THE MANAGEMENT

| MURCHISON | SCHRAMM | BRANDT |

The same management team that started with the Dallas Cowboys in 1960 began its 24th season intact in 1983, a remarkable achievement and a key factor in the club's success.

Under the direction of Chairman of the Board Clint W. Murchison Jr., President and General Manager Tex Schramm, Vice President for Personnel Development Gil Brandt and Coach Tom Landry, the Dallas Cowboys have developed into a model of consistency on the field that is a reflection of the team's stability in the front office.

The Cowboys' management has steered the club through an NFL record 17 straight winning seasons, 16 trips to the playoffs, a record five Super Bowl appearances and two world championships.

Schramm oversees the day-to-day operation of the Cowboys. In 1966 he was named president of the team, but also retained his position as general manager.

A journalism graduate of the University of Texas, Schramm joined the Los Angeles Rams as publicity director in 1947 after two years as a sports writer and sports editor at the Austin American-Statesman. In a 10-year career with the Rams he rose from publicity director, to assistant to the president, to general manager.

Schramm left the Rams in 1957 to join CBS as assistant director of sports. He put together the first network telecast of the Olympics, but following those Winter Games of 1960 in Squaw Valley, Calif., Schramm returned to pro football upon being hired by Clint Murchison to run the new Dallas NFL franchise.

In the spring of 1977 Schramm received an honorary degree (Doctor of Humane Letters) from California Lutheran College. After the Cowboys won the Super Bowl that season Schramm was named NFL Executive of the Year by the Sporting News, and in 1978 he received the Bert Bell Award for outstanding executive leadership in the NFL.

Brandt directs the Cowboys' scouting operation and supervises the signing of all players. A Milwaukee native and graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Brandt was a baby photographer and part-time scout for the Rams under Schramm when his flair for discovering talent led to his being hired by the Cowboys.

THE COACH

Mysteries beget questions. The Tom Landry mystery begets these: "How does he do it? How does he keep the Cowboys winning year after year after year? . . ."

Landry has become one of the most unique success stories in NFL coaching history. In a business of few secrets, Tom Landry has accomplished something to which all coaches aspire but few attain — consistently fielding championship caliber teams. He has driven the Cowboys through the barriers that send most NFL clubs through cycles of ups and downs.

Starting as a 35-year-old rookie head coach with an expansion team in 1960, Landry endured five straight losing seasons before finishing 7-7 in 1965. The club's record through the first six years was a dismal 25-53-4.

But beginning with a 10-3-1 mark in 1966, the Cowboys' ledger reads 177-62-2, giving Dallas the NFL's best record over the past 17 years. The Cowboys own the NFL's best record since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger, 135-50. They also had the league's best record of the 1970s, 105-39, 119-46 including playoffs.

Landry has guided the Cowboys through an NFL-record 17 consecutive winning seasons, including 16 trips to the playoffs for appearances in a league-record 34 playoff games. Landry's clubs have won 12 division championships and five NFC championships for a record five Super Bowl trips. The Cowboys have advanced to 10 of 13 NFC Championship Games since the game was instituted in 1970. And the Cowboys have won two world championships with victories in Super Bowls VI and XII.

The dean of NFL coaches in his 24th season, Landry ranked third on the list of all-time winningest NFL coaches with a 202-115-6 regular season record (plus 20-14 in playoffs) entering 1983, trailing only George Halas (320 victories) and Curly Lambeau (231).

Landry, the winningest active coach in the NFL, is one of only four coaches with 200 NFL victories. Only Lambeau, who coached Green Bay 29 straight seasons from 1921-49, has coached an NFL team for more consecutive years than Landry has coached the Cowboys.

Recognized as one of football's greatest innovators, Landry believes the most important quality he must convey to his players is leadership.

"What they see in me, hopefully, is that I'm always in control of the situation," Landry says, "and they're confident it will work out the way it should. That's leadership in a strong way. Players look at the coach first. If he doesn't appear confident, or looks defeated, then all of a sudden they are defeated. That's the one thing I hope they see in me — that I am in control of the situation and I am confident things will work out."

What does Landry enjoy most from his work?

"Watching young players develop," he explains. "That's why you're in this business — to work with young players, see their enthusiasm, see them achieve and reach their potential. It gives you a good feeling."

Wrote former Cowboys quarterback Roger Staubach in his autobiography, "In composite I remember him as a towering figure. To me he was, is and always will be special — a man apart from other men. What made him so, beyond his brilliant technical grasp of football, were two bedrock Landry characteristics: enormous self-discipline and consistency. Landry is the rock against which we all lean, often without realizing it, at some point during our careers."

Thomas Wade Landry was born in Mission, Texas, on Sept. 11, 1924. He was an All-Regional fullback at Mission High School before enrolling at the University of Texas. Following one semester he joined the Air Corps and flew 30 B-17 missions with the Eighth Air Force in World War II.

In November 1945 he was discharged as a first lieutenant and returned to Texas where he became a star fullback and defensive back, earning All-Southwest Conference honors as a junior and co-captaining the Longhorns as a senior. With Landry's help Texas beat Alabama in the 1948 Sugar Bowl and Georgia in the 1949 Orange Bowl.

Landry played for the New York Yankees of the All-America Conference in 1949 before joining the NFL's New York Giants the next year. He was a mainstay in the Giants' defensive secondary through 1955, the last two years as a player-coach. He earned All-Pro honors in 1954.

Following his retirement as a played in 1955, Tom served as the Giants' defensive coach through 1959. Giants Head Coach Jim Lee Howell called him "the best defensive coach in the business."

Coach Landry and wife Alicia, whom he met at Texas, have three children — Tom Jr., an attorney and oilman, Kitty and Lisa. Kitty presented Tom with his first grandchild — Ryan Edward Phillips — on June 26, 1980.

Landry is an inspirational leader to many because of his principles and achievements. Tom devotes much of his spare time to the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and serves on the Board of Trustees of the National FCA.

Coach Landry was a national Horatio Alger Award winner in 1983 for his inspirational rise to prominence. In 1981 the NFL Alumni Association presented him with its highest honor, the Order of the Leather Helmet, for distinguished service to football. Also in 1981 he was named the man of the year by the Football News.

Tom received the 1980 Vince Lombardi Dedication Award from the Wisconsin Chapter of the Pro Football Writers Association. Also in 1980 California Lutheran College, home of the Cowboys' annual training camp, established the Landry Medal, awarded annually to a person who has distinguished himself in his profession and serves as an inspiration to American youth.

Landry earned a degree in business at Texas and one in industrial engineering from the University of Houston. He holds honorary degrees from California Lutheran College (Doctor of Humane Letters), John Brown University (Doctor of Humanities), Southwest Baptist College (Doctor of Laws) and Indiana Central University (Doctor of Laws). In 1978 he was inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame.

THE COACHING STAFF

Jim Myers
Assistant Head Coach • Offensive Line

Under the guidance of Jim Myers, the Cowboys' offensive line consistently ranks among the best in the NFL. Myers has developed All-Pro and Pro Bowl players Ralph Neely, John Niland, Rayfield Wright, Blaine Nye, Herbert Scott and Pat Donovan.

Myers' specialty is converting college defensive linemen into top NFL offensive linemen, including Nye, Donovan, John Fitzgerald and Kurt Petersen.

Myers joined the Cowboys in 1962. He was head coach at Iowa State in 1957 and head coach and athletic director at Texas A&M from 1958-61. In 1977 Tom Landry turned over some of his duties to his long-time aide, naming Jim to the newly created post of assistant head coach. Myers has the longest tenure on the Cowboys' assistant coaching staff, 22 years.

A native of Madison, W. Va. (11/12/21), Myers was an outstanding lineman at the University of Tennessee in 1941-42 and at Duke in the Marine Corps V-12 program in 1943.

Prior to becoming head coach at Iowa State, Myers served as an assistant at Wofford College, Vanderbilt and UCLA. In 1978 he received the Distinguished American Award from the East Tennessee Chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame.

Jim serves on the board of directors of the Dallas chapters of the Boys Clubs of America and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He also serves on the Dallas Father of the Year Council and on the board of the Lovers Lane Methodist Church in Dallas.

Jim and wife Carolyn have three daughters — Susan, Kathy and Carol — and eight grandchildren.

Ermal Allen
Research and Development

Recognized as one of the foremost authorities on the NFL, Ermal Allen, in his 22nd season with the Cowboys, studies and evaluates all players and teams in the league. The reports of Ermal and Neill Armstrong provide the basis for the formulation of the Cowboys' game plans.

Allen coached the Cowboys' offensive backfield from 1962-69 following 14 years as an assistant coach at his alma mater, the University of Kentucky. Ermal served under Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1948-53 and under Blanton Collier from 1954-61.

Ermal played quarterback for Coach Bryant at Kentucky from 1939-41 and also played varsity basketball under Coach Adolph Rupp. Ermal was a member of the Fort Benning and Army all-star football teams during World War II and he played one season at defensive back with the Cleveland Browns in the All-America Conference in 1947.

Born Christmas Day, 1920, in Kylesford, Tenn., Ermal is a scratch golfer who twice won the Kentucky Amateur championship, beating Bobby Nichols in 1955 and Frank Beard in 1958.

Ermal and wife Allie have three children — Ken, Ann and Amy — and eight grandchildren.

Neill Armstrong
Research and Development

Neill Armstrong joined the Cowboys in 1982, bringing 27 years of coaching experience, including 10 as a head coach, to the team. Neill works with Ermal Allen scouting all teams and players in the NFL.

Armstrong compiled a 30-34 record in four seasons (1978-81) as head coach of the Chicago Bears before coming to Dallas. He directed the Bears to the playoffs in 1979 with a 10-6 finish. Before joining the Bears he was an assistant coach with the Minnesota Vikings for nine years, seven as defensive coordinator.

Armstrong led the Edmonton Eskimos to the Canadian Football League playoffs three times during a six-year reign as head coach from 1964-69. Neill began his professional coaching career with the Houston Oilers in 1962-63 following seven years (1955-61) as an assistant at his alma mater, Oklahoma State.

A native of Tishomingo, Okla. (3/9/26), Armstrong was an All-America receiver at Oklahoma State (then Oklahoma A&M) from 1943-46. He was the Philadelphia Eagles' No. 1 draft choice in 1947. He played on two NFL championship teams in five seasons (1947-51) with the Eagles. He played for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers in 1951-53-54.

Neill and wife Jane have three children — Neill Jr., David and Gail — and three grandchildren.

Al Lavan
Running Backs

Following eight years of coaching in college and the pros, Al Lavan became the Cowboys' running backs coach in 1980. Under Lavan the Cowboys' running game has remained one of the most feared in the NFL. Tony Dorsett, Ron Springs, Timmy Newsome and James Jones all have matured under Lavan's tutelage.

Lavan coached running backs at Stanford in 1979 after two years at Georgia Tech handling receivers and running backs. He directed defensive backs and special teams for the Atlanta Falcons in 1975 and '76.

Lavan began his coaching career in 1972 as receivers coach at his alma mater, Colorado State. He moved to Louisville to coach defensive backs in 1973 before being named receivers coach at Iowa State in 1974. The next season he returned to the Falcons as a coach.

A native of Pierce, Fla. (9/13/46), Lavan was a defensive back and place kicker at Colorado State and was drafted in the eighth round by Philadelphia in 1968. He played defensive back for the Eagles in 1968, then for Atlanta in 1969 and '70.

Al and wife Bessie have three children — Travis, Douglas and Maeleeke.

Alan Lowry
Special Teams

Alan Lowry was named Cowboys special teams coach in 1982 after five seasons as defensive backfield coach of his alma mater, the University of Texas.

Lowry is one of the few football players in Southwest Conference history to earn All-Conference honors both as an offensive and defensive star. He was a defensive back at Texas in 1970 and '71 when the Longhorns won a national and two conference championships. Lowry was All-SWC in 1971.

In 1972 Lowry was switched to quarterback and earned conference honors again in leading Texas to a 10-1 season, including a come-from-behind victory over Alabama in the Cotton Bowl. .

After receiving his degree in physical education, Lowry served as an assistant coach at Virginia Tech in 1974. He joined the Wyoming staff under Fred Akers in 1975, but resigned that post in the summer of 1976.

Lowry worked for the Cowboys' scouting department in the fall of 1972 before joining Akers' staff at Texas in December 1976.

Lowry is a native of Irving, Texas (11/21/50), home of Texas Stadium. His wife's name is Donna.

Dick Nolan
Receivers

Veteran NFL coach Dick Nolan returned to the Cowboys in 1982 as receivers coach. Dick was a player-coach for the Cowboys in 1962 and the team's defensive coach from 1963-67.

Nolan left the Cowboys to become head coach of the San Francisco 49ers from 1968-75. His teams won the NFC West championship in 1970, '71 and '72. He was NFC coach of the year in 1970.

Nolan joined New Orleans as linebackers coach in 1977 and was head coach of the Saints from 1978-80. Dick was the defensive coordinator of the Oilers in 1981 before returning to Dallas last year.

Nolan and Tom Landry were defensive back teammates with the New York Giants in 1954 and '55 when Tom was a player-coach. Nolan also played under Landry in 1956, '57 and '59 when Tom was New York's defensive coach. Nolan played for the Chicago Cardinals in 1958 before returning to the Giants for the next three seasons.

Born in Pittsburgh, Pa. (3/26/32), and raised in White Plains, N.Y., Nolan was a two-way star football player at the University of Maryland from 1951-53. He played offensive and defensive halfback on Maryland's 1953 national championship team.

Dick and wife Ann have six children — Richard Jr., Nancy, Michael, Kelly, Lisa and Jimmy.

Jim Shofner
Quarterbacks

The newest member of Tom Landry's staff is Jim Shofner, an 18-year coaching veteran who joined the Cowboys in February.

Shofner was an NFL assistant coach with Houston, Cleveland and San Francisco and head coach at his alma mater, Texas Christian University, from 1974-76.

Jim starred in football and baseball at TCU from 1955-57. He turned down a professional baseball career with Detroit to join the Cleveland Browns where he played defensive back from 1958-63.

Shofner's coaching career began in 1964 as an aide at TCU. He became defensive backfield coach of the 49ers in 1967, but was reassigned to coach quarterbacks and receivers in 1968 when Dick Nolan became the 49ers' head coach. Jim remained at San Francisco until 1973, leaving to return to TCU.

Shofner handled quarterbacks for the Cleveland Browns from 1977-79 and received much of the credit for Brian Sipe's development into a top quarterback. Jim served as the Houston Oilers' offensive coordinator in 1981 and '82.

A native of the Dallas suburb of Grapevine, Texas (12/18/35), Jim and wife Nancy have two children — Mike and Elizabeth.

Gene Stallings
Defensive Backfield

Working primarily with free agents and low-round draft choices has not prevented Gene Stallings from molding the Cowboys' defensive secondary into one of the top units in the NFL. The Cowboys intercepted 79 passes the past three seasons, more than any other NFL team.

Stallings joined the Cowboys in 1972 following seven years (1965-72) as head coach of his alma mater, Texas A&M. He has presided over the development of three All-Pros — Cliff Harris, Charlie Waters and Everson Walls.

Gene was an All-Southwest Conference receiver at A&M under Bear Bryant and a tri-captain on Bryant's undefeated 1956 Aggie team. Stallings served one year as a student-assistant coach at A&M before moving with Bryant to Alabama as an assistant. He remained there until returning to A&M as head coach in 1965.

Stallings was elected to the Texas A&M Hall of Fame in 1982. He also received a 1982 national Boys Clubs Alumni of the Year Award and a 1983 Dallas Father of the Year Award.

Gene, a native of Paris, Texas (3/2/35), and wife Ruth Ann have five children — Anna Lee, Laurie, John Mark, Jacklyn and Martha Kate.

Ernie Stautner
Defensive Coordinator • Defensive Line

Under the direction of Pro Football Hall of Famer Ernie Stautner, the Cowboys consistently field excellent defenses and All-Pro defensive linemen like Bob Lilly, George Andrie, Harvey Martin, Randy White, Ed Jones and John Dutton.

The Cowboys' famed "Doomsday Defense" began to emerge shortly after Stautner's arrival as defensive line coach in 1966. Ernie also helped fashion "Doomsday II," which carried Dallas to its second Super Bowl title in 1977.

Ernie was an All-Pro defensive end and tackle with the Pittsburgh Steelers where he played for 15 years (1950-64) despite being relatively small at 6-0, 235 pounds. A veteran of nine Pro Bowls, he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1969, his first year of eligibility. Last year he was voted to the Steelers' 50th anniversary team.

Ernie was born in Cham, Bavaria (4/20/27), but grew up in Albany, N.Y. Following a World War II Marine Corps hitch (1943-46), he enrolled at Boston College and developed into a two-way star lineman.

Ernie's wife's name is Pat. He has three children — Joe, Terri and Carol.

Jerry Tubbs
Linebackers

The only original Cowboys player still with the club is Jerry Tubbs, who came to Dallas in the 1960 expansion draft from the San Francisco 49ers.

Jerry was the Cowboys' first starting middle linebacker and one of only three in club history. As a coach he helped develop his successors at the critical middle spot, Lee Roy Jordan and Bob Breunig. Tubbs, Jordan and Breunig all have played in the Pro Bowl.

Tubbs played for the Cowboys for eight seasons (1961-67), serving as player-coach the last two. He was the Cowboys' first All-Pro and Pro-Bowl linebacker (1962) and was known as one of the most aggressive players in the game.

Jerry has coached four Pro Bowl linebackers in Dallas — Jordan, Breunig, Chuck Howley and Thomas Henderson.

Born in Breckenridge, Texas (1/23/35), Jerry was an All-America center-linebacker for Bud Wilkinson's unbeaten Oklahoma teams from 1954-56. Tubbs was the Walter Camp Award winner in 1956 as the nation's outstanding player.

He was drafted in the first round by the Chicago Cardinals in 1957 and also played for the 49ers before coming to Dallas.

Jerry and wife Marlene have two children — Alan and Kayla.

Bob Ward
Conditioning

Dr. Bob Ward has Cowboys players enthusiastically participating in his innovative conditioning programs, which include running, weightlifting, flexibility training and diet.

Working with computers and emphasizing futuristic concepts, Ward directs the Cowboys' voluntary offseason conditioning program, devising individual programs for each player. He also supplies each player with a training program during the season.

Ward was track coach for 11 years at Fullerton College in California before joining the Cowboys in 1975.

A graduate of Whitworth College in Spokane, Wash., Ward received his master's degree in physical education from the University of Washington and his doctorate from Indiana University.

Bob has trained extensively in the martial arts and taught Cowboys players various martial arts techniques that can be used in football. He is a member of Delta Force, a U.S. Army think-tank.

A native of Huntington Park, Calif. (7/4/33), Bob and wife Joyce have two children — Shannon and Erin.

DON COCHREN   KEN LOCKER   BUCK BUCHANAN

DON COCHREN, Trainer

Don Cochren joined the Cowboys in 1965 after experience in college, military and Canadian Football League training.

A graduate of Purdue, Cochren earned his physical therapy certificate at Pennsylvania. He was trainer at Case Institute (now Case-Western Reserve) in Cleveland for two years, with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL for four years and at the University of New Hampshire for one year before coming to Dallas. He also served as a physical therapy officer in the Air Force for two years.

Don was one of 28 trainers selected from colleges and professional sports teams to serve the United States team at the 1980 Winter Olympics in Lake Placid, N.Y.

A native of Princeton, Ind. (2/6/32), Don and wife Jan have four children — Jan, Scott, Wendy and Chris.

KEN LOCKER, Assistant Trainer

Ken Locker works with Don Cochren and supervises the Cowboys' medical rehabilitation program. Locker came to the Cowboys in 1973 after four years as assistant trainer and interim head trainer at North Texas State University.

Locker received his master's degree in physical education from Texas Women's University. He served two years as trainer of World Championship Tennis, making the men's tour in 1975 and '76.

In 1982 Ken was trainer for NBC's "Survival of the Fittest" competition in New Zealand. He serves as group coordinator of the Dallas Blood Center.

Ken is a native of Seminole, Texas (7/23/51). He and wife Pam live in Roanoke, Texas, with daughter Baylee Arrena (10/23/82).

BUCK BUCHANAN, Equipment Manager

William T. "Buck" Buchanan joined the Cowboys in 1973 after supervising athletic programs in the Air Force for 20 years.

SMSgt. Buchanan was a non-commissioned officer in charge of athletics and programs at the U.S. Air Force Academy Prep School in Colorado Springs for four years. He was awarded the Bronze Star for his performance during a 1968-69 tour of duty in Thailand.

Buck was born in Ballinger, Texas (5/24/33). He and wife Geraldine have two children — Bucky and Julie.

What To Look For In 1983

Cowboys winning their 18th league opener in the past 19 seasons and their 10th road opener without a loss. The club holds the NFL record of 17 straight opening-game victories from 1965-81.

Cowboys extending their NFL record of consecutive winning seasons to 18.

Cowboys setting a league record with their ninth straight playoff appearance. The club shares the mark of eight in a row (1966-73 and 1975-82) with Pittsburgh (1972-79) and the Los Angeles Rams (1973-80). It would be the Cowboys' 17th appearance in the play-offs in the past 18 years.

Cowboys improving their all-time Texas Stadium record of 79-17, including playoff games (1971-82).

Cowboys improving their NFC-best 31-10 record against the AFC in games against AFC West foes the Los Angeles Raiders, San Diego, Kansas City and Seattle.

Cowboys extending their consecutive game scoring streak of 176 to 192, which would be the third longest in NFL history behind Cleveland's 274 (1950-71) and Oakland's 217 (1966-80). Kansas City currently is third at 179 (1963-76). The Cowboys' only shutout loss was 38-0 to St. Louis on Nov. 16, 1970 at the Cotton Bowl.

Tom Landry, third winningest coach in NFL history, improving his 202-115-6 record (plus 20-14 in the playoffs). Landry trails only George Halas (320) and Curly Lambeau (231) in victories.

Tony Dorsett climbing the list of pro football's all-time leading rushers. Currently 10th with 7,015 yards, Dorsett can pass Leroy Kelly (7,274) and Larry Csonka (8,081) and move into seventh place if he gains 1,067 yards. He would become the ninth player in pro football history to rush for 8,000 yards.

Drew Pearson passing Bob Hayes as the club's all-time receiving yardage leader. Drew enters 1983 with 7,277 yards, 18 fewer than Hayes' 7,295 yards from 1965-74. Drew needs six catches to tie Haven Moses for 20th place on the list of pro football's all-time leading receivers with 448 receptions. With 65 playoff catches for 1,056 yards, Pearson also can become the NFL's all-time leading playoff receiver. Oakland's Fred Biletnikoff is No. 1 with 70 catches for 1,167 yards.

Danny White moving into the top five on the list of pro football's all-time leading passers. White needs 323 attempts to reach the 1,500 needed to qualify for the all-time rankings. White's career rating is 83.1 on 1,177 attempts. Roger Staubach is the NFL's all-time leader at 83.5, followed by Sonny Jurgensen at 82.8.

Rafael Septien becoming the first member of the Cowboys to score 500 points. He is the club's all-time leading scorer with 462 points.

Randy White earning consensus All-Pro honors for the sixth year in a row, tying Bob Lilly's team record (1964-69).

Harvey Martin leading the Cowboys in quarterback traps for the 11th straight season, every one since joining the club in 1973.

Billy Joe DuPree extending his consecutive games played streak of 143, third longest in club history to Bob Lilly's 196 and Cornell Green's 168.

Everson Walls becoming the first player to lead the NFL in interceptions three times, and the first to lead the league in interceptions three years in a row.

Dennis Thurman adding to his career playoff interception total of seven. He is tied with Oakland's Willie Brown for second in NFL career playoff interceptions. Former Cowboys safety Charlie Waters and Bill Simpson of the Rams and Buffalo share the record with nine each.

TONY DORSETT & DANNY WHITE

Brian Baldinger ★ 62

CENTER-GUARD • DUKE • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 253 • BORN: 1/7/59 • FA FOR '82

PRO: Considering how well the Cowboys were fortified at offensive line, Brian Baldinger pulled a major upset when he became the only free agent rookie to make the squad in 1982. A center-guard prospect, Baldinger saw action in four of nine games last year, mostly on special teams. He played a few series at center against Houston (12/13) when Tom Rafferty was injured. "Brian showed us some ability last year," Tom Landry says. "He's got the size and speed to develop into a good player at center or guard." With Robert Shaw's retirement and Glen Titensor also swinging between center and guard, Baldinger could be a key reserve in 1983. GAMES: 1982 (4).

COLLEGE: Baldinger was an All-Coastal Conference tight end at Nassau Community College on Long Island before transferring to Duke. He was switched from tight end to guard at Duke because of his blocking ability. He started 11 games his senior year and was considered the most improved player on the team.

PERSONAL: Brian David Baldinger of Massapequa Park, N.Y., comes from an athletic family. His father Jim played at Navy and his brother Richard played at Wake Forest and for the New York Giants last year after being their 10th-round draft choice. Brian participated in football, basketball and track at Massapequa High School. He received his degree from Duke in psychology.

Benny Barnes ★ 31

SAFETY • STANFORD • 12th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 204 • BORN: 3/3/51 • FA FOR '72

PRO: After a decade's wait, valuable Benny Barnes returned last year to the position he always wanted to play with the Cowboys. A safety in college, Barnes played cornerback most of his career, first as a backup and for almost five years, 1976-80, as a starter. In training camp last year he won the starting strong safety position vacated by retired Charlie Waters. Benny finished fourth on the club in tackles in 1982. "I'm glad I'm back at strong safety because now I feel I have something to prove," says Barnes, the senior member of the Dallas defense. "Right now I feel like a rookie again and the feeling is great." In 1981, as a third-down specialist and backup safety, Benny contributed his second career touchdown, a 72-yard fumble return at

San Francisco (10/11). A free agent find after being overlooked in the draft, Barnes spent his first four seasons as a backup corner before winning a starting job in 1976. One of the club's best ever special teams players, Barnes won the Cowboys' special teams player of the year award in 1977. The burden of his career has been an injured right foot, which has required surgery three times since he broke it in 1974 at Cleveland (12/7). He was sidelined for the first five games of 1980 after an emergency appendectomy was performed in Washington the morning of the season opener (9/8). Despite his sore foot, Barnes led the team in interceptions in 1978 and enjoyed an outstanding '79 season, sharing the team lead in interceptions and fumble recoveries. One of the fumble recoveries resulted in Barnes' first NFL touchdown, a 33-yard return for what turned out to be the winning score at Minnesota (10/7). Benny shares the NFL record for most safeties in a season with two (1973). GAMES: 1972 (14), 1973 (14), 1974 (13), 1975 (14), 1976 (14), 1977 (14), 1978 (14), 1979 (15), 1980 (11), 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 148.

COLLEGE: Barnes was an All-Pacific Coast free safety in 1971 after intercepting seven passes, including three in a game against Washington. He started 24 consecutive games for Stanford and played on two Rose Bowl winners.

PERSONAL: A native of Lufkin, Texas, Benny Jewell Barnes and wife Joyce have three sons — David (1/20/72), Damon (8/8/74) and Deon (4/23/78). Benny is treasurer of Imperial Investors in partnership with Butch Johnson, Ed Jones and Preston Pearson. Benny is active with St. Vincent Hospital in Santa Fe, N.M., the Bob Hope School for handicapped children in Port Arthur, Texas, and the Arlington, Texas, Boys Clubs. He has a degree from Stanford in history and political science.

Larry Bethea ★ 76

DEFENSIVE END • MICHIGAN STATE • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 244 • BORN: 7/21/56 • D-1 FOR '76

PRO: With the Cowboys' starting defensive linemen each sporting All-Pro credentials, Larry Bethea's role has been to provide quality depth. A versatile athlete who has played all four defensive line positions, Bethea last year concentrated on backing up defensive ends Ed Jones and Harvey Martin. He contributed two quarterback traps in 1982, in victories at Washington and Houston. In 1981 Larry relieved left tackle John Dutton on passing downs during the warm early-season games. He got both his QB traps that season in the home opener against St. Louis (9/13). When Dutton was unable to play in the NFC title game (1/10/82) because of a thigh injury, Bethea recovered a fumble and generally held his own in his first start since 1979. The 28th player selected in the 1978 draft, Bethea is big, strong, fast and intelligent. Larry spent his first two seasons trying to settle at one position. As a rookie he filled in at right end on short-yardage situations when Harvey Martin was having leg problems. The biggest play of his career came in the 1978 NFC title game when he was credited with stopping Rams runner Jim Jodat on a fourth-and-one at the Dallas 14 to preserve a 7-0 Cowboys lead in the third quarter. Bethea started two games at right tackle late in the 1979 season when Randy White was hobbled by a sore foot. GAMES: 1978 (16), 1979 (16), 1980 (11), 1981 (16), 1982 (8). Total — 67.

COLLEGE: In 1977 Bethea became the first lineman since Illinois' Dick Butkus in 1963 to be named Big Ten most valuable player. Larry was voted to three All-America teams, twice made All-Big Ten and was voted the Spartans' MVP his senior year. He lettered four years, playing tight end as a freshman.

PERSONAL: Larry Bethea (beh-THAY-uh) has a degree in urban development and has worked for the Dallas Black Chamber of Commerce. He also has his real estate license. Larry and wife Gloria are from Newport News, Va. (Ferguson High School).

Bob Breunig ★ 53

LINEBACKER ● ARIZONA STATE ● 9th YEAR
HT: 6-2 ● WT: 225 ● BORN: 7/4/53 ● D-3 FOR '75

PRO: Bob Breunig is the Cowboys' defensive field general. Only the third starting middle linebacker in team history, Breunig has started 101 straight games, been voted to the Pro Bowl three of the past four seasons, led the team in tackles five of the past six years and served as a defensive captain the past three seasons. "Bob's biggest contribution is his leadership," says linebackers coach Jerry Tubbs. "He does a great job getting prepared every week. Some guys are smart but don't apply themselves. Bob applies himself. Toward the end of last season he played the best he has in the last couple of years." Breunig became the starting strongside linebacker in his second season. He was converted to the middle in 1977 to succeed retired Lee Roy Jordan, who had taken over for original MLB Jerry Tubbs in 1966. Tom Landry called Breunig's transition "remarkable" and "one of the reasons we were able to win our second Super Bowl." Breunig led the Cowboys in tackles from 1977-81, including a team-record 167 in 1979. Last year his 68 tackles in nine games was second to Michael Downs' 70. Bob was voted to the Pro Bowl in 1979, '80 and '82. His top game came in 1980 against the Giants (10/5) when he had 14 tackles, a quarterback trap and an interception. Breunig has not missed a game since his rookie year. GAMES: 1975 (10), 1976 (14), 1977 (14), 1978 (16), 1979 (16), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 111.

COLLEGE: Breunig capped an outstanding career at Arizona State by earning All-America honors in 1974 after leading the Sun Devils in tackles and fumble recoveries. A three-time All-Western Athletic Conference selection, he recovered 10 fumbles and intercepted six passes in his career.

PERSONAL: Robert Paul Breunig (BREW-nig) is active in numerous Christian and civic organizations, including the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Professional Athletes Outreach and the Happy Hill Farm Children's Home in Glen Rose, Texas. Bob's wife Mary is the creator and editor of the Cowboys' Wives' Family Fitness Guide and Nutritional Cookbook, proceeds going to Happy Hill Farm. A Phoenix native, Bob is a partner in the SBC Development Corporation, a Dallas real estate firm. During the season he has a daily radio show on KRLD in Dallas. Bob and Mary have three sons, Robert Jr. (11/11/78), Bart (12/17/80) and Ben (7/3/82).

Glenn Carano ★ 18

QUARTERBACK • NEVADA-LAS VEGAS • 7th YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 204 • BORN: 11/18/55 • D-2 FOR '77

PRO: A knee injury suffered at San Diego in the second preseason game (8/21) limited Glenn Carano's duties last season to holding for Rafael Septien on field goals and extra points. The previous season, 1981, Glenn got his first chance to play under pressure and led the Cowboys to two victories. In the Thanksgiving Day game against Chicago (11/26) Danny White suffered a rib injury in the first half and Carano directed Dallas from a 9-3 deficit to a 10-9 victory, completing 6-of-15 passes for 131 yards, including a 55-yard fourth-quarter completion to Tony Hill which provided the field position for the winning TD drive. The following week at Baltimore (12/6), in his first start, Carano went all the way in a 37-13 victory, completing 7-of-18 passes in a cold, swirling wind for 59 yards, including a two-yard TD to Ron Springs. "Glenn showed a lot of promise in those two games," Tom Landry says. "He's always had an excellent arm and a good grasp of what's going on. He has the type of ability that will make him a starter someday." Every year in preseason Carano shows he can move the offense. His best preseason was in 1980 when he completed 15-of-27 for 209 yards and three TDs. In '81 he was 17-of-38 for 248 yards and two touchdowns. In '78 he completed all eight of his preseason passes for 89 yards and a touchdown. Carano's first regular-season completion was a 12-yard touchdown pass to Billy Joe DuPree on Thanksgiving Day 1980 (11/27) against Seattle. The third quarterback taken in the '77 draft after Steve Pisarkiewicz (St. Louis) and Tommy Kramer (Minnesota), Carano was chosen in the second round with a choice from Seattle for wide receiver Duke Fergerson. GAMES: 1978 (2), 1979 (3), 1980 (3), 1981 (5), 1982 (7). Total — 20.

COLLEGE: Carano set every school career passing record in four years as a starter at Nevada-Las Vegas, the first three under current New England Patriots Coach Ron Meyer. Glenn completed 337-of-636 passes for 5,096 yards and 37 touchdowns. He also rushed for 19 TDs.

CARANO, Cont.

PERSONAL: Glenn Thomas Carano (ka-RAH-no) was born in San Pedro, Calif., near Los Angeles, and raised in Reno, Nev. His Pop Warner football coach was former Cowboys quarterback Eddie LeBaron, now general manager of the Atlanta Falcons. Glenn's twin brother Gene was his top receiver his senior year in college. In the offseason Glenn works in the investment properties division of Grunnah/Swanson Real Property Company in Dallas. Glenn and wife Dana, also a realtor, have two daughters — Kasey Lynn (9/6/80) and Gina Joy (4/16/82).

Dextor Clinkscale ★ 47

SAFETY • SOUTH CAROLINA STATE • 3rd YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 190 • BORN: 4/13/59 • FA FOR '80

PRO: After spending 1981 on injured reserve with an Achilles tendon injury, Dextor Clinkscale returned to active duty last year and made a strong contribution. An intelligent, instinctive football player, Clinkscale played strong safety on passing downs and had an interception, two quarterback traps, two deflected passes and a forced fumble. In the playoff victory over Tampa Bay (1/9) Dextor intercepted one pass, batted down another and got his hands on three more. "Dextor is in good position to become our starting strong safety," Tom Landry says. "He has excellent reactions and he's capable of hitting. He's got a good tough streak when he plays." Clinkscale also played regularly on passing downs his rookie year, helping fill the void at safety left by Cliff Harris' retirement and an injury to Randy Hughes. He intercepted a pass against Los Angeles in the playoffs (12/28). Soft-spoken Dextor didn't give much thought to playing pro football while in college. He says he signed with the Cowboys because it was his favorite team. GAMES: 1980 (16), 1981 (IR), 1982 (9). Total — 25.

COLLEGE: Clinkscale was a 1979 first-team Black College All-America safety and a three-time All-Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference pick at South Carolina State. He also was chosen for the 1980 Black College all-star game.

PERSONAL: A native of Greenville, S.C., Frederick Dextor Clinkscale earned a college degree in business administration. His three brothers also attended college on football scholarships and earned their degrees. Dextor has served as a spokesman on the importance of education for the Greenville County schools.

Jim Cooper ★ 61

TACKLE • TEMPLE • 7th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 263 • BORN: 9/28/55 • D-6 FOR '77

PRO: Ever so quietly, Jim Cooper has become a fixture at right tackle for the Cowboys. Although overshadowed in the past by Pro Bowl offensive linemen Herb Scott and Pat Donovan, Cooper has performed consistently well the past three seasons. Ironically, he almost got away from the Cowboys. He was among the last players released in '77 training camp, but was recalled before the first game because of a knee injury to former tackle Jim Eidson. Versatile enough to play any offensive line position, Cooper backed up the guard spot his rookie year and started two games at center in 1978. He started the first 11 games of '79 at right tackle before inexperience caught up with him and Rayfield Wright won back the position. Coop took undisputed possession of the right tackle job in 1980 and by season's end prompted Tom Landry to call him "one of our underrated players." Jim did an outstanding job in the playoffs, especially against Atlanta (1/4), winning a game ball from the coaches. His top game in 1981 came in a big victory at Philadelphia (11/1) in front of his hometown fans when he earned the Oak Farms MVP award and a game ball. He filled in at center in the second half against St. Louis (9/13) after Robert Shaw injured a knee. In 1982 Cooper won another game ball for his work against the Cardinals (9/19). GAMES: 1977 (14), 1978 (14), 1979 (15), 1980 (15), 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 83.

COLLEGE: Cooper started for three years at Temple under Wayne Hardin, Roger Staubach's coach at Navy. Jim played in the offensive and defensive lines before settling at offensive tackle.

PERSONAL: Philadelphia natives James Albert Cooper and wife Mary, a nurse, live in Richardson, Texas, with their son, James Ryan (6/6/79). In the offseason Jim is a real estate agent for Century 21 Real Estate Company.

PRO: A changing of the guard occurred last year when Doug Cosbie replaced veteran Billy Joe DuPree as the Cowboys' starting tight end. Although Billy Joe still logged plenty of playing time, Cosbie developed into one of Danny White's favorite targets and a force in the league. Cosbie's 30 receptions in nine games, more than he had in his first three seasons combined, was second on the team to Tony Hill's 35 and tops among NFC tight ends. Cosbie's four TD receptions led the team and he added nine catches for 94 yards and a touchdown in the playoffs. In 1981, when Doug shared the position with DuPree as a play messenger, he tied Butch Johnson for the club lead in touchdown receptions with five. Four came at key moments of second-half comeback victories (Miami, at Philadelphia, Buffalo, Washington). He also caught a 21-yard TD pass to send Dallas ahead of San Francisco 27-21 in the fourth quarter of the NFC Championship Game (1/10/82). A Dallas newspaper described Cosbie as "the consummate Cowboy — the diplomat, the hard worker, the willing learner, the unknown collegiate with the unlimited talent, the draft find." Doug was the fourth tight end taken in the 1979 draft behind Kellen Winslow (San Diego), Dan Ross (Cincinnati) and Ronnie Lee (Miami). He was selected with a choice obtained in a trade with Seattle for Bill Gregory. GAMES: 1979 (16), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Totals — 57.

COLLEGE: Cosbie caught 120 passes for 1,721 yards and 10 touchdowns in four years at Santa Clara, three as a starter. In his senior year he served as a team captain and was voted the club's offensive MVP and honorable mention All-Pacific Coast. He also attended Holy Cross College in Worcester, Mass., and DeAnza Junior College in Cupertino, Calif.

PERSONAL: Douglas Durant Cosbie is a native of Mt. View, Calif., where he attended St. Francis High and played football, basketball, baseball and ran track. Doug has a degree in marketing and works in the offseason as a leasing agent for Dawn Development, a Dallas commercial real estate company. Doug supports the Special Olympics for the handicapped and the Multiple Sclerosis Society of Dallas. He and wife Sherry live in Plano, Texas, with son Matthew Douglas (8/19/80) and Kari Kirrene (7/2/83).

Anthony Dickerson ★ 51

LINEBACKER • SOUTHERN METHODIST • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 222 • BORN: 6/9/57 • FA FOR '80

PRO: Players who possess the natural gifts of Anthony Dickerson don't come along often. The Cowboys are hoping he's ready to develop the consistency that could turn him into a first-rate starting outside linebacker. For the past three seasons Dickerson has been a regular on passing downs because of his ability to cover running backs. "Dickerson has great speed and ability to make the big play," Tom Landry says. "He's quick as a cat, which gives him the potential to be an outstanding player." A top special teams contributor, Anthony was named the Cowboys' special teams player of the year in 1980 and '81. He served as special teams captain in '81. It's been an unlikely ascent for Dickerson, whose career appeared finished in 1979. He left SMU after his junior year in '77 and signed with Calgary of the Canadian Football League. The Stampeders released him after 10 games in '78. Dickerson moved to Los Angeles and worked as a handyman at the Burbank Airport. Then he returned to his native Texas and was taking business courses at the University of Houston when the Cowboys offered him a contract in 1980. Anthony intercepted two passes against San Francisco his rookie year (10/12) and caused two fumbles on special teams versus Seattle (11/27) that led to two touchdowns. He tied Aaron Mitchell for the 1980 team lead in forced fumbles with three. In the 1980 playoffs he recovered a fumble at Atlanta (1/4) and intercepted a pass at Philadelphia (1/11). He's been the club's leading QB trapper among non-linemen the past two years. GAMES: 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 41.

COLLEGE: Dickerson earned Junior College All-America honors at linebacker for Henderson J.C. in Athens, Texas, in 1976. He transferred to SMU in Dallas and was named co-captain after '77 spring practice. Although he played just one season, his coach, Ron Meyer, now head coach of the New England Patriots, said, "I haven't been around that long but Dickerson was the greatest linebacker I have ever coached."

PERSONAL: Texas City, Texas, native Anthony Charles Dickerson was a high school All-America halfback and linebacker at Pearland High, outside Houston. Anthony was raised on a truck farm in Pearland in a family with five older sisters. He is a licensed florist.

Doug Donley ★ 83

WIDE RECEIVER ● OHIO STATE ● 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-0 ● WT: 173 ● BORN: 2/6/59 ● D-2 FOR '81

PRO: With the talented wide receiver trio of Drew Pearson, Tony Hill and Butch Johnson remaining productive, Doug Donley has not yet received much opportunity to play. But Tom Landry is looking forward to unleashing Donley's considerable talents soon. "We're hoping Doug will have a chance to play more," Landry says. "He's been injured some but he surely has the great speed. He's our fastest receiver and could be a real threat if we can start using him more." Very impressive early in his rookie training camp, Donley was slowed by a groin pull during most of preseason '81. His debut, however, was spectacular. In the '81 preseason finale against Houston (8/29) he caught two passes, both for touchdowns, a 33-yarder from Danny White and an 18-yard strike from Gary Hogeboom. Donley caught two passes for 18 yards in the '81 playoffs. Last season he performed some kick return duties in addition to backing up the receiver position. In the playoffs he ran a reverse 25 yards against Tampa Bay (1/9). "He causes defenses to sag because of his speed," says receivers coach Dick Nolan. "Before you know it, he is right on top of the defensive back and that's hard to stop." GAMES: 1981 (11), 1982 (6). Total — 17.

COLLEGE: Called "White Lightning" by his teammates, Donley led Ohio State in receiving his last three years en route to establishing school career records for receiving yards and receiving touchdowns. He caught 106 passes for 2,252 yards and 16 TDs in his career. His best season was 1980 when he grabbed 43 passes for a school season-record 887 yards and seven touchdowns. He averaged 21.2 yards per catch in his career and was a two-time consensus All-Big Ten selection.

PERSONAL: Douglas Max Donley is a native of Cambridge, Ohio, where he was an all-state halfback at Cambridge High, captained the football and basketball teams and ran a 9.4 100-yard dash for the track team. A communications major at Ohio State, Doug is active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Pro Athletes Outreach, Big Brothers and other charitable endeavors.

Pat Donovan ★ 67

TACKLE • STANFORD • 9th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 257 • BORN: 7/1/53 • D-4A FOR '75

PRO: "Pat Donovan is just a lot quicker and faster, a better overall athlete, than most offensive linemen," Tom Landry says. "He's done a great job for us through the years." Donovan's performance has not gone unnoticed. He's been voted by his peers to the Pro Bowl the past four seasons and also to various All-Pro and All-NFC teams. From his left tackle position he usually takes on, and neutralizes, the opponent's top pass rusher. Like former Cowboys Pro Bowl guard Blaine Nye, Donovan was a defensive lineman at Stanford who made the switch to offense as a rookie. Pat was selected with a draft choice obtained from Houston for former running back-wide receiver Mike Montgomery. A backup his first two seasons, Donovan took over at right tackle in 1977 when Rayfield Wright suffered a knee injury. In Donovan's first season as a starter Dallas won the Super Bowl. In '78 Pat moved to his present left tackle spot to replace retired mentor Ralph Neely. Donovan emerged that season as a first-rate tackle. Against Green Bay (11/12) he became the first offensive lineman since John Fitzgerald in 1975 to win the Oak Farms Cowboys MVP award. In '79 Donovan received first-team All-NFC honors from United Press International, Pro Football Weekly and the Sporting News. He also became the first Cowboys offensive lineman to be voted a Pro Bowl starter since Rayfield Wright in '74. Donovan again was named to the Pro Bowl and to UPI's first-team All-NFC squad in '80. In '81 he was voted to the Pro Bowl, second-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and the Newspaper Enterprise Association, and second-team All-NFC by UPI. He did an outstanding job against All-Pro defensive end Lee Roy Selmon in a playoff victory over Tampa Bay. In 1982 Donovan was voted to the Pro Bowl and first-team All-NFC by UPI. He has played in 103 consecutive games. GAMES: 1975 (13), 1976 (14), 1977 (14), 1978 (16), 1979 (16), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 114.

COLLEGE: Donovan earned All-America mention at defensive end his junior and senior seasons at Stanford. A native of Helena, Mont., he was a state high school shot put and discus champion plus all-state in football and basketball.

PERSONAL: Patrick Emery Donovan, a descendant of the O'Donovans of County Cork, Ireland, has a degree in mechanical engineering and has worked in the offseason as a staff engineer for a Dallas contractor. Pat supports the March of Dimes through his participation in the annual March of Dimes celebrity golf tournament. Pat's wife Christa is community relations director of the Wadley Institute, a Dallas cancer research center.

Tony Dorsett ★ 33

RUNNING BACK ● PITTSBURGH ● 7th YEAR
HT: 5-11 ● WT: 192 ● BORN: 4/7/54 ● D-1 FOR '77

PRO: The most exciting and prolific running back ever to wear the Cowboys' uniform is Tony Dorsett, the club's all-time leading rusher and the NFL's 10th all-time leading ground gainer. "He's our catalyst," says Tom Landry. "He's the one who makes us go on offense." That fact is best illustrated by the Cowboys' 31-2 record in Dorsett's 100-yard games. "Tony is the epitome of an artist," says NFL career rushing leader Jim Brown. "There is no small back in football who can touch him. He's the fastest runner in the league without a doubt and he has great moves to go along with the speed." In 1982 Dorsett captured his first NFC rushing title and established an unbreakable NFL record when he raced 99 yards for a touchdown at Minnesota (1/3/83). He's the only NFL runner ever to gain 1,000 yards in each of his first five seasons. That streak, which was 11 consecutive 1,000-yard seasons counting high school and college, was broken last year due to the strike, although counting his 266 playoff yards Tony's season total was 1,011 yards. In '81 Dorsett was the NFL's second-leading rusher with a club-record 1,646 yards. He owns the Cowboys' top three season rushing performances, top eight single-game rushing efforts and four longest runs from scrimmage. He's the NFL's second all-time leading playoff rusher with 1,266 yards in 15 games, trailing only Pittsburgh's Franco Harris with 1,523 in 18 games. He also owns team records for most career 100-yard games (33), most 100-yard games in a season (9), most consecutive 100-yard games (4), most rushing attempts in a career and season, most career rushing touchdowns and most yards gained in a playoff game (160 vs. Rams in 1980). A team captain the past two seasons, Dorsett was voted to the Pro Bowl in 1978, '81 and '82. In '81 he also earned consensus All-Pro honors and was named NFC player of the year by UPI, the Washington Touchdown Club and the Kansas City Committee of 101. Last year he was a consensus second-team All-Pro. The second player selected in the '77 draft following a trade with Seattle, Dorsett won consensus rookie of the year honors in helping Dallas win Super Bowl XII. GAMES: 1977 (14), 1978 (16), 1979 (14), 1980 (15), 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 84.

COLLEGE: Dorsett crowned a brilliant collegiate career by winning the 1976 Heisman Trophy as the nation's outstanding player. Dorsett rushed for an NCAA career-record 6,082 yards and 58 TDs and led Pitt to the 1976 national championship with a 12-0 record. He broke or tied 14 NCAA records, was a four-time All-America and the first player in NCAA history with four 1,000-yard seasons and three 1,500-yard seasons.

PERSONAL: Anthony Drew Dorsett is a member of the National Easter Seals Sports Council, served as 1980 chairman of the American Heart Association's Jump-Rope-a-Thon fund raising program, has promoted the United Way, United Negro College Fund and the Dallas Civic Opera. In a 1979 Gallup Youth Survey of American teenagers' favorite sports personalities, Tony finished second to Roger Staubach. In 1981 Dorsett was named the best dressed man in sports by the Cutom Tailor's Guild of New York. Tony is a partner in the Southwestern Drilling Mud Company of Midland, Texas. Tony and wife Julie live in Wylie, Texas, with daughter Shukura (1/19/76). Tony also has a son, Anthony Drew Dorsett, Jr. (9/14/73).

DORSETT, Cont.

SAFETY • RICE • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 203 • BORN: 6/9/59 • FA FOR '81

PRO: Although he hasn't yet begun collecting the awards that already have gone to Everson Walls, Michael Downs was an equally spectacular 1981 free agent find. A starter at free safety since the first game of his rookie season, Downs led the Cowboys in solo tackles and finished second in total tackles in 1981. His 13 solo tackles and 15 total stops against Chicago (11/26) were club season highs. He also intercepted a pass against Tampa Bay in the playoffs (1/2). Last year Downs led the club in total tackles, the first defensive back to do so since Cliff Harris in 1976. He also had a team-leading three fumble recoveries, including an 86-yard return for a score at Houston (12/13), second longest in club history. Michael's 12 tackles against Tampa Bay (11/21) were a club season high. Also in that game he forced a fumble and recovered another at the two-yard line with five seconds left to preserve a victory, earning Pro Football Weekly's defensive player of the week award. "Michael is improving all the time," Tom Landry says. "His recognition has improved and he's coming up to make the plays at the line of scrimmage. He can only get better. He's got the ability to be in the Pro Bowl. He's got good range and good coverage man-to-man on tight ends when he has to cover them, so he could probably play strong safety if he had to." A pinched nerve in Downs' neck hampered his play as a senior at Rice, the main reason he wasn't drafted. He's missed one game as a pro, the second of his rookie year with a pulled hamstring. GAMES: 1981 (15), 1982 (9). Total — 24.

COLLEGE: A three-year starter at free safety, Downs intercepted nine passes in his career at Rice, including three in one game (TCU) in 1978. He was a senior co-captain.

PERSONAL: Dallas native Michael Lynn Downs attended South Oak Cliff High, the same school which produced teammate Harvey Martin. Downs earned undergraduate degrees from Rice in business, political science and physical education. In the offseason he works in youth marketing for the Dr Pepper Co. of Dallas. Michael and wife Vanessa live in Dallas.

Billy Joe DuPree ★ 89

TIGHT END • MICHIGAN STATE • 11th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 223 • BORN: 3/7/50 • D-1 FOR '73

PRO: In a decade with the Cowboys Billy Joe DuPree has established himself as the premiere tight end in club history and one of its most durable players. The fourth leading receiver in team history entering 1983, DuPree has not missed a game in his career. His ironman streak has reached 143 consecutive games (164 counting playoffs), third longest in club history behind Bob Lilly's 196 and Cornell Green's 168. BJ's streak of 93 straight starts (1976-81) was broken last season by Doug Cosbie, who won the starting tight end job from DuPree in preseason. Billy Joe had been the starter since his rookie year, although injuries reduced his playing time in 1975. DuPree set a club record for receptions by a tight end in '76 with 42. He was voted to the Pro Bowl in 1976, '77 and '78. His nine touchdown catches in 1978 led NFL tight ends. BJ has two 100-yard games, catching six passes for 100 yards against St. Louis in '75 (9/28) and five for 108 against New Orleans in '76 (9/19). "He has all the attributes you want in a tight end," Tom Landry says. "He's big, fast, makes the big play and blocks well. He's been a great team player for many years and he can still perform well." GAMES: 1973 (14), 1974 (14), 1975 (14), 1976 (14), 1977 (14), 1978 (16), 1979 (16), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 143.

DuPREE, Cont.

COLLEGE: DuPree caught 69 passes in three seasons in a run-oriented offense to finish third among all-time Michigan State receivers. He earned All-Big Ten honors his senior year. Billy Joe also played basketball for the Spartans.

PERSONAL: Winner of the 1982 Cowboys NFL Man of the Year award, Billy Joe DuPree (dew-PREE) is board president of the Judy Lott Community Center in Dallas, board member of Big Brothers of Arlington, Texas, and board member of the Dallas Heritage Society. He's also active in the United Way of Dallas. BJ was a finalist in the 1979 Brian Piccolo-YMCA Humanitarian Award. Billy Joe's Dallas business, CWC Construction, specializes in foundation work and steel reinforcing. BJ and wife Marsha have two sons — Shon (10/27/72) and Christopher (8/4/78).

John Dutton ★ 78

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • NEBRASKA • 10th YEAR
HT: 6-7 • WT: 275 • BORN: 2/6/51 • TRADE, BALT., '79

PRO: A top defensive end his first six NFL seasons, former Baltimore Colts' All-Pro John Dutton was switched to left tackle in 1980, his second season in Dallas following a 1979 trade. Dutton spent 1980 learning his new position while sharing it with starter Larry Cole. Cole retired after the '80 season and Dutton took command of the position in 1981, turning in a fine performance. "John came along very well in 1981 at tackle, and it was one of the keys to our defensive improvement," Tom Landry says. Dutton's absence from the NFC Championship Game in San Francisco because of a bruised thigh was considered a major blow to Dallas. Last year John was bothered by injuries. He limped through the first two games with a foot injury, bruised a shoulder in the first game after the strike and re-injured his right thigh in the playoffs. He underwent surgery on the thigh in the offseason. The Cowboys obtained Dutton from Baltimore on the Oct. 9, 1979 trading deadline to help plug holes left by the retirements of Ed Jones and Jethro Pugh. Dallas gave up first and second-round draft choices to acquire the three-time Pro Bowl selection. A right end at Baltimore, Dutton played left end in '79 and was moved to tackle in 1980 when Too Tall returned from boxing. He scored his first NFL touchdown in 1980 on a 38-yard interception return against Giants QB Scott Brunner (10/5). Chosen by the Colts in the first round of the '74 draft, the fifth pick overall (Too Tall was first), Dutton was a consensus all-rookie selection. In '75 he led the Colts in QB traps with a career-high 17, was selected to the Pro Bowl for the first of three straight years and was named to the AP and UPI All-AFC teams. The following season Dutton reached All-Pro status, leading his team in QB traps again with 13 and being named All-Pro by AP and All-AFC by UPI. He was named to the Pro Bowl and UPI's All-AFC team again in '77. GAMES: 1974

COLLEGE: A two-year starter and senior captain, Dutton was a consensus All-America in 1973. He played in two Orange Bowls and one Cotton Bowl with Nebraska. The Cornhuskers won the national championship in his sophomore season. John also threw the discus for the Nebraska track team.

PERSONAL: John Owen Dutton and wife Ginny live in Dallas with son Mason (8/4/79). They also own 80 acres in Lincoln, Neb. Ginny, a ballet dancer, studied under reknowned Edward Villela. John grew up in Rapid City, S.D., and attracted more scholarship offers for basketball than football. He has a degree in business administration.

Ron Fellows ★ 27

CORNERBACK • MISSOURI • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 174 • BORN: 11/7/58 • D-7A FOR '81

PRO: The Cowboys converted Ron Fellows to cornerback his rookie year after he had led the University of Missouri in receiving in 1980. An experiment based on Fellows' quickness, jumping ability, hands and previous experience on defense, it looks as if it may pay off big. "Ron Fellows is a very talented player," Tom Landry says. "He may be one of our quickest players. He covers well and returns kicks well. He's very valuable to us." Last year Fellows played right corner on passing downs with starting right corner Dennis Thurman moving to safety. Ron intercepted two passes in a preseason game at San Diego (8/21). A knee injury limited Fellows in the playoffs, however. Obtained with a draft choice from Tampa Bay for defensive end Dave Stalls, Fellows became a regular at the corner on passing downs in the 11th game of his rookie year, at Detroit (11/15). He led the club in punt and kickoff returns in 1982. The leanest member of the team, Ron is called "Bird" by teammates. He played at Missouri with current teammates Kurt Petersen and Howard Richards. GAMES: 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 25.

COLLEGE: Fellows played cornerback two years at Butler, Kan., Community College. He transferred to Missouri and moved to offense midway through his junior year of 1979. In 1980 he led the Tigers with 33 catches for 586 yards and four TDs. He was chosen Big Eight player of the week after catching six passes for 99 yards against Iowa State. Fellows was a hurdler in junior college.

PERSONAL: Ronald Lee Fellows, a native of South Bend, Ind., studied elementary education at Missouri. He and wife Lillie live in Dallas where they operate a fashion jewelry business for the Diamite Corporation.

Mike Hegman ★ 58

LINEBACKER • TENNESSEE STATE • 8th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 228 • BORN: 1/17/53 • D-7 FOR '75

PRO: Mike Hegman became the starting strong-side (left) linebacker in November 1979 when Thomas Henderson was released with four games left in the regular season. In the '79 playoff loss to Los Angeles (12/30) Mike led the club in tackles with nine and tipped Vince Ferragamo's pass that Billy Waddy caught for the 50-yard winning TD with two minutes left. Hegman won the starting job outright in '80 training camp and played "extremely well all season," according to Tom Landry. Highlights included a recovered fumble in the end zone for a touchdown at Philadelphia (10/19) and two interceptions against Seattle (11/27). He finished fifth on the club in tackles. Against the Rams in the playoffs (12/28) Hegman suffered a dislocated left elbow which knocked him out of the next two playoff games. After a fine training camp in '81, bad luck struck Hegman again when he broke a bone in his right forearm in the season opener at Washington (9/6). He missed the next five games after having played in 77 straight, but returned to start the final nine plus two playoff games. He recovered a fumble to set up the Cowboys' first TD in the NFC title game at San Francisco (1/10/82). Mike started every game in 1982. "Mike's the kind of player who doesn't make many mistakes and he's got great football instincts," says linebackers coach Jerry Tubbs. The best evidence of those instincts came in Super Bowl XIII when Hegman swiped the ball from Pittsburgh's Terry Bradshaw and raced 37 yards for a second-quarter touchdown. Hegman scored on a 66-yard interception return against Denver in '78 preseason. GAMES: 1976 (14), 1977 (14), 1978 (16), 1979 (16), 1980 (16), 1981 (11), 1982 (9). Total — 96.

COLLEGE: Hegman transferred from Alabama A&M and made Tennessee State's football team as a walk-on. He played middle linebacker on State's 10-0 1973 team, led the club in tackles in '74 and played on the same defense with Ed "Too Tall" Jones.

PERSONAL: A native of Memphis (Northside High), Michael William Hegman has a degree from Tennessee State in physical education. Last

Rod Hill ★ 25

CORNERBACK • KENTUCKY STATE • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 182 • BORN: 3/14/59 • D-1 FOR '82

PRO: Rod Hill performed exactly the way the Cowboys expected after making the little-known speedster their surprise No. 1 draft choice in 1982. "We picked him strictly on athletic ability, speed and movement, and he didn't disappoint us there," Tom Landry says. "He'll need some time to develop because he comes from a small school and didn't play against the top competition, but he has the qualities that in the long run could make him a great player. He did a lot of things well last year." The highlight was an 89-yard kickoff return to set up a crucial field goal in the 37-26 playoff victory over Green Bay (1/16/83). The return tied Hill with Nat Moore for the second longest kickoff runback in NFL playoff history. He also blocked an extra point attempt in that game. Hill replaced injured Ron Fellows as the Cowboys' passing-situation right cornerback late in the season and through the playoffs. GAMES: 1982 (9).

COLLEGE: Hill transferred to Kentucky State from Iowa where he was a wide receiver. The first Kentucky State player ever drafted in the first round, Hill was a nationally ranked return specialist in addition to intercepting eight passes for 213 yards in his career. He was an NAIA honorable mention All-America in 1979, an NAIA second-team All-America and AP honorable mention Little All-America in 1980, and a Sporting News honorable mention All-America in 1981.

PERSONAL: Detroit native (Martin Luther King High School) Rodrick Hill has four sisters and two brothers. He studied economics and computer science in college. In the offseason he helped the Special Olympics program in Paris, Texas, and spoke at Dallas schools on the importance of education. He enjoys playing Pac-Man and doing Richard Pryor impressions.

Tony Hill ★ 80

WIDE RECEIVER • STANFORD • 7th YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 198 • BORN: 6/23/56 • D-3A FOR '77

PRO: A player of extraordinary talent, Tony Hill has led the Cowboys in receiving yardage in each of the past five seasons and is the club's fourth all-time leader in receiving yards behind Bob Hayes, Drew Pearson and Frank Clarke. Hill and Hayes are the only Cowboys receivers to compile back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. Hill could become the first Dallas receiver with three 1,000-yard seasons. He was on his way last season with 15 receptions for 252 yards in the first two games but the strike erased his chances to reach 1,000. Hill added a team-leading 16 catches for 246 yards in the playoffs, including seven for 142 against Green Bay (1/9/83), equaling the club record for receptions in a playoff game. His 49-yard reception from Drew Pearson set up the winning score against the Packers. "Tony is our big play man,"

HILL, Cont.

Tom Landry says. "He has that ability to make the key play. He threatens the defense more than the other receivers we have because he has the excellent burst of speed to get under a ball that's deep. He's a very explosive player, the type who can turn a short play into a big play in a hurry." In five seasons as a starter the two-time Pro Bowl selection (1978-79) has caught 20 passes of 40 yards or longer and more touchdown passes (29) than any other Dallas receiver. Tony has made three memorable game-winning catches. In '79 his 22-yard quick screen with two minutes left beat Chicago (9/16) and an eight-yarder with 39 seconds remaining clinched the NFC East title for Dallas in a dramatic comeback victory over Washington (12/16). His 28-yard scoring catch with 45 seconds left lifted the Cowboys over St. Louis in 1980 (11/2). Hill was obtained with a draft choice acquired from Philadelphia in 1975 for former All-Pro guard John Niland. GAMES: 1977 (14), 1978 (16), 1979 (16), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 87.

COLLEGE: Hill broke all of former 49ers All-Pro Gene Washington's receiving records at Stanford. Tony caught 140 passes in four years for 2,225 yards and 18 touchdowns, including 55 catches for 916 yards in 1975.

PERSONAL: Leroy Anthony Hill, Jr., serves as honorary chairman of the Dallas chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation. In 1981 he started the Tony Hill Sports Camp for underprivileged children in his Long Beach, Calif., hometown. Tony was a quarterback at Long Beach Polytechnic High School. In 1978 Long Beach honored Tony as its athlete of the year. Tony has a degree from Stanford in political science. He finished third in ABC's 1983 SuperStars competition.

Gary Hogeboom ★ 14

QUARTERBACK • CENTRAL MICHIGAN • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 199 • BORN: 8/21/58 • D-5 FOR '80

PRO: He waited three years to play in a meaningful situation. When the opportunity finally arrived, it came wrapped in the most intense pressure imaginable. With 19 seconds left in the first half of the NFC Championship Game at Washington (1/23/83), Danny White was knocked unconscious and out of the game. Gary Hogeboom then got his chance and showed everyone why the Cowboys believe he is an outstanding talent. On the Cowboys' first two possessions of the second half Hogeboom smartly directed scoring drives, capping them with touchdown passes of six yards to Drew Pearson and 23 yards to Butch Johnson. Gary converted his first six third-down chances and finished with 14 completions on 29 attempts for 162 yards and two touchdowns. Two interceptions, however, spoiled Hogeboom's valiant effort at leading a Dallas comeback. "The quarterback position will be very competitive for us now because of Gary's emergence against Washington," says Tom Landry. "He gained a lot of confidence. Gary has a very strong arm, a quick delivery and good size." Hogeboom won the roster spot vacated by Roger Staubach, who retired prior to the '80 season. Gary slipped into two games his rookie season on special teams. He saw his first preseason action at quarterback in '81, completing 7-of-14 passes for 78 yards and one touchdown, an 18-yard strike to Doug Donley against Houston (8/29). Hogeboom appeared at quarterback in regular season for the first time at Baltimore in '81 (12/6), handing off three times to end the game. In '82 preseason he completed 20-of-36 passes for 297 yards, two touchdowns, three interceptions. GAMES: 1980 (2), 1981 (1), 1982 (4). Total — 7.

COLLEGE: Hogeboom led Central Michigan to its first conference championship and was named Mid-American Conference player of the year in 1979. He guided Central to a 19-2-1 record in two years as a starter and of his 28 career starts Central won 24. He passed for 3,088 career yards (208-of-395, 53 percent) and 19 touchdowns, and he rushed for 957 yards and 16 TDs. He set the school career total offense record of 4,045 yards.

PERSONAL: Gary Keith Hogeboom (HOAG-uh-boom) lives in Dallas with wife Kristi and daughter Heidi Jo (11/30/82). Gary attended North-view High School in his hometown of Grand Rapids, Mich. Gary has his Michigan real estate license and hopes to become a homebuilder in Dallas. He has helped promote the Special Olympics and the American Heart Association.

Monty Hunter ★ 34

SAFETY • SALEM COLLEGE • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 202 • BORN: 1/21/59 • D-4B FOR '82

PRO: Monty "Big Game" Hunter bagged the biggest trophy of his rookie season in dramatic fashion. With the Cowboys trailing Tampa Bay 17-16 early in the fourth quarter of the first-round playoff game (1/9/83), Hunter picked off a Doug Williams pass and returned it 12 yards for the go-ahead touchdown in Dallas' 30-17 victory. "Big Game" also contributed to a regular-season victory over the Bucs (11/21) when he stripped the ball from tight end Jimmie Giles inside the 10-yard line with less than 10 seconds to play. Michael Downs recovered the fumble at the two to preserve the victory. Hunter was a pleasant surprise to the Cowboys. The rookie from tiny Salem College continued to progress during the season while playing regularly in the Cowboys' "4-0," or passing-situation, defense. Because of his size he often played linebacker in the "4-0" defense, covering running backs and tight ends. "We have great hopes for Monty," Tom Landry says. "Although he's very inexperienced, he's got the size and speed and he made excellent progress last year." GAMES: 1982 (9).

COLLEGE: A four-year starting cornerback, Hunter intercepted a school-record 19 passes in his career at Salem (enrollment 1,000) in Salem, W. Va. He earned All-West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and honorable mention Little All-America honors in 1981. He returned a kickoff 93 yards for a touchdown against West Virginia Wesleyan.

PERSONAL: Orie Montgomery Hunter III was a running back at Dover, Ohio, High School. In June the town of Dover celebrated "Monty Hunter Day" and Dover High retired his No. 18 jersey. Also in the offseason Monty made appearances at three Dover area Starlight Schools for retarded citizens. Monty majored in industrial technology and safety at Salem.

Butch Johnson ★ 86

WIDE RECEIVER ● CAL-RIVERSIDE ● 8th YEAR
HT: 6-1 ● WT: 187 ● BORN: 5/28/54 ● D-3C FOR '76

PRO: A true competitor who prides himself on making the clutch receptions, Butch Johnson has contributed memorably to numerous Cowboys victories. "Butch makes the tough plays in tough situations," Danny White says. "He always has, and he always will." Last season against Houston (12/13) Butch had the first two-touchdown game of his career, which included a spectacular over-the-shoulder 21-yard grab in the corner of the end zone. He added nine playoff receptions for 149 yards, including a fine 23-yard touchdown catch in the NFC title game. In '81 Butch had his most productive season and co-led the club in TD catches with Doug Cosbie with five, all significant plays in victories. Two other receptions of note that season were Johnson's 47-yard fourth-quarter catch to set up the final TD in the division title clinching win over Philadelphia (12/13) and a diving one-handed 20-yard catch to set up Dallas' first score in the NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (1/10/82). In 1980 Johnson caught a 35-yard touchdown pass that sent the Cowboys ahead of the Rams 27-13 late in the third quarter of the NFC Wild Card victory (12/28). In '79 his diving 19-yard third-down catch sparked a late fourth-quarter rally at the Giants (11/4) and in a playoff-clinching victory at Philadelphia (12/8) Butch alertly snared a deflected 17-yard pass for the winning TD in the fourth period. In '77 Johnson made a remarkable one-handed TD grab against San Francisco (12/12), then capped the season with a spectacular TD catch in Super Bowl XII, a diving 45-yarder to send Dallas ahead of Denver 20-3 in the third quarter. He scored his second Super Bowl TD the next year against Pittsburgh on a four-yard pass late in the game. Johnson led the team in kickoff and punt returns his first three seasons. As a rookie he tied an NFL record with nine punt returns against Buffalo (11/15/76). His club season records for punt return yardage and most punts returned were broken in '80 by James Jones. GAMES: 1976 (14), 1977 (14), 1978 (16), 1979 (11), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 96.

COLLEGE: Johnson led the nation in receiving in 1975 with 67 catches for 1,027 yards in just eight games, earning All-America honors and his team's MVP award. He caught 139 passes in his career, 17 for touchdowns. He also was a pole vaulter on the Cal-Riverside track team.

PERSONAL: Los Angeles native (Dorsey High) Michael McColly Johnson is vice president of Dallas-based Imperial Investors and works for the CBS Dallas affiliate (KDFW) as a sports reporter. Butch donates his time to Ronald McDonald House, West Dallas Community Center, Dallas Society for Crippled Children, the Association for Retarded Citizens, and the Dallas SCAN Center for abused and neglected children. His brother-in-law is singer-songwriter Bill Withers and his second cousin is former Massachusetts Senator Edward Brooke. Butch and wife Julie live in Plano, Texas, with sons Michael McColly, Jr. (9/8/80) and Jeremy Charles (2/2/82).

Ed Jones ★ 72

DEFENSIVE END ● TENNESSEE STATE ● 9th YEAR
HT: 6-9 ● WT: 272 ● BORN: 2/23/51 ● D-1A FOR '74

PRO: The football career of Ed "Too Tall" Jones has taken off and now soars where most thought it would after the Cowboys made him the first selection in the 1974 NFL draft. Since re-signing with the Cowboys on July 8, 1980 after spending 1979 as a professional boxer, Jones has become a dominant player. He was voted to the Pro Bowl in 1981 and '82, was named All-Pro in '81 by the NEA and in '82 by AP. He also was a second-team All-Pro choice by the NEA and a second-team All-NFC pick by UPI last season. Too Tall had his third career interception last year, against New Orleans (12/19), and caused the fumble that resulted in Michael Downs' 86-yard touchdown return at Houston (12/13). In '81 Jones knocked down 10 passes, led the club in fumble recoveries for the second straight year and was voted the team defensive MVP by the Dallas media in seven of 13 victories. He also blocked an extra point attempt which set up a 10-9 victory over Chicago (11/26). Too Tall batted down a career-high 11 passes in 1980. He seems to rise to his most awesome heights in the playoffs, especially in '77 and '78 when the Cowboys went to the Super Bowl. Jones had 23 tackles, two QB traps, two batted-down passes and two forced fumbles in the '77 playoffs, 19 tackles, two sacks and a fumble recovery in the '78 playoffs, including a team-leading seven tackles in Super Bowl XIII. In a divisional playoff after the '81 season he knocked down one pass and intercepted another against Tampa Bay (1/2/82). The Cowboys obtained the rights to draft Jones in '74 from Houston for defensive end Tody Smith and wide receiver Billy Parks. The Cowboys also got Danny White with a draft choice from that deal. Too Tall started his career at weakside (right) defensive end and made the all-rookie team. In his second season he swapped positions with Harvey Martin and became a left end. Jones has not missed a game in his career. GAMES: 1974 (14), 1975 (14), 1976 (14), 1977 (14), 1978 (16), 1979 (DNP), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 113.

COLLEGE: Jones was a two-time All-America at Tennessee State where he also played two seasons of basketball. A college teammate dubbed him "Too Tall." Jones did not begin playing football until his senior year at Merry High in Jackson, Tenn.

PERSONAL: Edward Lee Jones, a native of Jackson, Tenn., is a partner in Dallas-based Imperial Investors with Butch Johnson, Preston Pearson and Benny Barnes. He has a degree in health and physical education. The multi-talented Jones has appeared in two movies and made a guest appearance on the TV comedy "Diff'rent Strokes." He enjoys singing rhythm and blues and has released a record. He has been active in promoting the Special Olympics for the handicapped and other charity causes.

James Jones ★ 23

RUNNING BACK • MISSISSIPPI STATE • 4th YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 202 • BORN: 12/6/58 • D-3B FOR '80

PRO: A knee injury reduced James Jones' 1982 season to appearances on special teams in four games. Jones had offseason surgery on the knee in hopes of returning to the form that made him a valuable offensive performer. "I'd describe him as a player who is solid," says running backs coach Al Lavan. "He's a very good receiver, blocks well and brings the right attitude to the practice field. He's also a quick runner." In 1981 Jones averaged 5.3 yards per carry, tops on the team among running backs. His 59-yard TD run at Baltimore (12/6) was the club's second longest run from scrimmage that season. In the playoffs Jones was the Cowboys' second leading pass receiver with five catches for 32 yards. In his rookie season James made a sparkling debut when he picked up 45 yards on 10 carries in a season-opening victory at Washington (9/8) with Dorsett sidelined periodically by leg cramps. But it was as a kick returner that he made his biggest contribution. Jones set club season records for punt returns (54) and punt return yardage (548), breaking Butch Johnson's previous marks. James' 10.1-yard punt return average was the team's highest since Johnson's 10.9 in 1976 and it ranked fifth best in the NFL and fourth in the NFC. Jones' 22.5-yard kickoff return average was the club's best since Johnson's 24.4 in 1977 and ranked sixth in the NFC. Against the Redskins (11/23) he had a season-high 52-yard punt return to set up a touchdown in a 14-10 victory. Against Los Angeles in the NFC Wild Card Game (12/28) he had 153 yards in kick returns, including a dazzling 43-yard punt return in the first quarter that got the Cowboys rolling. Jones did not return punts in college, but volunteered for the job in training camp in an effort to assure his spot on the team. An early-season groin injury hampered his kick returning in '81. GAMES: 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (5). Total — 37.

J. JONES, Cont.

COLLEGE: Jones missed the final seven games of his senior year with a knee injury after leading Mississippi State in rushing his junior season with 687 yards (5.3 per carry). In his career Jones rushed for 1,416 yards (5.4 average) and 14 touchdowns, caught 29 passes for 274 yards and three touchdowns, completed 3-of-6 passes for 72 yards and two touchdowns and returned 24 kickoffs for a 21.3-yard average and one TD. He was Academic All-SEC as a junior.

PERSONAL: James Jones, Jr., is a native of Starkville, Miss. (Vicksburg High). He studied physical education at Mississippi State and hopes to become a football coach. James is active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

MILLER NFL MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

The NFL Man of the Year program honors NFL players who have contributed as outstanding citizens of their communities as well as to their teams on the field. The program began in 1970, was discontinued from 1977-79 and was reactivated by the Miller Brewing Company in 1980. Miller has established an annual $36,000 scholarship fund to be distributed in the names of the leading vote-getters from each of the 28 NFL teams. Dallas Cowboys NFL Man of the Year winners have been:

1982 — Billy Joe DuPree	1976 — Roger Staubach
1981 — D. D. Lewis	1975 — Roger Staubach
1980 — Drew Pearson	1973 — Calvin Hill

Angelo King ★ 57

LINEBACKER ● SOUTH CAROLINA STATE ● 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-1 ● WT: 230 ● BORN: 2/10/58 ● FA FOR '81

PRO: Angelo King fits the mold of the smaller, quicker linebacker needed to cope with today's pass-oriented NFL offenses. King showed potential in his rookie training camp of 1981 but was released on Aug. 25 at the roster cutdown to 50. When Mike Hegman fractured his arm in the season opener at Washington, the door was opened for Angelo's return on Sept. 8. He became a solid special teams performer, including a fumble recovery on a punt that set up the go-ahead touchdown in a victory at New England (9/21). His play was strong enough that when Hegman returned, King stayed. Angelo continued his special teams and reserve linebacking duties in '82. "Angelo is a good, solid player," Tom Landry says. "He might not impress you that much when you first look at him. The only thing that impresses you is the results. He makes plays. He moves off blocks well. He'll build on that ability." King and teammate Dextor Clinkscale also were teammates for three years at South Carolina State. GAMES: 1981 (15), 1982 (9). Total — 24.

COLLEGE: Midway through his freshman year of 1977 King became a starting linebacker at South Carolina State. He went on to become a second-team All-Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference in 1978, first-team All-MEAC in 1979 and '80, plus a Black All-America and honorable mention Little All-America in 1980. King blocked six punts in his career, two in '78 and a school-record four in '79. He played in the 1981 Black All-Star Game.

PERSONAL: Angelo Tyrone King, a native of Columbia, S.C. (Columbia High School), obtained his degree from South Carolina State in health and physical education. He has three brothers and three sisters.

DEFENSIVE END ● EAST TEXAS STATE ● 11th YEAR
HT: 6-5 ● WT: 260 ● BORN: 11/16/50 ● D-3 FOR '73

PRO: The sight of Harvey Martin swooping into the backfield from his right end position has been a fearsome sight for NFL quarterbacks for a decade. Martin is the Cowboys' all-time quarterback sack leader and has led the club in that category every year he's been with the team, 10 straight seasons. A defensive captain from 1977-80, Harvey is a fiery competitor and the emotional leader of the defense. He has played in 125 straight games including the playoffs, has been a four-time Pro Bowl choice (1976-79) and was a unanimous All-Pro in 1977 when he had one of the best seasons ever by an NFL defensive player — 85 tackles, a league-leading 23 traps, two fumble recoveries in the NFC Championship Game, co-MVP with Randy White in Super Bowl XII and consensus NFL defensive player of the year honors. The following season he had another outstanding effort in the NFC title victory at Los Angeles (1/7/79) with a team-leading seven tackles, a sack and a fumble recovery. Last season Harvey tied a career-high of three QB traps in a game twice, against St. Louis (9/19) and New Orleans (12/19). "Harvey had a good year," Tom Landry says. "He started pass rushing better last year. He's been a great player for us over the years." Adds teammate Dennis Thurman, "Harvey is the guy who gets the front four going. He's the leader, the catalyst. When he's going good, those linemen are unstoppable." Harvey and Cliff Harris share the NFL career playoff record of four fumble recoveries. GAMES: 1973 (14), 1974 (14), 1975 (13), 1976 (14), 1977 (14), 1978 (16), 1979 (16), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 142.

COLLEGE: Harvey earned NAIA, Football News and Associated Press All-America honors in 1972 when he led East Texas State to the NAIA Division I championship. Harvey was named Lone Star Conference defensive player of the decade in 1980.

PERSONAL: Dallas native (South Oak Cliff High) is one of the area's most popular sports personalities. He has worked as a sports reporter for a local TV station, hosted his own radio show and been a commentator on ABC's SuperTeams competition. Last offseason he made his acting debut, playing Applegate in the Dallas production of "Damn Yankees." He is a partner in a chain of Dallas barbecue restaurants called Smokey John's. Harvey is active in the American Heart Association, the Easter Seals drive, the Parkland Hospital Blood Bank and the Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Robert Newhouse ★ 44

FULLBACK • HOUSTON • 12th YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 219 • BORN: 1/9/50 • D-2A FOR '72

PRO: Robert Newhouse, the Cowboys' starting fullback from 1974-80, is the club's fourth all-time leading rusher. The past two seasons Newhouse has backed up Ron Springs and been a solid special teams performer. "I'm not worried about being on the first team," Robert says. "My days are limited and I've reset my goals. I'm a team player all the way. I'll do whatever it takes to get this team to the Super Bowl." Last season Newhouse started the Green Bay playoff victory for Springs, who was injured, and scored the final TD on a one-yard plunge. In '81 at Philadelphia (11/1) he gained 24 yards on six carries, including a six-yard run on third-and-one in the winning touchdown drive, working in short-yardage situations. Newhouse led the Cowboys in rushing in the 1975 Super Bowl season with a career-best 930 yards. He was enjoying one of his best years in '78 when he suffered a broken bone in his right leg in game 12 against New Orleans. His streak of playing in 96 straight games was broken, but 'House still led the team in rushing TDs with eight and in total TDs scored with 10. In a key victory over Green Bay (11/2) he played the equivalent of a perfect game, receiving the highest grades ever by a Dallas running back in the coaches' film review. A stress fracture of the lower left leg suffered in the season opener slowed Robert in 1979. The oldest player on the team, Newhouse has had five career 100-yard games, most recently in the '79 opener at St. Louis (9/2) when he gained 108 yards. 'House has played well in many key games, his most memorable moment coming in Super Bowl XII when he tossed a 29-yard touchdown pass to Golden Richards to seal the victory over Denver (1/15/78). Robert was drafted in 1972 with a second-round pick obtained from New England for Halver Hagen and Honor Jackson. GAMES: 1972 (14), 1973 (14), 1974 (14), 1975 (14), 1976 (14), 1977 (14), 1978 (13), 1979 (14), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 152.

COLLEGE: Newhouse set school records for yards rushing in a season (1,757) and carries (297) in 1971 en route to becoming Houston's all-time leading rusher with 2,961 yards. He averaged 6.4 yards per carry and scored 19 touchdowns in his career. Four times he rushed for more than 200 yards in a game, including 245 against Mississippi State in 1969.

PERSONAL: Robert Fulton Newhouse and wife Nancy hail from the east Texas town of Hallsville (Galilee High). Newhouse Enterprises, Inc., includes the All-Brand Pump Company and a petroleum products division. Robert, who has a degree in math, is studying for his master's in business at the University of Dallas. He and Nancy have their real estate licenses and Nancy and Joyce Barnes are partners in a Dallas beauty salon called "In-Look Hair Designs." The Newhouses have

RUNNING BACK • WINSTON-SALEM STATE • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 231 • BORN: 5/17/58 • D-6 FOR '80

PRO: Although big and strong like a fullback, Timmy Newsome possesses the elusive running style of a tailback. After watching him struggle for two years at fullback, the Cowboys switched the talented young player to the running back position last year in training camp. After initially balking at the move, Newsome thrived at the new position and now is considered a rising young star. "The emergence of Timmy Newsome last year was encouraging," Tom Landry says. "He made a couple of great runs. With our offense revolving around the tailback, you've got to have a good one behind Tony Dorsett." According to conditioning coach Bob Ward, Newsome is pound-for-pound the strongest man on the team. He can bench-press 410 pounds. Last year Newsome won Ward's "Preseason Challenge" conditioning program competition. He was outstanding in preseason games, made two of the club's best offensive plays of the regular season and averaged 6.5 yards on his 15 regular-season carries. In a victory at Washington (12/5) he broke tackles on an outstanding 18-yard scoring run. The following week at Houston on Monday Night Football (12/13) Timmy caught one pass for a 43-yard gain and another for a spectacular 46-yard touchdown on which he slipped one tackle and broke three others. In the playoff victory over Green Bay (1/16/83) he caught a career-best seven passes for 70 yards and also scored on a two-yard run while sharing fullback duties with Robert Newhouse for injured Ron Springs. A training camp hamstring injury slowed Newsome in 1981. As a 1980 rookie he contributed a pair of touchdowns on one-yard runs and three receptions in a victory over San Diego (10/26). He also had a few long runs, a 23-yarder against Seattle (11/27) plus a 19-yarder and 15-yarder in the playoffs against the Rams (12/28). He was the 162nd player selected in the 1980 draft. GAMES: 1980 (16), 1981 (15), 1982 (9). Total — 40.

COLLEGE: Newsome was a two-time NAIA first-team All-America and was voted 1979 player of the year by the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) coaches. In four years at Winston-Salem, Newsome rushed for 3,843 yards (6.1 per carry) and 38 touchdowns. He was the CIAA's leading rusher and scorer in 1977, '78 and '79.

PERSONAL: Timothy Arthur Newsome of Ahoskie, N.C. (Ahoskie High), has a degree in business with a concentration in computer science. Last offseason he worked as a computer programmer for Systems Research Corporation of Dallas. Timmy also has done promotional work for the state of North Carolina's alcohol and drug abuse prevention program.

George Peoples ★ 22

FULLBACK • AUBURN • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 211 • BORN: 8/25/60 • D-8A FOR '82

PRO: Fierce blocking and powerful inside running won a roster spot for rookie George Peoples in 1982. "Peoples does something every time we give him the ball," Tom Landry says. "It will be interesting to watch his development this year because the second year usually determines what a back is going to do. If he emerges, he can challenge someone because he's a very strong competitor." The highlight of Peoples' rookie season occurred in preseason against New England (8/28) when he turned a short pass from Gary Hogeboom into a 79-yard touchdown. That assured a dream-come-true for George. "I always wanted to play for this team," he said. "Growing up I always dreamed of playing for the Cowboys and wearing Bob Hayes' number 22." Peoples was obtained with an eighth-round draft choice from Denver through Buffalo for cornerback-wide receiver Wade Manning. GAMES: 1982 (8).

COLLEGE: A two-year starter used primarily as a blocking back, Peoples rushed for 1,085 yards and three touchdowns on 239 carries in his career, including 443 yards as a junior and 442 as a senior. He ran 63 yards for a touchdown against Alabama on national television in 1981. He followed current NFL runners George Andrews (Atlanta), Joe Cribbs (Buffalo) and James Brooks (San Diego) at Auburn.

PERSONAL: George Evans Peoples attended C. Leon King High School in his hometown of Tampa, Fla. In the offseason he returned to Auburn to work toward his degree in distributive education. George enjoys fishing and other outdoor activities.

Drew Pearson ★ 88

WIDE RECEIVER • TULSA • 11th YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 193 • BORN: 1/12/51 • FA FOR '73

PRO: In a decade with the Cowboys Drew Pearson has risen from undrafted free agent rookie to all-time leading receiver, from unknown to legend. Named to the All-Decade Team of the 1970s by the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1980, Pearson has earned a niche as one of the top clutch receivers in football history. His most memorable catches form a list of some of the great moments in Cowboys history — an 83-yard fourth-quarter touchdown reception to beat the Rams in the 1973 playoffs; a 50-yard scoring catch in the closing seconds to beat Washington on Thanksgiving Day 1974; the 50-yard "Hail Mary" touchdown reception in the final 20 seconds to beat Minnesota in the '75 playoffs; two touchdown catches in the final 3:40 at Atlanta in the '80 playoffs, the second with 42 seconds left, to rally the Cowboys past the Falcons 30-27. Drew became the Cowboys' all-time leading receiver in 1980 when he passed Bob Hayes' mark of 365 catches. Drew entered his 11th season needing 18 yards to catch Hayes' team leadership in career receiving yardage of 7,295 yards. He also needs only six more receptions to move into the top 20 on the list of pro football's all-time leading receivers. Pearson's 65 career receptions in the playoffs is second in NFL history to Fred Biletnikoff's 70 for Oakland, and Drew's 1,056 playoff receiving yards is third to Biletnikoff's 1,165 and Cleveland-Miami's Paul Warfield's 1,121. Pearson has caught passes in every playoff game in which he's played, a club record 21 straight. Drew was named All-Pro and to the Pro Bowl in 1974, '76 and '77. He led NFC pass catchers in '76 with 58 receptions and he holds the club record for catching passes in 58 consecutive games. He entered 1983 with a streak of catches in 38 straight regular-season games, last being shut out by Tampa Bay on Sept. 21, 1980. In 1979 Drew and Tony Hill became the first pair of NFC (or old NFL) receivers to each catch 1,000 yards worth of passes in a season. Pearson became a starter midway through his rookie year due to an injury to Otto Stowe. Drew's missed only one game (12/8/79 at Philadelphia) because of injury. He served as an offensive captain in 1977 and '78. He was outstanding in last season's playoffs with 13 catches for 153 yards and a touchdown. In his career the former high school quarterback has completed 6-of-8 passes for 241 yards and three touchdowns, including a key 49-yard pass to Tony Hill to set up the clinching touchdown in last season's playoff victory over Green Bay (1/16/83). GAMES: 1973 (14), 1974 (14), 1975 (14), 1976 (14), 1977 (14), 1978 (16), 1979 (15), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 142.

COLLEGE: Pearson caught a team-leading 33 passes for a run-oriented, 4-7 Tulsa team in 1972 and received the university president's award as the team's "best spirited and most unselfish member." Drew succeeded Joe Theismann as quarterback at South River, N.J., High School but was converted to flanker at Tulsa.

PEARSON, Cont.

PERSONAL: Drew Pearson, voted the Cowboys' NFL Man of the Year by fans in 1980, is a national spokesman for the Distilled Spirits Council, which battles teenage alcohol abuse. He has promoted the San Antonio Performing Arts Association and in March received the Distinguished American Award from the Central New Jersey Chapter of the National Football Foundation. Drew has done extensive work as a radio and TV sports broadcaster. He also founded the Cowboys players' off-season basketball team and is married to the daughter of former Harlem Globetrotters star Marques Haynes. Drew and Marsha Pearson have two daughters — Tori Nichole (7/23/74) and Britni Ja'Nae (8/6/79).

Kurt Petersen ★ 65

GUARD • MISSOURI • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 268 • BORN: 6/17/57 • D-4 FOR '80

PRO: Armed with a resounding dedication to the old fashioned work ethic, Kurt Petersen has made remarkable progress in his young career with the Cowboys. Despite being a defensive lineman in college, Petersen already has two years as a starter at offensive guard behind him. "We normally don't expect someone to be able to move from defense to offense so quickly because experience is crucial," says offensive line coach Jim Myers. "Pete is way ahead of schedule because he has been dedicated, he has worked." Called "the Cowboys' blue-ribbon workhorse" by a Dallas newspaper, Petersen combines size, quickness and intelligence with unusual strength. According to conditioning coach Bob Ward, Kurt is the strongest player overall on the team. Petersen spent his rookie year making the difficult position switch and trying to duplicate the success of Pat Donovan, John Fitzgerald and Blaine Nye, college defensive linemen who became top offensive linemen with the Cowboys. The learning process was expected to continue in 1981, but a knee injury to center Robert Shaw in the second game caused the Cowboys to move right guard Tom Rafferty to center and Petersen into a starting role at right guard. Kurt started 14 of 16 games in 1981. Last season he started all nine games, earning a game ball from the coaching staff for his play against Cleveland (11/25) and second-team All-Pro honors from the Newspaper Enterprise Association. GAMES: 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 41.

COLLEGE: A linebacker his junior year, Petersen was moved to defensive tackle his senior season to give Missouri more inside quickness. A senior co-captain, Kurt tied for the team lead in fumble recoveries with four.

PERSONAL: St. Louis native (Lutheran High School North) Kurt David Petersen has a degree in industrial engineering and has worked as a carpenter. Kurt is an outdoorsman who enjoys fishing, hunting, gardening and archery. Kurt and wife Karen live in Carrollton, Texas.

Phil Pozderac ★ 75

TACKLE • NOTRE DAME • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-9 • WT: 272 • BORN: 12/19/59 • D-5 FOR '82

PRO: You can't help immediately noticing Phil Pozderac's size. It also didn't take long for the Cowboys to notice Pozderac's football ability. "He was the most impressive rookie tackle I can remember us having since Ralph Neely," says Gil Brandt. After a few training camp drills against big Poz, Too Tall Jones said, "I like his attitude. He has a mean streak and for a rookie he's hard to intimidate. He doesn't back up. The more physical you get with him the more he comes at you." With tight end Jay Saldi injured most of last season, Pozderac got to play tackle on many short-yardage situations, with Pat Donovan moving to a tight end spot. "Pozderac's got great size and the ability to stay with his blocks. That's his great asset," Tom Landry says. GAMES: 1982 (7).

COLLEGE: Pozderac started 23 consecutive games at right tackle his final two seasons at Notre Dame. His teammates voted him Notre Dame's most valuable offensive player in 1981. He also won AP honorable mention All-America honors in '81. Pozderac entered Notre Dame carrying only 220 pounds on his 6-9 frame.

PERSONAL: Phillip Maurice Pozderac (poz-DEH-rick) starred in football and basketball at Garfield, Ohio, High School. He was born in Cleveland. Phil received his degree from Notre Dame in business finance. He and wife Kimberly Ann live in Dallas.

Tom Rafferty ★ 64

CENTER • PENN STATE • 8th YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 259 • BORN: 8/2/54 • D-4 FOR '76

PRO: After starting at right guard from 1977-80, versatile Tom Rafferty was pressed into service at center when Robert Shaw went down with a knee injury in the second game of the 1981 season. Rafferty has started the past 28 games at center over the past two years, including five in the playoffs, and has steadily improved. He received game balls from the coaching staff last season following victories over Cleveland (11/25) and in the playoffs over Tampa Bay (1/9/83). Rafferty also teamed with guard Herbert Scott on a "fold" block that cleared the way for Tony Dorsett's record-setting 99-yard touchdown run at Minnesota (1/3/83). "Tom has improved into a consistent performer for us at center," Tom Landry says. "There's a lot of technique playing center against the nose guards and he improved a lot in this area last year. We're fortunate to have a guy like him." Tom also snaps the ball on punts, field goals and extra points. Usually it takes a few years to break in an offensive lineman because of the complexity of the position. But Rafferty, whose quiet demeanor belies his intense competitiveness, won a starting job his second season, replacing retired All-Pro right guard Blaine Nye in 1977. Rafferty played two games that season at cen'er for injured John Fitzgerald, a preview of things to come. In 1979 Rafferty won the Oak Farms Cowboys MVP award for his performance in a crucial playoff-clinching victory at Philadelphia (12/8). He shared his second career game MVP award with Fitzgerald in 1980 for the Cowboys' season-opening victory at Washington (9/8). Tom has played in 92 consecutive games. GAMES: 1976 (13), 1977 (14), 1978 (16), 1979 (16), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 100.

COLLEGE: A four-year starting guard at Penn State, Rafferty earned All-America honors from the Football News and the Football Writers Association in 1975. The Cowboys rated him the top pulling guard in the 1976 draft.

PERSONAL: Thomas Michael Rafferty was born in Syracuse and raised in Manlius, N.Y., where he became a high school All-America in lacrosse in addition to starring in football and basketball. Tom works in the real estate department of Gulfco Capital Management in Dallas in the offseason. He received a degree in physical education from Penn State and is studying for his master's in business at the University of Dallas. Tom and wife Donna live in Dallas with son J. Michael (7/14/81).

Howard Richards ★ 70

GUARD	●	MISSOURI ●	3rd YEAR
HT: 6-6 ●	WT: 258 ●	BORN: 8/7/59 ●	D-1 FOR '81

PRO: The consensus of opinion holds that Howard Richards is a star in the making. The 25th player selected in the 1981 draft, Richards spent his rookie season learning the offensive line position and contributing on special teams. He began training camp last year as a reserve left tackle, moved to left guard early in camp, played right guard for injured Kurt Petersen in preseason games and finally switched back to left guard to replace Herbert Scott, who suffered a knee injury in the preseason finale. Richards started eight games at left guard in 1982 and shared the position with Scott in the playoffs. "Richards is a comer," Tom Landry says. "We played him a lot last year and he continued to improve. He has all the qualities to be a top offensive lineman. He's got speed, size and quickness." Adds offensive line coach Jim Myers, "He's very flexible both mentally and physically. What's striking about him is his size, mobility and intelligence." Richards played at Missouri with current teammates Kurt Petersen and Ron Fellows. GAMES: 1981 (16), 1982 (8). Total — 24.

COLLEGE: Richards started 40 consecutive games at right tackle for Missouri and capped his career by earning consensus All-Big Eight and second-team All-America honors in 1980. He was a finalist for the 1980 Lombardi Award, which goes to the nation's top collegiate lineman. Howard also received All-Big Eight honors his junior year.

PERSONAL: Howard Glenn Richards, Jr., was a football, basketball and baseball star at Southwest High School in St. Louis. His uncle is Ernie McMillan, former offensive tackle of the St. Louis Cardinals and currently offensive line coach of the Green Bay Packers. Howard studied communications (radio, TV and film) at Missouri. He supports the Boys Clubs program in the Dallas area.

Jeff Rohrer ★ 50

LINEBACKER • YALE • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 232 • BORN: 12/25/58 • D-2 FOR '82

PRO: The Cowboys' selection of Jeff Rohrer in the second round of the 1982 NFL draft may have been a surprise to some, but the Cowboys were fully confident about the football future of the young man from Yale. "We had Jeff rated extremely high," Gil Brandt says. "We think he's an excellent football player. He's got excellent potential. He's everything you want in a linebacker — smart, strong, a competitor and he's got speed." Rohrer got into eight games last year on special teams and contributed a fumble recovery that set up a field goal in the playoffs against Green Bay. He spent the rest of his time learning the outside linebacker position. "Rohrer has a lot of potential," Tom Landry says. "He's got to come in now and play football. You've got a lot to work with from an athletic standpoint. He's got excellent size and movement." GAMES: 1982 (8).

COLLEGE: Rohrer was the highest NFL draft choice from Yale since 1969 when the Cowboys chose Calvin Hill in the first round. In 1981 Jeff was named to the Coaches All-Ivy League and the Coaches All-New England first teams after leading Ivy co-champ Yale in tackles with a school-record 136 stops (71 solo). An inside linebacker, Rohrer finished as the Bulldogs' second leading tackler in 1980 with 110 stops despite missing the final three games with a broken ankle.

PERSONAL: Jeffrey Charles Rohrer was a National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete at Mira Costa High School in his native Manhattan Beach, Calif. He received his degree from Yale in administrative sciences. His hobbies include ceramics, metal sculpting and scuba diving.

RING OF HONOR

The Cowboys honor former players who made outstanding contributions to the club by inducting them into the Ring of Honor at Texas Stadium. Their names and the years they played are prominently displayed in silver on the wall below the press box at Texas Stadium. Members (and the year inducted) of the Cowboys' Ring of Honor:

1975 — Bob Lilly	1977 — Chuck Howley
1976 — Don Meredith	1981 — Mel Renfro
1976 — Don Perkins

Herbert Scott ★ 68

GUARD ● VIRGINIA UNION ● 9th YEAR
HT: 6-2 ● WT: 262 ● BORN: 1/18/53 ● D-13 FOR '75

PRO: The Cowboys' most honored active offensive linemen are Pat Donovan and quiet, unassuming Herbert Scott, who lets his All-Pro performance on the field speak for itself. Rising from the obscurity of being a 13th-round draft pick from little Virginia Union, Scott made the team in 1975 as one of the "Dirty Dozen" rookies who helped lead the Cowboys into Super Bowl X. Scott beat out former All-Pro John Niland, who was traded to Philadelphia. The following year Scott won the regular left guard position and since 1978 he's been collecting a host of honors. He was named first-team All-NFC four straight years (1978-81) by UPI, and by the Sporting News in 1979. He was chosen by his peers to play in the Pro Bowl three times in a row (1979-81). In 1980 Herb became the club's first All-Pro offensive lineman since Rayfield Wright in 1975 when he was named first-team All-NFL by the AP and the Newspaper Enterprise Association. Herb achieved All-Pro status again in 1981, according to AP, the Sporting News and NEA (second team). Last year a knee injury in the preseason finale against Houston derailed Scott's season. He missed the first three games after playing in 64 straight and started only one while sharing his position with Howard Richards. Known to teammates as "Pooch," Scott is an outstanding open field and pass blocker and is seldom penalized. Says Tony Dorsett, "When Herb goes after a guy, the next thing you see are feet in the air." Herb missed four starts and half of two other games in 1977 with a hamstring injury. GAMES: 1975 (14), 1976 (14), 1977 (11), 1978 (16), 1979 (16), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (6). Total — 109.

COLLEGE: Scott was a three-time All-Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association selection at Virginia Union. He played guard, tackle and even caught one pass as a tight end. He also was a top shot putter for the track team. In May 1982 Herb was inducted into the CIAA Hall of Fame.

PERSONAL: Herbert Carnell Scott, Jr., attended Kellam High School in Virginia Beach, Va. Earlier in his career Herb taught high school math and science in the offseason in Virginia Beach. In February 1982 "Herbert Scott Day" was celebrated in Richmond, Va., home of Virginia Union. Herb's hobby is gospel singing. He is the lead baritone in Dallas' Believers Tabernacle Choir. Herb's wife Gayle is a social worker at the Denton State School for the handicapped. Herb, Gayle and son Ryan Carnell (11/24/80) live in Lucas, Texas.

Rafael Septien ★ 1

PRO: In 1982 Rafael Septien became the Cowboys' all-time leading scorer, finishing his fifth season in Dallas with 462 career points to break Bob Hayes' previous mark of 456. Septien's career-best 53-yard field goal at Houston (12/13) was the NFC's longest of the season and his 50-yarder against Green Bay (1/16/83) tied Miami's Garo Yepremian for the second longest field goal in playoff history. Rafael holds the NFL playoff records for field goal accuracy and consecutive field goals made. He has converted 17-of-19 field goal tries in the playoffs for an 89.5 percent rate, including 15 in a row from Super Bowl XIII (1/21/79) until a miss in last season's NFC title game (1/22/83). He's also made all 39 of his extra point attempts in the playoffs, 10 shy of George Blanda's NFL record. Inside the 40-yard line Septien is uncannily accurate with 80 field goals in 92 attempts (87 percent). His 68.6 career field goal percentage is tops in Cowboys history. Rafael has led the club in scoring for the past five years. His best season was in 1981 when he tied Detroit's Ed Murray for the NFL scoring lead, set team records with 121 points, 27 field goals and nine consecutive field goals made, tied the club record of four field goals in a game twice (against Washington and New England) and became the Cowboys' all-time career field goal leader. His 1981 performance earned Septien consensus All-Pro honors, his first trip to the Pro Bowl and Pro Football Weekly's Golden Toe Award as the NFL's top kicker. Drafted by New Orleans in the 10th round in 1977, Septien was released during training camp and signed by the Rams. A consensus all-rookie selection and the NFC's fourth-leading scorer in '77, Septien was beaten out in '78 by Frank Corral and released by the Rams after the final preseason game. The Cowboys immediately signed him (8/30) to replace Efren Herrera, who had been traded to Seattle. The biggest moment of his first Cowboys season came at St. Louis (10/15) when he kicked a 47-yarder into the wind 3:28 into overtime for a 24-21 victory. Rafael was the NFC's third leading scorer in '79 when he won two games with dramatic kicks, a 22-yarder off the left upright with 1:16 left to beat St. Louis 22-21 (9/2) and a 22-yarder with three seconds remaining to top the Giants 16-14 (11/4). In 1980 he set a club record with 59 extra points. GAMES: 1977 (14-L.A.), 1978 (16), 1979 (16), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 88 (14-L.A.).

COLLEGE: Septien received All-Southland Conference honors his final two seasons at Southwest Louisiana. He kicked nine field goals of more than 50 yards, including a 50-yarder on his first attempt. His long was 57 yards against Lamar in '74.

PERSONAL: Jose Rafael Septien Michel (rah-fay-EL sep-tee-EN), a Mexico City native (Collegio Vista Hernosa High School), is the son of the late Carlos Septien, a member of two Mexican World Cup soccer teams. A fine all-around athlete, Septien is the team's best racquetball player. He is president of Septien and Associates, a Dallas public relations firm. He also is active in local drug and alcohol abuse prevention programs, Happy Hill Farm Children's Home and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Rafael has appeared in three movies and 40 commercials in Mexico. He and wife Linda, a fine opera singer, live in Dallas with their pet parrot "J.R." (for Jose Rafael).

Don Smerek ★ 60

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • NEVADA-RENO • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-7 • WT: 257 • BORN: 12/20/57 • FA FOR '80

PRO: One of the pleasant surprises of the 1982 season was the emergence of Don Smerek at defensive tackle. After struggling with injuries his first two seasons, Smerek battled his way onto the roster in training camp last year, then became a valuable asset down the stre·ch and in the playoffs filling in for injured John Dutton at left tackle. Don had his first career quarterback trap against Cleveland (11/25) and added another in the playoffs against Green Bay when he made his first career start (1/16/83). "Smerek gave us some hope last year," Tom Landry says. "He played well when he got his chance.

SMEREK, Cont.

That's something we can count on in the future." After signing with Dallas as a free agent, Smerek spent his 1980 rookie season on injured reserve with fractured ribs suffered in training camp. He made the active roster as a reserve defensive lineman in 1981 but injured a knee in the second game, underwent surgery and spent the rest of the season on injured reserve. "He's a heck of a competitor," Randy White says. "He's still learning the system, but the main ingredients are there. He's very strong, very tough and very intense." Smerek can bench press 435 pounds. GAMES: 1981 (2), 1982 (7). Total — 9.

COLLEGE: Smerek was an All-Big Sky choice at defensive end following his senior season at Nevada-Reno.

PERSONAL: Donald Frederick Smerek was born in Waterford, Mich., and raised in Henderson, Nev., outside Las Vegas. Don was a football and basketball star at Basic High in Henderson. He received his degree from Nevada-Reno in physical education. Last offseason he worked as a real estate agent for the Early Texas Land Company of McKinney, Texas.

Danny Spradlin ★ 55

LINEBACKER • TENNESSEE • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 241 • BORN: 3/3/59 • D-5 FOR '81

PRO: "Danny Spradlin gets your attention right away because with that physical build he makes Charles Atlas look like the 98-pound weakling," says Gil Brandt. "Put that body on such a hard-nosed competitor and there's a reason to get excited about what we might have at middle linebacker." Danny Spradlin is what's known in the trade as a "hitter." He made an immediate impact during his rookie training camp, enabling the Cowboys to trade veteran backup middle linebacker Bruce Huther to Cleveland to make room for Spradlin. Danny received his first opportunity to play middle linebacker in the regular season when Bob Breunig injured his thigh in the first quarter of last year's New Orleans game (12/19). Spradlin earned good grades in his debut, leading the Dallas linebackers in tackles with nine. Earlier in the season at St. Louis (9/19) he made the key defensive play with a ferocious hit to stop Roy Green short of a first down on a fake punt in the second half. "Danny is an ideal looking middle linebacker because he's so big, so strong and so powerful when he strikes," Tom Landry says. "Surely he'll improve, and he gives us fine depth behind Breunig." Spradlin also has been a top special teams performer. GAMES: 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 25.

SPRADLIN, Cont.

COLLEGE: Spradlin led Tennessee in tackles in 1980 with 125. He was second in 1979 with 102. Danny improved steadily after winning a starting outside linebacker spot late in his sophomore season. He was named AP's defensive player of the week in 1980 for his 12-tackle performance against Vanderbilt.

PERSONAL: Danny Raye Spradlin is a native of Maryville, Tenn. (Maryv:lle High). In the offseason he works for Sentell Inc. of Fort Worth installing heating and air conditioning units. He has been active in helping the Boys Club of Maryville.

Ron Springs ★ 20

FULLBACK • OHIO STATE • 5th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 210 • BORN: 11/4/56 • D-5C FOR '79

PRO: The Cowboys ask their fullbacks to block, catch passes and gain the tough inside rushing yards, in that order. In multi-talented Ron Springs, the Cowboys have a fullback who can do all those things well. Ron's talent was quite evident his rookie year when he played halfback, but in order to get him into the lineup with Tony Dorsett a switch to fullback was necessary the following season. "Ron's a tough, hard-nosed, slashing-type runner," Tom Landry says. "He has a knack for hitting the hole and is a strong, powerful runner. He has good speed, catches the ball well and has improved his blocking." Last year Springs' best effort came in a 24-10 victory at Washington (12/5) in which he caught an eight-yard touchdown pass in the first half and broke a 46-yard TD run in the closing minutes. In 1981 he combined for 984 yards rushing and receiving, scored a team-high 12 touchdowns and tied Tony Hill for the club lead in receptions with 46, one short of Preston Pearson's club record for a running back. Ron's 11 receptions at New England (9/21) was a team record for running backs. He combined for more than 100 yards rushing and receiving in three games, New England (134), Miami (10/25, 102) and Washington (11/22, 107). He caught a 32-yard touchdown pass late in the fourth quarter for the winning score in a dramatic 28-27 comeback victory over the Dolphins. Springs reported to 1980 training camp 10 pounds heavier than his rookie season and won the starting fullback job from Robert Newhouse. Ron twisted an ankle in the third game, however, and didn't regain the position from Newhouse until the '81 season. Only the 139th player chosen in the 1979 draft, Springs filled in exceptionally well for Tony Dorsett at tailback in three '79 victories when Dorsett was ailing. In the season opener at St. Louis (9/2) Ron threw a 30-yard fourth-quarter TD pass to Tony Hill on his first NFL attempt. Springs replaced Dorsett late in the first half at Philadelphia (12/8) and rushed for 49 yards in the second half as Dallas clinched a playoff berth. In the dramatic comeback victory over Washington (12/16) that won the NFC East crown, Springs rushed for 79 yards and a TD, and caught six passes for 58 yards, including a 26-yard TD late in the fourth quarter. Ron also led the team in kickoff returns in '79. GAMES: 1979 (16), 1980 (15), 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 56.

COLLEGE: Springs rushed for 1,800 yards and scored 25 touchdowns in 1976 at Coffeyville, Kan., Junior College and was named junior college player of the year. He led Ohio State in rushing and receiving as a junior with 1,166 yards on the ground and another 90 on 16 receptions. He managed 585 yards rushing in an injury-marred senior year. Springs also ran sprint relays for the Buckeyes track team.

PERSONAL: Ronald Edward Springs is a native of Williamsburg, Va. (Lafayette High), where they've named a street after him (Ron Springs Drive). Ron studied communications at Ohio State. He owns a home appliance rental ccmpany in Dallas called Rentex. He volunteers his time to the Dallas Society for Crippled Children and the Easter Seals. He and wife Adriane live in Dallas.

Dennis Thurman ★ 32

CORNERBACK • SOUTHERN CAL • 6th YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 183 • BORN: 4/13/56 • D-11 FOR '78

PRO: Dennis Thurman is an achiever, someone who knows how to accomplish his goals no matter what shortcomings others may think he has. Despite not being drafted until the 11th round in 1978, Thurman has become a valuable and versatile member of the defensive secondary, including the past two years as the starting right cornerback. He is the ninth leading interceptor in club history and is tied with Oakland's Willie Brown for second place on the NFL's list of all-time leading playoff interceptors with seven. Last season Dennis, a defensive captain, had his second career regular-season touchdown interception, a 60-yarder at Minnesota (1/3/83). Two weeks later he tied an NFC playoff record with three interceptions to key a win over Green Bay (1/16), including a 39-yard touchdown return. "From day one, I've liked three things about Dennis," says defensive backfield coach Gene Stallings. "One, he's a competitor. A lot of people think they are, but they aren't. He is. Two, he has good football sense. He understands the game. And three he has decent enough speed to make the plays." A reserve cornerback his first two seasons, Thurman in 1980 became the starting free safety, his position in college, following Cliff Harris' retirement and an injury to Randy Hughes. His first interception return for a touchdown came that season at St. Louis (11/2) when he went 78 yards in the fourth quarter of a narrow victory. He co-led the club in interceptions in '80 with Charlie Waters with five. He also served as special teams captain. In 1981 Dennis intercepted nine passes, third highest season total in team history and tied for third in the NFL that season. He was named second-team All-NFC by UPI. His 96-yard interception return to the four, second longest in team history, was a key play in the season-opening triumph at Washington (9/6). Thurman tied a club record with three interceptions in the victory over Philadelphia (12/13) which clinched the NFC East title. He also had two interceptions in the playoff victory over Tampa Bay (1/2/82). His 187 yards in interception returns in '81 was second best in team history to Cornell Green's 211 in 1963. Thurman's 20.6 yards per interception return is tops in Cowboys history. GAMES: 1978 (16), 1979 (16), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 73.

COLLEGE: Thurman intercepted passes in seven straight games en route to leading the nation in interception return yardage in 1976 with 180 yards on eight steals. He had 13 career interceptions, six pass breakups, seven fumble recoveries and was a two-time consensus All-America safety at Southern Cal. He started five games at flanker during his freshman and sophomore years.

PERSONAL: Dennis Lee Thurman was a football quarterback, basketball and baseball star at Santa Monica High School in his native Los Angeles. He was recruited by major league baseball teams and college basketball programs before accepting a college football scholarship. He obtained his degree from USC in journalism. Dennis and wife Elsie live in Farmers Branch, Texas.

Glen Titensor ★ 63

GUARD-CENTER • BRIGHAM YOUNG • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 259 • BORN: 2/21/58 • D-3 FOR '81

PRO: Glen Titensor shows great promise of adding to the success of something that's become a Cowboys trademark — converting defensive linemen to offensive linemen. Following in the tradition of Blaine Nye, John Fitzgerald, Pat Donovan and Kurt Petersen, all college defensive linemen who became top offensive linemen with the Cowboys, Titensor made the switch as a rookie and impressed his coaches with his rapid development. "Right now Glen's a swing man who can play guard or center," Tom Landry says. "He can become a dominant factor because he's so quick. He surely has good potential." Titensor missed five games last season due to a knee injury. He underwent surgery Nov. 20 for cartilage repair, but returned a month later and was available during the playoffs. Glen's only action so far with the offensive unit came in his rookie season when he played briefly at left guard during the Tampa Bay playoff game (1/2/82) for Herbert Scott, who had suffered a minor injury. GAMES: 1981 (16), 1982 (4). Total — 20.

COLLEGE: After spending two years at UCLA backing up All-America defensive tackle Manu Tuiasosopo (now with Seattle), Titensor transferred to BYU and became a two-time All-Western Athletic Conference choice at defensive end. He also was an AP honorable mention All-America in '79 and '80. Glen was named BYU defensive player of the week five times in '79 and led the team with 13 sacks in '80.

PERSONAL: Glen Weston Titensor (TIGHT-en-sir), a native of Westminster, Calif., starred in football and track at Bolsa Grande High School in Garden Grove, Calif. During summers he worked for his family's pest control business, Associated Termite Control. Last off-season Glen worked on a construction crew in Provo, Utah.

Everson Walls ★ 24

CORNERBACK • GRAMBLING • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 194 • BORN: 12/28/59 • FA FOR '81

PRO: In the case of Everson Walls it's definitely a situation where the whole is greater than the sum of the parts. After adding up his physical characteristics, particularly his lack of exceptional foot speed, it was judged that Walls would not be a successful NFL player. Thus he was not drafted. Yet, given an opportunity by the Cowboys as a free agent, he has not merely survived, he has ruled. In just two seasons he has become the only player to lead the NFL in interceptions in his first two years, the only Cowboys player ever to lead the league in interceptions twice and only the second player to lead the NFL two years in a row, Philadelphia's Bill Bradley being the first in 1971-72. Walls is one of just eight men who have led the NFL in interceptions twice. Nobody has led the league three times. Walls already owns the Pro Bowl career record of four interceptions, two in each of the past two games. He was an All-Rookie choice in 1981 and a consensus All-Pro selection in 1982. The NFL Alumni Association named Walls the 1982 NFL defensive back of the year. Since becoming a DB as a high school senior in Dallas, Walls has intercepted 52 passes in seven seasons. "He's Superman," teammate Dennis Thurman says. "That's what we call him. There isn't a play he can't make." "Cubby," as he's known, became the starting left cornerback in the fifth game of the 1981 season. He finished with a team-record and league-leading 11 interceptions, breaking Mel Renfro's club mark and becoming the first rookie since Detroit's Lem Barney in 1967 to lead the NFL. He stole two more passes and recovered a fumble in the NFC Championship Game (1/10/82). He also became only the sixth free agent rookie to be voted to the Pro Bowl. Because of his knack for defending the pass, Walls' superior tackling ability is often overlooked. He has finished second to Michael Downs in solo tackles in each of the past two years. GAMES: 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 25.

COLLEGE: Walls led the nation in 1980 with a Grambling-record 11 interceptions for 140 yards in 11 games. He was named first-team All-Southwestern Athletic Conference. In his junior year he picked off four passes for 91 yards and a touchdown.

PERSONAL: Dallas native Everson Collins "Cubby" Walls was a football, basketball and track star at Richardson Berkner High. He earned a degree in accounting from Grambling. Everson supports the Big Brothers of Arlington, Texas, and the American Heart Association.

Danny White ★ 11

PRO: Take a close look at the NFL quarterback ratings and you'll find Danny White is not merely a good quarterback, he's an all-time excellent one. White needs 323 attempts to reach the 1,500 necessary to qualify for the all-time rankings. When he does, he's likely to enter as the league's all-time leading passer. Entering 1983, Roger Staubach, the man White followed as the Cowboys' quarterback, is the NFL's all-time leader at 83.5, followed by Sonny Jurgensen at 82.8. Danny's career rating is a superb 83.1. Danny has improved steadily every season since taking over the starting job in 1980, leading the Cowboys to the NFC Championship Game three straight times. The Cowboys are 33-13 under White, including 5-2 in the playoffs. He was the NFC's second-leading passer the past two seasons and in his first Pro Bowl appearance last season threw the winning touchdown pass in the last minute. White holds club season records for touchdown passes (28 in 1980) and completion percentage (63.2 in '82) and the team career record for completion percentage (59.0). "Danny's an excellent quarterback," Tom Landry says. "His knowledge of the game is unsurpassed by any quarterback we've had. He has such great poise and such a solid grasp of what's going on out there, the kind of thing you can't teach. He has a great feel for the game. He's just a winner." Danny has directed three dramatic comeback victories. In 1980 he tossed a 28-yard fourth-down TD pass to Tony Hill with 45 seconds left to beat St. Louis 27-24 (11/2), and in the playoffs he threw two TD passes to Drew Pearson in the final 3:40, the winner with 42 seconds remaining, to overcome Atlanta 30-27 (1/4). In 1981 White completed two touchdown passes in the final four minutes to rally Dallas to a 28-27 triumph over Miami (10/25). Drafted in 1974 with a choice from Houston for Tody Smith and Billy Parks (the same trade which yielded Ed Jones), White joined the Cowboys in 1976 after two years with the World Football League's Memphis Southmen. He completed 183-of-350 passes (52.3 percent) for 2,635 yards and 21 touchdowns for Memphis. Danny also has been the Cowboys' punter since 1976. GAMES: 1976 (14), 1977 (14), 1978 (16), 1979 (16), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 101.

COLLEGE: White finished his career as the NCAA's all-time leading passer. In leading ASU to a three-year record of 32-4, White set seven NCAA passing records. Also a fine runner, he finished second in the nation in total offense in 1973. Danny played infield for ASU's outstanding baseball team and was drafted by four major league teams — Cleveland, New York Mets, Oakland and Houston. Both Danny and his father, Wilford "Whizzer" White, a former ASU All-America halfback who played for the Chicago Bears in 1951-52, are in the Arizona State Sports Hall of Fame.

D. WHITE, Cont.

PERSONAL: Wilford Daniel White is a native of Mesa, Ariz. (Westwood High), a suburb of Phoenix. Danny is chairman of the annual Danny White/Boy Scouts of America Invitational Golf Tournament and the Dallas-Fort Worth March of Dimes Walkathon. He also promotes the Dallas area Parkinsonism Society, Muscular Dystrophy Association, United Way, Dallas Lighthouse for the Blind, Dallas Citizens Safety Advisory Board and the Arizona National Guard. He was named a 1982 Dallas Father of the Year. Among Danny's hobbies are playing the piano, for which he took lessons for eight years as a child, and singing. He released an album last year on which he sings called "Country Cowboy." Danny, wife Jo Lynn and their three children — Ryan (4/26/73), Geoffrey (1/4/76) and Heather (9/3/78) — live in Wylie, Texas.

Randy White ★ 54

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • MARYLAND • 9th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 258 • BORN: 1/15/53 • D-1A FOR '75

PRO: It is a rare player who, while still at the peak of his abilities, already has fashioned a career good enough to land him in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Such is the case with Randy Lee White.
"Randy White is the premiere defensive tackle in the business," says Tom Landry. "He's got such great intensity and competitiveness. We've never had a player and I've never seen a player, other than probably Ernie Stautner, who could match Randy's intensity from game to game. When Randy White lines up on you, he doesn't care whether you're All-Pro or whether you're a rookie. You're going to get the same treatment. That makes him unique in this game." The Cowboys' strongest player (he can bench-press 485 pounds), the one dubbed "Manster" (half man, half monster) by former teammate Charlie Waters, White immediately became one of the NFL's top defensive players in 1977 upon taking over the starting right tackle position following two seasons as a backup middle linebacker. Despite being consistently double-teamed, Randy has been named All-Pro the past five seasons (1978-82) and to the Pro Bowl the past six (1977-82). Hall of Famer Bob Lilly, who like White played right tackle, is the only Cowboys player ever named All-Pro six consecutive years. In 1977 Randy capped his first season as a starter by earning the co-MVP award for Super Bowl XII with Harvey Martin. In '78 White succeeded Martin as the Seagram's Seven Crowns of Sport defensive lineman of the year and also was voted NFC defensive player of the year by UPI and the Kansas City Committee of 101. In '81 Randy was named International Trucks lineman of the year and in '82 the NFL Alumni Association chose White defensive lineman of the year. "Randy is a unique combination of extreme quickness, speed and strength," Bob Lilly says. Adds teammate John Dutton. "He's the best defensive lineman I've ever seen. One on one, he's just unbeatable." Randy tied Martin for the club lead in QB traps in '78 with a career-high 16. In '79 he had a career-best three QB traps in a game against St. Louis (10/21). Randy got his first career interception in the 1981 NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (1/10/82). GAMES: 1975 (14), 1976 (14), 1977 (14), 1978 (16), 1979 (15), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 114.

R. WHITE, Cont.

COLLEGE: A consensus All-America at defensive end in 1974, White won both the Outland Trophy and Vince Lombardi Award as college football's top lineman that year. He was the second player selected in the 1975 draft with a choice obtained by the Cowboys from the New York Giants for quarterback Craig Morton.

PERSONAL: Randy Lee White was a football, basketball and base-ball star at Thomas McKean High School in his hometown of Wilming-ton, Del. Randy lives in Dallas and also owns a 22-acre farm in Lan-denberg, Pa. He enjoys hunting and fishing in his spare time. He and wife Vicci, a model, have a daughter, Jordan Leigh (5/6/79). Randy received the 1980 Field Scovell Award for athletic excellence from the Dallas All-Sports Association. He supports the Association of Blind Athletes, the United Way and the American Heart Association.

Brad Wright ★ 15

QUARTERBACK • NEW MEXICO • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 209 • BORN: 5/15/59 • FA FOR '82

PRO: Brad Wright was a fourth-round draft choice of the Miami Dolphins in 1981. Released by the Dolphins in preseason, he was signed by the Cowboys following the '81 season. Brad performed well in training camp last year and when Glenn Carano suffered a knee injury in the second preseason game, at San Diego, it opened a spot for Wright as the Cowboys' No. 3 quarterback. Brad was a member of the active roster last year but saw no action in games. GAMES: 1982 (0).

COLLEGE: Wright produced 39 touchdowns and 4,204 yards of total offense in 22 games of an injury-marred career at the University of New Mexico. In his career he completed 237 passes on 464 attempts (51.1 percent) for 3,364 yards and 20 touchdowns, and he rushed for 840 yards on 305 carries and scored 19 TDs.

PERSONAL: Bradley Kirk Wright was an outstanding football, base-ball and basketball player at Robert E. Lee High School in his native Midland, Texas. In the offseason Brad works as a field underwriter for New York Life Insurance Company. He and wife Catherine live in Dallas with sons Jeremiah (8/4/77) and Austin (12/27/82).

Steve Wright ★ 73

GUARD-TACKLE • NORTHERN IOWA • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 263 • BORN: 4/8/59 • FA FOR '81

PRO: Reserve offensive lineman Steve Wright was a 1981 free agent rookie who overcame long odds to win a roster spot. The Cowboys already appeared loaded with offensive linemen, including their No. 1 and No. 3 draft choices, yet Wright earned a job because he displayed the long-range potential of a keeper. A fine athlete with good size and mobility, Steve backed up the tackle position as a rookie and the guard position last year. He received a unique claim to fame in last year's regular-season finale. Due to an injury to Kurt Petersen, Steve was playing right guard on Tony Dorsett's record-setting 99-yard touchdown run at Minnesota (1/3/83). Steve's family and friends from nearby Wayzata, Minn., were in the stands at the time. GAMES: 1981 (16), 1982 (9). Total — 25.

COLLEGE: Wright played offensive tackle his first three years at Northern Iowa before moving to tight end his senior season. He caught eight passes for 73 yards and one touchdown.

PERSONAL: Stephen Hough Wright is a native of Wayzata, Minn., where he starred in football, basketball, track and hockey at Wayzata High School. Steve was a high school All-America in the shot put and discus.

(1983 Draftees)

JIM JEFFCOAT • Defensive End • Arizona State
Ht: 6-5 • Wt: 260 • Born: 4/1/61 • D-1

Jim Jeffcoat was the top player on the nation's top defense last year. Fighting off constant double-team blocking from his defensive end position, Jeffcoat helped Arizona State limit opponents to 228.9 yards per game, best in major college football in 1982.

"He is what we call a very active player," Coach Tom Landry says. "He's the type who will get aggressive with you. We need that. I think he's going to give some people a run for their money. Ernie Stautner, our defensive line coach, worked him out and was very impressed. We have faith he will be able to replace one of our starters eventually."

The 23rd pick of the first round, Jeffcoat was the first Arizona State player taken in the draft and the third defensive lineman selected behind Atlanta's pick of Alabama's Mike Pitts and Pittsburgh's choice of Texas Tech's Gabe Rivera. He is the first Arizona State player ever taken in the first round by the Cowboys.

Jeffcoat was named the outstanding defensive player in Arizona State's Fiesta Bowl victory over Oklahoma last season after making 16 tackles, causing one fumble and sacking Oklahoma QB Kelly Phelps for a safety. Jeffcoat earned first-team All-Pac 10 honors last year and was an honorable mention All-America pick by the Associated Press, United Press International and the Sporting News. He capped his college career with appearances in the East-West and Senior Bowl all-star games.

Known for his competitiveness and determination, Jeffcoat improved rapidly after earning a starting position at noseguard in 1980. He switched to defensive end his junior season and anchored the Sun Devils' defensive front which led the Pac 10 in rushing defense (121.1 yards per game). Jeffcoat's 10 quarterback sacks that year led the team. He was named honorable mention All-Pac 10.

As a senior Jeffcoat had a career-high 95 tackles, four quarterback sacks, and four pass deflections. His best games came against Houston with 13 tackles, a sack and two pass deflections, and against Southern Cal and Oregon State with 12 stops in each game. He excelled against the run and was a fine power pass rusher.

A native of Cliffwood, N.J., James Wilson Jeffcoat earned high school football All-America honors at Matawan Regional High and was rated the top defensive lineman in the east. He also lettered in wrestling. He is one of seven children of James and Mildred Jeffcoat.

Jim graduated from ASU with a degree in communications. He is interested in pursuing his master's in business administration.

MIKE WALTER   •   Linebacker   •   Oregon
Ht: 6-3   •   Wt: 230   •   Born: 11/30/60   •   D-2

A 1982 first-team All-Pac 10 defensive end, Mike Walter is projected as an outside linebacker by the Cowboys. His selection gave Dallas both defensive ends from last season's All-Pac 10 team.

"He showed us great football traits, especially mentally," Tom Landry says. "He has very quick feet, can backpedal well and has great instincts. If he can make the conversion, he's going to be a very good linebacker."

An enthusiastic player and natural leader, Walter was named team captain prior to last season, the first captain in Rich Brooks' six years as Oregon head coach. Walter led the Ducks with 13 quarterback sacks and 18 tackles for losses and was chosen Pac 10 defensive player of the week following Oregon's surprising 13-13 tie of Notre Dame. He played in the East-West and Japan Bowl all-star games after the season.

Walter was a three-year starter at defensive end after being switched from linebacker during his sophomore year. He played in 44 consecutive games for Oregon and led the Ducks' defense his final two years in sacks and tackles for losses. Teammates voted him club MVP last year.

"His quickness overcomes his speed," said Cowboys Personnel Director Gil Brandt. "He runs as fast backwards as most defensive backs, which is saying quite a bit for a guy that size."

Says Oregon Coach Rich Brooks, "Mike knows only one speed, full speed ahead. He has instinctive good judgment and understands his responsibilities in a team defense."

A native of Eugene, Ore., Walter played just one year of high school football, but was named the most valuable player on his Sheldon High team and in the state all-star game. He was also the Sheldon High most valuable basketball player.

Mike majored in general science. In the spring of 1982 he was one of 13 University of Oregon students selected to the Society of Friars, an order of future leaders.

BRYAN CALDWELL   •   Defensive End   •   Arizona State
Ht: 6-4   •   Wt: 248   •   Born: 5/6/60   •   D-3

The Cowboys wound up with both ends of the fine Arizona State defensive line when they selected Bryan Caldwell in the third round to join first-rounder Jim Jeffcoat.

Although overshadowed by more heralded teammates Jeffcoat, Vernon Maxwell and Mike Richardson, Caldwell was an integral part of the Sun Devils' top-ranked defense in the nation last year.

A three-year starter at ASU, Caldwell spent 1981 at Mesa Community College where he regained his academic eligibility. Upon returning to ASU last year, he beat out the man who had replaced him in 1981, Walt Bowyer, a good player who was drafted in the 10th round by Denver.

Caldwell returned an interception 20 yards for a touchdown versus Kansas State last season en route to gaining second-team All-Pac 10 honors and a spot in the Japan Bowl all-star game. In 1980 he blocked a punt and returned it 46 yards for a touchdown against Ohio State and also set a school record with five fumble recoveries.

Caldwell was regarded as one of the top schoolboy defensive football players in the nation when he came out of Fountain Valley High School in Fountain Valley, Calif., in 1978. He set a school record of 20 quarterback sacks in two years. He also won letters in track and volleyball.

A special education major at ASU, Bryan Craig Caldwell hails from Westminster, Calif., also the hometown of Cowboys offensive lineman Glen Titensor. Bryan is an Eagle Boy Scout.

CHRIS FAULKNER • Tight End • Florida
Ht: 6-4 • Wt: 257 • Born: 4/13/59 • D-4

Chris Faulkner caught 71 passes for 952 yards and eight touchdowns in a career at Florida that began brilliantly but was interrupted by injuries.

A massive receiver with good speed and hands, Faulkner also is an excellent blocker who started two games in 1980 at offensive guard. He was a 1978 walk-on who was redshirted that year before earning a scholarship.

Faulkner was the Gators' second leading receiver in 1979 with 22 catches for 246 yards. His four TD receptions tied for the Southeastern Conference lead. In 1980 he was named first-team All-SEC and SEC sophomore of the year after catching 24 passes for 259 yards and three touchdowns, including nine receptions for 64 yards and two TDs versus Georgia Tech.

An injury-marred junior year concluded for Faulkner with just six catches for 61 yards, but he rebounded with a fine 1982 season, catching 19 passes for 286 yards while splitting the tight end job with Mike Mularky, a ninth-round draft choice by Chicago.

In the Hula Bowl Faulkner caught five passes for 64 yards. He also appeared in the Senior Bowl all-star game.

Christopher Alan Faulkner attended Hamilton Heights High School in his hometown of Arcadia, Ind. He studied art at Florida.

CHUCK McSWAIN • Running Back • Clemson
Ht: 6-0 • Wt: 190 • Born: 2/21/61 • D-5

Speedy Chuck McSwain rushed for 2,297 yards and 22 touchdowns on 469 carries in four seasons at Clemson, including a career-best 668 yards and seven scores during the Tigers' 1981 national championship year.

A quick, slashing type of runner, McSwain was part of Clemson's "McBackfield" with fullback Jeff McCall and a co-starter at tailback during parts of his junior and senior years with Cliff Austin, New Orleans' third round choice this year.

McSwain was named Atlantic Coast Conference rookie of the year in 1979 after rushing for 444 yards and five TDs, including 120 yards on 18 carries versus Duke. In 1980 he was the Tigers' second leading rusher with 544 yards, including 272 yards on 37 attempts (6.8 yard average) in the final three games.

McSwain finished strong again in 1981, including a career-high 151 yards and two touchdowns on 25 carries in a season-ending victory over South Carolina. McSwain had a key 10-yard run in the Orange Bowl TD drive that helped Clemson top Nebraska for an unbeaten season and the national championship. Last season he led the Tigers past North Carolina State by rushing 14 times for 129 yards and one TD.

Anthony "Chuck" McSwain was a high school All-America running back at Chase High in Caroleen, N.C. He also played basketball and ran track. At Clemson he ran the first leg of Clemson's 1980 ACC champion 4x100 meter relay team. An industrial education major, Chuck was born in Rutherford, N.C.

CHRIS SCHULTZ • Tackle • Arizona
Ht: 6-8 • Wt: 259 • Born: 2/16/60 • D-7

After earning three letters as a defensive tackle, Chris Schultz was switched to offense last year, won the starting left tackle position and performed well for the Wildcats.

The strongest member of the Arizona team with a 365-pound bench press, Schultz possesses the kind of size the Cowboys prefer in an offensive tackle. A native of Burlington, Ontario, Canada, Schultz was a seventh-round draft choice of the Canadian Football League Toronto Argonauts in February 1982, but decided to remain at Arizona.

Schultz was a four-year letterman in football and basketball at Aldershot High in Burlington, Ontario. He played on two football championship teams. He studied psychology at Arizona.

LAWRENCE RICKS • Running Back • Michigan
Ht: 5-9 • Wt: 194 • Born: 6/4/61 • D-8

Lawrence Ricks developed a reputation as a hard-working, intelligent and powerful tailback in averaging 5.1 yards per carry at Michigan and finishing as the school's fifth all-time leading rusher with 2,751 yards and 24 TDs on 541 attempts.

Taking over as Butch Woolfolk's full-time replacement last year, Ricks was the Big Ten's second leading rusher and the ninth leading ground gainer in the nation with 1,388 yards on 266 carries (5.2 per carry, 118.2 per game). He gained a career-high 196 yards versus Purdue and averaged 5.8 yards every time he handled the ball. He was a consensus All-Big Ten selection and an Associated Press honorable mention All-America.

A tough inside runner and good blocker, Ricks has been compared to former Baltimore Colts' runner Don Nottingham. Ricks probably will receive a look at fullback.

Ricks was raised in Barberton, Ohio, where he belonged to the Barberton High National Honor Society. At Michigan he received the Matthai Award after 1981 spring practice for displaying leadership and drive on the football field and in the classroom. He was enrolled in the School of Engineering with an emphasis on computer science.

AL GROSS • Safety • Arizona
Ht: 6-3 • Wt: 186 • Born: 1/4/61 • D-9

Hard-hitting Al "Bubba" Gross, a first-team All-Pac 10 free safety in 1982, is projected as a strong safety by the Cowboys.

A four-year letterman and senior captain, Gross did not miss a game in his final three seasons, playing in 33 straight, and was known as an aggressive defensive back who came up quickly against the run and punished ball carriers. His size and speed also made him a fine pass defender. He excelled throughout his career in Arizona's biggest games. He had four career interceptions and capped his college career with an appearance in the East-West all-star game.

Alfred E. Gross, Jr., starred in football and basketball at Franklin High in Stockton, Calif. He was a two-time all-conference pick in football and basketball and also earned all-state honors in basketball his senior year. He majored in correctional administration with a minor in public management.

DAN TAYLOR • Tackle • Idaho State
Ht: 6-3 • Wt: 258 • Born: 5/13/59 • D-11

Dan Taylor was a three-year starting offensive tackle who earned first-team All-Big Sky honors last year. In 1981 he anchored the offensive line of Idaho State's NCAA Division 1-AA national championship team.

Taylor was an outstanding pass blocker for the Bengals in a pro-style passing offense. He also could be tried at guard.

Taylor attended Olympia High in his hometown of Olympia, Wash. He was a physical education major. Prior to his senior year in college he worked during the summer on a demolition crew for a manufacturing company outside Olympia.

LORENZO BOUIER • Running Back • Maine
Ht: 6-0 • Wt: 209 • Born: 2/27/61 • D-12

One of the finest backs in New England college football history, Lorenzo Bouier (pronounced boo-YAY) finished his collegiate career with a host of honors and 11 school records despite injuries that marred his junior and senior years.

Bouier was named ECAC rookie of the year in 1979 after rushing for an NCAA Division 1-AA freshman record 910 yards and seven TDs on 212 carries. In 1980 he was voted ECAC player of the year, All-East, All-Yankee Conference, All-New England and NCAA Division 1-AA All-America after rushing for 1,622 yards and nine TDs on 349 carries.

A mid-season injury and adjustment problems to a new offense reduced Bouier's output to 432 yards in 1981. He began strongly last season with 209 yards in the season opener versus Harvard, but a minor leg fracture in game six held his season rushing total to 863 yards. He finished his career with 4,434 total yards, 3,827 rushing yards, 198 points scored and 33 touchdowns scored, all Maine records. He was only the second Maine player ever selected to play in a post-season all-star game, the '82 Blue-Gray contest.

Bouier was a football and track star at Bulkeley High in his hometown of Hartford, Conn. He majored in elementary education.

Other Cowboys With NFL Experience

JIM ELIOPULOS, the Cowboys' 1982 third-round draft choice, injured a knee during his first week of training camp and spent last season on injured reserve. A 6-2, 231-pound outside linebacker, Eliopulos earned first-team All-Western Athletic Conference and AP honorable mention All-America honors in 1981 at the University of Wyoming. He transferred to Wyoming from Westminster College in Salt Lake City. A native of Cheyenne (4/18/59), Jim was named Wyoming's high school athlete of the year as a senior at Cheyenne Central.

SCOTT McLEAN, a 6-3, 233-pound middle linebacker, joined the Cowboys in 1982 as a free agent rookie following a career as a defensive end at Florida State. McLean spent last season on injured reserve after injuring a knee in training camp. Scott is a native of Clermont, Fla. (12/16/60).

KEVIN ROBINSON is a 5-11, 194-pound strong safety from North Carolina A&T who was selected in the 1982 supplemental draft by the Detroit Lions. Detroit released Robinson during preseason last year. A native of Union, S.C. (2/19/60), Robinson was a two-time All-Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference choice at defensive back for North Carolina A&T.

"GREAT EXPECTATIONS"

The Dallas Cowboys 1982 highlights film, "Great Expectations," is available free of charge to groups wishing to show it. The 30-minute, 16mm sound and color movie, which traces the Cowboys' exciting 1982 season from training camp through the playoffs, is sponsored by Eastman Kodak and produced by NFL Films. It is narrated by John Facenda. To reserve a copy of "Great Expectations," call the Cowboys' executive offices at 214/369-8000.

Player Personnel Guide

Waivers

The waiver system is a procedure by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by a club to other clubs in the League. During the procedure the 27 other clubs either file claims to obtain the players or waive the opportunity to do so—thus the term "waiver." Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based on the inverse of won-and-lost standing. The claiming period normally is 10 days during the off-season and 24 hours from early July through December. In some circumstances another 24 hours is added on to allow the original club to rescind its action (known as a recall of a waiver request) and/or the claiming club to do the same (known as withdrawal of a claim). If a player passes through waivers unclaimed and is not recalled by the original club, he becomes a free agent. All waivers from July through December are no-recall and no withdrawal. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from February 1 through October 11 any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit may, if about to be assigned to another club through the waiver system, reject such assignment and become a free agent.

Active List

The Active List is the principal status for players participating for a club. It consists of all players under contract, including option, who are eligible for preseason, regular season, and postseason games. Clubs are allowed to open training camp with an unlimited number of players but thereafter must meet a series of mandatory roster reductions prior to the season opener. Teams will be permitted to dress up to 45 players for each regular season and postseason game during the 1983 season. The Active List maximums and dates for 1983 are:

August 16, 60 players; August 23, 50 players; August 29, 45 players.

Reserve List

The Reserve List is a status for players who, for reasons of injury, retirement, military service, or other circumstances, are not immediately available for participation with a club. Those players in the category of Reserve/Injured who were physically unable to play football for a minimum of four weeks from the date of going onto Reserve may be re-activated by their clubs upon clearing procedural recall waivers; in addition, each club will have three free re-activations for players meeting the four-week requirement who were placed on Reserve following the final cutdown. Clubs participating in postseason competition will be granted an additional free re-activation. Players not meeting the four-week requirement may not return in the same season to the Active List of the club which originally placed them on Reserve, but may be assigned through the waiver system to other clubs. Early in 1984 all clubs who had players on Reserve/Injured must declare a maximum of three players, from those meeting the four-week requirement, as tradeable in that year; others who were on the list cannot be traded until 1985. Players in the category of Reserve/Retired may not be reinstated during the period from 30 days before the end of the regular season on through the postseason.

Trades

Unrestricted trading between the AFC and NFC is allowed in 1983 through October 11, after which all trading will end until January 30, 1984.

Historical Highlights

NFL FRANCHISE — Clint Murchison, Jr., and Bedford Wynne were awarded an expansion franchise in the NFL at the annual league meeting in Miami Beach, Fla. The Cowboys were to play as a "swing" team, playing every other team one time during the first season, although listed in the Western Conference standings (January 28).

COWBOYS STOCKED — A player pool was set up in a league meeting at L.A., with each of 12 NFL teams freezing 25 names on its roster and the Cowboys allowed to pick three from each team for a total of 36 veterans. Dallas, once given the list, had to select its 36 players within 24 hours (March 13).

TRAINING STARTS — Rookies report to first Cowboys camp at Pacific U., in Forest Grove, Oregon (July 9).

FIRST PRE-SEASON GAME — The Cowboys, less than six months in existence, get their first test and drop a 10-16 pre-season game to San Francisco in Seattle (August 6).

FIRST HOME GAME — In their Dallas debut, in the Salesmanship Club preseason game, the Cowboys led the world champion Baltimore Colts into the final minute before a 62-yard pass from Johnny Unitas to Lenny Moore gave the Colts a 14-10 victory (August 19).

FIRST VICTORY — In a preseason game at Louisville, Ky., the Cowboys beat New York's Giants, 14-3, with Frank Clarke catching touchdown passes of 73 yards (Eddie LeBaron) and 74 yards (Don Meredith) (August 27).

FIRST LEAGUE GAME — In their first league game, Dallas fell to Pittsburgh, 35-28, with Bobby Layne leading a fourth-period Steeler rally (Sept. 24, Saturday night).

STREAK SNAPPED — Dallas snaps a 10-game loss streak by tying New York, 31-31, at Yankee Stadium (Dec. 4).

TRAINING STARTS — Rookies launch training at new campsite — St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn. (July 9).

FIRST LEAGUE WIN — Scoring ten points in the final 56 seconds, the Cowboys score their first NFL victory, 27-24, over Pittsburgh in the '61 league opener in the Cotton Bowl. Allen Green's 27-yard field goal on the game's final play won it before 23,500 (Sept. 17).

1962

TRAINING STARTS — Team begins training at new campsite — Northern Michigan College in Marquette, Mich. (July 13).

PENALTY HISTORY — For the first time in anyone's memory in an NFL game, points were awarded for a penalty. The Cowboys were detected holding in the end zone on a 99-TD pass from LeBaron to Clarke, and Pittsburgh was awarded a safety. The Steelers eventually won, 30-28 (Sept. 23).

100-YARD FIRSTS — Cowboys Amos Marsh returned a kickoff 101 yards and Mike Gaechter returned a pass interception 100 yards, both plays for fourth-quarter TDs in a 41-19 win over Philadelphia in Dallas. It was the first time in NFL history that two 100-yard runs had been made in the same game, much less by the same team in the same quarter (Oct. 14).

SHIFT TO KANSAS CITY — The rival Dallas Texans of the AFL announce they are moving the franchise to Kansas City (Feb. 8).

CALIFORNIA TRAINING SITE — The Cowboys open training at California Lutheran College in Thousand Oaks, Calif. (July 12).

HOWTON SETS RECORD — Bill Howton broke Don Hutson's all-time receiving mark with a 14-yard catch against Washington (there). Hutson's record was 7,991 yards and the catch gave Howton an even 8,000 yards (Sept. 29).

1964

LANDRY CONTRACT — With one year to go on his original contract, Tom Landry is signed to a ten-year extension, in effect giving him an 11-year pact, possibly the longest in major pro sports history (Feb. 5).

1965

FIRST SELLOUT — An overflow crowd of 76,251 jams the Cotton Bowl for the Cleveland game, notching the team's first home sellout. Cleveland won, 24-17 (Nov. 21).

1966

PLAYOFF BOWL — After defeating New York, 38-20, in the season finale (and winning five of their last seven games) to get into the Playoff Bowl at Miami, the Cowboys fall to Baltimore, 35-3 (Jan. 15).

MERGER — Peace comes to pro football with Cowboys GM Tex Schramm completing two months of negotiations with AFL's Lamar Hunt, merging the two leagues under the NFL banner (June 8).

SCHRAMM ELEVATED — Texas E. Schramm, Vice-President and General Manager of the Cowboys from the beginning, was named President of the club by owner Clint Murchison, Jr., who retained the title of Chairman of the Board.

NEELY CASE SOLVED — Dallas and Houston reached agreement in the Ralph Neely case. Neely remained with Dallas with Houston receiving the Cowboys Nos. 1, 2 and two fifth place picks in the 1967 draft (Nov. 17).

THE CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys won their first championship, capturing the Eastern Conference title with a 10-3-1 record, but lost the NFL Championship Game to Green Bay, 34-27.

TEXAS STADIUM — On Dec. 23, owner Clint Murchison, Jr., formally announced plans to build Texas Stadium in suburban Irving. The stadium, to be financed through a bond-option plan, would be ready for the 1970 season. The stadium would seat a minimum of 58,000.

SECOND CHAMPIONSHIP — Under the NFL's new format, the Cowboys easily won the Capitol Division and defeated Cleveland, Century Division winner, 52-14, in the Cotton Bowl for the Eastern conference championship. However, on Dec. 31 in Green Bay, the Cowboys lost their second bid for an NFL title, falling to the Packers, 21-17, in the 13 degree below weather.

1968

WIN CAPITOL — For the second straight year the Cowboys won the Capitol Division, but for the first time in three years the Cowboys did not win the Eastern Championship, being upset at Cleveland, 31-20, on December 21st. Dallas won the Runner-Up Bowl over Minnesota, 17-13.

1969

TEXAS STADIUM — Ground was broken for Texas Stadium in suburban Irving on January 25, and on June 29 Bert Rose was named general manager of the stadium.

ORIGINALS RETIRE — An era ended for the Cowboys in July. On July 5th at a press conference in Dallas, quarterback Don Meredith, the last of the original Cowboys, announced his retirement. Then, on July 18th, the day the veterans were to report to training camp, all-time rushing great Don Perkins officially retired.

REPEAT CAPITOL WINS — Once again the Cowboys rolled to the Capitol Division Championship with an 11-2-1 season. However, the Cowboys failed to win the Eastern Championship when on Dec. 28, the Cowboys lost to Cleveland, 38-14, in the Cotton Bowl.

FIVE STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys won their last five games to finish 10-4, claim the Eastern Division championship and make the playoffs for the fifth year in a row. They defeated Detroit, 5-0, in the opening round to get a shot at the National Conference championship.

FIRST NFC TITLE — The Cowboys captured the biggest prize of their 11-year history on Jan. 3 when they downed San Francisco, 17-10, for the NFC crown. A 16-13 loss to Baltimore in the Super Bowl Jan. 17 left Dallas with one major goal still unrealized.

TEXAS STADIUM — The Cowboys opened a new era in their sparkling Irving, Tex., home with a 44-21 victory over the New England Patriots on October 24. Duane Thomas scored the first touchdown in the new stadium, a 56-yard run just two minutes and 16 seconds after the opening kickoff. Attendance was 65,708.

SIX STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys won their last seven games to finish 11-3, claim the Eastern Division championship and make the playoffs for the sixth year in a row. They defeated Minnesota, 20-12, in the opening round.

SECOND NFC TITLE — For the second consecutive year, the Cowboys met the San Francisco 49ers in the National Conference showdown. This time Dallas won, 14-3, to qualify for its second straight Super Bowl.

FIRST WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys downed the Miami Dolphins, 24-3, to win Super Bowl VI in New Orleans on Jan. 16. It was the 10th victory in a row for Dallas as Roger Staubach passed for two touchdowns and was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

FIRST 1,000-YARD BACK — Calvin Hill became the first Dallas player to rush for 1,000 yards when he gained 111 on Dec. 9 against the Washington Redskins in Texas Stadium. Hill wound up with 1,036 yards for the season on a record 245 carries.

SEVEN STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys qualified for the NFL playoffs a record seventh consecutive year, their 10-4 record earning them the National Conference Wild Card berth. Roger Staubach passed for two touchdowns in the last 1½ minutes to give the Cowboys a 30-28 victory at San Francisco in the first round. Then, at Washington on New Year's Eve, Dallas was foiled in its bid for a third straight NFL title when the Redskins won, 26-3.

100 VICTORIES — The Cowboys and Coach Tom Landry recorded their 100th victory with a 40-3 Texas Stadium win over the New Orleans Saints on Sept. 24. Landry, the only head coach the Cowboys have had, ended the season with a career mark of 108-80-6 to rank ninth on the list of the NFL's all-time winningest coaches.

EIGHT STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys regained the NFC Eastern Division title with a 10-4 record and broke their own NFL record by reaching the playoffs for the eighth year in a row. Dallas defeated Western Division champion Los Angeles in the first round, 27-16, but fell to Central Division winner Minnesota in the NFC Championship Game, 27-10.

1974

FIRST TOP DRAFT CHOICE — For the first time in their history, the Cowboys had the very first choice in the NFL college draft. The No. 1 pick came to Dallas from Houston in exchange for Tody Smith and Billy Parks. The Cowboys selected Ed "Too Tall" Jones, a 6-9, 260-pound defensive end from Tennessee State.

PLAYOFFS MISSED — The Cowboys' record-breaking string of eight straight years in the NFL playoffs was broken when the club's 8-6 record failed to qualify.

LILLY HONORED — "Mr. Cowboy" was honored on Bob Lilly Day at Texas Stadium at halftime of the Philadelphia game on Nov. 23. It was the first such recognition ever given to a Dallas player. Lilly never missed a game in 14 years with the Cowboys, earning All-Pro honors seven times at defensive tackle before retiring prior to the '75 season.

TEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys' 10-4 record earned them the NFC Wild Card berth in the playoffs. The composite record over 10 straight winning seasons was 101-37-2.

THIRD NFC TITLE — After shocking Minnesota in the first round, 17-14 on Roger Staubach's 50-yard "Hail Mary" pass to Drew Pearson, the Cowboys traveled to Los Angeles for the NFC showdown. Staubach threw four touchdown passes, three to Preston Pearson, and Dallas won, 37-7. Pittsburgh won Super Bowl X on Jan. 18 in Miami, 21-17.

1976

MEREDITH, PERKINS HONORED — Former Cowboys greats Don Meredith and Don Perkins joined Bob Lilly in the "Ring of Honor" at Texas Stadium during halftime ceremonies at the New York Giants game on Nov. 7.

ELEVEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys won the NFC Eastern Division title with their 11-3 record, giving them their 11th straight winning season and 10th playoff berth in that period. A 14-12 first round loss to Los Angeles — the first time Dallas had lost in the first round under the current playoff setup — ended the season.

1977

HOWLEY HONORED — Former All-Pro linebacker Chuck Howley, a Cowboy from 1961 through 1973, became the fourth member of the Ring of Honor. Howley was honored during ceremonies at halftime of the Detroit Lions game on Oct. 30.

TWELVE STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — Getting off to an 8-0 start, their best ever, the Cowboys rolled to a 12-2 record, the championship of the NFC East, and their 12th consecutive winning season. They opened their 11th visit to the playoffs in those 12 years with a 37-7 first-round victory over the Chicago Bears at Texas Stadium.

FOURTH NFC TITLE — Dallas crushed the Minnesota Vikings at Texas Stadium, 23-6, for National Conference crown No. 4 and the right to meet the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XII.

SECOND WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys stopped the Denver Broncos, 27-10, to win Super Bowl XII in New Orleans on January 15, 1978. In the process, Dallas tied Minnesota for most Super Bowl appearances (four) and Green Bay, Miami and Pittsburgh for most Super Bowl victories (two). Defensive linemen Harvey Martin and Randy White were named co-Most Valuable Players in the game.

THIRTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — After a mediocre 6-4 start, the Cowboys won six straight games to finish the expanded regular season with a 12-4 record and their 10th division crown. It marked the Cowboys' 13th consecutive winning season and 12th trip to the playoffs in that span. Dallas rallied to beat Atlanta 27-20 in a divisional playoff at Texas Stadium, sending the Cowboys to their seventh NFC championship game in the past nine years.

FIFTH NFC TITLE — Dallas shut out the Rams in Los Angeles 28-0 in the National Conference title game to advance to the Super Bowl a record fifth time, including three of the last four. In the first Super Bowl rematch, Pittsburgh edged the Cowboys 35-31 for the NFL championship on Jan. 21 in Miami's Orange Bowl.

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY — The Cowboys celebrated their 20th anniversary season at halftime of the St. Louis Cardinals game at Texas Stadium on Oct. 21. Stars from each of those 20 seasons plus Coach Tom Landry were introduced during the halftime ceremonies.

FOURTH STRAIGHT NFC EAST TITLE — Rallying from a mid-season slump, the Cowboys won their final three games to finish with an 11-5 record, their 11th division championship, including the past four NFC East titles, and 14th consecutive winning season. The Cowboys made their 13th trip to the playoffs in those 14 years, but were eliminated by Los Angeles 21-19 in a divisional playoff at Texas Stadium.

1980

STAUBACH RETIRES — At a press conference at Texas Stadium on March 31, quarterback Roger Staubach announced his retirement after 11 record-breaking years with the Cowboys. Staubach held all major Cowboys passing records and was the all-time leading NFL passer.

LILLY ENTERS HALL OF FAME — Bob Lilly, a seven-time All-Pro defensive tackle in his 14-year career with the Cowboys from 1961-74, became the first Cowboys-only player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Enshrined along with Lilly on Aug. 2 at Canton, Ohio, were Herb Adderley, who played for the Cowboys from 1970-72, Jim Otto and Deacon Jones.

FIFTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — Behind new starting quarterback Danny White, the Cowboys rolled to their 15th consecutive winning season with a surprising 12-4 record, tied for best in the league with Philadelphia and Atlanta. The Cowboys lost the NFC East title to Philadelphia on a tie-breaker, but entered the playoffs for the 14th time in 15 years, this time as a wild card team. The Cowboys beat Los Angeles 34-13 at Texas Stadium in the NFC Wild Card Game and rallied past the Falcons at Atlanta 30-27 to advance to the NFC Championship Game at Philadelphia. But the Cowboys lost 20-7 in their bid for a sixth Super Bowl appearance.

LANDRY'S 200th VICTORY — Tom Landry joined George Halas and Curly Lambeau as the only coaches with 200 NFL victories when the Cowboys beat Los Angeles 34-13 on Dec. 28 at Texas Stadium in the NFC Wild Card Game, raising Landry's record to 200-119-6, counting regular season and playoff games.

RENFRO HONORED — Former All-Pro defensive back Mel Renfro, the Cowboys' all-time leading pass interceptor, became the fifth member of the Cowboys' Ring of Honor. Renfro, who played for Dallas from 1964 through 1977, was honored during halftime ceremonies of the Cowboys-Miami Dolphins game at Texas Stadium Oct. 25.

TWELFTH DIVISION CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys regained the NFC Eastern Division Championship, their 12th division title since 1966, with a 12-4 record and tied Oakland's NFL mark of 16 consecutive winning seasons. Entering the playoffs for the 15th time in that span, the Cowboys advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the ninth time in 12 years by routing Tampa Bay 38-0 at Texas Stadium. But for the second year in a row Dallas lost the conference title game. San Francisco scored a last-minute touchdown at Candlestick Park to edge the Cowboys 28-27 for a berth in Super Bowl XVI.

200TH REGULAR-SEASON VICTORY — The Cowboys beat Washington 24-10 at RFK Stadium on Dec. 5 for the club's and Coach Tom Landry's 200th regular-season victory.

SEVENTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys finish the strike-shortened regular season with a 6-3 record to establish an NFL record of 17 consecutive winning seasons. Entering the playoffs for a record-tying eighth straight year and for the 16th time in 17 years, the Cowboys beat Tampa Bay 30-17 and Green Bay 37-26, both at Texas Stadium, to advance to the NFC Championship Game for the third year in a row. But again the Cowboys come up short, losing 31-17 at Washington.

THE SIDELINES

Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders

Although the Cowboys have had sideline cheerleaders since their first season, the current phenomenon of the Cowboys Cheerleaders did not begin its rise until 1975.

The Cowboys saw the opportunity to develop a more exciting form of sideline entertainment for football fans. A decision was made to increase the size of the cheerleading squad by holding open auditions in the spring of 1976. About 250 women came to Texas Stadium that year. The number of applicants annually now exceeds 2,000.

In capturing the imaginations of people everywhere, the multi-talented Cheerleaders have made numerous national television appearances, including two highly rated made-for-TV movies about the squad and two special "Love Boat" episodes. The Cheerleaders also have appeared at many charity events and state fairs around the nation.

The Cowboys Cheerleaders also are popular around the world. The squad made its first overseas tour in December 1978, a well-received 10-day visit to Japan. Since 1979 the Cheerleaders have made eight very successful tours of United States military bases in Korea, West Germany, Greece, Turkey, the Philippines, Lebanon and the Indian Ocean for the United Services Organization (USO) and the Department of Defense.

The Cowboys Band

The 26-member Dallas Cowboys Band, a brass arrangement featuring a variety of musical sounds from country and western to rock 'n roll, again will be a central entertainment ingredient during Cowboys games at Texas Stadium in 1983. Under the direction of Bill Lively, associate dean of the Meadows School of the Arts at Southern Methodist University, the Cowboys Band is a vital part of all Texas Stadium pre-game, halftime and post-game activities.

Cowboys on Radio

The Cowboys again in 1983 will have the largest radio network in the National Football League as Texas State Network begins its second season broadcasting Cowboys games to America. With KRLD Radio of Dallas serving as the flagship station, TSN's Dallas Cowboys Network will be carried on 167 stations in 15 states. Play-by-play broadcaster Verne Lundquist will be joined by color man Brad Sham for the broadcasts. In addition, TSN will carry all Cowboys games in Spanish on 11 stations in three states via the Dallas Cowboys Spanish Radio Network with broadcasters Armando Quintero and Mario Montez.
