving obviously overshadows all else, he is one of the outstanding punt return men in the game. He ranked second in the NFL with a long of 69 and one touchdown. Hayes has improved on routes and knowledge of defenses, but addition of Raymond Berry to staff should improve him more. Hayes was all-Pro as a sophomore and has been a permanent fixture in the Pro Bowl all three years he has been in the league. Colorful guy with a good sense of humor, Hayes was given hot pursuit by Clarence Childs after bagging a pass against the Giants. "Weren't you afraid you would get caught," he was asked. "No," said Bobby. "He's just a 9.3 man."

COLLEGE: Mixed football with track at Florida A&M where he became famous as "World's Fastest Human", set world records in both 100-yard and 100-meter dashes... won 1964 Olympic 100 meters... drafted as future in '63, he signed after '64 Olympics, was named to College All-Star game.

PERSONAL: Born in Jacksonville, Fla., where he grew up and played football (halfback) and track (best sprint time 9.6)... one of three children... married former Altamease Martin of New Brunswick, New Jersey... Partners with Pete Gent in National Graphics Printing Service.

Born: 1-9-46

First Year (D-1 for '68)

A winner, Homan played on three straight bowl teams for Bear Bryant at Alabama. "A truly great receiver," Bryant says of the speedster who has been clocked at 4.6 in the 40-yard dash. Bryant rates Homan and Ray Perkins, who played for Baltimore last season as a rookie, as the best receivers he has ever coached, and says Homan could become another Don Hutson. As a sophomore in 1965 Homan caught 10 passes for 298 yards and four touchdowns. As a junior it was 23 for 377 and five TD's. And as a senior he caught 54 for 820 and nine. Excluding the three bowls—Orange, Sugar and Cotton—the totals are 87 for 1495 and 18. "If he can touch it," says the Bear, "he can catch it." Hometown is Muscle Shoals, Alabama. Dennis married Jan. 21, 1968, to the former Charlotte Tomlinson of Jackson, Alabama.

HOWLEY, CHUCK

Linebacker

West Virginia

Ht: 6-2

Wt: 230

Born 6-28-36

10th year (D-1 for '58)

PRO: Perhaps the finest trade ever made by the Cowboys came back in 1961 when Howley came from the Bears for a second round draft choice. Howley had been a No. 1 pick by the Bears in 1958 after a brilliant athletic career at West Virginia. The defensive captain, Howley was All-Pro in 1965 and 1966 and has been in three straight Pro Bowls. He has outstanding (5.0) speed and super quickness. "Howley gives the Cowboys another cornerback at outside linebacker," says Green Bay's Bart Starr. His recognition is super. "You can't always tell how to decide if a play is a run or pass," says San Francisco coach Dick Nolan. "Howley can't either. He just does." Howley, an excellent open field tackler, does amazing things, like catching Leroy Kelly from behind and returning fumbles 97 yards for touchdowns. He is a former player representative for the Cowboys. He kicked off some for Cowboys in '67.

COLLEGE: Was a rarity of rarities—a five-sport letterman—at West Virginia, where as a junior in '56 he won letters in football, track, swimming, gymnastics and wrestling . . . Was a 10.1 sprinter in track

JOHNSON, MIKE

Ht: 5-11

Defensive Back

Born: 10-7-43

Kansas

3rd Year (FA for '66)

PRO: In his second year coming to the Cowboys as a free agent, Johnson suddenly inherited the right corner job. He had, like any new regular some problems, but finished strong with five interceptions and some much needed confidence. He showed something early, too. After game three with New York, Fran Tarkenton said: "They said work on Mike Johnson. In my opinion Johnson is first rate and fixin' to be one of the best in the league." The latter is hoped for this season. He has great recovery speed (4.7) and is one of the genuine "hitters" in the game, if anything too aggressive. A good learner, he should make it big with the complete season under his belt.

COLLEGE: Played with Gale Sayers at Kansas for Jack Mitchell . . . scored final two points to enable KU to defeat Oklahoma, 15-14 . . . tough two-way player in college.

PERSONAL: Born in Denver, Colo., but played high school ball at Garden City, Kan., and was much sought after prep . . . married to former Sharon Reed . . . majored in jewelry and design and dabbles in oil painting . . . have one son born this spring, Michael Allen. JORDAN, LEE ROY

Linebacker

Born: 4-27-41

PRO: Bear Bryant, whose privilege it was to coach Jordan at Alabama, always figured a ballcarrier lacked a certain amount of savvy when he ran at his prize linebacker. "I mean downtown, in the backyard or in your living room," Bear said. "Lee Roy takes it mighty personal when anybody comes at him with a football." That was college days. For three seasons with the Cowboys, Jordan played outside and while still the hitter, was not the player. But for the last two he's been in the middle, and calling signals. He has now established himself as a Pro as he did in college, and last year played in the Pro-Bowl. Jordan thrives on the freedom of middle-backer. A fierce competitor with 5.05 speed, Jordan has justified his No. 1 draft selection for 1963.

COLLEGE: Named nation's outstanding lineman his senior year at Alabama . . . capped All-America season by making 31 tackles vs. Oklahoma in '63 Orange Bowl . . . went on to College All-Star game . . . Bear Bryant called him the best linebacker he had ever coached.

LEWIS, D. D.

Linebacker

Born: 10-16-45

Mississippi State

First Year (D-6 for '68)

An NEA All-American and the Defensive Player of the Year in the Southeastern Conference, Lewis was third linebacker picked by the Cowboys in the first six rounds. The only reason he was still available is his height, which is just under 6—1. He has tremendous speed (4.9) and according to one scout: "Pound for pound, he might be the best player around." A three-year regular and two time all SEC player, Lewis was used to snap for punts. An education major, he was selected for Senior Bowl and Blue-Gray games. One of 14 children. Hometown is Knoxville, Tennessee.

LILLY, BOBDefensive Tackle*TCU*Ht: 6-5*Wt: 260*Born: 7-26-39*8th Year (D-1 for '61)

PRO: "Although he's been an outstanding tackle for a long time," Tom Landry says, "Bob Lilly does nothing but get better every year." Relying on super quickness for a big man and good upper body strength, Lilly has made All-Pro four straight years despite the victim of double and even triple teaming from blockers. Along with George Andrie, he forms the older, more experienced right side of the Dallas front four which must rank with the top two or three in the game. His philosophy came forth last year when explaining why it takes most younger players - like teammates Willie Townes and Jethro Pugh awhile to reach stardom. He and Andrie had helped the younger men learn technique and moves. "They got a lot of it down pretty good, but I think I know where we failed. We got so wrapped up working on our moves we forgot one important item. That is that your moves or nothing else are going to work until you run over a few people first. You've got to stomp your guys into the ground a few times to get their respect. Then the moves may work." It did as the younger players responded to Lilly's lead. All-Rookie after being drafted No. 1 in 1961 after great years as the "Purple Cloud" at TCU, Lilly started as an end. Against San Francisco two years ago, he leaped up to block a pass, caught it in the same motion and raced 17 yards for the touchdown. He has 5.3 speed, and is, in Landry's view the premier defensive tackle in the NFL.

COLLEGE: All-American tackle at TCU, where he was two-time all-SWC choice, with defense his specialty . . . played in College All-Star game . . . Abe Martin called him the best tackle he had coached . . . defensive range earned him "Purple Cloud" nickname at TCU.

PERSONAL: Born in Throckmorton, Texas, and lived there all his young life except as high school senior when the family moved to Pendleton, Oregon . . . Made all-state teams in both football (end) and basketball for Pendleton . . . married the former Katharine Waltman of Ft. Worth and they have three children - Bob, Jr., 5, Katharine, 4, Christianne, 3 years . . . lives in Dallas and works as insurance solicitor.

PRO: Liscio is special for at least two reasons—he weighed only a couple of ounces shy of 16 pounds at birth and he represents one of the few mistakes Vince Lombardi ever made. The Packers drafted him No. 3 in 1963, but he was immediately cut. The Cowboys picked him up and now have a valuable property. After the Cowboys converted him to offense he became a success in 1964, but he suffered an injury late in the season, then sat out the entire 1965 season as a jaundice condition and staph infection thwarted recovery. But in 1966 he was voted second to Dick Bass for the Comeback Award. Equally adept at tackle or guard, he was a regular tackle last season after being a regular guard in 1966. Recognized as outstanding pass blocker, he has regained most of 4.9 speed he had prior to his leg problems.

COLLEGE: A 3-year regular as two-way tackle at Tulsa, making All-Missouri Valley Conference last two years... team captain as senior... majored in industrial psychology... played under coaches Bobby and Glenn Dobbs... played at 6-5, 235.

PERSONAL: Born in Pittsburgh, Pa., where he was special star at Westinghouse High (All-East in football, all-city in basketball)... 5 brothers, one sister... married former Annette Nail of Shreveport and they have a boy, Tony, Jr. 4, and girl, Michelle 2... make their home in Dallas... PRO: In 1966 Manders, in only his second year as a regular, earned a berth in the Pro-Bowl. He seemed destined to go on from there in 1967. But in the second pre-season game in San Francisco, he tore up a knee. That was it for the year and surgery followed. Now, he's back and spring workouts indicated he would be as good as new. A good leader, his teammates have made him the new player representative. Dave is another free agent, signing with the Cowboys in 1962. He didn't stay, however, and played with Toledo of the United League in 1962 and 1963. He stuck in 1964, however, earning a regular job the next season. A good pass protection blocker, Manders has good quickness and 5.2 speed. "Manders' return should help us to regain the offensive form we had in 1966," Landry says.

COLLEGE: A top two-way lineman at Michigan State under Duffy Daugherty . . . played center and was named honorable mention All-America as senior.

PERSONAL: Native of Milwaukee, he was a schoolboy star at Kinsford, Michigan . . . Married the former Betty Ashenbrenner in '61 and has two children—Mark, 6 and Mike, 3 . . . lives in Dallas in off-season and is an agent for Phil Ross Real Estate.

Established a NAIA pass reception record as a junior when he caught 65 passes for 1,236 yards and seven TD's. As a senior he bagged 51 for 800 and two TD's. Frosh year was nine for 200 and soph season it was 34 for 496 and three. Big and fast . . . scouts figure he can carry 210 pounds and he's been clocked in 4.6 for the 40 . . . club president Tex Schramm figures McDaniels could hold the key to making this draft a "great one." "If he can be a good tight end, our 1968 draft will be a great one," Schramm said. Scout Red Hickey says McDaniels and Homan "are the kind who can break up a ball game from your own endzone." Born: 4-10-38

SMU

9th Year

PRO: "He has this charisma about him," Merlin Olsen was quoted in Life Magazine. "He's like Bobby Layne, a great player and leader, but an exciting person just to be around. Meredith to me is what I want—and what I expect—an NFL quarterback to be." "Dandy" earned this appraisal the hard way. After a great career as a collegian at SMU he served his apprenticeship on a shaky expansion ball club. And he did it while battling a list of injuries long enough to fill volumes. Finally, in 1966 he avoided injuries and the team matured. He had a terrific season and seemed ready to go from there in 1967. But it didn't work that way. In the second pre-season game he suffered severe rib injuries and from there on in there were problems. He missed all of three games—with rib injuries and subsequent pneumonia—and was sharp only on a handful of occasions. But now, armed with good health and a fresh three-year contract, he is ready to resume where he left off in 1966. Meredith flashed greatness as early as 1963, winning the starting job midway in that year. He has had it since, save a brief period in 1964. His maturity and experience, if injuries will leave him alone, could produce some outstanding seasons. For the record, he had shoulder separation in 1961, hand injury in 1962, knee-ankle-shoulder-stomach problems in 1964, and an arm injury in 1965. But he has played with courage. Once when he came off with dry heaves in Cleveland and went back in on the next play, Landry remarked: "I don't understand how Meredith can come back from something like that." Despite it all, he is controversial in Dallas and all are not always friendly in the Cotton Bowl. "I think," he says philosophically, "It's because I've played there so long. I'm part of the Cotton Bowl." He has played far more games there than any other player.

COLLEGE: A two-time All-America at SMU, he set an NCAA record for career accuracy by hitting 61 percent of his passes during his '57-58-59 stay as collegian... hit 241 of 395 attempts for 3,130 yards and 25 TDs... as a junior, was honored four times as UPI national back of week in his ten games... threw for All-Stars' only TD in '60 College All-Star Game... was signed to personal services contract by Cowboys before 1960 draft.

PERSONAL: Native of Mount Vernon, Texas, where he made all-state basketball and football teams as junior... broken leg hampered his senior season, but he was highly sought in both sports by colleges... he and wife Cheryl live in Dallas where he works in public relations for American Express... has one son, Michael Shayne, born Sept. 22, 1967.

4th Year (D-1 for '65)

PRO: With regular quarterback Don Meredith on the bench at Pittsburgh, Morton played an outstanding game and ultimately pulled it out with a big play. So what about next week a writer asked? "I'll be back on the bench," Morton said. "Meredith's the guy who leads this club—and he does a terrific job of it." No modesty here, but an honest and mature appraisal by a rapidly maturing quarterback. Morton who has it all to become an outstanding NFL quarterback, went into the third season as third string, but established himself as the No. 1 back-up man. And in so doing earned the respect and confidence of his teammates. A No. 1 draft selection who was wooed heavily by Al Davis and Oakland, Morton left his home Bay area partly because he wanted to play in the NFL. He has a terrific arm for the long ones, is an adequate scrambler and has size and strength.

COLLEGE: All-American QB at California in '64, Morton was three-year regular for Bears under Coaches Marv Levy and Ray Willsey . . . As senior, he hit 185 of 308 for 2,121 yards and 13 TDs . . . ranked second to Jerry Rhome in NCAA passing . . . spurned big baseball bonus to go pro football . . . played in All-Star game of '65.

PERSONAL: Raised in Campbell, Calif., where he developed into an all-state schoolboy in basketball, football and baseball . . . he was offered major college scholarships in all three sports . . . owns two bookstores—one at Berkeley—and a sporting goods company in California. Lives in Dallas in off-season, but spends considerable time on coast . . . A bachelor.

fensive end Willie Davis said: "Neely is the finest offensive tackle I've ever played against." That Neely arrived at stardom's peak in his second year was a must for both Neely and the club. Drafted second by Baltimore who swapped rights to Dallas for 1965, Neely became center of hassle with Houston. Ultimately, after game nine of the second season, it was settled, but the Cowboys had to surrender a first and second and two fifth round draft choices among other considerations. "If I had it to do over, I'd do the same thing." Tex Schramm said. "He had become the symbol of our offensive line." Neely's efforts earned him All-Pro honors as a sophomore. His progress subsided some last season when he played on injured knee for most of the season. Surgery, hopefully, has corrected the problems, and he'll be back at full speed (5.0). Neely has it all and the ability to operate out of an unusually low crouch.

PRO: Another No. 1 draft choice who merited the high appraisal. Niland, who had started four games as a rookie when Jim Boeke was injured, earned a regular berth in his sophomore season and it looks like he intends to keep it for a long time. Strong, agile and quick with 5.0 speed, Niland had been behind at outset after missing training camp as a rookie. Niland's emergence at guard allowed Tony Liscio to move to tackle where he is probably the most effective. "Niland is showing the promise on the field that we had for him all along," Landry says.

PRO: With the retirement of Frank Clarke, Norman is now the only established tight end on the club. He was the starter in 1964 and last season after sharing that role with Clarke in 1965 and 1966. A free agent from Johnson C. Smith, Norman stood out on the specialty teams for two seasons prior to earning a regular job in 1964. Norman caught 20 passes last year and coaches plan to increase that production this season. A banker now, Norman is presumably easier on people he loans money to than opponents. A full contact player, Landry says: "Pettis is one of the finest blocking tight ends I've seen." He has good speed (4.8) and explosiveness. He also runs well on the end around, which the Cowboys have used so effectively.

COLLEGE: A standout as end at little-known Johnson C. Smith, where he was also top student...in one '61 game, he caught 5 passes for 133 yards and two TDs and made 14 tackles...also clocked a 9.7 time in the 100 in track.

Running Back

New Mexico

Ht: 5-10

Wt: 204

8th Year

PRO: The pro's pro. In seven seasons in the league, Perkins has never missed being among the leading rushers. An injury kept Perkins out of action the first year the club was formed, but beginning in 1961 he has finished 6th, 5th, 10th, 5th, 7th, 8th and last year 6th. With 5,381 yards he ranks 7th on the all-time rushing charts and with an ordinary Perkins year can move past Rick Casares and Steve Van Buren into the fifth spot. Among actives he is second only to Jim Taylor of New Orleans. And Cowboys coaches say there is no better pass blocker in the league. "He never misses an assignment," says backfield coach Ermal Allen. "And he's picking up 225 pounds linebackers with a seven-yard running start. That takes explosiveness and guts." In addition he has fumbled once in two years and that was in 1966 when he fumbled at the goal line and partisan patrons are sure that should have been a touchdown. Relatively small, Perkins is probably the "fastest 4.8 man in football," using his explosiveness to great advantage. An all-pro in 1962, he has played in the Pro Bowl five times, including last year when he suffered some rib injuries. Every one of his 823 yards came inside last year. "What," marvels Landry, "can you say about a great player like Perk."

COLLEGE: Set 12 records as three-year halfback regular at New Mexico and three-year All-Skyline choice under Coach Marv Levy ... School retired his number (43) when he completed his career—a first in New Mexico history ... led nation in kickoff returns in '59 with 15 for 520 yards.

PRO: Dallas defensive line coach Ernie Stautner, who knows about such things, says the Cowboys have a lineman who could become better than Bob Lilly. "He'll get aroused one of these days, and then you'll see a great one," Ernie said of three-year man Jethro Pugh. Jethro, who had divided time with Jim Colvin as a sophomore, had the starting job all last season and on several occasions showed what Ernie was talking about. His height is a major asset, but he has 5.2 speed to go with good quickness and explosion. A quiet, serious, tough competitor, Pugh has had to battle back a case of ulcers. Running Back

4th Year (FA for '65)

PRO: Who would have believed four years ago that Dan Reeves would have a leg problem and "slump" to 603 yards as a running back in the NFL? Not many. Four years ago Reeves was a good college quarterback going nowhere. But the Cowboys took him as a free agent. He flunked as a defensive back and also as a receiver. Ultimately he got a look at running back. He succeeded primarily because he can make the big play. His size is fair as is his speed (4.7). His savvy is far above being just fair. "I think my quarterbacking background helped me," Dan says. "I learned all the assignments on every play so I know what everyone is going to do. It helps me set up blocks and I think that's my major asset as a runner. I can use a head fake to freeze a linebacker or a defensive back and give the blocker a chance to take him. It helps." Landry finds it difficult to compare Reeves with anyone in evaluating his success. "He reminds me of Doak Walker," Landry says. "He has the same ability to figure out what he'll have to be doing 30 yards down field. And he's a little like Paul Hornung, but he doesn't have Hornung's power." Reeves made the halfback pass a valuable weapon for the Cowboys, hitting four of seven for 195 yards in the regular season and throwing one for a TD in the NFL title game. Dan holds the club record for touchdowns, scoring four against Atlanta in one game.

COLLEGE: Second team All-ACC choice in 1962 and '64 as quarterback under Marvin Bass... Set 10 school offensive records and threw for 348 yards against Big Eight champ Nebraska in '64...

RENFRO, MEL

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 190

Defensive Back

Born: 12-30-41

Oregon

5th Year (D-2 for '64)

PRO: After a try on offense which was cut short by injuries in 1966, Mel returned to free safety in 1967 where he had made all-pro in 1965. His effectiveness can be conclusively illustrated by the fact he missed seven games and played a couple of others on a bad foot and still intercepted seven passes to share the club lead in that category with Cornell Green. "When Mel's in there," said 49'er coach Dick Nolan, "the opponent doesn't only have to worry about him getting the ball, they have to be very concerned with what he does with it when he gets it." Mel had set a goal of 10 interceptions and certainly should have a shot at it with good health. Surgery on his foot was a success, and he is expected to regain his 4.6 speed. But it could be that he will not be used on punt and kickoff returns as he has in the past because of the injury risk. In his career, Mel has scored five touchdowns returning kicks and pass interceptions. He has a 100-yard return against the 49'ers to his credit, that on an opening kickoff.

COLLEGE: One of the all-time performers at Oregon as an All-America halfback... also standout trackman with bests of 9.6 in 100, 13.8 in high hurdles and 25-11¼ in the broad jump... Played in '64 All-Star game after being drafted 2nd by Cowboys.

PERSONAL: Born in Houston, Texas, but grew up in Portland where he was a legendary schoolboy athlete—all-state halfback and versatile trackman who set state records in both hurdle races and broad jump... Married to former Patricia Burch of Portland and has two boys, Mel, Jr. 4½, Tony 3, and a girl Cindy, born March 14th of this Year... lives in Dallas and owns a music shop in Portland.

RENTZEL, LANCE

Ht: 6-2

Wt: 205

Flanker

Born: 10-14-43

Oklahoma

4th Year (D-2 for '65)

PRO: Going into the 1967 season, one of Tom Landry's primary goals was to increase the productivity of the flanker. He did, and then some, thanks a great deal to the off-season acquisition that spring of Rentzel from Minnesota for a third round pick. After two disappointing seasons as a rookie and sophomore with the Vikings, during which he was injured a great deal, Rentzel wasted no time in becoming an NFL star. He led the Cowboys in catches with 58 for 996 yards, two yards less than split end Bob Hayes. Had Hayes gotten two more yards and Rentzel four more it would have been the first time for an NFL team to have two 1,000-yard men. "Rentzel does not have Hayes' speed," says Packer Herb Adderly, "but he knows how to get open. He's probably improved 100 per cent since he came from the Vikings." Actually, he didn't play that much, being used mostly as a kick returner, which he did on punts for the Cowboys, too, after Renfro was injured. Rentzel set the club record with 13 catches for 223 yards against Washington. And he's working on his speed, which was 9.8 in college. He's been doing a series of toe-ups and wearing a pair of reversed wedge shoes which is practiced by the Indiana swimming team and is supposed to stretch the tendons. He once returned a kickoff 101 yards for the Vikings against Baltimore as a rookie.

COLLEGE: All-Big Eight halfback at Oklahoma . . . broke into college football in Cotton Bowl against Texas as sophomore . . . came off injured list too late and hitchhiked to game, suited up and caught two long passes . . . caught TD pass against Cleveland in All-Star game.

PERSONAL: An All-America high schooler at Casady in Oklahoma City where he grew up . . . born in Flushing, N.Y., he is making his home in Dallas . . . a bachelor . . . math major and an accomplished pianist and organist who has played professionally . . . Recording contract with Columbia Records, and pondering acting parts . . . has a younger brother at SMU.

RHOME, JERRY

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 185

Quarterback

Born: 3-6-42

Tulsa

4th Year (D-13 for '65)

PRO: Running third behind Don Meredith and Craig Morton, as Jerry did the bulk of the 1967 season, could demoralize some quarterbacks. But not Rhome. He has unshakable confidence which is just one of the reasons the Cowboys coaches believe will still allow him to be a valuable quarterback in the NFL. "He moves the team every time," says backfield coach Ermal Allen. "He makes things happen." Blessed with an outstanding football mind and solid fundamental knowledge of routes and defenses, Jerry went into the 1967 season listed ahead of Morton. But game situations provided Morton with the opportunity to assert himself when his turns came up. Thus, Rhome, will attempt to undo all of that in 1968. He saw little game duty last year except in one game where Landry used the shuttle system with Morton and Rhome. Asked during the off-season if he wanted to be traded, Rhome replied: "I hear a lot of guys around the league say they would like to play in Dallas. I'm in Dallas."

COLLEGE: Broke almost every passing record in NCAA book at Tulsa, where he led Hurricanes into first major Bowl (and upset of Ole Miss in Bluebonnet) in two decades . . . started career at SMU in native Dallas, transferred to Tulsa after leading SWC in passing as soph . . . in his fabled senior season at Tulsa, he hit 224 of 326 (68.7 percent) for 2,870 yards and 32 TDs . . . was hailed by Coach Glenn Dobbs as "one of the all-time greats."

PERSONAL: Native of Dallas where his father, Byron Rhome, coached him throughout high school . . . was named outstanding schoolboy player in state his senior year . . . married Regina Burnham of Tulsa in February '66.

Schmitz was picked up last year for linebacker insurance and taxied all season after being cut by Vikings midway in training camp. Injuries have blotted his career which began in Pittsburgh. He went to Minnesota in training camp of 1966 and taxied most of year, although he was activated and saw some action. He's married, has two children and lives in Pittsburgh where he's in the insurance business.

PRO: After showing signs of becoming the outstanding back-up man at halfback as a rookie in 1966, Shy suddenly found some competition for that post in Craig Baynham last season. That should continue to be a good race and Shy has displayed enough to make his future look promising. A good open field runner, Shy has good hands, size and speed (4.7). He carried the ball 17 times in each of his first two seasons, but last year was used some as a kickoff return man.

COLLEGE: Had outstanding collegiate career, rushing for 488 yards and seven TDs as senior despite being hobbled by injuries . . . picked up 354 and five TDs as junior . . . played for Don Reed, the team losing only three games in his two varsity seasons . . . honorable mention small college All-America.

PERSONAL: Born in Cleveland, Ohio . . . played his high school football at Ganesha High in Pomona, Calif. . . single . . . brother Don an outstanding hurdler and halfback, played for Pittsburgh last year . . . works for life insurance company in California.

Defensive End

Born: 9-24-38

Texas

9th Year (D-2 for '60)

PRO: Well traveled and seasoned pro. He came to Cowboys in trade for draft choice with Rams the week of the '63 season opener and was regular end for two seasons and has provided good back up ability since, although he was gone for a short time. Larry went to New Orleans in the expansion draft, but the Cowboys picked him up on waivers early in the 1967 season. He was drafted No. 2 by Cleveland and after two seasons went along with draft pick to Rams for quarterback Frank Ryan and halfback Tom Wilson. Good swing man.

COLLEGE: Played in two bowl games (Sugar in '58 and Cotton in '60) at Texas where his specialty was defensive tackle work—started his career as end, but was switched to tackle his soph season.

PERSONAL: Born in Buda, Texas, he developed as an athlete at Angleton where he was all-State end—married Jane Olson and was once Cowboys "Father of Year" with four children—Mark 9, Susan 7, Jeff 5 and Shannon 3...lives in Dallas during off-season and works as freight line representative.

Born: 4-18-44

Northern Arizona

2nd Year (D-6 for '67)

PRO: Drafted No. 6 for 1967, Stokes was given a look at defensive back, but ultimately was assigned receiving duties. Stokes was taxed and commuted to Oklahoma City where he played in Professional Football League of America and had a great season in the minors. After that season ended, he was activated briefly for specialty teams when Rayfield Wright was injured. He returned four kickoffs. Quick with 4.65 speed, he could earn a job somewhere.

COLLEGE: Stokes started school at Kansas where he held for a time the receiving record with nine catches for 139 yards. But he transferred to Northern Arizona for final season and caught 37 passes. He twice returned kickoffs for 96 yards and led the nation with 37.6 average for 13 returns.

PERSONAL: Sims is single and lives in Dallas during the off-season.

Defensive End

Born: 7-21-43

Tulsa

3rd Year (D-2 for '66)

PRO: A starter for the last seven games as rookie and all but one last year in his sophomore year, Townes has shown flashes of excellence but has yet to reach the level of consistency sought by coach Ernie Stautner. It was Willie who helped wrest the ball from Bart Starr so George Andrie could pick it up and run in for the TD in the NFL title game. Willie was involved in a similar situation which his teammates enjoy riding him about. He picked up a fumble at Baltimore and headed goalward only to be tackled by Johnny Unitas. "That was the only tackle Unitas has made in 12 years in the league," says Jethro Pugh. Townes, who has had weight problems in the past, is going to camp in the best shape of his career and with maturity could help make Cowboys front four finest in NFL. He has unlimited potential with exceptional quickness and good speed. A crowd favorite, Willie bypassed senior season after being drafted No. 2 as a future in 1966.

COLLEGE: All-American and two-time Missouri Valley All-Conference choice . . . outstanding lineman in Bluebonnet Bowl against Mississippi as a sophomore . . . enrolled originally at Indiana, but transferred to Tulsa after freshman season.

PERSONAL: One of 10 children (seven sisters and two brothers), grew up in Hattiesburg, Miss. . . . prep whiz at end, tackle and full-back, playing at 6-3 and 220 . . . worked hurdles and weights in track and averaged 14 points per game in basketball . . . This was still off his first year with the club when he averaged 41.8. Villanueva came to the Cowboys in a trade for Tommy McDonald. He roomed with Jim Boeke when both were Rams rookies.

COLLEGE: Undrafted, but attracted attention of Los Angeles Rams by hitting seven of eight field goal tries at New Mexico State, including a 47-yarder.

PERSONAL: The 10th of 12 children, Villanueva was born in Tucumcari, New Mex. A brother, Primo, was star tailback at UCLA. Danny and his wife Myrna have two sons and live in L. A. during off-season. He is Youth Director for Southern California Ford Dealers, is sports director for KMEX-TV (Spanish-speaking) and was recently appointed by former Gov. Pat Brown to State Recreation Commission.

Rice

3rd Year (D-2 for '65)

PRO: Although drafted in 1965 (No. 2), Malcolm is just coming into his own due to injuries. He was hurt while practicing for All-Star game in Chicago and missed all of rookie season after surgery. Still not sound, he didn't make debut until latter part of 1966 on specialty teams. Last year he saw limited duty, but did begin to regain some of the speed he had when in college. Smart, with good football instincts, Malcolm moves into delayed, but critical third season.

COLLEGE: One of all-time great linemen at Rice where he was three-year two-way regular . . . twice all-Southwest Conference . . . made all-Academic team as math major.

PERSONAL: Dallas native, he was a much-sought schoolboy player at South Oak Cliff, where he also played basketball . . . was All-City in both . . . lives in Dallas during off-season, working as real estate salesman . . . married May Jo Holder of Houston.

Widby was drafted by New Orleans, but the Cowboys picked him up early in season and taxed him. He commuted to Oklahoma City and punted there in minor league. An outstanding basketball player for Tennessee, he led the nation in punting as a senior with a 43.8 yard average on 48 kicks.

During the off-seasons plays pro basketball for New Orleans.

WILBUR, JOHN

Ht: 6-4

Wt: 251

3rd Year (FA for '66)

PRO: Agressive competitor who uses 5.0 speed and eager toughness to great advantage on specialty teams, Wilbur has seen little playing duty in first two seasons. His most playing time came during the final 10 games of rookie season when he filled in some for injured Jim Boeke. He was originally drafted by Kansas City as a future, was released and signed with Cowboys as a free agent.

COLLEGE: Was two-year regular for Stanford . . . as junior in 1963, made 13 tackles playing defensive end against Notre Dame on national TV . . . also played rugby and wrestled.

PERSONAL: Married Carole Halsey, Jan., 1967 . . . lives in Los Angeles (his hometown) during off-season, while attending graduate school at UCLA.

WRIGHT, RAYFIELD

Ht: 6-7

Wt: 238

End

Born: 8-23-45

Ft. Valley (Ga.)

2nd Year (D-7 for '67)

PRO: Wright went into camp in 1967 with a great potential tag, but an uncertainty as to where his best talents might be. Ultimately it was decided he made too good a target not to be a tight end. This was his station in 1966 although he saw little duty other than on specialty teams. Now, with Frank Clarke retired, he represents the back-up man for Pettis Norman. He has good agility and excellent speed (4.9).

COLLEGE: From Ft. Valley State in Georgia, "Big Tom" was all-Conference football and basketball player as well as track man. He logged 50 flat quarter.

PERSONAL: From Griffin, Georgia, Wright now makes his home in Dallas and was married this summer to long-time sweetheart, Andrea Joyce Lampkin on June 9th in Atlanta.

NFL Has New Look

The NFL's divisional set-up will continue in 1968, but the Cowboys will have one variation in the home-and-home schedules. New Orleans moves into the Century division and New York moves in with Dallas, Philadelphia and Washington in the Capitol. The Giants will, however, be meeting the Coastal division teams instead of the Central teams like the rest of the Capitol teams.

East		West
Capitol	Century	Central	Coastal
Dallas	Cleveland	Chicago	Atlanta
New York	New Orleans	Detroit	Baltimore
Philadelphia	Pittsburgh	Green Bay	Los Angeles
Washington	St. Louis	Minnesota	San Francisco

1965—Tucker Frederickson, hb, Auburn, New York
1966—Tom Nobis, lb, Texas, Atlanta
1967—Bubba Smith, t, Michigan State, Baltimore
1968—Ron Yary, t, USC, Minnesota

Historical Highlights

- 1960: NFL FRANCHISE — Clint Murchison, Jr., and Bedford Wynne were awarded an expansion franchise in the NFL at the annual league meeting in Miami Beach, Fla. The Cowboys were to play as a "swing" team, playing every other team one time during their first season, although listed in the Western Conference standings (January 28).
- COWBOYS STOCKED — A player pool was set up in a league meeting at L.A., with each of 12 NFL teams freezing 25 names on its roster and the Cowboys allowed to pick three from each team for a total of 36 veterans. Dallas, once given the list, had to select its 36 players within 24 hours (March 13).
- TRAINING STARTS — Rookies report to first Cowboys camp at Pacific U., in Forest Grove, Oregon (July 9).
- FIRST PRE-SEASON GAME — The Cowboys, less than six months in existence, get their first test and drop a 10-16 pre-season game to San Francisco in Seattle (August 6).
- FIRST HOME GAME — In their Dallas debut, in the Salesmanship Club pre-season game, the Cowboys led the World Champion Baltimore Colts into the final minute before a 71-yard pass from Johnny Unitas to Lenny Moore gave the Colts a 14-10 victory (August 19).
- FIRST VICTORY — In a pre-season game at Louisville, Ky., the Cowboys beat New York's Giants, 14-3, with Frank Clarke catching touchdown passes of 73 yards (Eddie LeBaron) and 74 yards (Don Meredith). (August 27).
- FIRST LEAGUE GAME — In their first league game, Dallas fell to Pittsburgh, 35-28, with Bobby Layne leading a fourth period Steeler rally (Sept. 24, Saturday night).
- STREAK SNAPPED — Dallas snaps a 10-game loss streak by tying New York, 31-31, at Yankee Stadium (Dec. 4).
- 1961: TRAINING STARTS — Rookies launch training at new campsite — St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn. (July 9).
- FIRST LEAGUE WIN — Scoring ten points in the final 56 seconds, the Cowboys score their first NFL victory, 27-24, over Pittsburgh in the '61 league opener in the Cotton Bowl. Allen Green's 27-yard field goal on the game's final play won it before 23,500 (Sept. 17).
- 1962: TRAINING STARTS — Team begins training at new campsite — Northern Michigan College in Marquette, Mich. (July 13).
- PENALTY HISTORY — For the first time in anyone's memory in an NFL game, points were awarded for a penalty. The Cowboys were detected holding in the end zone on a 99-TD pass from LeBaron to Clarke, and Pittsburgh was awarded a safety. The Steelers eventually won, 30-28 (Sept. 23).

- 100-YARD FIRSTS—Cowboys Amos Marsh returned a kickoff 101 yards and Mike Gaechter returned a pass interception 100 yards, both plays for fourth quarter TD's in a 41-19 win over Philadelphia in Dallas. It was the first time in NFL history that two 100-yard runs had been made in the same game, much less by the same team in the same quarter (Oct. 14).
- 1963: SHIFT TO KANSAS CITY—The rival Dallas Texans of the AFL announce they are moving the franchise to Kansas City (Feb. 8).
- CALIFORNIA TRAINING SITE—The Cowboys open training at California Lutheran College in Thousand Oaks, Calif. (July 12).
- HOWTON SETS RECORD—Bill Howton broke Don Hutson's all-time receiving mark with a 14-yard catch against Washington (there). Hutson's record was 7,991 yards and the catch gave Howton an even 8,000 yards. (Sept. 29).
- ANOTHER HOWTON MARK—Howton breaks another Hutson mark by catching his 490th NFL pass, against NY in Yankee Stadium (Oct. 20). Howton went on to stretch his career total to 503 for 8,459 yards during 1963, then retired.
- 1964: LANDRY CONTRACT—With one year to go on his original contract, Tom Landry is signed to a ten-year extension, in effect giving him an 11-year pact, possibly the longest in major pro sports history (Feb. 5).
- 1965: NEELY AWARDED TO COWBOYS—A U.S. District Court Judge ruled the contract of Oklahoma tackle Ralph Neely with Houston invalid. Neely had signed with Houston before the Gator Bowl game; Dallas signed Neely on Jan. 1 (June 22).
- FIRST SELLOUT—An overflow crowd of 76,251 jams the Cotton Bowl for the Cleveland game, notching the team's first home sellout. Cleveland won, 24-17 (Nov. 21).
- 1966: PLAYOFF BOWL—After defeating New York, 38-20, in the season finale (and winning five of their last seven games) to get into the Playoff Bowl at Miami, the Cowboys fall to Baltimore, 35-3 (Jan. 15).
- NEELY DECISION REVERSED—U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Denver reverses District Court decision, awards tackle Ralph Neely to Houston (May 18).
- MERGER—Peace comes to pro football with Cowboys GM Tex Schramm completing two months of negotiations with AFL's Lamar Hunt, resulting in merger of the two leagues under the NFL banner (June 8).
- SCHRAMM ELEVATED—Texas E. Schramm, Vice-President and General Manager of the Cowboys from the beginning, was named President of the club by owner Clint Murchison, Jr., who retained the title of Chairman of the Board.
- NEELY CASE SOLVED—Dallas and Houston reached agreement in the Ralph Neely case. Neely remained with Dallas with Houston receiving the Cowboys Nos. 1, 2 and two fifth place picks in the 1967 draft. (Nov. 17).

THE CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys won their first championship, capturing the Eastern Conference title with a 10-3-1 record, but lost the NFL Championship Game to Green Bay, 34-27.

1967: TEXAS STADIUM — On Dec. 23, owner Clint Murchison Jr. formally announced plans to build Texas Stadium in suburban Irving. The stadium, to be financed through a bond-option plan, would be ready for the 1970 season. The stadium would seat a minimum of 58,000.

SECOND CHAMPIONSHIP — Under the NFL's new format, the Cowboys easily won the Capitol Division and defeated Cleveland, Century Division winner, 52-14, in the Cotton Bowl for the Eastern conference championship. However, on Dec. 31 in Green Bay, the Cowboys lost their second bid for an NFL title, falling to the Packers, 21-17, in the 13 degree below weather.

How The Cowboys Were Built

NOTE: There were 42 players active with the Cowboys last season; this is a look at how these 42 were acquired.

FROM THE NFL VETERANS POOL (Each of 12 NFL teams offered 11 players to the Cowboys from among their 36-man rosters; Dallas picked three players from each team for a total of 36):

Jerry Tubbs (LB 49ers); Frank Clarke (OE, Cleveland).

FROM THE DRAFT:

†1960—Don Perkins (HB, New Mexico); Don Meredith (QB, SMU)

1961—Bob Lilly (1st, TCU).

1962—George Andrie (6th, Marquette); *Harold Hays (14th, Miss. Southern).

1963—Lee Roy Jordan (1st, Ala.).

1964—Mel Renfro (2nd, Oregon); *Bob Hayes (7th, Fla. A&M); *Jerry Rhome (13th, Tulsa).

1965—Craig Morton (1st Calif.); Jethro Pugh (11th, Eliz. City St.). Malcolm Walker (2nd Rice)

1966—Walt Garrison (6th, Oklahoma State); Les Shy (12th Long Beach St.); *Willie Townes (2nd, Tulsa); John Niland (1st, Iowa).

1967—Craig Baynham (12th, Georgia Tech); Phil Clark (3rd, Northwestern); Sims Stokes (6th, Northern Arizona); Rayfield Wright (7th, Ft. Valley State); Harold Deters (12th, No. Carolina St.).

SIGNED AS FREE AGENTS:

1962—Mike Gachter (Oregon); Cornell Green (Utah St.); Pettis Norman (Jno. C. Smith);

1963—Dave Edwards (Auburn);

1964—Pete Gent (Mich. St.)

1965—Dan Reeves (South Carolina);

1966—John Wilbur (Stanford); Mike Johnson (Kansas); Dick Daniels (Pacific-Ore.).

1967—Ron East (Montana State).

OBTAINED IN TRADES:

1961—Chuck Howley (LB, Bears);

1962—None

1963—Tony Liscio (OT, Green Bay)

1964—Jim Boeke (OT, Rams);

1965—Ralph Neely (OT, Baltimore); Danny Villanueva (K, Rams); Leon Donohue (G, 49ers).

1967—Lance Rentzel (FL, Vikings); Larry Stephens (DE, Saints).

PICKED UP ON WAIVERS:

1960—Mike Connelly (Sept., Rams).

*—Drafted as a future.

†—Dallas did not participate in the 1960 draft, but signed Perkins and Meredith to personal service contracts; they were later drafted by NFL teams and Dallas, traded for their rights).

Cowboys Title Hopes In Deep Freeze Again

If there is any truth to the rumor that things go better the third time around, certainly the Dallas Cowboys will be most happy to confirm it.

For the second straight time, only under somewhat different conditions, the Green Bay Packers denied by the narrowest of margins the Cowboys of their first National Football League Championship.

Unlike the year before when the Cowboys were driving for a tie only to be thwarted at the two, this time Dallas had the game in its grasp until the final 13 seconds when Packers quarterback Bart Starr sneaked over right guard for a touchdown.

Another thing was different, too, and that was the weather. It was 20 below when Starr scored that touchdown and it had been only seven degrees warmer when the game started. This contrasted with what had been a relatively warm 18 above when the Cowboys worked out on the preceding Saturday morning.

But as cold as it was at the beginning of the game, it got colder for Dallas in a hurry. Green Bay struck for 82 yards and a touchdown on its first possession, Starr passing the final eight yards to Boyd Dowler and Don Chandler kicking the extra point. With only 8:50 gone Green Bay was in command.

The Packers, enroute to a third straight NFL championship, were not through. Just 2:41 deep into the second quarter, Starr again found Dowler, this time for a 43-yard touchdown. Chandler again converted.

The Dallas offense was unable to mount any kind of a drive in the first half, but the Cowboys suddenly got back into the picture when the defense earned a touchdown.

Green Bay had possession on its 26. Starr went back to pass, but was swarmed by George Andrie and Willie Townes. Townes knocked the ball loose from Starr and Andrie picked it up, going seven yards for the touchdown. Danny Villanueva kicked the extra point with 10:56 to play.

Dallas got another break moments before the half ended when Phil Clark recovered a fumbled punt at the Green Bay 17. Dallas could not muster a first down, but Villanueva kicked a 21-yard field goal and the Cowboys trailed only 14-10.

Dallas had the best drive of the third period, moving from its 11 to the Packer 22, only to fumble.

Then on the first play of the final quarter, Dan Reeves threw the halfback pass to Lance Rentzel for a 50-yard scoring play. When Villanueva converted there was only eight seconds shy of a full period to play.

But the scoring held until Green Bay got possession with 4:50 left and on its 32-yard line.

Using primarily passes into the flat, the Packers drove to the touchdown in 13 plays and the Cowboys were again denied.

It was the coldest championship game ever played and a couple of frost bite cases were reported. Green Bay's ground heating system failed it was so cold and the field was frozen in the second half. But . . .

"The field was not too cold," said Cowboys owner Clint Murchison, Jr., "if you win."

Cowboys Blitz Cleveland In Eastern Playoff

The Cowboys enjoyed the first year of the four-divisional set up in the National League as it afforded them with an opportunity to unveil their finest day of the season.

After wrapping up the Capitol Division handily, the Cowboys blitzed Cleveland, winner of the Century Division, 52-14, in the Cotton Bowl.

Quarterback Don Meredith, having discarded his mask to protect a broken nose, threw only 12 times, but hit 10 of them, including touchdown tosses to Bob Hayes and Craig Baynham.

Baynham, playing a large part of the day for Dan Reeves, scored three times.
