THE MANAGEMENT

MURCHISON/SCHRAMM

The year 1974 marks the 15th season for the Dallas Cowboys and their 15th season under the direction of Board Chairman Clint W. Murchison Jr. and President-General Manager Texas E. Schramm.

Murchison was awarded the expansion franchise in January of 1960. He named Schramm as General Manager, Tom Landry as Head Coach and Gil Brandt to direct the scouting operation. The Cowboys introduced a new era in Dallas sports whose high-water mark thus far was the World Championship earned at Super Bowl VI.

Schramm controls the day-to-day operations of the club. He was named President in 1966, retaining the title of General Manager.

Working closely with Schramm are Brandt, Vice President for Personnel Development, and Al Ward, Vice President for Administration. Ward joined the Cowboys as Public Relations Director in 1966 and became assistant general manager the next year. Both Brandt and Ward were named vice presidents following the 1970 season.

Schramm holds a BA degree in Journalism from the University of Texas, acquired between 1939 and 1947 with time out for a four-year hitch in the Air Transport Command where he made Captain.

While still in school, Schramm was a member of the sports staff of the Austin American Statesman and later was sports editor of that paper.

In 1947 he joined the Los Angeles Rams as publicity director, and in a 10-year career there rose to general manager.

Schramm left the Rams in 1957 to join CBS as Assistant Director of Sports and was there until coming to the Cowboys.

One of Schramm's major assets has been his ability as a sound judge of men. For instance, he brought Pete Rozelle into pro football as publicity man for the Rams.

Aside from the development of the Cowboys, Schramm's foremost achievements have been his work with scouting systems, both with the Rams and Cowboys, and the merger of the AFL and NFL.

Schramm and Lamar Hunt, owner of the Kansas City Chiefs, were the driving forces in the merger.

THE COACH
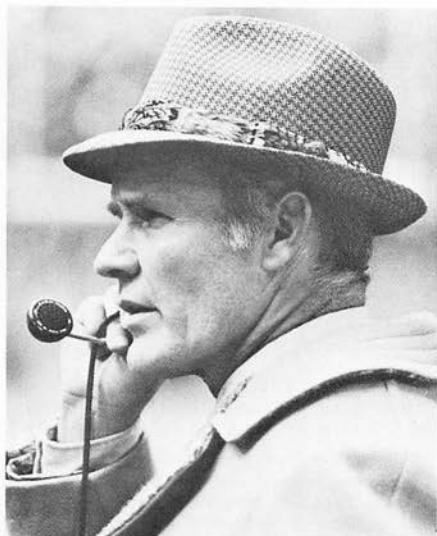

Imagine San Francisco without the Golden Gate Bridge, New Orleans without Bourbon Street, Philadelphia without the Liberty Bell.

Do that, and you can imagine the Dallas Cowboys without Tom Landry.

Landry came to Dallas with the franchise in 1960. He was on the sidelines in his familiar fedora when the team went an entire season without winning a game. He was there when the Cowboys lost on the ice at Green Bay. He was there when they won the Super Bowl, and he is there today.

The man's record becomes more impressive by the year. Heading into the 1974 season Landry's Cowboys had won 108 games, lost 80 and tied six. Only nine other coaches in the history of professional football had won as many as 100 games.

And, the Cowboys didn't have a winning season until 1966. Beginning with that campaign the Landry-Dallas record is 83-27-2, best in the NFL.

Eight straight playoff appearances (1966-1973) constitute a record never equalled. Six straight years of 10 or more victories ('68-'73), likewise.

Through it all, Tom Landry has been there. When he and the team posted win No. 100 last year, Tom was asked about it.

"When you think back, really, what you're saying is that you've been able to have longevity in professional football," he said. "This is an accomplishment in itself.

"In our field it's very hard for head coaches to go from ex-head coach to head coach like baseball or even college football.

"There seems to be a stigma that goes with non-success. A lot of good head coaching potential is destroyed in poor situations. They couldn't display their talents and never came back again.

"So this, to me, is the significance of the 100 victories. That I've been able to stay as head man that long. I've been fortunate in working for good management."

The words were modest, but sincere. Landry is proud of his "flex" defense and multiple offense, of course, but he's probably proudest of the fact that he will be able to leave his mark on the game in a way anyone can understand — winning.

And winning, of course, is what Tom Landry is all about. Here are a few things he has to say on the subject:

"The world doesn't stop when you lose. You must think about the good things that have happened to you. You must look ahead. The only way a person can really become strong is to have setbacks."

And:

"I don't believe in winning at all cost, if that means cheating or doing things that are bad. But if you think winning is not too important, then you are not willing to pay the price to win."

And, finally:

"This game is played with the heart. You don't have to drink or swear or hit people in the face when they're not looking, but you do have to be tough to win.

"When you take on the Cowboy team today, you won't find them too easy. They'll hit you."

And when they do, Tom Landry will be there.

* * * * * * *

Tom was born in Mission, Tex., on Sept. 11, 1924. He was an All-Regional fullback at Mission High before enrolling at the University of Texas.

After one semester at Texas, Landry went into the Air Corps and flew 30 B-17 missions over Germany with the Eighth Air Force.

Following his discharge as a 1st Lieutenant in November of 1945, Tom returned to Texas where he earned All-Southwest Conference honors as a junior and co-captained the Longhorns as a senior. Those Texas teams defeated Alabama in the 1948 Sugar Bowl and Georgia in the 1949 Orange Bowl.

Landry joined the old New York Yankees of the All-America Conference in 1949, moving to the Giants in 1950. He was a mainstay in the Giants' defensive backfield through 1955, the last two years as player-coach. He was All-Pro in 1954.

Retiring as a player following the 1955 season, Tom was the Giants' defensive coach through 1959. Giants Head Coach Jim Lee Howell called him "the best defensive coach in the business."

Tom and his wife Alicia, whom he met at Texas, have three children — Tom Jr., 24; Kitty, 21, and Lisa, 16.

Tom devotes much of his spare time to the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and is serving as chairman of the Board of Trustees of the National FCA. He also has served as chairman of the State American Cancer Society, and is area chairman for the All-American Roundup of the Boy Scouts of America.

The coach has received honorary degrees from California Lutheran College (Doctor of Humane Letters), John Brown University (Doctor of Humanities) and Southwest Baptist College (Doctor of Laws).

THE STAFF

ERMAL ALLEN, Special Assistant

Allen is the "inside man" on the Dallas coaching staff, heading the Cowboys' Research and Development Department in its study and evaluation of all players and teams in the NFL.

Ermal quarterbacked the University of Kentucky from 1939 through 1941 and played on the Fort Benning and Army All-Star teams during World War II. After the war he spent one year in the old All-America Conference as a Cleveland Browns defensive back in 1947.

Allen returned to his alma mater in 1948 and remained there as an assistant coach for 14 years under Paul Bryant ('48-'53) and Blanton Collier ('54-'61). He joined the Cowboys in 1962 and, along with Offensive Coordinator Jim Myers, is a senior member of Tom Landry's staff.

Ermal, born on Christmas Day, 1920, is the best golfer in the Cowboys organization. He is a two-time Kentucky Amateur champion, defeating Bobby Nichols in 1955 and Frank Beard in 1958.

Ermal and his wife Allie have a son, two daughters and five grandchildren.

MIKE DITKA, Receivers

Ditka joined the Cowboys staff in 1973 after 12 years in the NFL, the last four of them with Dallas.

Everybody's All-America at the University of Pittsburgh, Mike became the prototype of the modern tight end after the Chicago Bears drafted him No. 1 in 1961. His career totals show 427 receptions for 5,913 yards and 43 touchdowns.

The Aliquippa, Pa., native (10/18/39) always was noted for his aggressiveness on the field, and he admits that attitude carries over into his coaching.

Mike has three sons and a daughter.

ED HUGHES, Offensive Backfield

When Tom Landry named Hughes offensive backfield coach in 1973, it marked a reunion for the two. Landry coached Hughes from 1956 through 1958 when Ed played cornerback for the New York Giants.

Hughes is the most experienced pro coach on Landry's staff. He was with the Dallas Texans (1960-62), the Denver Broncos (1963), the Washington Redskins (1964-67) and the San Francisco 49ers (1968-70) before becoming head coach of the Houston Oilers for the 1971 season. He was with the St. Louis Cardinals in '72.

Ed played offensive and defensive halfback at Tulsa and was drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in 1954. He spent two seasons with the Rams before moving to the Giants.

A native of Buffalo, N. Y. (10/23/27), Ed and his wife Nancy have four daughters and a son.

JIM MYERS, Offensive Coordinator

Jim is in his 13th season with the Cowboys, joining Tom Landry's staff in 1962 after head coaching stints at Iowa State and Texas A&M.

Concentrating on the offensive line, Myers' tutelage has paid off in All-Pro recognition for tackles Rayfield Wright and Ralph Neely and guards John Niland and Blaine Nye. Center Dave Manders, the other veteran member of the Cowboys' forward wall, has played in the Pro Bowl.

Myers is a native of Madison, W. Va. (11/12/21), who was a standout lineman at Tennessee in 1941-42 and at Duke in the Marine V-12 program in 1943.

Jim was an assistant coach at Wofford College, Vanderbilt and UCLA before becoming a head coach. He and his wife Carolyn have three daughters and four grandchildren.

DAN REEVES, Special Teams

After a year in private business in Dallas, Dan returns to the organization where he was a talented and popular mainstay for eight years.

Reeves was a Cowboy running back for seven seasons (1965-71) and, despite a series of knee injuries, rose to the fifth spot among all-time Dallas rushing leaders. He was a player-coach in '70 and '71 and coached the offensive backfield in 1972.

Dan is a native of Rome, Ga., (1/19/44) who quarterbacked South Carolina for three years. He signed with the Cowboys as a free agent in 1965.

Dan and his wife Pam have two daughters and a son.

ALVIN ROY, Strength Coach

Alvin joined the staff in 1973 after earlier stints with the San Diego Chargers and Kansas City Chiefs. The Cowboys feel it is no coincidence that while following Roy's conditioning program they outscored opponents 201-92 in the second half and 122-59 in the fourth quarter in 1973.

Alvin trained or managed several weightlifting teams in international competition, including the American team which won the 1952 Olympics in Helsinki.

| REEVES | ROY | STALLINGS | STAUTNER | TUBBS |

A native of Baton Rouge, La., (4/20/20), Roy owns a health studio there and has had 2 TV shows on an NBC outlet for 14 years. He has two daughters, Astrid and Jo Ann.

GENE STALLINGS, Defensive Backfield

Gene returns to full-time duty as defensive backfield coach in '74 after doubling as coach of the special teams for the last half of the '73 season. His work with the special teams was credited with giving the Cowboys the boost they needed to reach the playoffs.

Stallings, in his third year with the club, is a Paris, Tex., native (3/2/35) who spent seven years as head coach at Texas A&M.

He was an All-Southwest Conference end at A&M under Paul Bryant and was a tri-captain on Bryant's undefeated 1956 team. After one season as student assistant at A&M, Gene moved with Bryant to Alabama and was assistant head coach there when the chance came to return to his alma mater in 1965.

Gene and his wife Ruth Ann have four daughters and a son.

ERNIE STAUTNER, Defensive Coordinator

Since Ernie joined the Dallas staff in 1966, the Cowboys have led their league or conference in rushing defense six out of eight years. The "Doomsday Defense" began to assert itself almost from the day Stautner arrived on the scene.

A star defensive tackle with the Pittsburgh Steelers for 15 years, despite being "only" 6-0 and 235 pounds, Ernie was voted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame immediately upon becoming eligible in 1970. He played in nine Pro Bowl games.

Ernie is a native of Calm, Bavaria (4/2/25), who grew up in Albany, N. Y. After serving in the Marine Corps from 1943 through 1946 he was a football star at Boston College.

Ernie and his wife Helen have a son and two daughters.

JERRY TUBBS, Linebackers

Jerry is the only "original" Cowboy player still with the organization. He came to the club in 1960 as a middle linebacker and played in Dallas for eight years before joining the coaching staff in 1968.

Born in Breckenridge, Tex., on Jan. 23, 1935, Jerry was an All-

America center-linebacker for the 1954-56 Oklahoma teams that never lost a game. He received the Walter Camp Award as the nation's outstanding player in '56.

Jerry was the No. 1 draft choice of the Chicago Cardinals in 1957 and also played for the San Francisco 49ers before settling in Dallas in '60.

Jerry and his wife Marlene have a son and a daughter.

DICK MANSPERGER, Player Personnel Director

Mansperger is in his fourth season as director of the Cowboys' far-flung scouting operations and in his ninth year with the club.

Dick, 41, graduated from Arizona State in 1958. He played for Dan Devine, now coach of the Green Bay Packers. Mansperger was head coach for two years at Palo Verde Junior College in Blythe, Calif., moving on to assistant coaching jobs at West Texas, Arizona State, UCLA and Iowa.

He joined the Cowboys as a scout in 1966.

DON COCHREN, Trainer

Don is in his tenth season with the Cowboys, joining the club in 1965 after experience in college, military and Canadian football training.

A graduate of Purdue, Don earned his physical therapy certificate at Pennsylvania. The 42-year-old Cochren spent two years as trainer at Case Institute in Cleveland, four years with the Toronto Argonauts and two years as a physical therapy officer in the Air Force.

Don and his wife Imogene have three daughters and two sons.

KEN LOCKER, Assistant Trainer

Ken is in his second season as assistant trainer after serving from 1969 through 1972 in the North Texas State University athletic department.

Ken, 22, was an assistant trainer at North Texas and also put in some time as interim head trainer when the Eagles' Skip Cox left to become Baylor's trainer. During the past off-season he was athletic trainer at Texas Women's University in Denton.

BUCK BUCHANAN, Equipment Manager

Buchanan joined the Cowboys in 1973 after 20 years in the Air Force, with most of that time spent supervising and maintaining military athletic programs.

For four years, SMSgt. Buchanan was Non-Commissioned Officer in Charge of Athletics and Programs at the U. S. Air Force Academy Prep School in Colorado Springs. He was awarded the Bronze Star for his performance during a 1968-69 tour of duty in Thailand.

Buck, 41, and his wife Geraldine have a son and daughter.

Jim Arneson • 64

GUARD • ARIZONA • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 250 • BORN: 1/7/51 • (D-12 FOR '73)

PRO: Arneson played in 12 games in 1973, most of them on the special teams as he saw little action on offense because of the veteran Cowboys line. As with all rookies in that situation, 1974 was to be a critical year for Jim. He aided his own cause by gaining 14 pounds, to 250, with diligent work in the club's weight training program.

COLLEGE: Jim was an All-Conference selection at Arizona, where his older brother Mark, now with the St. Louis Cardinals, was an All-America linebacker.

PERSONAL: A native of Iowa City, Iowa, Jim and his wife Terry live in Dallas.

John Babinecz • 53

LINEBACKER • VILLANOVA • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 222 • BORN: 7/27/50 • (D-2 FOR '72)

PRO: Babinecz backed up both Dave Edwards and D. D. Lewis at the outside linebacker spots in '73, and again performed well on the special teams. A broken hand suffered just before the pre-season schedule opened hampered John's development early in the year at a time when coaches felt he was making rapid progress. "John's aggressive," says Linebackers Coach Jerry Tubbs, "a great competitor."

COLLEGE: A middle linebacker at Villanova, Babinecz lettered three years at the Philadelphia school.

PERSONAL: John and his wife Valerie live in Dallas, where for the past two years he has worked with orthopedically handicapped children at William B. Carrell Elementary School. He first became interested in helping handicapped youngsters while still a student at Villanova. John is a native of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Benny Barnes • 31

CORNERBACK • STANFORD • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 190 • BORN: 3/3/51 • (FA FOR '72)

PRO: Barnes, signed as a free agent in 1972, continued to improve steadily in '73 and reached the point where Coach Tom Landry said he believed Benny "could perform very well" as a starting cornerback. Specialty teams were where Barnes stood out in '73, twice tackling opponents in the end zone for safeties. He also intercepted a pass. "Specialty teams are a third of the game," he said last year, "offense, defense and us. We work hard at it because one play from the specialty teams can turn the game around. Everyone is trying to do his best."

COLLEGE: Benny started 24 consecutive games at Stanford and played on two Rose Bowl winners for Coach John Ralston, now with the Denver Broncos. Barnes was an All-Coast selection at free safety.

PERSONAL: Benny and his wife Joyce live in Milpitas, Calif. He is a native of Lufkin, Tex.

Rodrigo Barnes • 56

LINEBACKER • RICE • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 215 • BORN: 2/10/50 • (D-7 FOR '73)

PRO: Barnes went into his rookie season as something of a question mark because of a college knee injury. But when the year was over, Tom Landry said, "You know he's always going to hustle and hit. There's not any question about that. When he plays, he plays all out. Rodrigo has so much potential that if he doesn't come on to be a great one, I'll be surprised." Barnes went into '74 training camp as backup to All-Pro middle linebacker Lee Roy Jordan. "The hardest thing is to adjust to doing things a certain way," says Rodrigo, "to stay under control instead of going for the football as soon as the play begins. The system is complex."

COLLEGE: Rodrigo was All-Southwest Conference at Rice.

PERSONAL: A native of Waco, Tex., and a bachelor, Rodrigo lived in Houston during the off-season.

Marv Bateman • 81

PUNTER • UTAH • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 213 • BORN: 4/5/50 • (D-3 FOR '72)

PRO: Bateman improved his punting average to 41.6 yards a kick in 1973 after a disappointing rookie season in which he averaged 38.2. Cowboys coaches believe he will continue to improve. "Marv has the potential to lead the league," says Tom Landry. "He performed better last year than he did as a rookie, just as we expected he would." Bateman was hampered in each of his first two seasons by leg injuries and missed a game in '73 after a collision in Washington. He is the Cowboys' backup placekicker, and booted an extra point in his only try last year.

COLLEGE: One of the great collegiate punters, Marv led the nation in '70 and '71, averaging 48.1 as a senior at Utah.

PERSONAL: Marv and his wife Sharman live in the Dallas suburb of Plano, where he is active in work with the Boy Scouts during the off-season. Marv is a native of Salt Lake City.

DEFENSIVE END • HAWAII • 7th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 250 • BORN: 11/15/46 • (D-16 FOR '68)

PRO: Cole again started every game for the Cowboys in '73 after missing much of the '72 season with a knee injury. He's been a fixture in the Dallas defensive wall since 1968, when he was drafted 16th and surprisingly moved right into the starting lineup. Always a tremendously consistent player, Cole also has a knack for the big play. He scored three touchdowns, all against the Washington Redskins, and recovered 12 fumbles in his first six seasons in the NFL. "He has a nose for the ball," says Defensive Coordinator Ernie Stautner. "It's something you can't teach." Says Tom Landry, "Larry Cole is just a real consistent performer, solid as a rock. He does things well every game and constantly gives us great effort." According to Redskins guard John Wilbur, an ex-teammate, Cole is "probably the most underrated defensive lineman in the game." Says Larry, "When you go out to play a game, you have to believe in yourself. You have to believe you are the best end in football, even if it isn't true. To me, the fun of the game is in thinking along with the quarterback and trying to anticipate what he's going to do."

COLLEGE: Larry, captain of Hawaii's first winning football team in nearly 50 years, was the first player from his school ever drafted by an NFL club. He transferred to Hawaii after three years at the Air Force Academy.

PERSONAL: Larry and Linda Cole and their children, Michael (11/3/70) and Christina (3/18/73), live in the Fort Worth suburb of Bedford where Larry has his own construction company, Larry Cole Builders. Linda is Honorary Chairman for the March of Dimes in their area. Larry is a native of Granite Falls, Minn.

Billy Joe DuPree • 89

TIGHT END • MICHIGAN STATE • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 225 • BORN: 3/7/50 • (D-1 FOR '73)

PRO: DuPree started every game in '73, an almost unheard-of feat for a Dallas rookie. He responded with 29 catches (second on the team) for 392 yards and five touchdowns. Only Mike Ditka, with 30 receptions in '71, ever caught more passes for the Cowboys in a single season at tight end. And when Billy Joe grabbed three touchdown passes against the Cardinals, it marked a first for Dallas tight ends. "Once he gets his techniques down he'll be unstoppable," says Roger Staubach. "He's as good a target downfield as any tight end in football," says Tom Landry. "I never get excited except when we win," says DuPree. "That lights a fire under me."

COLLEGE: Billy Joe caught 69 passes for 1,222 yards and six touchdowns in three varsity seasons at Michigan State. He played one season of varsity basketball for the Spartans.

PERSONAL: Billy Joe, his wife Marsha and son Shon (10/27/71) live in Dallas where he was active in work for the Cancer Society during the off-season. Billy Joe grew up in Monroe, La., where he was a high school football and basketball star and received scholarship offers in both sports.

Jack Concannon • 18

QUARTERBACK • BOSTON COLLEGE • 9th YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 200 • BORN: 2/25/43 • (FA FOR '72)

PRO: Roger Staubach, Craig Morton and a broken thumb combined to keep Concannon on the inactive roster the past two seasons. Jack was signed by the Cowboys as a free agent prior to the '72 season after playing out his option with the Chicago Bears. It was hoped he could take up the slack left by an injury to Staubach, but when Concannon was about to be activated he broke a thumb playing paddleball. By the time he recovered Staubach was back on the roster. Last year, Jack spent the season behind Staubach and Morton.

COLLEGE: Jack was a strong runner as well as passer at Boston College before being drafted No. 2 by Philadelphia in 1964.

PERSONAL: Jack, his wife Virginia and their children Jack III (11/14/65), Christa Lynne (10/25/67), Kelly Lynne (8/18/70) and Kara Lynne (12/26/72) live in Rolling Meadows, Ill., during the off-season. A native of Southbridge, Mass., Jack is in the restaurant and lounge business in the Chicago area.

Dave Edwards • 52

LINEBACKER • AUBURN • 12th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 225 • BORN: 12/14/39 • (FA FOR '63)

PRO: Linebackers Coach Jerry Tubbs says, "The thing about Dave is that I don't remember his playing a bad game in a big game. He's a winner." Edwards makes his feelings on the subject of winning quite clear. "Unless you want to lead a miserable life," he says, "you better win. If you don't, every time you go in a coffee shop, every time you go in a store, every time you go outside, people ask you, 'What happened?' The only thing that's satisfactory is to win. That's just cold facts." Edwards seemed an unlikely prospect to become a standout in the NFL when he joined the Cowboys as a free agent receiver in 1962. He didn't make the club that year, but found his spot at linebacker in 1963. By the middle '60s, when the Cowboys started to win, Edwards had moved in at strongside linebacker and no one has been able to move him out. Teammates say Dave has perhaps the strongest arms and hands on the team, giving him an edge over most opposing tight ends at the line of scrimmage. He also has that typical characteristic of an outstanding pro, the ability to "play hurt." When Edwards had an ankle injury that limited his practice time one week last season, Tom Landry shrugged, "You don't worry about Dave much. He just about has to have a broken leg before he'll miss a game." Edwards, of course, played.

COLLEGE: Dave was an All-Southeastern Conference end for Coach Shug Jordan at Auburn.

PERSONAL: Dave, his wife Gail and their sons Chris (4/11/69) and Michael (10/6/70) live in Dallas. He is a native of Columbia, Ala., and grew up in Abbeville, Ala.

CENTER • BOSTON COLLEGE • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 250 • BORN: 4/16/48 • (D-4 FOR '70)

PRO: Fitz moved in as the starting center last year, and no one was surprised when he got the job done in fine fashion. "His size and mobility will eventually make him one of the top centers in the league," says Tom Landry. Fitzgerald fully intends to live up to that evaluation. "I look on both sides of me and see All-Pros," he says. "It does nothing but inspire me. When you play with the best you have to keep up, and there's no way I'm not going to do it." One of the Cowboys' hardest workers in the off-season conditioning program, Fitzgerald's solid 250 pounds belie the fact that he was a 315-pounder as a high school senior.

COLLEGE: John played tackle at Boston College, an alma mater he shares with Defensive Coordinator Ernie Stautner and teammate Jack Concannon.

PERSONAL: John and Sue Fitzgerald and their son Brendon (1/25/73) live in Dallas. He's a native of Southbridge, Mass., sharing that hometown with quarterback Concannon.

KICKER • VIENNA, AUSTRIA • 4th YEAR
HT: 5-7 • WT: 185 • BORN: 7/10/45 • (FA FOR '71)

PRO: Fritsch has established himself as one of the most consistent kickers in the league. In 29 NFL regular season games going into the '74 season he was 81-for-81 on extra points and 31-for-32 on field goals inside the 30. The only miss, from the 26, was blocked last year by St. Louis in the final game. Only a muscle pull in '71 and again last year kept him from building even more impressive totals. He owns club records for most field goals in a season (21 in '72) and longest field goal (54 yards). When several kickers reported to training camp last year, Fritsch said: "Listen, every year they get a lot of kickers. But I stay quiet. I kick my footballs. When somebody is better, OK, he can have the job. But before that, he has to be better. I don't get nervous." Says Tom Landry: "Fritsch will rank with the best kickers in the league. He has power and accuracy and he's a competitor."

PERSONAL: Toni starred in Austrian professional soccer for eight years before a Cowboys scouting delegation signed him in Vienna in the spring of 1971. That summer, he kicked in the first American football game he had seen. Toni, his wife Sonja and their children Hans (9/11/65) and Melissa Alexandra (6/15/72) make their home in Dallas.

TIGHT END • AMHERST • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 219 • BORN: 12/16/51 • (D-13 FOR '72)

PRO: Fugett, who teams with Billy Joe Du-Pree to give the Cowboys a very promising pair of young tight ends, led the team in average gain per catch in 1973 thanks to a strong showing down the home stretch. Seeing most of his action in the last three games of the season, he caught nine passes for 168 yards (an 18.7 average) and three touchdowns. Jean battled DuPree for the starting job throughout the 1973 season and promised to make an even stronger effort this year. "I have three goals in mind," said the 22-year-old Fugett. "I want to play full-time, all the time, play in the Super Bowl and play in the Pro Bowl. If you collect garbage, do anything, you should want to be the best there is."

COLLEGE: Jean led Amherst in receiving and scoring as a senior, catching 39 passes for 635 yards and nine touchdowns and earning Little All-America honors. He was only 20 years old when drafted by the Cowboys, and didn't turn 21 until Dec. 16 of his rookie season.

PERSONAL: Jean and his wife Anne live in Dallas. He's a native of Baltimore who worked summers during college in the editorial offices of the Baltimore Sun.

Walt Garrison • 32

RUNNING BACK • OKLAHOMA STATE • 9th YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 205 • BORN: 7/23/44 • (D-5 FOR '66)

PRO: Walter just keeps rolling along, steadily moving up in the ranks of the all-time Cowboys stalwarts. He stands third behind Don Perkins and Calvin Hill in rushing and went into the '74 season as the team's No. 5 all-time receiver. Tom Landry, in his understated way, says, "At fullback, Walt Garrison is solid, a starter for the past several years who has performed consistently well." That really doesn't begin to tell the story. As Landry says, "Walt's the kind of guy who never shows up on the injury report. He's played for us when nobody else would have tried." Garrison cracked his collarbone last year and missed the last game of the season. The next week, as the playoffs opened, he was back in the lineup. He pinched some nerves in his neck during the pre-season and had headaches so severe he couldn't sleep. Robert Newhouse moved into the starting fullback position and performed so well it was the sixth game of the season before Walt could get his job back. Garrison still rushed for 440 yards, second on the team, and was third in receiving with 26 catches. Despite his lack of size and breakaway speed, Garrison averaged 4.4 yards a carry through his first eight years in the league. He is a fine pass receiver who led the team in that category in 1971 when the Cowboys went on to win the Super Bowl.

COLLEGE: A two-time All-Big Eight choice at Oklahoma State, Walt says he crossed the Red River from Lewisville, Tex., "because OSU was the only one to offer me a scholarship. My daddy said, 'If they don't want you or you're not good enough, come on back home. But if you quit because you're not tough enough, just keep going north.'"

PERSONAL: Garrison, a steer wrestler on the professional rodeo circuit in the off-season, lives in Dallas with his wife Pam and sons Phillip Martin (6/5/69) and Carl Benton (1/2/74). His favorite hobby is whittling, a pastime that cost him 16 stitches in a finger just before a game two seasons ago.

Cornell Green • 34

SAFETY • UTAH STATE • 13th YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 208 • BORN: 2/10/40 • (FA FOR '62)

PRO: After the Cowboys' second meeting with the Los Angeles Rams last year, the 27-16 Dallas playoff victory, young Rams strong safety Dave Elmendorf said, "Cornell Green impresses me more than any strong safety in the league. He has size, strength and savvy." Green has been picking up that type of compliment for 13 years now, ever since he came to the Cowboys as a free agent basketball player from Utah State. That was in 1962. Heading into the 1974 season Cornell had been in all 168 games the Cowboys had played since he joined the squad. He turned 34 last February, but age seems to be having no effect on the big, smart veteran. "Nobody seems worried about my age except you newspaper guys," Cornell needled a group of sportswriter friends. "The team's not worried about my age, I'm not worried about it, so why should you all worry about it? It's not me getting any older. It's you guys who are getting older." That brand of positive thinking enabled Green to become an All-Pro cornerback in only his fifth season of football. "I've never been beaten," he once told a reporter. "Never?" was the incredulous reply. "Well, maybe once or twice," admitted Cornell. "But I talk myself out of it before I get off the field." In 1970 Green switched to strong safety and twice has played in the Pro Bowl at that position.

COLLEGE: Cornell averaged more than 20 points a game in his three varsity basketball seasons at Utah State. He was an All-American as a sophomore in 1960 and was a three-time All-Skyline Conference selection.

PERSONAL: Cornell was born in Oklahoma City and grew up in Richmond, Calif., where he was an all-star football fullback and basketball player in high school. For the past four years he spent the off-season working in the Cowboys' scouting department. One of Cornell's four brothers, Pumpsie, was a major league baseball player. Cornell, his wife Betty and their sons Randy (9/11/62) and Ronnie (3/7/67) live in Dallas.

Bill Gregory • 77

DEF. END-DEF. TACKLE • WISCONSIN • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 255 • BORN: 2/14/49 • (D-3 FOR '71)

PRO: Gregory played every position in the defensive line during his first three years with the Cowboys, including filling in for Bob Lilly at right tackle when injuries sidelined Bob for much of the last part of the '73 season. "Gregory is not a placid kind of player," says Defensive Coordinator Ernie Stautner. "He belts them around. He has the ability to be a starter at any position on the line." Says Gregory, "Basically, my style is if there's a tackle to be made, I want to make it. I guess I'm sort of hoggish. I'd like to make every tackle in the game." As far as his status on the talent-loaded Dallas defensive line, Bill says: "I'd like to think I'm pushing all the linemen. That's not going to hurt the team. And that's what it's all about, the team. As a rookie I was trying to find out if I could make it in the pros. I always thought I could do it. Now it's a matter of how soon."

COLLEGE: Bill was captain of the Wisconsin football team for two seasons and was an All-Big Ten choice as a senior in 1970.

PERSONAL: Bill was born in Galveston, Tex., grew up in Le-Marque, Tex., and now lives in the Dallas suburb of Garland with his wife Bonnie and their son William Penn Gregory III (3/3/73). During the past off-season Bill worked as a special counselor at Holmes Junior High School in Dallas.

Cliff Harris • 43

SAFETY • OUACHITA BAPTIST • 5th YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 184 • BORN: 11/12/48 • (FA FOR '70)

PRO: After four seasons as a regular at free safety, Harris is recognized as one of the fiercest hitters at the position in the league. "Cliff Harris is just tough," says Tom Landry. "He's always been tough and that's what makes him as good as he is." On the field, Harris hurls himself at the opposition in a manner calculated to produce some mighty collisions. "I'm not mean," says Cliff, "but I'm aggressive. I think it's good to let a receiver know you're around. You've got to make him wish he hadn't caught the ball. Then maybe the next time he'll be looking for you and drop some passes." Up until 1973, Harris was the Cowboys' leading kickoff and punt return man. He turned most of those duties over to others in '73, giving him a chance to catch his breath for the first time since joining Dallas as a free agent in 1970. Cliff moved in as a starter as a rookie and has been there ever since except for a military obligation the latter part of his first season. "He plays at one speed," says Landry, "and that's full speed."

COLLEGE: Cliff played football at little Ouachita (WASH-e-taw) Baptist College in Arkadelphia, Ark., and was overlooked in the 1970 collegiate draft. The Cowboys saw him in two game films and signed him as a free agent.

PERSONAL: A native of Fayetteville, Ark., Cliff and his wife Linda make their home in Dallas. During the off-season he did some work for the Diabetes Association in the area.

Bob Hayes • 22

WIDE RECEIVER • FLORIDA A&M • 10th YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 185 • BORN: 12/20/42 • (D-7, Future, '63)

PRO: The greatest touchdown producer in Cowboys history got back on the board in 1973, and while it wasn't one of Hayes' better years it served notice that he's still a force to be reckoned with. "There's no one who can make a defense commit itself as much as Hayes can," says Spider Lockhart of the New York Giants. "He can explode and make things happen," says Roger Staubach. "As long as Bobby is in the lineup the other team has to make adjustments it doesn't normally make." Hayes' greatest asset, of course, is his blazing speed. He's shown on the pro track circuit over the past two off-seasons that the speed is still there. "I can still get deep," says Bob, "zone defenses or no zone defenses. I'm still the same Bobby Hayes." Bob is the Cowboys' all-time leader in scoring (75 touchdowns), receiving (358 catches for 7,177 yards) and punt returns, although he hasn't run back kicks for the past several seasons.

COLLEGE: Drafted as a "future" in 1963, Bob didn't join the Cowboys until 1965 because of the '64 Olympics. He won two gold medals at Tokyo that year. In football for Coach Jake Gaither at Florida A&M, Bob was a running back who Gaither said "wouldn't have gone out for track if it meant giving up football." Bob's 9.1 in the 100 wasn't bettered until Ivory Crockett did it in 9.0 earlier this year.

PERSONAL: Bob, his wife Altamease and daughter Adrienne LaRori (12/31/68) live in Dallas where Bob is chief executive officer with Apollo Airlines flying Texas and Oklahoma.

Calvin Hill • 35

RUNNING BACK • YALE • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 227 • BORN: 1/2/47 • (D-1 FOR '69)

PRO: Heading into his final season with the Cowboys (he moves to the World Football League in 1975), Calvin ranked second behind Don Perkins on the list of all-time Cowboys rushing leaders. Hill put 1,000-yard seasons back-to-back — 1,036 yards in '72, 1,142 in '73 — and prior to that feat no Cowboy had ever rushed for as many as 1,000 yards in one season. He made All-Pro for the second time and for the second year in a row led the team in receiving. "I've learned how to read my blocks better," says Calvin, discussing his emergence as a premier runner. "I became more aware of my blockers. I realized there were certain things I could do behind certain blockers. And I guess you could say I became a little more conservative. Things like jumping just came natural to me, but I had to cut that out. It got me into trouble." Calvin is so big and fast and presents such an inviting target to tacklers that he takes quite a pounding every Sunday. "He takes more punishment than anyone," says fellow running back Robert Newhouse. "Sometimes it takes a few days for the soreness to wear off," admits Hill, "but then I'm ready to go again." Still, except for a freak elbow injury late in the divisional playoff game against Los Angeles last year, no one was able to knock Calvin out of the lineup in the past two seasons.

COLLEGE: Calvin accounted for more than 2,600 yards total offense at Yale as his three varsity teams had records of 4-5, 8-1 and 8-0-1. In track, he had a long jump of 25-1½ and a triple jump of 51-5¼.

PERSONAL: For the past two years Calvin served as National Sports Chairman for the National Association of Retarded Children. Calvin, his wife Janet and son Grant Henry (10/5/72) live in Dallas.

Lee Roy Jordan • 55

LINEBACKER • ALABAMA • 12th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 221 • BORN: 4/27/41 • (D-1 FOR '63)

PRO: Jordan, improving with age, had his finest season in 1973 and was named All-Pro middle linebacker. Against Philadelphia he was in on 21 tackles and Tom Landry said it was "probably the best day any linebacker ever had for the Cowboys." The next week, against Cincinnati, Lee Roy intercepted three passes in the first quarter to put the Bengals in a hole from which they could not emerge. "He has range and experience," said Cincy quarterback Ken Anderson. "He just seems to get to the right place at the right time." Says Jordan, "I've been around all these years. I should have learned something. I should be able to get to the right place at the right time quicker." On the first play of the playoff game against Los Angeles he intercepted a pass to get the Cowboys off to another fast start. "My mental outlook is good," said Lee Roy, looking ahead to his 12th pro season. "My mind is right and says go make tackles." Cowboys Special Assistant Ermal Allen points out, "In addition to his tackling and pass defense (Jordan led the team in interceptions in '73), Lee Roy calls our defensive audibles. Plus, he's a heckuva leader. That's another thing that figures when you're talking about the top middle linebackers." Teammate Cliff Harris: "Lee Roy pulls things together. He just does a super job out there." Jordan sums it up this way: "To me a football game is like a day off. I grew up picking cotton on my daddy's farm and nobody asked for your autograph or put your name in the paper for that."

COLLEGE: Everybody's All-American at Alabama, Lee Roy was named the nation's outstanding lineman his senior year. "If he stays in bounds," said Coach Paul Bryant, "Lee Roy will get him."

PERSONAL: Lee Roy, a native of Excel, Ala., lives in Dallas with his wife Biddy and sons David (12/8/65), Patrick Lee (5/23/68) and Christopher (5/5/73). Lee Roy is associated with the real estate firm of Claude R. McClennahan, Inc., in Dallas.

Mike Keller • 57

LINEBACKER • MICHIGAN • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 221 • BORN: 12/13/49 • (D-3 FOR '72)

PRO: Keller missed the entire 1973 season after undergoing shoulder surgery, but was pronounced fit to make a bid to regain his spot on the roster in '74. "We'll have to see how Mike responds," said Tom Landry. "Before he was injured we thought he was a promising prospect. This training camp will be very important to him." A defensive end in college, Keller made the switch to outside linebacker as a rookie in '72.

COLLEGE: Mike was a three-year regular at defensive end at Michigan, twice earning All-Big Ten honors.

PERSONAL: Mike and his wife Kathy live in Dallas, where he worked in the Cowboys scouting department after recovering from surgery last year.
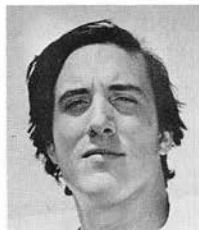

D. D. Lewis • 50

LINEBACKER • MISSISSIPPI STATE • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 225 • BORN: 10/16/45 • (D-6 FOR '68)

PRO: As expected, Lewis moved right in as weakside linebacker last year when All-Pro Chuck Howley announced his retirement. D. D. had spent four years of apprenticeship and was ready when the time came to take over a starting role. Although he never complained about his time as Howley's backup and captain of the special teams, Lewis admitted last year that it was difficult at times. "I look back on all the time I spent sitting on the bench and I don't know how I got through it so long," he said. "There is nothing like starting, I guarantee you." The coaching staff was not surprised when D. D. performed well all year, recovering two fumbles and scoring a touchdown after picking up a blocked punt against the Giants. "I'm not just saying he is a steady linebacker," says Linebackers Coach Jerry Tubbs. "I'm saying he can be a very good one." Says Tom Landry, "D. D. doesn't have great size for a linebacker, but when he hits people they think he's bigger than he is. He is a hitter." Lewis is a versatile athlete, a capable punter who also can be pressed into service as a snapper for punts and placements. For the time being, however, he would rather be known simply as a starting linebacker for the Dallas Cowboys.

COLLEGE: D. D. made All-Southeastern Conference twice at Mississippi State. As a senior he was All-American and conference Defensive Player of the Year.

PERSONAL: D. D. — Dwight Douglas — lives in Dallas with his wife Margaret and their daughter Christi (10/17/69).

Bob Lilly • 74

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • TEXAS CHRISTIAN • 14th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 260 • BORN: 7/26/39 • (D-1 FOR '61)

PRO: He is "Mr. Cowboy." The first player drafted by the Dallas club, seven years an All-Pro, 11 Pro Bowls, 182 consecutive regular season games, Lilly IS the Dallas Cowboys to a lot of people. He finally missed a game last year, a leg injury forcing him out of the NFC Championship against Minnesota. Bob didn't like that, and by June 1, 1974, an off-season conditioning program had him weighing a svelte 253 pounds and looking ahead with gusto to his 14th pro season. "Bob Lilly will come back, work hard, and he will still be one of the top defensive tackles in football," said Tom Landry. "Lilly is so quick and smart," says Bob Griese of the Dolphins, "he's almost impossible to fool. He is not enormous but he is strong enough so that there isn't any use arguing with him if he gets hold of your jersey. You just fall whichever way Lilly wants." Says Lilly, "My feeling is we shouldn't let them move the ball no matter where they get it, in our end of the field or their end of it." Quickness always has been Bob's most impressive attribute, and over the years he's added a few refinements. "I like to create some doubt in the man I'm playing against," says Lilly. "If he's not sure what I'm going to do, he can't block me." Landry, who has seen Lilly in every game across the years, adds the final word: "There won't be another Bob Lilly in my time. You're observing a man who will become a legend."

COLLEGE: Bob was an All-American and two-time All-Southwest Conference choice at Texas Christian. The Cowboys, who did not participate in the 1960 college selections, made him their first draft choice in 1961.

PERSONAL: Bob and his wife Ann live in Dallas where he is active in several businesses including a nightspot called Bob Lilly's Other Place. He is publisher of Bob Lilly's Pro Report, a weekly newspaper printed during the season. Bob was born in Throckmorton, Tex., and was an All-Stater in football and basketball at Pendleton, Ore. Bob's children are Bob Jr. (7/19/62), Katharine (4/22/64) and Christienne (7/21/65).

Dave Manders • 51

CENTER • MICHIGAN STATE • 10th YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 250 • BORN: 2/20/41 • (FA FOR '64)

PRO: Manders announced his retirement in 1973, but returned to the Cowboys after the first regular season game to snap for punts and placements. His contributions proved invaluable as he performed his specialty flawlessly for the rest of the year. "I just decided I'd like to be part of another championship team," Dave said. Pressed for details, Manders' wry sense of humor couldn't be restrained: "The hardest thing is that the good things about the game hang on. The idea of working together with the guys, for instance. The thrill of snapping the ball with Dick Butkus breathing on you . . ." Whatever the reasons, Dave came back and the '74 Cowboys were looking forward to another season with him over the ball in crucial situations.

COLLEGE: Dave won honorable mention All-America recognition as a senior at Michigan State. Passed up in the draft, he played two years of semi-pro football before joining the Cowboys in 1964.

PERSONAL: Dave lives in Dallas with his wife Betty and their children Mark (10/18/62), Mike (6/18/65) and Catherine Elizabeth (10/3/69). He is general sales manager for radio station KTLC in Dallas and served as co-chairman for the 1974 Jerry Lewis muscular dystrophy telethon.

Harvey Martin • 79

DEFENSIVE END • EAST TEXAS STATE • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 262 • BORN: 11/16/50 • (D-3 FOR '73)

PRO: Martin led the team in sacking the quarterback in '73, crashing through for nine traps while playing less than half the time. He credits a rugged training camp for his emergence as a potential starter in his rookie season. "I remember the first day I practiced against Rayfield Wright. He hauled off and hit my helmet, put spots right between my eyes. It was a rude awakening. 'Hello, Mr. Martin. This is the NFL.'" By the end of the season, Tom Landry was saying, "Martin is rough and tough and he's intimidating. If he continues that style of play it's going to be pretty tough to keep him out of there."

COLLEGE: Harvey was an All-Conference selection at East Texas State, and for two years was a teammate of the Pittsburgh Steelers' Dwight White.

Craig Morton • 14

QUARTERBACK • CALIFORNIA • 10th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 214 • BORN: 2/5/43 • (D-1 FOR '65)

PRO: Morton, headed for the World Football League in 1975, fills the experienced backup role behind Roger Staubach this year. "We are going to have to develop another backup quarterback," said Tom Landry in the off-season, "but Craig has the ability and know-how to get the job done in '74." Morton was the Cowboys' starting quarterback in 1969 and 1970, the latter year being the team's first in the Super Bowl, and was No. 1 again in '72 when Staubach missed most of the season with a shoulder injury. Craig spent the first four years of his career backing up Don Meredith, then took over the No. 1 job for two seasons despite surgery on his passing arm following both the '69 and '70 campaigns. He owns the club record for most completions in a season (185 in 1972) and shares the record for most consecutive passes completed (10) and most touchdown passes in a single game (five).

COLLEGE: Craig was an All-America quarterback at California in 1964. He turned down a baseball bonus offer to join the Cowboys.

PERSONAL: Craig is a bachelor who lives in Dallas. He was an All-State football, basketball and baseball player in high school at Campbell, Calif.

Ralph Neely • 73

TACKLE • OKLAHOMA • 10th YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 265 • BORN: 9/12/43 • (TRADE, BALT., '65)

PRO: Ralph's road through 10 years in the NFL has been a rocky one for a guy who moved into the starting lineup the first day of his rookie season. Neely made All-Pro four times at right tackle, then was moved to left tackle when Rayfield Wright emerged in 1970. In 1971, as the Cowboys were driving to their first World Championship, Ralph broke an ankle and missed the last half of the season, the playoffs, and the Super Bowl. He's had three knee operations and he played the 1972 season with a broken hand. Through it all, Neely has remained one of the finest technicians at his position in the game. And, heading into the '74 season, he said: "Right now I think I'm as good as I've ever been. The left tackle position is easier and more natural for me. I do things now on reaction rather than having to think about what I'm doing."

COLLEGE: Ralph was a two-time All-America tackle at Oklahoma.

PERSONAL: Ralph, a native of Little Rock, Ark., who grew up in Farmington, N. M., lives in Dallas with his wife Dianne and their children Dale (12/31/66) and Dedra Ann (6/23/69). He is co-owner of North Texas Trailer Manufacturing Co., a firm that builds custom boat trailers. Ralph also is on the board of directors of Camp Sweeney, a north Texas summer camp for diabetic children that is the only camp of its kind in the country, and he and Dianne are active in the North Texas Diabetes Association.

Other Cowboys With Pro Experience...

PAUL GIBSON, a 6-2, 195-pound wide receiver from Texas-El Paso, played with the Green Bay Packers in 1972.

TOM GIPSON, a 6-7, 290-pound defensive tackle from North Texas State, was with the Oakland Raiders in 1971.

JOHN SMITH, 6-1, 187-pound wide receiver, UCLA. John was on the Cowboys' inactive roster in 1973, playing minor league football in Madison, Wis.

DAN WERNER, a 6-4, 195-pound quarterback from Michigan State, was with the Cowboys in training camp in 1973 after being drafted in the eighth round.

WILLIE WILLIAMS, 6-3, 200, a defensive back from Florida Southern, was in the New York Giants' training camp in 1973.

Robert Newhouse • 44

RUNNING BACK • HOUSTON • 3rd YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 202 • BORN: 1/9/50 • (D-2 FOR '72)

PRO: With Calvin Hill moving to the World Football League in 1975, Newhouse was considered the top candidate to move in as Hill's replacement. "We need to groom someone to replace Hill at halfback," said Tom Landry, "and Robert Newhouse is the most likely candidate. We feel he was our best breakaway runner the past two years. He will get his opportunity now to play." Newhouse, backing up both Hill and Walt Garrison in '72 and '73, averaged nearly five yards a carry while rushing for a total of 552 yards those two seasons. "He has proven he has starting capabilities," says Offensive Backfield Coach Ed Hughes. "Those bigger guys on defense have a difficult time getting underneath to get their shoulders in on a tackle, and you just can't arm-tackle him. He's too strong." Says Bob Matheson of the Dolphins, "I hit him high one time and I did a complete somersault. It was like riding a bucking bronco." Buck Buchanan of the Chiefs: "He's a helluva football player. He never gives up. He's always after that extra yard and you can never let up on him." On the possibility of moving in at halfback, Robert says, "I like running at halfback. You get to read and pick your holes more. You have more room to maneuver. But my goal is to play the best I can at all times and whatever happens will happen."

COLLEGE: Robert rushed for 2,961 yards in his career at Houston, averaging 6.4 yards a carry and scoring 19 touchdowns.

PERSONAL: Robert and his wife live in Houston, where he spent the past off-season working for a computer company.

John Niland • 76

GUARD • IOWA • 9th YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 245 • BORN: 2/29/44 • (D-1 FOR '66)

PRO: Niland, despite playing all season with a painful elbow injury, again made the All-NFC team in '73 and the Pro Bowl—his sixth straight trip to the NFL's post-season all-star game. Tom Landry thinks Niland and Blaine Nye make up the best combination of guards in the league. "I'm geared to win," says Niland. "I enjoy going out there on Sunday afternoon and knocking the heck out of somebody. That's what I'm paid for and that's what I enjoy doing. I think every man on the field feels the same way." "The thing about Niland," says Offensive Coordinator Jim Myers, "is that he doesn't use his hands when he blocks. That's very unusual for an offensive lineman. John, in effect, handicaps himself. Yet he's an All-Pro player." Says Niland, "I suppose if I used my hands I might be more effective. But why take a chance on getting a penalty? The number of times I've been penalized for holding I can count on one hand." Niland does, however, use his head as a pretty effective weapon. "I break my helmets and get a lot of cuts in the forehead and on the nose," he says, "but the butt block is the most effective block for me. Through weightlifting I've built my neck up to 20 inches and I like to take advantage of that."

COLLEGE: A fullback as a sophomore at Iowa, John moved to guard the next season and was an All-American when the Cowboys drafted him in the first round after his senior campaign.

PERSONAL: John was born in Quincy, Mass., and grew up in Amityville, N. Y. He and his wife Iree live in Dallas, where John is active in a number of business ventures. He has a well-established scholarship fund for deserving students, and last June sponsored the John Niland Celebrity Golf Tournament in Dallas with proceeds going to the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Blaine Nye • 61

GUARD • STANFORD • 7th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 251 • BORN: 3/29/46 • (D-5 FOR '68)

PRO: People began to notice Nye in 1973, after he had spent most of his career in the shadow of his partner on the other side of center, John Niland. But Blaine made All-Pro in

'72. "I guess that was a major breakthrough," says Nye, "since John always got most of the publicity. But that hasn't bothered me the past couple of years since everybody wants to know how I feel about not getting any publicity. Actually, I've become famous from people asking me how it feels not to be famous." Blaine has helped his own cause along those lines with interviews like these: Question — How would you describe your style of play? Nye — "Normally, I overwhelm my opponent with mediocrity." Question — What is a defensive lineman's best weapon? Nye — "I would say the hand slap to the head. This can lead to blurred vision, slurred speech and eventual total deafness if they hit the ear hole in your helmet repeatedly. I counter this maneuver by ducking."

COLLEGE: After playing offense his sophomore year at Stanford, Blaine was moved to the defensive line as a junior and senior.

PERSONAL: Blaine, his wife Annabelle and their children Melissa Madeline (2/6/68) and Blaine (12/21/69) live in Menlo Park, Calif., during the off-season. He owns a Masters Degree in Business Administration from Stanford and a Masters in Physics from the University of Washington.

Drew Pearson • 88

WIDE RECEIVER • TULSA • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 175 • BORN: 1/12/51 • (FA FOR '73)

PRO: Pearson was THE big surprise of the 1973 season for the Cowboys. Signed as a free agent after being passed up in the draft, by the end of the year he was starting and catching clutch touchdown passes. The big one was an 83-yarder from Roger Staubach that killed the Rams' hopes in the divisional playoffs. "When Drew came to Dallas after he signed, and we watched him work out," says Tom Landry, "we knew we had something different here. He can get open, he can get deep in a hurry and he's a great fluid receiver." There's something else about Drew that belies his frail appearance. "He's gotten up from some shots you wouldn't believe," says Linebackers Coach Jerry Tubbs. "I do believe we've found us something."

COLLEGE: Tulsa was a run-oriented team when Drew was there, and although he was a regular his pass-catching skills weren't showcased for the scouts. He played quarterback as a freshman and sophomore.

PERSONAL: Drew and his wife Marsha live in Dallas. Marsha's father is Marques Haynes, the legendary Harlem Globetrotters star. Drew is a native of South River, N. J.

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • ELIZABETH CITY STATE • 10th YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 260 • BORN: 7/3/44 • (D-11 FOR '65)

PRO: After back-to-back seasons (1972 and '73) considered by the coaching staff to be his best yet, Pugh was ready in '74 for a run at the honors that so far have eluded him. After nine seasons in the league, the big tackle still was looking for his first All-Pro or Pro Bowl recognition. "Jethro Pugh is an exceptionally good football player," says Tom Landry. "He definitely should be in the Pro Bowl," says Defensive Coordinator Ernie Stautner. "If it wasn't for a name like Jethro Pugh, I might really be anonymous," jokes Jethro. The problem, of course, is that Pugh has spent his entire career playing alongside a legend, Bob Lilly. "It's pretty tough to get two All-Pros from the same defensive line," says Stautner, "but Jethro is very deserving." Pugh's big moment in '73 came when he scooped up a fumble against the Cincinnati Bengals and rumbled 35 yards before running out of gas at the Bengal 7. "Pugh may have to work a little on his speed this week," said Landry, "but he showed great open-field running ability." Jethro led the team in fumble recoveries, with four.

COLLEGE: Jethro enrolled at Elizabeth City State without a scholarship, but ended up as a two-time All-Conference tackle and was named his team's Most Valuable Lineman as a senior. He was only 20 years old when the Cowboys drafted him on the 11th round in 1965.

PERSONAL: Jethro, his wife Beverly and their children Jethro III (10/20/68) and Jethrolyn Jo (3/3/71) live in Dallas. He is assistant vice president of Programs, Inc., a firm which promotes and distributes a quick energy drink called "Extra Energy."

Mel Renfro • 20

CORNERBACK • OREGON • 11th YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 190 • BORN: 12/30/41 • (D-2 FOR '64)

PRO: Renfro had the kind of year expected of him in 1973. He made All-Pro for the fifth time and was selected for the Pro Bowl for the 10th time in as many seasons (he was Pro Bowl MVP in '71). Defensive Backfield Coach Gene Stallings spells out perfectly the way the Cowboys regard Mel. "There couldn't possibly be a better cornerback in football week in and week out. You see what he does on passes, though not very much because they don't throw at him. But watch him force a running play. He's like a cutting horse in there, darting in and out. He's so quick. I've never seen anything like him on films or anywhere else." Renfro intercepted two passes in '73 to run his career total to 42, best in Cowboys history. And yet those figures are misleading, because Mel just doesn't get that much business at his right cornerback position. "I stay away from Renfro," says Rams quarterback John Hadl. "I don't like fooling with him. He's the best in the league." Says Tom Landry, "When you have Mel Renfro at one cornerback, the other cornerback can expect to be attacked."

COLLEGE: Mel was one of the great athletes in Oregon history. He was an All-America halfback and a trackman with bests of 9.6 in the 100, 13.8 in the high hurdles and 25-11¾ in the long jump.

PERSONAL: Mel was born in Houston, grew up in Portland and now lives near there in Troutdale, Ore. He and his wife Pat have three children, Mel Jr. (1/25/64), Tony (3/29/65) and Cindy (3/14/68). Mel operates "Mel Renfro's Bicycle City" in Portland.

Golden Richards • 83

WIDE RECEIVER • HAWAII • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 172 • BORN: 12/31/50 • (D-2 FOR '73)

PRO: Richards broke loose on a 63-yard touchdown punt return against the Vikings in the NFC Championship Game to cap a promising rookie season. Golden led the team in punt returns and, backing up Bob Hayes, caught six passes including a 53-yarder for a touchdown. "Richards has the Bob Hayes brand of speed," says Tom Landry, "the ability to burst deep behind the secondary." Says Golden of the '73 season, "When you're not a regular, you've got to nickel and dime 'em to death. You've got to contribute any way you can."

COLLEGE: Golden led the nation in punt returns as a junior at Brigham Young, then transferred to Hawaii where his senior year was cut short by a leg injury.

PERSONAL: Golden and his bride Barbara live in Dallas. He is a Salt Lake City native whose basketball-playing brother Doug was drafted on the 14th round by the Cowboys in '74.

HT: 6-4 • WT: 210 • BORN: 4/6/51 • (FA FOR '73)

PRO: Robinson played no college football, concentrating on basketball at Tennessee, but the Cowboys thought enough of his athletic ability to sign him as a free agent. Larry made the club at running back and appeared in four games as a kickoff returner and on special teams. His potential is such that Tom Landry includes Robinson when he talks about "our good stable of young runners."

COLLEGE: Larry was Tennessee's basketball captain and was an All-Southeastern Conference choice in that sport.

PERSONAL: Larry is a native of Appomattox, Va. He and his wife Rosalind spent the off-season in Knoxville, Tenn., where Larry completed work on his degree.

Roger Staubach • 12

QUARTERBACK • NAVY • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 197 • BORN: 2/5/42 • (D-10, Future, '64)

PRO: "Roger Staubach ranks with the best quarterbacks in the game now," says Tom Landry, "but we feel his potential has not been reached." Strong words when you consider Staubach led the NFL in passing in his first two seasons as the team's starter, 1971 and 1973 (he missed most of the '72 campaign with a shoulder injury). "He can make a positive play out of one that starts out like a loser," says the Dolphins' Bob Griese. "You talk to him for awhile and you have to be impressed with his outlook on life and football. He'll be the quarterback for Dallas for however long he wants to play." Denver Coach John Ralston, after Roger's 14-for-18, 240-yard, two-touchdown day against the Broncos: "We were too concerned with his ability to run, and forgot about how well he throws. Staubach is just an exceptionally fine athlete." Cincinnati's Mike Reid: "He's a super quarterback, a threat on every play." Staubach completed 62.6 per cent of his passes in '73 to break his own club record set in '71, and fell just one touchdown pass short of Don Meredith's club record of 24. "I don't care if it's golf or pool or what," says Staubach, "I love to win. You can carry that attitude too far, of course. I don't advocate it for kids in the pee wee leagues. But in pro football winning is all there is."

COLLEGE: Staubach won the Heisman Trophy and the Maxwell Award as a junior at Navy, lettered in basketball and baseball, and captained the 1965 College All-Star team.

PERSONAL: After graduating from the Naval Academy, Roger spent four years in the Navy and reported to the Cowboys as a 27-year-old rookie in 1969. "That may work to my advantage in the long run," he says. "I didn't take the physical pounding during those years that I would have if I'd come directly to the Cowboys." A native of Cincinnati, Roger lives in Dallas with his wife Marianne and their daughters Jennifer (6/21/66), Michelle (5/23/68) and Stephanie Marie (6/25/69). He is associated with the Henry S. Miller Co. in Dallas and with Aurora Plastics. Roger is active in any number of civic projects, including the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Otto Stowe • 82

WIDE RECEIVER • IOWA STATE • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 188 • BORN: 2/25/49 • (TRADE, MIAMI, '73)

PRO: Stowe was leading the Cowboys in receiving and touchdowns when he broke his ankle at Philadelphia in the seventh game of the '73 season. Still, his statistics were impressive — 23 catches for 389 yards (a 16.9 average) and six touchdowns. The Cowboys were expecting great things of him in '74. "He comes off the line so fast he gets you out of your backpedal," says teammate and cornerback Mel Renfro. "He turns you one way or the other, and you're committed. A guy like Stowe makes the defense nervous, and when you're nervous you make mistakes." Looking ahead to the '74 season, Tom Landry said, "Roger Staubach has great confidence in Otto. Before he got hurt, Roger felt that when we got down there he could complete a touchdown pass to Stowe. He has the knack of getting open — and he's an outstanding blocker." Says Otto, "Everything had begun to click last year. I'm looking forward to getting back in there." Otto came to the Cowboys in the spring of '73 in a trade with Miami for Ron Sellers and a second-round draft choice.

COLLEGE: Otto set pass receiving records at Iowa State with 132 career catches for 1,751 yards and 10 touchdowns. He was drafted in the second round by the Dolphins in '71.

PERSONAL: Otto, a bachelor, lives in Dallas. He was born in Chicago and grew up in Springfield, Ill., where he played high school football and basketball and ran track.

COLLEGE: Les played for former Cowboys receiver Sonny Randle at East Carolina, enjoying a good senior year after being hampered earlier with a shoulder injury.

DEFENSIVE END • VANDERBILT • 5th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 247 • BORN: 5/17/48 • (D-6 FOR '70)

PRO: Toomay was the starting right defensive end for the second straight year in 1973 and began to emerge as a big play man in the line. He trapped the opposing quarterback eight times, second on the team, returned an intercepted pass 35 yards against the Eagles and recovered a fumble. "Speed is the key in rushing the passer," Pat says, "getting a good start off the ball. Then use a quick move, a quick head slap or a hard pull on the jersey. All you need is a fraction of an inch. Get him a half-step out of position and you've got him." Toomay is one of the young players who caused Tom Landry to say in the off-season, "The defensive line is probably the most exciting part of our football team right now."

COLLEGE: Pat, an All-America quarterback in high school, switched to the line at Vanderbilt and was a three-year letterman.

PERSONAL: The son of a career Air Force officer, Pat was born in Highland, Calif., and attended high school in Alexandria, Va. He and his wife Becky live in Dallas where Pat spent the off-season as a public relations man for Warner Bros. Records in the Southwest.

HT: 6-5 • WT: 255 • BORN: 2/10/49 • (D-10 FOR '71)

PRO: "The most competitive position in the offensive line is at left tackle," said Tom Landry during the off-season. "Rodney Wallace is trying to move out a proven veteran in Ralph Neely. If Rodney can overcome the back problem he had last year and really compete from the first day of training camp he has a chance to move in as a starter." The big, agile Wallace was troubled all of 1973 by a sore back, but still filled in admirably when left guard John Niland and right tackle Rayfield Wright missed games with injuries. "We couldn't ask more from a backup lineman than Rodney gave us," said Landry. Wallace reported to rookie camp in 1971 weighing 286 pounds, but worked and dieted his way down to 255 in time to make the club.

COLLEGE: Rodney was a defensive tackle at New Mexico, earning second team All-Western Athletic Conference honors his senior year.

CORNERBACK • MORGAN STATE • 5th YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 188 • BORN: 12/28/47 • (D-13 FOR '70)

PRO: Mark caught everyone's eye as a rookie in 1970 when he not only made the squad after being drafted in the 13th round, but returned a kickoff 100 yards against the Redskins. Then, the misfortunes began. He missed most of the '71 season with a knee injury, had knee surgery in the summer of '72 and didn't get back in the running for a starting job until last year. The coaches still respect his ability, and Mark says, "I know I can play football. That's the only thing that's kept me in the game this long. I just feel like I can overcome these things and do what I have to do. I guess most things that are worthwhile don't come easy."

COLLEGE: Co-captain of the Morgan State football team his senior year, Mark intercepted six passes that season for a career total of 15.

43

PERSONAL: Mark, a native of Chicago, lives in Dallas with his wife Linda and the newest member of the family, Lisa Joy (3/16/74).

Charlie Waters • 41

CORNERBACK • CLEMSON • 5th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 193 • BORN: 9/10/48 • (D-3 FOR '70)

PRO: Waters experienced the kind of thing in 1973 that always happens to the cornerback who plays opposite All-Pro Mel Renfro — he stayed busy. That suited Charlie just fine. "As long as they throw enough my way," he says, "I'll get my share." He intercepted five passes, second on the team to Lee Roy Jordan, to run his four-year career total to 18. And, it was his first full season as a starting cornerback. Says Tom Landry, "Here's a guy who plays hard, gives 100 per cent. I like people like that. He'll get beat once in a while, but then he'll make the interception. That's his game, and it's important to us." Charlie played the '73 season with a steel pin in an arm broken in the '72 NFC Championship Game at Washington, but it didn't hamper his aggressive style. "I knew he'd be back as strong as ever," said Defensive Backfield Coach Gene Stallings. "He said he would and he's that kind of guy."

COLLEGE: Charlie was a receiver at Clemson, catching 68 passes for 1,165 yards in his varsity career.

PERSONAL: A native of North Augusta, S. C., Charlie makes his home in Dallas.

Rayfield Wright • 70

TACKLE • FORT VALLEY STATE • 8th YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 255 • BORN: 8/23/45 • (D-7 FOR '67)

PRO: Wright enjoyed his third straight All-Pro season in '73, played in the Pro Bowl for the third straight year and generally continued to distinguish himself as perhaps the best offensive tackle in the game. "I think Rayfield is pretty much a composite of an All-Pro tackle," says the Vikings' Carl Eller. "He has size, strength and quickness. The big thing in Rayfield's favor is that he has a lot of range. He moves better than most tackles. He is difficult to play against." Tom Landry says, "There's nobody in the league who could replace him for us. I wouldn't take any tackle over Rayfield." Wright came to the Cowboys in 1967 and played tackle, tight end and defensive end before finally moving in at right tackle in 1970. That was no easy feat, because the regular at right tackle was four-time All-Pro Ralph Neely. Ralph moved to the left side to create the tackle setup of the past four seasons. Wright, nicknamed "Big Cat," had a touchdown reception in 1968 while playing tight end and last year lined up as an eligible receiver in several goalline situations. "I'd like to get a couple more touchdowns," he says. "That would be nice for a tackle." Mainly, though, Rayfield is interested in doing the best job possible at his normal spot. "I feel I'm one of the top tackles," he says. "I'm not trying to brag, I just have a lot of confidence in myself. I want people to notice me as one of the best."

COLLEGE: Wright lettered in football, basketball and track at Fort Valley State in Georgia, earning All-Conference honors in football and basketball. He played several positions in football, including even defensive back for a time. In track, he ran a 50 flat 440.

PERSONAL: Rayfield, his wife Andrea and son LaRay Adrian (3/25/72) live in Dallas. He grew up in Griffin, Ga., where he became an Eagle Scout and earned 21 merit badges.

THE ROOKIES

(1974 Draftees)

JONES

ED JONES • Defensive End • Tennessee State
Ht: 6-8 • Wt: 260 • Born: 2/23/51 • D-1A for '74

Nicknamed "Too Tall" by a college teammate. Jones was the first player chosen in the '74 player selections, marking the first time the Cowboys ever had the No. 1 pick in the draft. "Ed has unlimited potential," said Tom Landry. "I think he can be as great as any lineman we have had. He has the potential of a Bob Lilly. He has to prove he can do it, of course, but the potential is there." The All-American's speed (4.75 in the 40), size and agility had Cowboys coaches seeing him as a figure who can dominate a game. John Merritt, Ed's coach at Tennessee State, says, "It got so people we played against wouldn't try to throw to the side of the field he was playing on."

CHARLEY YOUNG • Running Back • North Carolina State
Ht: 6-1 • Wt: 215 • Born: 10/13/52 • D-1B for '74

Young was the Cowboys' second first-round choice, the 22nd player chosen, and is considered a prospect at both fullback and halfback. "He is another of our 'potential' picks," said Landry. "He alternated with other running backs at North Carolina State, but he is powerful, he has 4.6 speed and he has the potential to be a strong pro runner." Young rushed for 1,657 yards in his three-year varsity career and scored 17 touchdowns. He averaged nearly six yards a carry. Young was a high school star at Enloe High School in Raleigh, across town from N. C. State.

CAL PETERSON • Linebacker • UCLA
Ht: 6-3 • Wt: 218 • Born: 10/6/52 • D-3 for '74

Peterson played the "loose" defensive end position at UCLA, and the Cowboys expected him to have no problem converting to linebacker. "He has good speed, 4.8 in the 40, and he is a terrific competitor," said Cowboys scout Red Hickey. "Peterson is the reckless type, a big play maker. He could develop into an outstanding linebacker." Peterson, listed at 218 pounds, was expected to play at 225 or 230 in the pros.

KEN HUTCHERSON • Linebacker • Livingston, Ala., State
Ht: 6-1 • Wt: 214 • Born: 7/14/52 • D-4A for '74

Cowboys scouts say Hutcherson probably would have gone higher in the draft if he were a bit bigger. As it is, said Red Hickey, "He has speed and toughness. I think he'll be heard from. He would make a good, tough specialty team man this year." Hutcherson was an NAIA All-American, twice was named to the Gulf South Conference all-league team and was Gulf South Defensive Player of the Year as a junior. A team co-captain, he led Livingston with 86 tackles and 67 assists in '73.

ANDY ANDRADE • Running Back-Def. Back • Northern Mich.
Ht: 5-11 • Wt: 193 • Born: 6/14/51 • D-4B for '74

Andrade rushed for 1,511 yards in his college career, despite playing most of his senior season with a fractured collarbone. His speed (4.5-4.6 in the 40) had the Cowboys thinking about trying him at cornerback and as a kick returner as well as at running back. He had an 84-yard kickoff return for a touchdown at Northern Michigan.

RAYMOND NESTER • Linebacker • Michigan State
Ht: 6-2 • Wt: 224 • Born: 4/25/52 • D-7 for '74

Nester called defensive signals for Michigan State in 1973 and led the team with 54 unassisted tackles and 75 assists. He had five unassisted tackles, 14 assists and returned an intercepted pass for a touchdown in the Spartans' 14-10 loss at Notre Dame. Nester, a three-year starter for the Spartans, was named AP National Lineman of the Week for his performance against Notre Dame.

MIKE HOLT • Defensive Back • Michigan State
Ht: 5-11 • Wt: 176 • Born: 1/26/52 • D-8 for '74

A running back at Michigan State the past two seasons, Holt was to be tried at cornerback and as a kick returner with the Cowboys. He was a defensive back as a sophomore and as a senior returned a kickoff 95 yards to score against UCLA. Co-captain of the Spartans' football team, Holt also starred in track as a member of MSU's record-setting mile relay team.

BILL DULIN • Tackle • Johnson C. Smith
Ht: 6-6 • Wt: 244 • Born: 9/22/52 • D-9 for '74

Dulin was a tight end in college, but the Cowboys were to take a look at him at tackle. He has size and speed, and proved his agility by playing college basketball. Cowboys fans remember another J. C. Smith graduate, tight end Pettis Norman, now with the San Diego Chargers.

DENNIS MORGAN • Defensive Back • Western Illinois
Ht: 5-11 • Wt: 203 • Born: 6/26/52 • D-10 for '74

Another fast, smallish running back who was to be tried in the defensive backfield and on kick returns. Morgan averaged more than 30 yards per kickoff return as a junior and nearly 20 yards a punt return as a senior. Morgan was an honorable mention NAIA All-American, rushing for 1,254 yards in his college career and averaging 4.7 yards a carry.

HARVEY McGEE • Wide Receiver • Southern Mississippi
Ht: 6-2 • Wt: 209 • Born: 11/21/50 • D-11 for '74

Excellent size and speed (4.6 in the 40). McGee caught 47 passes for 617 yards and three touchdowns at Southern Mississippi and played in last winter's Senior Bowl Game at Mobile, Alabama. A 9.8 sprinter in track, McGee transferred to Southern Mississippi after first attending Arizona Western Junior College.

KEITH BOBO • Quarterback • Southern Methodist
Ht: 6-3 • Wt: 196 • Born: 4/10/51 • D-12 for '74

A strong-armed passer and a tough competitor, Bobo had a 13-5-1 record as a starting quarterback at SMU despite knee and shoulder injuries. He made the switch from a pro-style offense to the Wishbone his senior year and responded with 11 touchdowns rushing and four passing despite missing three games (all losses) with a shoulder separation. Bobo played tight end and running back as a sophomore, switching to quarterback the following spring. "He is a leader," said the scouting report.

FRED LIMA • Kicker • Colorado
Ht: 5-9 • Wt: 202 • Born: 11/17/51 • D-13 for '74

Lima led the nation in kick scoring as a junior, booting 15 of 34 field goals (including a Big Eight record 57-yarder) and 35 of 36 extra points. In '73 he was 6 of 11 on field goals with a 48-yarder and 24 of 26 on extra points. He kicked barefooted in college. A native of Chile but a graduate of Hollywood, Calif., High School, Lima has had bit parts in several movies including "The Godfather," "Save the Tiger" and "Conquest of the Planet of the Apes."

DOUG RICHARDS • Defensive Back • Brigham Young
Ht: 6-4 • Wt: 185 • Born: 8/16/52 • D-14 for '74

Richards was the leading scorer on the Brigham Young basketball team last year. His size and athletic ability convinced the Cowboys to gamble on him. Doug is the brother of Golden Richards, the wide receiver and kick returner drafted in the second round by Dallas in 1973.

BRUCE CRAFT • Defensive Tackle • Geneva, Pa.
Ht: 6-4 • Wt: 232 • Born: 9/23/50 • D-15 for '74

Craft was Geneva's Most Valuable Player and Defensive Player of the Year in '73 and a tri-captain of the club. He was a late bloomer, coming to Geneva after spending his first year out of high school working in the steel mills.

GENE KILLIAN • Tackle • Tennessee
Ht: 6-4 • Wt: 225 • Born: 9/22/52 • D-16 for '74

Killian was one of the question marks of the Cowboys' 1974 draft, but only because of a knee injury which shelved him for the bulk of his senior season. The Volunteer staff felt Killian was on the brink of greatness when he was injured. Cowboys scouts were impressed by Killian's quickness and agility. He was a shotputter on the Tennessee track team.

Divisional Playoff

DALLAS, Dec. 23 — The Cowboys got off to a fast start in their record eighth straight playoff appearance, jumping to a 17-0 lead over the Los Angeles Rams midway through the second quarter at Texas Stadium.

An interception by Lee Roy Jordan and a fumble recovery by Mel Renfro set up the first two touchdowns, and it looked as if Dallas were on its way to an easy victory.

Then the Rams, led by John Hadl, began chipping away. It finally reached the point where the Cowboys faced a fourth-quarter, third-and-14 situation at their own 17 nursing a 17-16 lead.

That was the perfect spot for the big play of the year, and that's what happened. Roger Staubach hit Drew Pearson for an 83-yard touchdown pass play to propel the Cowboys to their third straight NFC Championship Game.

NFC Championship Game

DALLAS, Dec. 30 — The resurgent Minnesota Vikings powered to a 10-0 halftime lead as Dallas, minus the injured Calvin Hill, could muster no sustained attack.

Suddenly, less than five minutes into the third quarter, the Cowboys were back in the ballgame. Rookie Golden Richards raced 63 yards to score on a punt return and it was 10-7.

One minute later, Fran Tarkenton completed a 54-yard touchdown pass to John Gilliam, it was 17-7, and the Cowboys never caught up.

"You can't really be successful unless you get to the Super Bowl," said Tom Landry, "but we had a good year with a lot of young players. We'll be back a lot stronger next season."

Historical Highlights

NFL FRANCHISE—Clint Murchison, Jr., and Bedford Wynne were awarded an expansion franchise in the NFL at the annual league meeting in Miami Beach, Fla. The Cowboys were to play as a "swing" team, playing every other team one time during their first season, although listed in the Western Conference standings (January 28).

COWBOYS STOCKED—A player pool was set up in a league meeting at L.A., with each of 12 NFL teams freezing 25 names on its roster and the Cowboys allowed to pick three from each team for a total of 36 veterans. Dallas, once given the list, had to select its 36 players within 24 hours (March 13).

TRAINING STARTS—Rookies report to first Cowboys camp at Pacific U., in Forest Grove, Oregon (July 9).

FIRST PRE-SEASON GAME—The Cowboys, less than six months in existence, get their first test and drop a 10-16 pre-season game to San Francisco in Seattle (August 6).

FIRST HOME GAME—In their Dallas debut, in the Salesmanship Club pre-season game, the Cowboys led the World Champion Baltimore Colts into the final minute before a 71-yard pass from Johnny Unitas to Lenny Moore gave the Colts a 14-10 victory (August 19).

FIRST VICTORY—In a pre-season game at Louisville, Ky., the Cowboys beat New York's Giants, 14-3, with Frank Clarke catching touchdown passes of 73 yards (Eddie LeBaron) and 74 yards (Don Meredith). (August 27).

FIRST LEAGUE GAME—In their first league game, Dallas fell to Pittsburgh, 35-28, with Bobby Layne leading a fourth period Steeler rally (Sept. 24, Saturday night).

STREAK SNAPPED—Dallas snaps a 10-game loss streak by tying New York, 31-31, at Yankee Stadium (Dec. 4).

TRAINING STARTS — Rookies launch training at new campsite—St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn. (July 9).

FIRST LEAGUE WIN — Scoring ten points in the final 56 seconds, the Cowboys score their first NFL victory, 27-24, over Pittsburgh in the '61 league opener in the Cotton Bowl. Allen Green's 27-yard field goal on the game's final play won it before 23,500 (Sept. 17).

1962

TRAINING STARTS — Team begins training at new campsite — Northern Michigan College in Marquette, Mich. (July 13).

PENALTY HISTORY — For the first time in anyone's memory in an NFL game, points were awarded for a penalty. The Cowboys were detected holding in the end zone on a 99-TD pass from LeBaron to Clarke, and Pittsburgh was awarded a safety. The Steelers eventually won, 30-28 (Sept. 23).

100-YARD FIRSTS — Cowboys Amos Marsh returned a kickoff 101 yards and Mike Gaechter returned a pass interception 100 yards, both plays for fourth quarter TD's in a 41-19 win over Philadelphia in Dallas. It was the first time in NFL history that two 100-yard runs had been made in the same game, much less by the same team in the same quarter (Oct. 14).

SHIFT TO KANSAS CITY — The rival Dallas Texans of the AFL announce they are moving the franchise to Kansas City (Feb. 8).

CALIFORNIA TRAINING SITE — The Cowboys open training at California Lutheran College in Thousand Oaks, Calif. (July 12).

HOWTON SETS RECORD — Bill Howton broke Don Hutson's all-time receiving mark with a 14-yard catch against Washington (there). Hutson's record was 7,991 yards and the catch gave Howton an even 8,000 yards (Sept. 29).

1964

LANDRY CONTRACT — With one year to go on his original contract, Tom Landry is signed to a ten-year extension, in effect giving him an 11-year pact, possibly the longest in major pro sports history (Feb. 5).

1965

FIRST SELLOUT — An overflow crowd of 76,251 jams the Cotton Bowl for the Cleveland game, notching the team's first home sellout. Cleveland won, 24-17 (Nov. 21).

1966

PLAYOFF BOWL — After defeating New York, 38-20, in the season finale (and winning five of their last seven games) to get into the Playoff Bowl at Miami, the Cowboys fall to Baltimore, 35-3 (Jan. 15).

MERGER — Peace comes to pro football with Cowboys GM Tex Schramm completing two months of negotiations with AFL's Lamar Hunt, merging the two leagues under the NFL banner (June 8).

SCHRAMM ELEVATED — Texas E. Schramm, Vice-President and General Manager of the Cowboys from the beginning, was named President of the club by owner Clint Murchison, Jr., who retained the title of Chairman of the Board.

NEELY CASE SOLVED — Dallas and Houston reached agreement in the Ralph Neely case. Neely remained with Dallas with Houston receiving the Cowboys Nos. 1, 2 and two fifth place picks in the 1967 draft (Nov. 17).

THE CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys won their first championship, capturing the Eastern Conference title with a 10-3-1 record, but lost the NFL Championship Game to Green Bay, 34-27.

TEXAS STADIUM — On Dec. 23, owner Clint Murchison, Jr., formally announced plans to build Texas Stadium in suburban Irving. The stadium, to be financed through a bond-option plan, would be ready for the 1970 season. The stadium would seat a minimum of 58,000.
SECOND CHAMPIONSHIP — Under the NFL's new format, the Cowboys easily won the Capitol Division and defeated Cleveland, Century Division winner, 52-14, in the Cotton Bowl for the Eastern conference championship. However, on Dec. 31 in Green Bay, the Cowboys lost their second bid for an NFL title, falling to the Packers, 21-17, in the 13 degree below weather.

1968

WIN CAPITOL — For the second straight year the Cowboys won the Capitol Division, but for the first time in three years the Cowboys did not win the Eastern Championship, being upset at Cleveland, 31-20, on December 21st. Dallas won the Runner-Up Bowl over Minnesota, 17-13.

1969

TEXAS STADIUM — Ground was broken for Texas Stadium in suburban Irving on January 25, and on June 29 Bert Rose was named general manager of the stadium.
ORIGINALS RETIRE — An era ended for the Cowboys in July. On July 5th at a press conference in Dallas, quarterback Don Meredith, the last of the original Cowboys, announced his retirement. Then, on July 18th, the day the veterans were to report to training camp, all-time rushing great Don Perkins officially retired.
REPEAT CAPITOL WINS — Once again the Cowboys rolled to the Capitol Division Championship with an 11-2-1 season. However, the Cowboys failed to win the Eastern Championship when on Dec. 28, the Cowboys lost to Cleveland, 38-14, in the Cotton Bowl.

FIVE STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys won their last five games to finish 10-4, claim the Eastern Division championship and make the playoffs for the fifth year in a row. They defeated Detroit, 5-0, in the opening round to get a shot at the National Conference championship.
FIRST NFC TITLE — The Cowboys captured the biggest prize of their 11-year history on Jan. 3 when they downed San Francisco, 17-10, for the NFC crown. A 16-13 loss to Baltimore in the Super Bowl Jan. 17 left Dallas with one major goal still unrealized.

TEXAS STADIUM — The Cowboys opened a new era in their sparkling Irving, Tex., home with a 44-21 victory over the New England Patriots on October 24. Duane Thomas scored the first touchdown in the new stadium, a 56-yard run just two minutes and 16 seconds after the opening kickoff. Attendance was 65,708.
SIX STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys won their last seven games to finish 11-3, claim the Eastern Division championship and make the playoffs for the sixth year in a row. They defeated Minnesota, 20-12, in the opening round.

SECOND NFC TITLE — For the second consecutive year, the Cowboys met the San Francisco 49ers in the National Conference showdown. This time Dallas won, 14-3, to qualify for its second straight Super Bowl.

FIRST WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys downed the Miami Dolphins, 24-3, to win Super Bowl VI in New Orleans on Jan. 16. It was the 10th victory in a row for Dallas as Roger Staubach passed for two touchdowns and was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

FIRST 1,000-YARD BACK — Calvin Hill became the first Dallas player to rush for 1,000 yards when he gained 111 on Dec. 9 against the Washington Redskins in Texas Stadium. Hill wound up with 1,036 yards for the season on a record 245 carries.

SEVEN STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys qualified for the NFL playoffs a record seventh consecutive year, their 10-4 record earning them the National Conference Wild Card berth. Roger Staubach passed for two touchdowns in the last 1½ minutes to give the Cowboys a 30-28 victory at San Francisco in the first round. Then, at Washington on New Year's Eve, Dallas was foiled in its bid for a third straight NFC title when the Redskins won, 26-3.

100 VICTORIES — The Cowboys and Coach Tom Landry recorded their 100th victory with a 40-3 Texas Stadium win over the New Orleans Saints on Sept. 24. Landry, the only head coach the Cowboys have had, ended the season with a career mark of 108-80-6 to rank ninth on the list of the NFL's all-time winningest coaches.

EIGHT STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys regained the NFC Eastern Division title and broke their own NFL record by reaching the playoffs for the eighth year in a row. Dallas defeated Western Division champion Los Angeles in the first round, 27-16, but fell to Central Division winner Minnesota in the NFC Championship Game, 27-10.
