THE MANAGEMENT

BRIGHT   SCHRAMM   BRANDT

The Dallas Cowboys began a new era in 1984 when founder Clint Murchison, Jr., sold the club after 24 years to an 11-member group headed by Dallas businessman H. R. "Bum" Bright.

The rest of the management team that began with the Cowboys in 1960 — President and General Manager Tex Schramm, Vice President for Personnel Development Gil Brandt and Coach Tom Landry — remained intact as the club entered its "Silver Season," celebrating 25 years in the National Football League.

Bright serves as general partner in the 11-member limited partnership that oversees the Cowboys. Bright is senior partner of Bright and Company, a Dallas-based oil and gas production firm. He has extensive holdings in the banking industry, chairs the board of regents of Texas A&M University and serves as chairman of the board of directors of Children's Medical Center of Dallas.

Schramm, managing partner of the ownership group, directs the day-to-day operation of the Cowboys. A journalism graduate of the University of Texas, Schramm joined the Los Angeles Rams as publicity director in 1947 after two years as a sports writer and sports editor at the Austin American-Statesman. In a 10-year career with the Rams he rose from publicity director, to assistant to the president, to general manager.

Schramm left the Rams in 1957 to join CBS as assistant director of sports. He put together the first network telecast of the Olympics, but following those Winter Games of 1960 in Squaw Valley, Calif., Schramm returned to pro football upon being hired by Clint Murchison to run the new Dallas NFL franchise.

In the spring of 1977 Schramm received an honorary degree (Doctor of Humane Letters) from California Lutheran College. After the Cowboys won the Super Bowl that season Schramm was named NFL Executive of the Year by the Sporting News, and in 1978 he received the Bert Bell Award for outstanding executive leadership in the NFL.

Brandt directs the Cowboys' scouting operation and supervises the signing of all players. A Milwaukee native and graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Brandt was a baby photographer and part-time scout for the Rams under Schramm when his flair for discovering talent led to his being hired by the Cowboys.

THE COACH

Nineteen eighty-four marks the 25th year of "The Only Coach the Cowboys Have Ever Had." During that quarter-century, Tom Landry has grown from an uncertain young rookie head coach of a winless expansion team to a giant in his field.

Landry, the dean of NFL coaches, is the league's winningest active coach and began 1984 tied with Curly Lambeau as the second winningest coach of all time with a career record of 234-134-6. Only George Halas has more NFL victories than Tom Landry.

Landry is one of four coaches with 200 NFL victories. Only Lambeau, who coached Green Bay 29 straight seasons from 1921-49, has coached an NFL team for more consecutive years than Landry has coached the Cowboys.

Perhaps Landry's greatest achievement is his record of consistently fielding championship caliber teams for nearly two decades. In a business of few secrets, Landry has accomplished something to which all coaches aspire but few attain. He has driven the Cowboys through the barriers that send other NFL clubs through cycles of ups and downs.

Under Landry's leadership, the Cowboys have compiled an NFL-record 18 consecutive winning seasons, the longest such active streak in professional sports and the third longest ever behind the New York Yankees' 39 straight winning seasons (1926-64) and the Montreal Canadiens' 32 straight (1952-83).

During that 18-year span, the Cowboys have made 17 trips to the playoffs, including an NFL-record nine straight playoff appearances from 1975-83. The Cowboys have been in a league-record 35 playoff games.

Landry's clubs have won 12 division championships and five NFC titles for a record five Super Bowl trips. The Cowboys have advanced to 10 of 14 NFC Championship Games since the game began in 1970. And the Cowboys have won two world championships with victories in Super Bowls VI and XII.

The Cowboys' consistent lcvel of success is reflected in their 189-66-2 regular-season record since 1966, the NFL's best. The Cowboys also own the NFL's best record since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger, 147-54, and the top record of the 1980s, 42-15.

Recognized as one of football's greatest innovators, Landry believes the most important quality he must convey to his players is leadership.

"What they see in me, hopefully, is that I'm always in control of the situation," Landry says, "and they're confident it will work out the way it should. That's leadership in a strong way. Players look at the coach first. If he doesn't appear confident, or looks defeated, then all of a sudden they are defeated. That's the one thing I hope they see in me — that I am in control of the situation and I am confident things will work out."

What does Landry enjoy most from his work?

"Watching young players develop," he explains. "That's why you're in this business — to work with young players, see their enthusiasm, see them achieve and reach their potential. It gives you a good feeling."

Wrote former Cowboys quarterback Roger Staubach in his autobiography, "In composite I remember him as a towering figure. To me he was, is and always will be special — a man apart from other men. What made him so, beyond his brilliant technical grasp of football, were two bedrock Landry characteristics: enormous self-discipline and consistency. Landry is the rock against which we all lean, often without realizing it, at some point during our careers."

Thomas Wade Landry was born in Mission, Texas, on Sept. 11, 1924. He was an All-Regional fullback at Mission High School before enrolling at the University of Texas. Following one semester he joined the Air Corps and flew 30 B-17 missions with the Eighth Air Force in World War II.

In November 1945 he was discharged as a first lieutenant and returned to Texas where he became a star fullback and defensive back, earning All-Southwest Conference honors as a junior and co-captaining the Longhorns as a senior. With Landry's help Texas beat Alabama in the 1948 Sugar Bowl and Georgia in the 1949 Orange Bowl.

Landry played for the New York Yankees of the All-America Conference in 1949 before joining the NFL's New York Giants the next year. He was a mainstay in the Giants' defensive secondary through 1955, the last two years as a player-coach. He earned All-Pro honors in 1954.

Following his retirement as a player in 1955, Tom served as the Giants' defensive coach through 1959. Giants Head Coach Jim Lee Howell called him "the best defensive coach in the business."

Coach Landry and wife Alicia, whom he met at Texas, have three children — Tom Jr., an attorney and oilman, Kitty and Lisa. Kitty presented Tom with his first grandchild — Ryan Edward Phillips — on June 26, 1980.

Landry is an inspirational leader to many because of his principles and achievements. Tom devotes much of his spare time to the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and serves on the Board of Trustees of the National FCA.

In March 1984 Mission High School dedicated Tom Landry Stadium in honor of its native son. Tom also was named national chairman of the NFL Alumni Association's 1984 Youth of America Week, and he received the 1984 American Exemplar Medal from the Freedom Foundation.

Coach Landry was a national 1983 Horatio Alger Award winner for his inspirational rise to prominence. In 1981 the NFL Alumni Association presented him with its highest honor, the Order of the Leather Helmet, for distinguished service to football.

In 1980 California Lutheran College, home of the Cowboys' annual training camp, established the Landry Medal, awarded annually to a person who has distinguished himself in his profession and serves as an inspiration to American youth.

Landry earned a degree in business at Texas and one in industrial engineering from the University of Houston. He holds honorary degrees from California Lutheran College (Doctor of Humane Letters), John Brown University (Doctor of Humanities), Southwest Baptist College (Doctor of Laws) and Indiana Central University (Doctor of Laws). In 1978 he was inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame.

THE COACHING STAFF

Jim Myers
Assistant Head Coach • Offensive Line

Under the guidance of Jim Myers, the Cowboys' offensive line consistently ranks among the best in the NFL. Myers has developed All-Pro and Pro Bowl players Ralph Neely, John Niland, Rayfield Wright, Blaine Nye, Herbert Scott and Pat Donovan.

Myers' specialty is converting college defensive linemen into top NFL offensive linemen, including Nye, Donovan, John Fitzgerald and Kurt Petersen.

Myers joined the Cowboys in 1962. He was head coach at Iowa State in 1957 and head coach and athletic director at Texas A&M from 1958-61. In 1977 Tom Landry turned over some of his duties to his long-time aide, naming Jim to the newly created post of assistant head coach. Myers has the longest tenure on the Cowboys' assistant coaching staff, 23 years.

A native of Madison, W. Va. (11/12/21), Myers was an outstanding lineman at the University of Tennessee in 1941-42 and at Duke in the Marine Corps V-12 program in 1943.

Prior to becoming head coach at Iowa State, Myers served as an assistant at Wofford College, Vanderbilt and UCLA. In 1978 he received the Distinguished American Award from the East Tennessee Chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame.

Jim serves on the board of directors of the Dallas chapters of the Boys Clubs of America and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He also serves on the Dallas Father of the Year Council and on the board of the Lovers Lane Methodist Church in Dallas.

Jim and wife Carolyn have three daughters — Susan, Kathy and Carol — and eight grandchildren.

Neill Armstrong
Research and Development

Neill Armstrong joined the Cowboys in 1982, bringing 27 years of coaching experience, including 10 as a head coach. Neill studies and evaluates all players and teams in the league. His reports provide the basis for the formulation of the Cowboys' game plans.

Armstrong compiled a 30-34 record in four seasons (1978-81) as head coach of the Chicago Bears before coming to Dallas. He directed the Bears to the playoffs in 1979 with a 10-6 finish. Before joining the Bears he was an assistant coach with the Minnesota Vikings for nine years, seven as defensive coordinator.

Armstrong led the Edmonton Eskimos to the Canadian Football League playoffs three times during a six-year reign as head coach from 1964-69. Neill began his professional coaching career with the Houston Oilers in 1962-63 following seven years (1955-61) as an assistant at his alma mater, Oklahoma State.

A native of Tishomingo, Okla. (3/9/26), Armstrong was an All-America receiver at Oklahoma State (then Oklahoma A&M) from 1943-46. He was the Philadelphia Eagles' No. 1 draft choice in 1947. He played on two NFL championship teams in five seasons (1947-51) with the Eagles. He played for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers in 1951-53-54.

Neill and wife Jane have three children — Neill Jr., David and Gail — and four grandchildren.

Al Lavan
Running Backs

Following eight years of coaching in college and the pros, Al Lavan became the Cowboys' running backs coach in 1980. Under Lavan the Cowboys' running game has remained one of the most feared in the NFL. Tony Dorsett, Ron Springs, Timmy Newsome and James Jones all matured under Lavan's tutelage.

Lavan coached running backs at Stanford in 1979 after two years at Georgia Tech handling receivers and running backs. He directed defensive backs and special teams for the Atlanta Falcons in 1975 and '76.

Lavan began his coaching career in 1972 as receivers coach at his alma mater, Colorado State. He moved to Louisville to coach defensive backs in 1973 before being named receivers coach at Iowa State in 1974. The next season he returned to the Falcons as a coach.

A native of Pierce, Fla. (9/13/46), Lavan was a defensive back and place kicker at Colorado State and was drafted in the eighth round by Philadelphia in 1968. He played defensive back for the Eagles in 1968, then for Atlanta in 1969 and '70.

Al and wife Bessie have three children — Travis, Douglas and Maeleeke.

Alan Lowry
Special Teams

Alan Lowry was named Cowboys special teams coach in 1982 after five seasons as defensive backfield coach of his alma mater, the University of Texas.

Lowry is one of the few football players in Southwest Conference history to earn All-Conference honors both as an offensive and defensive star. He was a defensive back at Texas in 1970 and '71 when the Longhorns won a national and two conference championships. Lowry was All-SWC in 1971.

In 1972 Lowry was switched to quarterback and earned conference honors again in leading Texas to a 10-1 season, including a come-from-behind victory over Alabama in the Cotton Bowl.

After receiving his degree in physical education, Lowry served as an assistant coach at Virginia Tech in 1974. He joined the Wyoming staff under Fred Akers in 1975, but resigned that post in the summer of 1976.

Lowry worked for the Cowboys' scouting department in the fall of 1972 before joining Akers' staff at Texas in December 1976.

Lowry is a native of Irving, Texas (11/21/50), home of Texas Stadium. Alan and wife Donna live in Dallas with daughter Marta Jean.

Dick Nolan
Receivers

Veteran NFL coach Dick Nolan returned to the Cowboys in 1982 as receivers coach. Dick was a player-coach for the Cowboys in 1962 and the team's defensive coach from 1963-67.

Nolan left the Cowboys to become head coach of the San Francisco 49ers from 1968-75. His teams won the NFC West championship in 1970, '71 and '72. He was NFC coach of the year in 1970.

Nolan joined New Orleans as linebackers coach in 1977 and was head coach of the Saints from 1978-80. Dick was the defensive coordinator of the Oilers in 1981 before returning to Dallas.

Nolan and Tom Landry were defensive back teammates with the New York Giants in 1954 and '55 when Tom was a player-coach. Nolan also played under Landry in 1956, '57 and '59 when Tom was New York's defensive coach. Nolan played for the Chicago Cardinals in 1958 before returning to the Giants for the next three seasons.

Born in Pittsburgh, Pa. (3/26/32), and raised in White Plains, N.Y., Nolan was a two-way star football player at the University of Maryland from 1951-53. He played offensive and defensive halfback on Maryland's 1953 national championship team.

Dick and wife Ann have six children — Richard Jr., Nancy, Michael, Kelly, Lisa and Jimmy — and two grandchildren.

Quarterbacks

The most recent addition to Tom Landry's staff is Jim Shofner, a 19-year coaching veteran who joined the Cowboys in 1983 as quarterbacks coach.

Shofner was an NFL assistant coach with Houston, Cleveland and San Francisco and head coach at his alma mater, Texas Christian University, from 1974-76.

Jim starred in football and baseball at TCU from 1955-57. He turned down a professional baseball career with Detroit to join the Cleveland Browns where he played defensive back from 1958-63.

Shofner's coaching career began in 1964 as an aide at TCU. He became defensive backfield coach of the 49ers in 1967, but was re-assigned to coach quarterbacks and receivers in 1968 when Dick Nolan became the 49ers' head coach. Jim remained at San Francisco until 1973, leaving to return to TCU.

Shofner handled quarterbacks for the Cleveland Browns from 1977-79 and received much of the credit for Brian Sipe's development into a top quarterback. Jim served as the Houston Oilers' offensive coordinator in 1981 and '82.

A native of the Dallas suburb of Grapevine, Texas (12/18/35), Jim and wife Nancy have two children — Mike and Elizabeth.

Gene Stallings
Defensive Backfield

Working primarily with free agents and low-round draft choices has not prevented Gene Stallings from molding the Cowboys' defensive secondary into an effective unit. The Cowboys intercepted 106 passes the past four seasons, more than any other NFL team.

Stallings joined the Cowboys in 1972 following seven years (1965-72) as head coach of his alma mater, Texas A&M. He has presided over the development of three All-Pros — Cliff Harris, Charlie Waters and Everson Walls.

Gene was an All-Southwest Conference receiver at A&M under Bear Bryant and a tri-captain on Bryant's undefeated 1956 Aggie team. Stallings served one year as a student-assistant coach at A&M before moving with Bryant to Alabama as an assistant. He remained there until returning to A&M as head coach in 1965.

Gene served as a consultant to the producers of "Bear," the film biography of Bear Bryant released this year.

Stallings was elected to the Texas A&M Hall of Fame in 1982. He also received a 1982 national Boys Clubs Alumni of the Year Award and a 1983 Dallas Father of the Year Award.

Gene, a native of Paris, Texas (3/2/35), and wife Ruth Ann have five children — Anna Lee, Laurie, John Mark, Jacklyn and Martha Kate.

Defensive Coordinator • Defensive Line

Under the direction of Pro Football Hall of Famer Ernie Stautner, the Cowboys consistently field excellent defenses and All-Pro defensive linemen like Bob Lilly, George Andrie, Harvey Martin, Randy White, Ed Jones and John Dutton.

The Cowboys' famed "Doomsday Defense" began to emerge shortly after Stautner's arrival as defensive line coach in 1966. Ernie also helped fashion "Doomsday II," which carried Dallas to its second Super Bowl title in 1977.

Ernie was an All-Pro defensive end and tackle with the Pittsburgh Steelers where he played for 15 years (1950-64) despite being relatively small at 6-0, 235 pounds. A veteran of nine Pro Bowls, he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1969, his first year of eligibility. In 1982 he was voted to the Steelers' 50th anniversary team.

Ernie was born in Cham, Bavaria (4/20/27), but grew up in Albany, N.Y. Following a World War II Marine Corps hitch (1943-46), he enrolled at Boston College and developed into a two-way star lineman.

Ernie has three children — Joe, Terri and Carol.

Jerry Tubbs
Linebackers

The only original Cowboys player still with the club is Jerry Tubbs, who came to Dallas in the 1960 expansion draft from the San Francisco 49ers.

Jerry was the Cowboys' first starting middle linebacker and one of only three in club history. As a coach he helped develop his successors at the critical middle spot, Lee Roy Jordan and Bob Breunig. Tubbs, Jordan and Breunig all played in the Pro Bowl.

Tubbs played for the Cowboys for eight seasons (1961-67), serving as player-coach the last two. He was the Cowboys' first All-Pro and Pro Bowl linebacker (1962) and was known as one of the most aggressive players in the game.

Jerry has coached four Pro Bowl linebackers in Dallas — Jordan, Breunig, Chuck Howley and Thomas Henderson.

Born in Breckenridge, Texas (1/23/35), Jerry was an All-America center-linebacker for Bud Wilkinson's unbeaten Oklahoma teams from 1954-56. Tubbs was the Walter Camp Award winner in 1956 as the nation's outstanding player.

He was drafted in the first round by the Chicago Cardinals in 1957 and also played for the 49ers before coming to Dallas.

Jerry and wife Marlene have two children — Alan and Kayla.

Bob Ward
Conditioning

Dr. Bob Ward has Cowboys players enthusiastically participating in his innovative conditioning programs, which include weightlifting, aerobic conditioning, flexibility training and nutrition.

Working with computers and emphasizing futuristic concepts, Ward directs the Cowboys' voluntary offseason conditioning program, using biomechanics to devise individual programs for each player. He also supplies each player with a training program during the season.

Ward was track coach for 11 years at Fullerton College in California before joining the Cowboys in 1975.

A graduate of Whitworth College in Spokane, Wash., Ward received his master's degree in physical education from the University of Washington and his doctorate from Indiana University.

Bob has trained extensively in the martial arts and taught Cowboys players various martial arts techniques that can be used in football. He is a member of Delta Force, a U.S. Army think-tank.

A native of Huntington Park, Calif. (7/4/33), Bob and wife Joyce have two children — Shannon and Erin.

DON COCHREN　　　　KEN LOCKER　　　　BUCK BUCHANAN

DON COCHREN, Trainer

Don Cochren joined the Cowboys in 1965 after experience in college, military and Canadian Football League training.

A graduate of Purdue, Cochren earned his physical therapy certificate at Pennsylvania. He was trainer at Case Institute (now Case-Western Reserve) in Cleveland for two years, with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL for four years and at the University of New Hampshire for one year before coming to Dallas. He also served as a physical therapy officer in the Air Force for two years.

Don was one of 28 trainers selected from colleges and professional sports teams to serve the United States team at the 1980 Winter Olympics in Lake Placid, N.Y. In June Don received the 25-year honor award from the National Athletic Trainers Association.

A native of Princeton, Ind. (2/6/32), Don and wife Jan have four children — Jan, Scott, Wendy and Chris.

KEN LOCKER, Assistant Trainer

Ken Locker works with Don Cochren and supervises the Cowboys' medical rehabilitation program. Locker came to the Cowboys in 1973 after four years as assistant trainer and interim head trainer at North Texas State University.

Locker received his master's degree in physical education from Texas Woman's University. He served two years as trainer of World Championship Tennis, traveling with the men's tour in 1975 and '76.

In 1982 Ken was trainer for NBC's "Survival of the Fittest" competition in New Zealand. He serves as group coordinator of the Dallas Blood Center.

Ken is a native of Seminole, Texas (7/23/51). He and wife Pam live in Roanoke, Texas, with daughter Baylee Arrena (10/23/82).

BUCK BUCHANAN, Equipment Manager

William T. "Buck" Buchanan joined the Cowboys in 1973 after supervising athletic programs in the Air Force for 20 years.

SMSgt. Buchanan was a non-commissioned officer in charge of athletics and programs at the U.S. Air Force Academy Prep School in Colorado Springs for four years. He was awarded the Bronze Star for his performance during a 1968-69 tour of duty in Thailand.

Buck was born in Ballinger, Texas (5/24/33). He and wife Geraldine have two children — Bucky and Julie.

What To Look For In 1984

Cowboys winning their 19th league opener in the past 20 seasons. The club holds the NFL record of 17 straight opening-game victories from 1965-81.

Cowboys extending their NFL record of consecutive winning seasons to 19.

Cowboys extending their NFL record of consecutive years in the play-offs to 10. It also would be the team's 18th playoff appearance in the past 19 years.

Cowboys improving their all-time Texas Stadium record of 85-20 (81 per cent), including playoff games (1971-83).

Cowboys improving their NFC-best 33-12 (73.3 per cent) record against the AFC in games against AFC East foes the Miami Dolphins, Buffalo Bills, New England Patriots and Indianapolis Colts.

Cowboys extending their consecutive game scoring streak of 192, third longest in NFL history, to 208. Cleveland's 274-game scoring streak (1950-71) and Oakland's 217-game streak (1966-80) rank ahead of the Cowboys'. Dallas' only shutout loss was 38-0 to St. Louis on Nov. 16, 1970 at the Cotton Bowl.

Tom Landry, tied with Curly Lambeau as the second winningest coach in NFL history, improving his 234-134-6 record, including playoffs. Landry trails only George Halas (325) in NFL victories.

Tony Dorsett climbing the list of pro football's all-time leading rushers. Currently eighth with 8,336 yards in seven seasons, Dorsett can pass Joe Perry (8,378) and Jim Taylor (8,597) and reach seventh place if he gains 261 yards. Dorsett can join the exclusive 10,000-yard club if he gains 1,664 yards (his best season so far was 1,646 yards in 1981). Jim Brown (12,312), Franco Harris (11,950), Walter Payton (11,625) and O. J. Simpson (11,236) are the current members of the 10,000-yard club. John Riggins enters the 1984 season with 9,436 yards.

Randy White earning consensus All-Pro honors for a club-record seventh year in a row, breaking the team record he shares with Bob Lilly (1964-69).

Everson Walls becoming the first player to lead the NFL in intercep-tions three times. He led the league in 1981 with 11 and 1982 with seven.

Gary Allen ★ 31

RUNNING BACK ● HAWAII ● 3rd YEAR
HT: 5-10 ● WT: 183 ● BORN: 4/23/60 ● FA FOR '83

PRO: Gary Allen provided a much-needed lift to the Cowboys' special teams during the latter part of last season. A sixth-round draft choice by Houston in 1982, Allen was released on the final cut last year by the Oilers. The Cowboys signed Allen on Sept. 29 to replace rookie running back Chuck McSwain, who was lost for the season after tearing a tendon in his finger against the Giants. Allen was the team's No. 1 punt returner for the final six games and the playoffs. Against Kansas City (11/20) he returned three punts for 86 yards, including a 68-yard touchdown return. It marked the first return of a non-blocked punt for a TD by the Cowboys since 1975 (Golden Richards) and the club's longest punt return since 1974 (98 yards by Dennis Morgan). "Gary has good potential as a punt and kickoff return man as well as a backup halfback," says Tom Landry. "He has exceptional quickness. He gave us a boost at the end of last year as a return man." As a rookie with the Oilers in '82, Allen shared kickoff return duties and backed up the running back position. Against the Giants (12/5) he caught two passes for 35 yards, including a 23-yard reception for a touchdown. GAMES: 1982 (7-Hous.), 1983 (6). Total — 13 (6-Dallas).

COLLEGE: Allen finished his career as the only University of Hawaii rusher to gain more than 3,000 career yards (3,451 and 19 TDs on 647 carries). He also caught 72 passes for 895 yards and five TDs. He left Hawaii with 20 school career and single-season records. As a senior he had five 100-yard rushing games, including 189 yards against San Diego State. He rushed for 202 yards on 24 attempts against Texas-El Paso in his sophomore year. Gary was a three-time All-Western Athletic conference choice.

PERSONAL: Gary is a native of Baldwin Park, Calif., where he starred in football and track at Baldwin Park High School. He was a recreation major in college. Gary's brother Doug is a wide receiver at Arizona State. Gary's hobbies are fishing, riding motorcycles and skiing.

Brian Baldinger ★ 62

GUARD ● DUKE ● 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-4 ● WT: 255 ● BORN: 1/7/59 ● FA FOR '82

PRO: The development of Brian Baldinger has been a pleasant surprise to the Cowboys. One of the most improved players in training camp last year, Baldinger looks to be an important man in the future of the Cowboys' offensive line, either at guard or center. "He's got size and speed and he's a good tough competitor," Tom Landry says. Brian played exceptionally well at right guard in place of injured Kurt Petersen in the second half at Minnesota last year (10/2), prompting Tony Dorsett to compare Baldinger to Robert Shaw, a budding star at center for the Cowboys who was forced to retire last year due to a knee injury. Baldinger was the only rookie free agent to make the squad in 1982. He overcame especially long odds since the club seemed well fortified at offensive line at the time. Baldinger also performs on special teams. GAMES: 1982 (4), 1983 (16). Total — 20.

COLLEGE: Baldinger was an All-Coastal Conference tight end at Nassau Community College on Long Island before transferring to Duke. He was switched from tight end to guard at Duke because of his blocking ability. He started 11 games his senior year and was considered the most improved player on the team.

PERSONAL: Brian David Baldinger (BALL-ding-er) of Massapequa Park, N.Y., comes from an athletic family. His father Jim played at Navy. His brother Rich played at Wake Forest, was the Giants' 10th-round draft choice in '82 and now plays for Kansas City. Brian participated in football, basketball and track at Massapequa High School. He received his degree from Duke in psychology. Brian supports the March of Dimes and Duke's benefit golf and tennis tournament for handicapped children.

Bill Bates ★ 40

SAFETY • TENNESSEE • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 199 • BORN: 6/6/61 • FA FOR '83

PRO: Continuing what has become a grand tradition, the Cowboys last year discovered another free agent gem in Bill Bates. Like previous Cowboys free agent finds Cornell Green, Cliff Harris, Drew Pearson, Everson Walls and Michael Downs, Bates made an immediate impact despite being deemed of insufficient talent to warrant drafting. He became a Texas Stadium favorite with his fierce and enthusiastic special teams play and his work as a linebacker in the Cowboys' "4-0" pass defense. "You can go to a game, not know anything about football, and still see Bill Bates," defensive backfield coach Gene Stallings says. "He'll trap somebody. Make a tackle on a kickoff. Knock somebody down. It's my contention that you don't have to look for good football players. They stick out." Bates was named the NFL special teams player of the year by the NFL Alumni Association. He was named to the All-Rookie squads of United Press International, the Pro Football Writers Association and Pro Football Weekly. His aggressive style enabled him to finish as the Cowboys' seventh-leading tackler on defense despite playing mostly in passing situations. He started one regular-season game, at Seattle (12/4), when strong safety Dextor Clinkscale was injured. Bates also started the playoff game against the Rams (12/26) at strong safety and led the team in tackles. During the season he had four QB traps, an interception, four passes defensed, two fumble recoveries and a forced fumble. "Bill Bates is super," Tom Landry says. "He's everywhere. He was one of our exciting players last year. He has great potential as a strong safety." GAMES: 1983 (16).

COLLEGE: Bates played both safety positions in four years as a starter at Tennessee. He was named second-team All-Southeastern Conference his junior and senior years. Bates was known as the Vols' hardest hitter, surest tackler and as a team leader. He intercepted nine passes and recovered six fumbles in his career.

PERSONAL: William Fredrick Bates was born and raised in Knoxville, Tenn., where he excelled in football, basketball and as a sprinter on the track team at Farragut High School. He was all-state in football and basketball. In the offseason Bates returned to Tennessee to pursue his degree in economics. He supports the United Way, the Dallas-area Boys Clubs, the Special Olympics in Tennessee and the Dallas Wednesday's Child program benefitting orphans. He also serves as a spokesman for the Dallas-Fort Worth Ronald McDonald Houses.

Bob Breunig ★ 53

LINEBACKER ● ARIZONA STATE ● 10th YEAR
HT: 6-2 ● WT: 227 ● BORN: 7/4/53 ● D-3 FOR '75

PRO: The man who coordinates the Cowboys' defense on the field is middle linebacker Bob Breunig, whose responsibilities include relaying defensive signals from the sideline and calling audibles. Only the third starting middle linebacker in team history, Breunig has started 117 straight games, been voted to the Pro Bowl three times, led the club in tackles six of the past seven years and served as a defensive captain the past four seasons. He has started seven straight seasons at middle linebacker. "Bob's biggest contribution is his leadership," says linebackers coach Jerry Tubbs. "He does a great job getting prepared every week. Some guys are smart but don't apply themselves. Bob applies himself." Breunig became the starting strongside linebacker in his second season. He was converted to the middle in 1977 to succeed retired Lee Roy Jordan, who had taken over for original MLB Jerry Tubbs in 1966. Tom Landry called Breunig's transition "remarkable" and "one of the reasons we were able to win our second Super Bowl." Breunig led the Cowboys in tackles from 1977-81, including a team-record 167 in 1979. He finished second to Michael Downs in 1982, but led the club in tackles again last year. Bob was voted to the Pro Bowl in 1979, '80 and '82. His top games came against the Giants in 1980 (10/5) when he had 14 tackles, a QB trap and an interception, and last year at Washington (9/5) when he made a career-high 15 tackles, including 10 solos. Breunig has not missed a game since his rookie year (11/16/75 vs. Patriots). GAMES: 1975 (10), 1976 (14), 1977 (14), 1978 (16), 1979 (16), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9), 1983 (16). Total — 127.

Dextor Clinkscale ★ 47

SAFETY ● SOUTH CAROLINA STATE ● 4th YEAR
HT: 5-11 ● WT: 190 ● BORN: 4/13/58 ● FA FOR '80

PRO: An intelligent and instinctive football player, Dextor Clinkscale earned the starting strong safety position in 1983 after two seasons as a pass-defense specialist and one on the injured reserve list. Clinkscale led the Cowboys last year in opponents' fumbles recovered, finished fifth in total tackles and scored a crucial touchdown in a victory over the Giants (9/18). With the Cowboys clinging to a 14-13 fourth-quarter lead, Clinkscale picked off a Scott Brunner pass and raced 68 yards for his first NFL touchdown. He had another interception against the Giants later in the year (10/30). In the season-opener at Washington (9/5), Dextor had 12 tackles and a QB trap to earn a coaches' defensive game ball. In 1980 and '82 Clinkscale played safety on passing downs and made a big contribution each season in the playoffs. As a rookie he intercepted a pass against the Rams in a playoff victory (12/28/80). In a 1982 playoff victory over Tampa Bay (1/9/83) he intercepted one pass, batted down another and got his hands on three more. Clinkscale spent the 1981 season on injured reserve with an Achilles tendon injury. Soft-spoken Dextor didn't give much thought to playing pro football while in college. He says he signed with Dallas because it was his favorite team. GAMES: 1980 (16), 1981 (IR), 1982 (9), 1983 (15). Total — 41.

COLLEGE: Clinkscale was a 1979 first-team Black College All-America safety and a three-time All-Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference pick at South Carolina State. He also was chosen for the 1980 Black College all-star game.

PERSONAL: A native of Greenville, S.C., (J. L. Mann High School) Frederick Dextor Clinkscale earned a college degree in business admini-

Jim Cooper ★ 61

TACKLE • TEMPLE • 8th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 267 • BORN: 9/28/55 • D-6 FOR '77

PRO: Ever so quietly, Jim Cooper has become a fixture at right tackle for the Cowboys. Although overshadowed in the past by Pro Bowl offensive linemen Herb Scott and Pat Donovan, Cooper has performed consistently well the past four seasons. "Jim is just a solid performer," Tom Landry says. "You can count on Jim every game and he'll perform very well." Ironically, he almost got away. He was among the last players released in '77 training camp, but was recalled before the first game because of a knee injury to former tackle Jim Eidson. Versatile enough to play any offensive line position, Cooper backed up the guard spot his rookie year and started two games at center in 1978. He started the first 11 games of '79 at right tackle before inexperience caught up with him and Rayfield Wright won back the position. Coop took undisputed possession of the right tackle job in 1980 and by season's end Landry called him "one of our underrated players." Jim did an outstanding job in the '80 playoffs, especially against Atlanta (1/4), winning a game ball from the coaches. His top game in 1981 came in a big victory at Philadelphia (11/1) in front of his hometown fans when he earned the Oak Farms MVP award and a game ball. He filled in at center in the second half against St. Louis (9/13) after Robert Shaw injured a knee. In 1982 Cooper won another game ball for his work against the Cardinals (9/19). GAMES: 1977 (14), 1978 (14), 1979 (15), 1980 (15), 1981 (16), 1982 (9), 1983 (16). Total — 99.

COLLEGE: Cooper started for three years at Temple under Wayne Hardin, Roger Staubach's coach at Navy. Jim played in the offensive and defensive lines before settling at offensive tackle.

PERSONAL: Philadelphia native James Albert Cooper and wife Mary, a nurse, live in Richardson, Texas, with son James Ryan (6/6/79). In the offseason Jim works for Grunnah and Swanson, a Dallas commercial real estate firm. In one of the season's major upsets Jim was voted by the fans the 1983 Oak Farms Favorite Cowboy.

TIGHT END • SANTA CLARA • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 236 • BORN: 3/27/56 • D-3 FOR '79

PRO: Doug Cosbie emerged last season as one of the NFL's top tight ends. In his second season as a starter, Cosbie caught 46 passes to break Billy Joe DuPree's 1976 club record for tight ends and earn his first trip to the Pro Bowl. "Doug has all the qualities to be an All-Pro," Tom Landry says. "He's an excellent target, an effective blocker and he's got good hands. As he learns to handle all kinds of defenses, he'll reach an All-Pro level." Cosbie took over the starting tight end position from DuPree in 1982 and led NFC tight ends with 30 catches. His four TD catches led the team. In 1981, when Doug shared the position with DuPree as a play messenger, he tied Butch Johnson for the club lead in touchdown receptions with five. Four came at key moments of second-half comeback victories (Miami, at Philadelphia, Buffalo, Washington). He also caught a 21-yard TD pass to send Dallas ahead of San Francisco 27-21 in the fourth quarter of the NFC Championship Game (1/10/82). A Dallas newspaper described Cosbie as "the consummate Cowboy — the diplomat, the hard worker, the willing learner, the unknown collegiate with the unlimited talent, the draft find." Doug was the fourth tight end taken in the 1979 draft behind Kellen Winslow (San Diego), Dan Ross (Cincinnati) and Ronnie Lee (Miami). He was selected with a choice obtained in a trade with Seattle for Bill Gregory. GAMES: 1979 (16), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9), 1983 (16). Total — 73.

COLLEGE: Cosbie caught 120 passes for 1,721 yards and 10 touchdowns in four years at Santa Clara, three as a starter. In his senior year he served as a team captain and was voted the club's offensive MVP and honorable mention All-Pacific Coast. He also at-

Anthony Dickerson ★ 51

LINEBACKER ● SOUTHERN METHODIST ● 5th YEAR
HT: 6-2 ● WT: 222 ● BORN: 6/9/57 ● FA FOR '80

PRO: In 1983, his first season as the starting right (weakside) linebacker, Anthony Dickerson contributed more big plays than anyone on defense. He led the club in solo tackles, finished second in total tackles and quarterback traps, knocked down six passes, recovered three fumbles and forced two others. His biggest play came against New Orleans (9/25) when he sacked Ken Stabler in the endzone for a safety with 1:58 remaining to give Dallas a 21-20 victory. Dickerson's pressure on Scott Brunner caused Dextor Clinkscale's interception for the decisive touchdown in a victory over the Giants (9/18). Against the Raiders (10/23) Anthony had 11 tackles, two QB traps, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. During his first three seasons Dickerson played regularly on passing downs because of his ability to cover running backs. A top special teams contributor, Dickerson was named the Cowboys' special teams player of the year in 1980 and '81. He served as special teams captain in '81. "He surely has the big-play qualities you look for in a linebacker," Tom Landry says. "He has great speed and he's quick as a cat." It's been an unlikely ascent for Dickerson, whose football career appeared finished in 1979. He left SMU after his junior year in '77 and signed with Calgary of the Canadian Football League. The Stampeders released him after 10 games in '78. Dickerson moved to Los Angeles and worked as a handyman at the Burbank Airport. Then he returned to his native Texas and was taking business courses at the University of Houston when the Cowboys offered him a contract in 1980. Anthony intercepted two passes against San Francisco his rookie year (10/12). He's been the club's leading QB trapper among non-linemen the past

Doug Donley ★ 83

WIDE RECEIVER • OHIO STATE • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 178 • BORN: 2/6/59 • D-2 FOR '81

PRO: With Butch Johnson having been traded to Houston and Drew Pearson still recovering from injuries sustained in an auto accident, Doug Donley entered the 1984 season as a starting wide receiver. The Cowboys have been looking forward to unleashing Donley's considerable skills fulltime. "Doug has paid his dues and is ready to prove what he can do," Tom Landry says. "With his great speed, he could be a big asset for us. He's our fastest receiver." Last year Donley led the team in yards per reception with a 20.6 average.
Against the Giants (9/18) he had his most productive game as a pro with six catches for 88 yards, including a 35-yard gain, filling in for injured Tony Hill. Doug got his first career start against New Orleans (9/25) and his first touchdown against the Raiders (10/23). He missed five midseason games due to a knee injury. In '82 Donley performed some kick return duties while backing up the receiver position. In the playoffs he ran a reverse 25 yards against Tampa Bay (1/9/83). Doug made a spectacular debut his rookie year in the preseason finale against Houston (9/29) when he caught two passes, both for touchdowns, a 33-yarder from Danny White and an 18-yarder from Gary Hogeboom. Donley caught two passes for 18 yards in the '81 playoffs. "He causes defenses to sag because of his speed," says receivers coach Dick Nolan. "Before you know it, he is right on top of the defensive back and that's hard to stop." GAMES: 1981 (11), 1982 (6), 1983 (11). Total — 28.

COLLEGE: Called "White Lightning" by his teammates, Donley led Ohio State in receiving his last three years en route to establishing school career records for receiving yards and receiving touchdowns. He caught 106 passes for 2,252 yards and 16 TDs in his career. His best season was 1980 when he grabbed 43 passes for a school season-record 887 yards and seven touchdowns. He averaged 21.2 yards per catch in his career and was a two-time consensus All-Big Ten selection.

PERSONAL: Douglas Max Donley is a native of Cambridge, Ohio, where he was an all-state halfback at Cambridge High, captained the football and basketball teams and ran a 9.4 100-yard dash for the track team. A communications major at Ohio State, Donley owns Spring Park Health and Racquet Club in Garland, Texas. He is active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Pro Athletes Outreach, Big Brothers, the Special Olympics, the American Heart Association and UNICEF.

"SHOOT FOR THE STARS"

The NFL Films production of "Shoot for the Stars — 25 Years of the Dallas Cowboys" is available free of charge to groups wishing to show it. Produced and directed by Bob Ryan of NFL Films, the 30-minute, 16 mm sound and color movie is narrated by John Facenda and traces the Cowboys from their birth in 1960 as an expansion team through five Super Bowl trips and 18 consecutive winning seasons. The film is sponsored by Eastman Kodak and may be obtained for group showings by calling the Cowboys' office at 214/369-8000.

Tony Dorsett ★ 33

RUNNING BACK • PITTSBURGH • 8th YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 192 • BORN: 4/7/54 • D-1 FOR '77

PRO: When the list of all-time great NFL running backs is compiled now, it's difficult to overlook the accomplishments of Tony Dorsett, the most exciting and prolific runner in Cowboys history. Dorsett is the club's all-time leading rusher and the NFL's eighth all-time leading ground gainer. "He's our catalyst," Tom Landry says. "He's the one who makes us go on offense." That fact is best illustrated by the Cowboys' 37-2 record in Dorsett's 100-yard games (25-0 in Texas Stadium). "Tony is the epitome of an artist," says NFL career rushing leader Jim Brown. "There is no small back in football who can touch him. He's the fastest runner in the league without a doubt and he has great moves to go along with the speed." Last season he became the first Cowboys player to combine for 10,000 career rushing-receiving yards. He turned in his third best season rushing performance, reaching 1,000 yards for the sixth time in seven NFL seasons. Tony is the only NFL runner to gain 1,000 yards in each of his first five seasons. That streak, which was 11 consecutive 1,000-yard seasons counting high school and college, was broken in 1982 by the players' strike, although counting his 266 playoff yards Tony's season total was 1,011 yards. In 1982 Dorsett captured his first NFC rushing title and established an unbreakable NFL record when he raced 99 yards for a touchdown at Minnesota (1/3/83). Tony is the NFL's top rusher since 1981 when he finished second in the league with a club-record 1,646 yards. He has led the team in rushing in each of the past seven seasons, every one he's been with the club. He owns the Cowboys' top four season rushing performances, top eight single-game rushing efforts and the five longest runs from scrimmage (all 75 yards or longer). He's the NFL's second all-time leading playoff rusher with 1,325 yards in 16 games, trailing only Pittsburgh's Franco Harris with 1,556 in 19 games. He also owns team records for most career 100-yard games (39), most 100-yard games in a season (9), most consecutive 100-yard games (4), most rushing attempts in a career and season, most career rushing touchdowns and most yards gained in a playoff game (160 vs. Rams in 1980). A team captain in 1981 and '82, Dorsett was voted to the Pro Bowl in 1978, '81, '82 and '83. In '81 he also earned consensus All-Pro honors and was named NFC player of the year by UPI, the Washington Touchdown Club and the Kansas City Committee of 101. The second player selected in the '77 draft following a trade with Seattle, Dorsett won consensus rookie of the year honors in helping Dallas win Super Bowl XII. GAMES: 1977 (14), 1978 (16), 1979 (14) 1980 (15), 1981 (16), 1982 (9), 1983 (16). Total — 100.

COLLEGE: Dorsett crowned a brilliant collegiate career by winning the 1976 Heisman Trophy as the nation's outstanding player. Dorsett rushed for an NCAA career-record 6,082 yards and 58 TDs and led Pitt to the 1976 national championship with a 12-0 record. He broke or tied 14 NCAA records, was a four-time All-America and the first player in NCAA history with four 1,000-yard seasons and three 1,500-yard seasons.

PERSONAL: Aliquippa, Pa., native (Hopewell High) Anthony Drew Dorsett is a member of the National Easter Seals Sports Council, served as 1980 chairman of the American Heart Association's Jump-Rope-a-Thon fund raising program, and has promoted the United Way, United Negro College Fund, the Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation seat belt program and the Dallas Civic Opera. In a 1979 Gallup Youth Survey of American teenagers' favorite sports personalities, Tony finished second to Roger Staubach. In 1981 Dorsett was named the best dressed man in sports by the Custom Tailors' Guild of New York. Tony is a partner in the Southwestern Drilling Mud Company of Midland, Texas. Tony and wife Julie live in Dallas with daughter Shukura (1/19/76). Tony also has a son, Anthony Drew Dorsett, Jr. (9/14/73).

Michael Downs ★ 26

SAFETY • RICE • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 205 • BORN: 6/9/59 • FA FOR '81

PRO: Michael Downs burst on the scene the same year as Everson Walls, making 1981 a vintage year for Cowboys free agent finds. A starter at free safety since the first game of his rookie season, Downs led the club in solo tackles and finished second in total tackles in 1981. His 13 solo tackles and 15 total stops against Chicago (11/26) were club season highs, and remain career highs for Downs. He also intercepted a pass against Tampa Bay in the playoffs (1/2/82). In 1982 Downs led the team in total tackles, the first defensive back to do so since Cliff Harris in 1976. He also had a team-leading three fumble recoveries, including an 86-yard return for a score at Houston (12/23), second longest in club history. Against Tampa Bay (11/21) he had a club season-high 12 tackles, forced a fumble and recovered another at the two-yard line with five seconds left to preserve a victory, earning Pro Football Weekly's defensive player of the week award. Last season he finished third in tackles, led the team with three forced fumbles and tied Walls for third in interceptions with four. All four interceptions came in the final five games of the season. Downs also returned a fumbled kickoff 10 yards for a touchdown against the Giants (9/18). "Michael can only get better as he gets more experience," Tom Landry says. "He's got the ability to be in the Pro Bowl. He's got good range and good coverage on tight ends, so he could probably play strong safety if he had to." A pinched nerve in Downs' neck hampered his play as a senior at Rice, the main reason he wasn't drafted. He's missed one game as a pro, the second of his rookie year with a pulled hamstring. GAMES: 1981 (15), 1982 (9), 1983 (16). Total — 40.

COLLEGE: A three-year starter at free safety, Downs intercepted nine passes in his career at Rice, including three in one game (TCU) in 1978. He was a senior co-captain.

PERSONAL: Dallas native Michael Lynn Downs attended South Oak

DEFENSIVE TACKLE ● NEBRASKA ● 11th YEAR
HT: 6-7 ● WT: 264 ● BORN: 2/6/51 ● TRADE, BALT., '79

PRO: A top defensive end his first six NFL seasons, former Baltimore Colts' All-Pro John Dutton was switched to left tackle in 1980, his second season in Dallas following a 1979 trade. Dutton spent 1980 learning his new position while sharing it with starter Larry Cole. Cole retired after the '80 season and Dutton took command of the position in 1981, turning in a fine performance. "John came along very well in 1981 at tackle, and it was one of the keys to our defensive improvement," Tom Landry says. Dutton's absence from the NFC Championship Game in San Francisco because of a bruised thigh was considered a major blow to Dallas. Injuries hampered Dutton in 1982. He underwent surgery on his damaged thigh following that season and rebounded last year with a fine performance, playing mostly against the run. The Cowboys obtained Dutton from Baltimore on the Oct. 9, 1979 trading deadline to help plug holes left by the retirements of Ed Jones and Jethro Pugh. Dallas gave up first and second-round draft choices to acquire the three-time Pro Bowl selection. A right end at Baltimore, Dutton played left end in '79 and was moved to tackle in 1980 when Too Tall returned from boxing. John scored his first NFL touchdown in '80 on a 38-yard interception return against Giants QB Scott Brunner (10/5). Chosen by the Colts in the first round of the '74 draft, the fifth pick overall (Too Tall was first), Dutton was a consensus all-rookie selection. In '75 he led the Colts in QB traps with a career-high 17, was selected to the Pro Bowl for the first of three straight years and was named to the AP and UPI All-AFC teams. The following season Dutton reached All-Pro status, leading his club in QB traps again and being named All-Pro by AP and All-AFC by UPI. He was named to the Pro Bowl and UPI's All-AFC team again in '77. GAMES: 1974 (14-Balt.), 1975 (14-Balt.), 1976 (14-Balt.), 1977 (12-Balt.), 1978 (14-Balt.), 1979 (8), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9), 1983 (16). Total — 133 (65-Dallas).

COLLEGE: A two-year starter and senior captain, Dutton was a consensus All-America in 1973. He played in two Orange Bowls and one Cotton Bowl with Nebraska. The Cornhuskers won the national championship in his sophomore season. John also threw the discus for the Nebraska track team.

PERSONAL: John Owen Dutton and wife Ginny live in Dallas with son Mason (8/4/79) and daughter Hayden Lee (8/21/83). They also own 80 acres in Lincoln, Neb. Ginny, a ballet dancer, studied under reknowned Edward Villela. John grew up in Rapid City, S.D., and attracted more scholarship offers for basketball than football. He has a degree in business administration.

Ron Fellows ★ 27

CORNERBACK ● MISSOURI ● 4th YEAR
HT: 6-0 ● WT: 178 ● BORN: 11/7/58 ● D-7A FOR '81

PRO: A regular on passing downs at right cornerback since the 11th game of his rookie year, Ron Fellows entered the 1984 season with a chance to win the starting job. The position opened with the switch of Dennis Thurman from right corner to safety. Fellows turned in an exceptional performance in 1983, including three of the biggest plays of the year, to gain recognition as one of the top "extra" defensive backs in the league. His five interceptions were second on the club to Thurman's six. Ron's first career pickoff came late in the season-opener at Washington (9/5) to set up the winning touchdown in a dramatic comeback victory. Against New Orleans (9/25) he returned a blocked field goal 62 yards for a fourth-quarter touchdown to help Dallas rally to a 21-20 triumph, his first NFL TD and the Cowboys' first return of a FG attempt for a score in 19 years. The following week at Minnesota (10/2) he intercepted two passes, including one for a 58-yard go-ahead touchdown in the third quarter, and returned four kickoffs for 109 yards, including a 53-yarder, the Cowboys' longest since 1979. His total return yardage for the game was 188 yards. Ron tied a club record last year with 43 kickoff returns. He led the team in punt and kickoff returns in 1982. "Ron Fellows is a very talented player," Tom Landry says. "He may be our quickest athlete. He can cover receivers all over the field and he returns kicks well. He's very valuable to us." Obtained with a draft choice from Tampa Bay for defensive end Dave Stalls, Fellows was converted to cornerback by the Cowboys after leading the University of Missouri in receiving in 1980. He played at Missouri with current teammates Kurt Petersen and Howard Richards. The leanest member of the team, Ron is called "Bird" by teammates. GAMES: 1981 (16), 1982 (9), 1983 (16). Total — 41.

COLLEGE: Fellows played cornerback at Butler, Kan., Community College. He transferred to Missouri and moved to offense midway through his junior year of '79. In '80 he led the Tigers with 33 catches for 586 yards and four TDs. He was chosen Big Eight player of the week after catching six passes for 99 yards against Iowa State. Fellows was a hurdler in junior college.

PERSONAL: Ronald Lee Fellows, a native of South Bend, Ind., studied elementary education at Missouri. He and wife Lillie live in Dallas where they operate a fashion jewelry business for the Diamite Corporation.

Mike Hegman ★ 58

LINEBACKER • TENNESSEE STATE • 9th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 231 • BORN: 1/17/53 • D-7 FOR '75

PRO: Mike Hegman became the starting left (strongside) linebacker in November 1979 when Thomas Henderson was released with four games left in the season. A specialist in stopping the run, Hegman won the starting job outright in 1980 and played "extremely well all season," according to Tom Landry. Highlights included a recovered fumble in the end zone for a touchdown at Philadelphia

(10/19) and two interceptions against Seattle (11/27). Mike suffered a dislocated elbow in the playoff opener and missed the final two playoff games. After a fine '81 training camp, bad luck struck again when Hegman broke a bone in his right forearm in the season opener at Washington (9/6). He missed the next five games after having played in 77 straight, but returned to start the final nine plus two playoff games. Mike started every game in 1982 and '83. Last year he returned a fumble nine yards for a touchdown to put Dallas ahead of the Raiders in the fourth quarter (10/23). "Mike's the kind of player who doesn't make many mistakes and he's got great football instincts," says linebackers coach Jerry Tubbs. The best evidence of those instincts came in Super Bowl XIII when Hegman swiped the ball from Pittsburgh's Terry Bradshaw and raced 37 yards for a second-quarter touchdown.

COLLEGE: Hegman transferred from Alabama A&M and made Tennessee State's football team as a walk-on. He played middle linebacker on State's 10-0 1973 team, led the club in tackles in '74 and played on the same defense with Ed "Too Tall" Jones.

PERSONAL: A native of Memphis (Northside High), Michael William Hegman has a degree from Tennessee State in physical education. Mike has participated in fund-raising events for St. Jude's Children's Hospital in Memphis, the Special Olympics and the Muscular Dystrophy Association. He has a daughter, Mikia (8/22/76).

Rod Hill ★ 25

CORNERBACK • KENTUCKY STATE • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 193 • BORN: 3/14/59 • D-1 FOR '82

PRO: The Cowboys pulled the surprise of the 1982 draft when they selected little-known speedster Rod Hill with the 26th pick of the first round. "We picked him strictly on athletic ability, speed and movement, and he hasn't disappointed us there," Tom Landry says. "He made a lot of improvement last year, but he still needs time to develop because he came from a small school and didn't play against the top competition. He has the qualities that in the long run could make him a great player." Rod had an excellent training camp in 1983. He began the '84 season with an opportunity to win the starting right cornerback position vacated by Dennis Thurman's move to safety. The highlight of Hill's rookie season was an 89-yard kickoff return to set up a crucial field goal in the 37-26 playoff victory over Green Bay (1/16/83). The return tied Hill with Nat Moore for the second longest kickoff runback in NFL playoff history. He also blocked an extra point attempt in that game. Rod got his first NFL interception last year at Minnesota (10/2). GAMES: 1982 (9), 1983 (14). Total — 23.

COLLEGE: Hill transferred to Kentucky State from Iowa where he was a wide receiver. The first Kentucky State player ever drafted in the first round, Hill was a nationally ranked kickoff and punt return specialist in addition to intercepting eight passes for 213 yards in his career. He was an NAIA honorable mention All-America in 1979, an NAIA second-team All-America and AP honorable mention Little All-America in 1980, and a Sporting News honorable mention All-America in 1981.

PERSONAL: Detroit native (Martin Luther King High School) Rodrick Hill studied economics and computer science in college. Rod has spoken at Dallas and Detroit area schools on the importance of education. He enjoys playing Pac-Man and doing Richard Pryor impressions. Rod and wife Kim live in Richardson, Texas.

Tony Hill ★ 80

WIDE RECEIVER • STANFORD • 8th YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 198 • BORN: 6/23/56 • D-3A FOR '77

PRO: A player of extraordinary talent, Tony Hill has led the Cowboys in receiving yardage in each of the past six seasons and is the club's third all-time leading receiver behind Drew Pearson and Bob Hayes. Hill and Hayes are the only Cowboys receivers to compile back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. Injuries in 1981 and '83 and the players' strike in '82 ruined Hill's chances to become the first Dallas receiver with three 1,000-yard seasons. "Tony is our big-play man," Tom Landry says. "He has that ability to make the key play. He threatens the defense because he has the excellent burst of speed to get under a ball that's deep. He's a very explosive player, the type who can turn a short play into a big play in a hurry." In six seasons as a starter the two-time Pro Bowl selection (1978-79) has caught 25 passes of 40 yards or longer and more touchdown passes (36) than any other Dallas receiver. In last year's season-opener at Washington (9/5) Tony caught touchdown passes of 75 and 51 yards to spark the Cowboys from a 23-3 halftime deficit to a 31-30 victory. His streak of playing in 90 straight games was broken after he bruised a foot against the Giants (9/18). Hill set a club playoff record with nine receptions in the NFC Wild Card loss to the Rams (12/26). Tony has made three memorable game-winning catches. In '79 his 22-yard quick screen with two minutes left beat Chicago (9/16) and an eight-yarder with 39 seconds remaining clinched the NFC East title for Dallas in a dramatic comeback victory over Washington (12/16). His 28-yard scoring catch with 45 seconds left lifted the Cowboys over St. Louis in 1980 (11/2). Hill was obtained with a draft choice acquired from Philadelphia in 1975 for former All-Pro guard John Niland. GAMES: 1977 (14), 1978 — (16), 1979 (16), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9), 1983 (12). Total — 99.

COLLEGE: Hill broke all of former 49ers All-Pro Gene Washington's receiving records at Stanford. Tony caught 140 passes in four years for 2,225 yards and 18 touchdowns, including 55 catches for 916 yards in 1975.

PERSONAL: Leroy Anthony Hill, Jr., serves as chairman of the Dallas chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation. In 1981 he started the Tony Hill Sports Camp for underprivileged children in his Long Beach, Calif., hometown. Tony was a quarterback at Long Beach Polytechnic High School. In 1978 Long Beach honored Tony as its athlete of the year. Tony has a degree from Stanford in political science. He owns Tony Hill's Cowboy Catfish Restaurant in Garland, Texas, and is involved in the condominium business in California.

Gary Hogeboom ★ 14

QUARTERBACK ● CENTRAL MICHIGAN ● 5th YEAR
HT: 6-4 ● WT: 200 ● BORN: 8/21/58 ● D-5 FOR '80

PRO: The big question confronting the Cowboys as they entered the 1984 season concerned the starting quarterback position. Would it be incumbent Danny White or challenger Gary Hogeboom? The issue reflected much more on the high regard held for Hogeboom's potential than on any deficiencies in Danny White. "Gary is trying his best to move into the starting role," Tom Landry says. "He's a competitor, he wants to play badly, and I can't blame him for that. We have a very competitive situation and that's not bad. Gary has a very strong arm, a quick delivery and good size." Hogeboom made his most impressive showing two seasons ago in the NFC Championship Game at Washington (1/23/83) when he relieved a KO'd White with 19 seconds left in the first half. Gary converted his first six third-down chances and finished with 14 completions in 29 attempts for 162 yards and two touchdowns, six yards to Drew Pearson and 23 to Butch Johnson. Two interceptions, however, spoiled Hogeboom's valiant effort at leading a Dallas comeback. Last year in preseason Gary performed extremely well, completing 42-of-74 passes for 475 yards and four touchdowns (three interceptions). He directed fourth-quarter comeback victories over Miami and Houston and looked sharp against the Rams in his first starting assignment. His 77.1 preseason rating topped White's 73.7. In '82 preseason he completed 20-of-36 passes for 297 yards and two touchdowns (three interceptions). He saw his first preseason action at QB in '81, completing 7-of-14 for 78 yards and one touchdown, an 18-yard strike to Doug Donley, against Houston (8/29). Hogeboom appeared at quarterback in regular season for the first time at Baltimore in '81 (12/6), handing off three times to end the game. He slipped into two games his rookie season on special teams. He won the roster spot vacated by Roger Staubach, who retired prior to the 1980 season. GAMES: 1980 (2), 1981 (1), 1982 (4), 1983 (6). Total — 13.

COLLEGE: Hogeboom led Central Michigan to its first conference championship and was named Mid-American Conference player of the year in 1979. He guided Central to a 19-2-1 record in two years as a starter and of his 28 career starts Central won 24. He passed for 3,088 yards (208-of-395, 53 percent) and 19 touchdowns, and he rushed for 957 yards and 16 TDs. He set the school career total offense record of 4,045 yards.

PERSONAL: Gary Keith Hogeboom (HOAG-ih-boom) lives in McKinney, Texas, with wife Kristi and daughter Heidi Jo (11/30/82). Gary attended Northview High School in his hometown of Grand Rapids, Mich. He is a partner in a real estate development firm in Sachse, Texas. He owns six horses. He has helped promote the Special Olympics and Wish with Wings, Inc., which works with terminally ill children.

Jim Jeffcoat ★ 77

DEFENSIVE END • ARIZONA STATE • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 264 • BORN: 4/1/61 • D-1 FOR '83

PRO: The Cowboys selected Jim Jeffcoat with the 23rd pick of the 1983 draft. Bringing youth to an area of the team dominated by veteran stars, Jeffcoat contributed mostly on special teams as a rookie while learning the intricacies of the "flex" defense. He got the first two QB traps of his career against Kansas City (11/20) in one of his brief appearances at defensive end. Looking toward the '84 season, Jeffcoat geared himself to compete for retired Harvey Martin's starting right end position. "Jeffcoat shows the ability we look for — the quickness, size and determination," Tom Landry says. "For him, it's going to be a matter of learning to pass-rush and getting a little experience so he plays the defense well. He'll be a factor in the future." Like any No. 1 draft choice, Jeffcoat understands the pressure on him to produce. Defensive line coach Ernie Stautner is happy with the way his pupil has responded so far. "He's very enthusiastic," Ernie says. "He's putting pressure on himself. He wants to prove he was worth a number one pick. That's a positive sign." GAMES: 1983 (16).

COLLEGE: A three-year starter, Jeffcoat earned first-team All-Pac 10 and honorable mention All-America honors after anchoring the 1982 ASU defense that led the nation. He was named the outstanding defensive player in Arizona State's 1983 Fiesta Bowl victory over Oklahoma after making 16 tackles, causing one fumble and getting a QB sack.

PERSONAL: Cliffwood, N.J., native James Wilson Jeffcoat, Jr., earned high school All-America honors at Matawan Regional High and also lettered in wrestling. He is one of seven children in his family. Jim graduated from ASU with a degree in communications. His hobbies are aerobic dancing and fishing.

DEFENSIVE END • TENNESSEE STATE • 10th YEAR
HT: 6-9 • WT: 275 • BORN: 2/23/51 • D-1A FOR '74

PRO: The football career of Ed "Too Tall" Jones now soars where most thought it would after the Cowboys made him the first selection in the 1974 NFL draft. Since re-signing with the Cowboys on July 8, 1980 after spending 1979 as a professional boxer, Jones has become a dominant player. He was voted to the Pro Bowl the past three years and was named All-Pro in '81 by NEA and in '82 by AP. Last season he was an AP and NEA second-team All-Pro choice and a UPI and Pro Football Weekly All-NFC selection. Too Tall got his fourth career interception last year, against New Orleans (12/19), and continued to use his great size to knock down passes with regularity. He batted down a career-high 12 pass attempts in 1983, giving him 35 in the past four seasons (11 in '80, 10 in '81, 2 in '82). He also blocked a field goal against the Saints (9/25) that Ron Fellows returned for a fourth-quarter touchdown. In '82 Jones caused the fumble that resulted in Michael Downs' 86-yard touchdown return at Houston (12/13). In '81 Too Tall led the club in fumble recoveries for the second straight year and was voted the team defensive MVP by the Dallas media in seven of 13 victories. He also blocked an extra point attempt which set up a 10-9 victory over Chicago (11/26). Too Tall rises to his most awesome heights in the playoffs, especially in '77 and '78 when Dallas went to the Super Bowl. Jones had 23 tackles, two QB traps, two batted-down passes and two forced fumbles in the '77 playoffs, 19 tackles, two sacks and a fumble recovery in the '78 playoffs. In a divisional playoff after the '81 season he knocked down one pass and intercepted another against Tampa Bay (1/2/82). The Cowboys obtained the rights to draft Jones from Houston in '74 for defensive end Tody Smith and wide receiver Billy Parks. The Cowboys also got Danny White with a draft choice from that deal. Too Tall started his career at weakside (right) defensive end and made the all-rookie team. In his second season he swapped positions with Harvey Martin and became a left end. Jones has not missed a game in his career. GAMES: 1974 (14), 1975 (14), 1976 (14), 1977 (14), 1978 (16), 1979 (DNP), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9), 1983 (16). Total — 129.

COLLEGE: Jones was a two-time All-America at Tennessee State where he also played two seasons of basketball. A college teammate dubbed him "Too Tall." Jones did not begin playing football until his senior year at Merry High in Jackson, Tenn.

PERSONAL: Edward Lee Jones, a native of Jackson, Tenn., is a partner in Dallas-based Imperial Investors. He has a degree in health and physical education. The multi-talented Jones has appeared in two movies and made a guest appearance on the TV comedy "Diff'rent Strokes." He enjoys singing rhythm and blues and has released a record. He has been active in promoting the Special Olympics and other charity causes.

James Jones ★ 23

RUNNING BACK ● MISSISSIPPI STATE ● 4th YEAR
HT: 5-10 ● WT: 199 ● BORN: 12/6/58 ● D-3B FOR '80

PRO: A knee injury reduced James Jones' playing time the past two seasons to appearances on special teams in five games in 1982 and has put his career in jeopardy. "I don't know if James Jones will be able to play again," Tom Landry says. "If he can, he'll be an excellent addition to our backfield." In 1981 Jones averaged 5.3 yards per carry, tops on the team among running backs. His 59-yard TD run at Baltimore (12/6) was the club's second longest run from scrimmage that season. In the playoffs Jones was the Cowboys' second leading pass receiver with five catches for 32 yards. In his rookie season James made a sparkling debut when he picked up 45 yards on 10 carries in a season-opening victory at Washington (9/8) with Dorsett sidelined periodically by leg cramps. But it was as a kick returner that he made his biggest contribution. Jones set club season records for punt returns (54) and punt return yardage (548), breaking Butch Johnson's previous marks. James' 10.1-yard punt return average was the team's highest since Johnson's 10.9 in 1976 and it ranked fifth best in the NFL and fourth in the NFC. Jones' 22.5-yard kickoff return average was the club's best since Johnson's 24.4 in 1977 and ranked sixth in the NFC. Against the Redskins (11/23) he had a season-high 52-yard punt return to set up a touchdown in a 14-10 victory. Against Los Angeles in the NFC Wild Card Game (12/28) he had 153 yards in kick returns, including a dazzling 43-yard punt return in the first quarter that got the Cowboys rolling. An early-season groin injury hampered his kick returning in '81.
GAMES: 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (5), 1983 (IR). Total — 37.

COLLEGE: Jones missed the final seven games of his senior year with a knee injury after leading Mississippi State in rushing his junior season with 687 yards (5.3 per carry). In his career Jones rushed for 1,416 yards (5.4 average) and 14 touchdowns, caught 29 passes for 274 yards and three touchdowns, completed 3-of-6 passes for 72 yards and two touchdowns and returned 24 kickoffs for a 21.3-yard average and one TD. He was Academic All-SEC as a junior.

PERSONAL: James Jones, Jr., is a native of Starkville, Miss. (Vicksburg High). He studied physical education at Mississippi State and hopes to become a football coach. James is active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He and wife Johnjalyn live in Dallas.
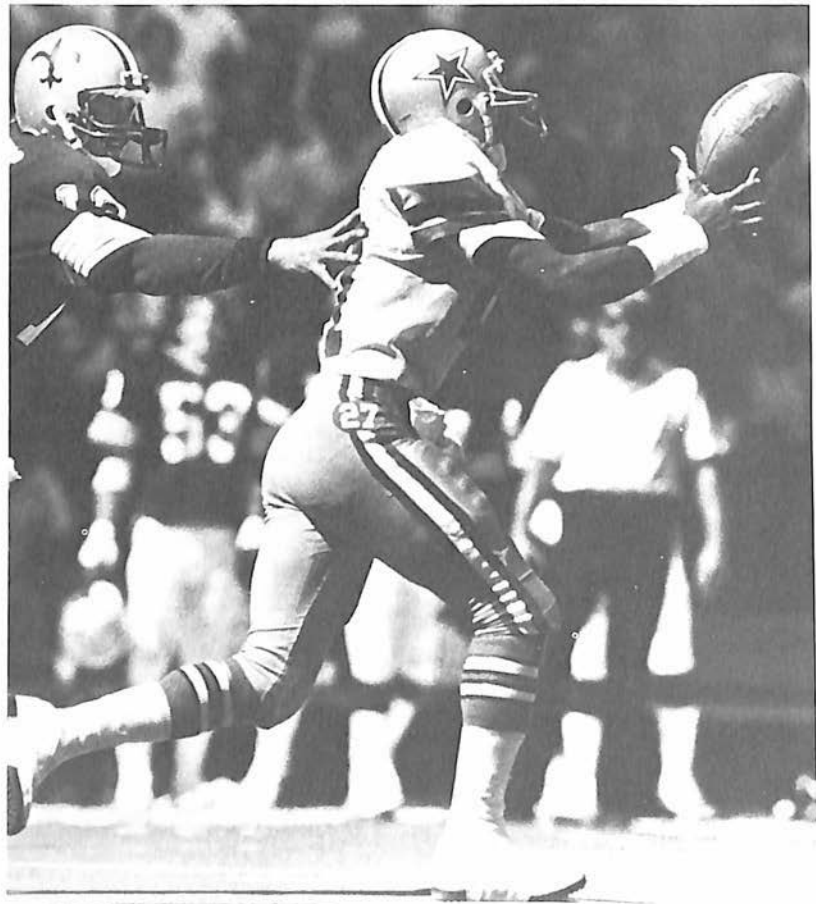

Angelo King ★ 57

LINEBACKER • SOUTH CAROLINA STATE • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 222 • BORN: 2/10/58 • FA FOR '81

PRO: Angelo King fits the mold of the smaller, quicker linebacker needed to cope with today's pass-oriented NFL offenses. King showed potential in his rookie training camp of 1981 but was released on Aug. 25 at the roster cutdown to 50. When Mike Hegman fractured his arm in the season opener at Washington, the door was opened for Angelo's return on Sept. 8. He became a solid special teams performer, including a fumble recovery on a punt that set up the go-ahead touchdown in a victory at New England (9/21). His play was strong enough that when Hegman returned, King stayed. Angelo continued his special teams and reserve linebacking duties the past two years. "Angelo is a good, solid player," Tom Landry says. "He might not impress you that much when you first look at him. The only thing that impresses you is the results. He makes plays. He moves off blocks well. He'll build on that ability." King and teammate Dextor Clinkscale also were teammates for three years at South Carolina State. GAMES: 1981 (15), 1982 (9), 1983 (16). Total — 40.

COLLEGE: Midway through his freshman year of 1977 King became a starting linebacker at South Carolina State. He went on to become a second-team All-Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference choice in 1978, first-team All-MEAC in 1979 and '80, plus a Black All-America and honorable mention Little All-America in 1980. King blocked six punts in his career, two in '78 and a school-record four in '79.

PERSONAL: Angelo Tyrone King, a native of Columbia, S.C. (Columbia High School), obtained his degree from South Carolina State in health and physical education. He has three brothers and two sisters.

Chuck McSwain ★ 35

RUNNING BACK • CLEMSON • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 191 • BORN: 2/21/61 • D-5 FOR '83

PRO: Chuck McSwain has two of the prime ingredients you look for in a running back — speed and quickness. He flashed his potential in spectacular fashion last preseason against Miami (8/6) when he took a swing pass from Gary Hogeboom, cut back across the field and outran the Dolphins for a 67-yard touchdown with 1:37 remaining in the game. The Cowboys got the ball back on an onsides kick and drove for the winning touchdown, which McSwain scored on a one-yard run with two seconds left, giving Dallas a 20-17 victory. "Speed and quickness — you can't manufacture that. And he has it," says running backs coach Al Lavan. McSwain's rookie season was cut short when he tore a tendon in his right ring finger against the Giants (9/18) on his first kickoff return. He spent the remainder of the season on injured reserve. GAMES: 1983 (1).

COLLEGE: McSwain rushed for 2,297 yards and 22 touchdowns on 469 carries in four seasons at Clemson, including a career-best 668 yards and seven scores during the Tigers' 1981 national championship year. McSwain was named the Atlantic Coast Conference rookie of the year in 1979 after rushing for 444 yards and five TDs. In 1981 he gained a career-high 151 yards against South Carolina. He ran the first leg of Clemson's 1980 ACC champion 4 x 100 meter relay team.

PERSONAL: Anthony "Chuck" McSwain was born in Rutherford, N.C., and raised in Caroleen, N.C., where he became a high school All-America running back at Chase High. He also played basketball and ran track. In the offseason Chuck returned to Clemson to study toward his degree in industrial education. Chuck's brother Rod, a cornerback, was a 1984 third-round draft choice by Atlanta out of Clemson.

Jim Miller ★ 3

PUNTER ● MISSISSIPPI ● 5th YEAR
HT: 5-11 ● WT: 183 ● BORN: 7/5/57 ● FA FOR '83

PRO: The Cowboys signed Jim Miller, the NFL's only barefooted punter, last Nov. 18 to replace John Warren, the rookie punter who was put on injured reserve after suffering a midseason knee injury. Miller, who was the San Francisco 49ers' punter the previous three seasons, split the punting duties with Danny White down the stretch, Miller handling the kicks inside the 50-yard line. He angled two of his five kicks out of bounds inside the 20. Miller was available after being released in preseason by San Francisco. He was drafted by the 49ers in the third round in 1980 following a brilliant career at Ole Miss. Miller earned All-Rookie honors in 1980. He punted against the Cowboys in the 1981 NFC Championship Game won by the 49ers. Jim finished his career in San Francisco as the club's fourth all-time leading punter. GAMES: 1980 (16-S.F.), 1981 (16-S.F.), 1982 (9-S.F.), 1983 (2). Total — 43 (2-Dallas).

COLLEGE: Miller was a consensus All-America in 1979. He averaged 43.4 yards per punt in four seasons at Mississippi and set school career records for most punts (266) and yards (11,549). He was the nation's leading punter as a sophomore in '77 with a 45.9-yard average, an SEC record. He averaged 43.2 in '78 and 44.6 in '79.

PERSONAL: James G. Miller is a native of Ripley, Miss., where he and wife Tammy reside in the offseason. Jim attended Ripley High School. Jim has punted barefooted all his life. He says he usually roamed his family farm without shoes as a child and got used to kicking barefooted. He did kick a few wearing a shoe for the 49ers in 1982.

MILLER NFL MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

The NFL Man of the Year program honors NFL players who have contributed as outstanding citizens of their communities as well as to their teams on the field. The program began in 1970, was discontinued from 1977-79 and was reactivated by the Miller Brewing Company in 1980. Miller has established an annual $36,000 scholarship fund to be distributed in the names of the leading vote-getters from each of the 28 NFL teams. Dallas Cowboys NFL Man of the Year winners have been:

1983 - Danny White

1982 - Billy Joe DuPree

1981 - D. D. Lewis

1980 - Drew Pearson

1976 - Roger Staubach

1975 - Roger Staubach

1973 - Calvin Hill

Timmy Newsome ★ 30

RUNNING BACK ○ WINSTON-SALEM STATE ○ 5th YEAR
HT: 6-1 ○ WT: 235 ○ BORN: 5/17/58 ○ D-6 FOR '80

PRO: Although built like a fullback, Timmy Newsome possesses the speed and elusive running style of a tailback. After watching him struggle for two years at fullback, the Cowboys switched the talented young player to the running back position in 1982 training camp. After initially balking at the move, Newsome has thrived at his new position. "Timmy has played very well for us in the talback role," Tom Landry says. "He gives us solid depth." Newsome is pound-for-pound the strongest man on the team, according to conditioning coach

*Cowboys' playoff record is 20-15.

Bob Ward. He can bench-press 430 pounds and is a fine receiver. In his limited amount of playing time Newsome has shown a knack for making big plays. In a 1982 victory at Washington (12/5) he broke tackles on an outstanding 18-yard scoring run. The following week at Houston on Monday Night Football (12/13) Timmy caught one pass for a 43-yard gain and another for a spectacular 46-yard touchdown on which he slipped one tackle and broke three others. In a playoff victory over Green Bay (1/16/83) he caught a career-high seven passes for 70 yards and also scored on a two-yard run while sharing fullback duties with Robert Newhouse for injured Ron Springs. Last year against Tampa Bay (10/9) Newsome turned a short pass into a 52-yard touchdown with 47 seconds left to send the game into overtime. The Cowboys won in overtime. Timmy had career season highs in rushing, receiving and touchdowns in 1983. He was the 162nd player selected in the 1980 draft. GAMES: 1980 (16), 1981 (15), 1982 (9), 1983 (16). Total — 56.

COLLEGE: Newsome was a two-time NAIA first-team All-America and was voted 1979 player of the year by the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) coaches. In four years at Winston-Salem, Newsome rushed for 3,843 yards (6.1 per carry) and 38 touchdowns. He was the CIAA's leading rusher and scorer in 1977, '78 and 79.

PERSONAL: Timothy Arthur Newsome of Ahoskie, N.C. (Ahoskie High), has a degree in business with a concentration in computer science. In the offseason he works for Shared Financial Systems of Dallas. Timmy also has done promotional work for the state of North Carolina's alcohol and drug abuse prevention program.

Kurt Petersen ★ 65

GUARD • MISSOURI • 5th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 268 • BORN: 6/17/57 • D-4 FOR '80

PRO: Despite being a defensive lineman in college, Kurt Petersen has been a starting offensive guard in three of his four seasons with the Cowboys. "We normally don't expect someone to be able to move from defense to offense so quickly because experience is crucial," says offensive line coach Jim Myers. "Pete is way ahead of schedule because he has been dedicated. He has worked." Called "the Cowboys' blue-ribbon workhorse" by a Dallas newspaper, Petersen combines size, quickness and intelligence with unusual strength. According to conditioning coach Bob Ward, Kurt is the strongest player overall on the team. Petersen spent his rookie year making the difficult position switch and trying to duplicate the success of Pat Donovan, John Fitzgerald and Blaine Nye, college defensive linemen who became top offensive linemen with Dallas. The learning process was expected to continue in 1981, but a knee injury to center Robert Shaw in the second game forced the Cowboys to move right guard Tom Rafferly to center and Petersen into a starting role at right guard. Kurt started 14 of 16 games in 1981. He started all nine games in 1982, earning a game ball from the coaching staff for his play against Cleveland (11/25) and second-team All-Pro honors from the Newspaper Enterprise Association. Last year Kurt was hampered by injuries but started 14 games, missing two late in the season due to a back injury. He earned a game ball for his efforts against New Orleans (9/25). GAMES: 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9), 1983 (14). Total — 55.

COLLEGE: A linebacker his junior year, Petersen was moved to defensive tackle his senior season to give Missouri more inside quickness. A senior co-captain, Kurt tied for the team lead in fumble recoveries with four.

PERSONAL: St. Louis native (Lutheran High School North) Kurt David Petersen has a degree in industrial engineering and has worked as a carpenter. Kurt is an outdoorsman who enjoys fishing, hunting, gardening and archery. Kurt and wife Karen live in Carrollton, Texas.

Phil Pozderac ★ 75

TACKLE • NOTRE DAME • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-9 • WT: 274 • BORN: 12/19/59 • D-5 FOR '82

PRO: Injuries to Pat Donovan last year gave big Phil Pozderac lots of valuable playing experience at left tackle. Poz started three of four preseason games and two regular-season contests for Donovan. Pozderac also played left tackle on all short-yardage and goal line situations when the Cowboys went to a three-tight end formation. He earned a coaches' game ball for his efforts against Philadelphia (10/16) at right tackle for injured Jim Cooper. With Donovan's off-season retirement, Pozderac entered the '84 season hoping to win the starting job. "Phil performed well last year," Tom Landry says. "He prepared himself mentally and played very well. He surely is a prospect for us." As a rookie Pozderac played on many short-yardage situations because of injuries to tight end Jay Saldi. Phil made an immediate impression in his first training camp. "He was the most impressive rookie tackle I can remember us having since Ralph Neely," Gil Brandt said. After a few training camp drills against Pozderac, Too Tall Jones said, "I like his attitude. He has a mean streak and for a rookie he's hard to intimidate. He doesn't back up. The more physical you get with him the more he comes at you." GAMES: 1982 (7), 1983 (16). Total — 23.

COLLEGE: Pozderac started 23 consecutive games at right tackle his final two seasons at Notre Dame. His teammates voted him Notre Dame's most valuable offensive player in 1981. He also won AP honorable mention All-America honors in '81. Pozderac entered Notre Dame carrying only 220 pounds on his 6-9 frame.

PERSONAL: Phillip Maurice Pozderac (poz-DEH-rick) starred in football and basketball at Garfield, Ohio, High School. He was born in Cleveland. Phil received his degree from Notre Dame in business finance. He and wife Kim live in Dallas where they work as real estate agents for Hank Dickerson Realtors. In the offseason Phil did a public service announcement for the Power Rehabilitation Center in Allen, Texas, for emotionally and physically handicapped people.

Tom Rafferty ★ 64

CENTER   •   PENN STATE   •   9th YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 259 • BORN: 8/2/54 • D-4 FOR '76

PRO: After starting at right guard from 1977-80, versatile Tom Rafferty was pressed into service at center when Robert Shaw went down with a knee injury in the second game of the 1981 season. Rafferty has started 44 of the past 45 games at center during the past three seasons, including six playoff games, and has steadily improved. An injured toe limited Tom mostly to snapping for punts, field goals and extra points last year versus Minnesota and Tampa Bay. Against the Eagles (10/16) he caught a pass which was tipped twice and gained eight yards. In '82 he received coaches' game balls following victories over Cleveland (11/25) and in the playoffs over Tampa Bay (1/9/83). Rafferty also teamed with guard Herb Scott on a "fold" block that cleared the way for Tony Dorsett's record-setting 99-yard touchdown run at Minnesota (1/3/83). "Tom has improved into a consistent performer for us at center," Tom Landry says. "We're fortunate to have a guy like him." Tom also snaps the ball on punts, field goals and extra points. Rafferty won a starting job in only his second season, replacing retired All-Pro right guard Blaine Nye in 1977. Rafferty played two games that season at center for injured John Fitzgerald, a preview of things to come. In 1979 Rafferty won the Oak Farms Cowboys MVP award for his performance in a crucial playoff-clinching victory at Philadelphia (12/8). He shared his second career game MVP award with Fitzgerald in 1980 for the season-opening victory at Washington (9/8). Tom has played in 108 straight games. GAMES: 1976 (13), 1977 (14), 1978 (16), 1979 (16), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9), 1983 (16). Total — 116.

COLLEGE: A four-year starting guard at Penn State, Rafferty earned All-America honors from the Football News and the Football Writers Association in 1975. The Cowboys rated him the top pulling guard in the 1976 draft.

PERSONAL: Thomas Michael Rafferty was born in Syracuse and raised in Manlius, N.Y., where he became a high school All-America in lacrosse in addition to starring in football and basketball. Tom works in the offseason for H.N.C. Crown, a Dallas real estate company. He received a degree in physical education from Penn State and is studying for his master's in business at the University of Dallas. Tom and wife Donna live in Dallas with son J. Michael (7/14/81) and daughter Rachel Elizabeth (3/6/84).

Mike Renfro ★ 82

WIDE RECEIVER   •   TCU   •   7th YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 184 • BORN: 6/19/55 • TRADE, HOU., '84

PRO: The Cowboys traded wide receiver Butch Johnson and their second-round draft choice to the Houston Oilers last April 13 for wide receiver Mike Renfro, the Oilers' 1984 second-round draft pick from Minnesota and a 1985 draft choice. In Renfro, the Cowboys added a tough, experienced competitor and one of the NFL's most sure-handed receivers. In one way it marks a return to the Cowboys for Renfro, who worked as a ballboy for the club when his father, Ray, was an assistant coach for the Cowboys from 1968-72. Mike was drafted by the Oilers in the fourth round in 1978. In six seasons with Houston Renfro caught 160 passes for 2,183 yards and 11 touchdowns. He started 50 games for the Oilers, with his best season coming in 1981 when he caught 39 passes for 451 yards. In a 1982

Monday night game against the Cowboys (12/13) he caught a 54-yard touchdown pass from Archie Manning. Last year Renfro caught only 23 passes because of injuries. He missed the first four games due to hepatitis and the last three with a knee injury. Mike led the Oilers in receiving in 1980. That year against the Jets he gained a single-game career-high 96 yards on seven catches (11/23). In '81 he caught a single-game career-best eight passes against Cincinnati (11/1). In the '79 playoffs he had four receptions for a 24.8-yard average, including a 46-yard TD from Gifford Nielsen in a 17-14 upset win over San Diego (12/29). GAMES: 1978 (14-Hou.), 1979 (15-Hou.), 1980 (16-Hou.), 1981 (12-Hou.), 1982 (9-Hou.), 1983 (9-Hou.). Total — 75 (Hou.).

COLLEGE: Renfro was a three-time All-Southwest Conference choice at TCU. He ended his college career owning school records for career receptions (162), yards (2,739) and touchdown catches (17). His 10 touchdown catches as a senior set a Southwest Conference record. Mike played at TCU under head coach Jim Shofner, now the Cowboys' quarterback coach.

PERSONAL: Michael Ray Renfro was born and raised in Fort Worth, Texas, where he attended Arlington Heights High School. Mike's father, Ray, was an All-Pro receiver for the Cleveland Browns (1952-63). Mike has a degree from TCU in business management and works in the offseason for the Dugger Development real estate firm in Fort Worth. Mike sponsors the Mike Renfro Charity Golf Tournament in Conroe, Texas, for the Palmer Drug Abuse Center. His hobbies are golf, scuba diving and traveling.

Howard Richards ★ 70

GUARD-TACKLE • MISSOURI • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 258 • BORN: 8/7/59 • D-1 FOR '81

PRO: The consensus of opinion holds that Howard Richards is a star in the making, either at guard or tackle. Richards spent most of the past two seasons playing left guard, although he also played some at right guard and played the entire Philadelphia game last year (10/16) at left tackle for injured Pat Donovan. "Howard is at the point of moving into the starting lineup," Tom Landry says. "He has the ability and if he continues to improve the way he has in the past he'll be hard to keep out of the lineup at either guard or tackle. His versatility is very important. He's surely an important player in the future of the Cowboys." Howard reported to '84 training camp as the top candidate to replace retired left tackle Pat Donovan. The 25th player selected in the 1981 draft, Richards spent his rookie season learning the tackle position and contributing on special teams. He began '82 training camp as a reserve left tackle, moved to left guard early in camp, played right guard for injured Kurt Petersen in preseason games and finally switched back to left guard to replace Herb Scott, who injured a knee in the preseason finale. Howard started eight games at left guard in 1982 and shared the position with Scott in the playoffs. Last year he spent most of the year shuttling plays with Scott. He also shuttled with Petersen for two games and played one game at left tackle. He started two games in '83. Richards played at Missouri with current teammates Petersen and Ron Fellows. GAMES: 1981 (16), 1982 (8), 1983 (16). Total — 40.

COLLEGE: Richards started 40 consecutive games at right tackle for Missouri and capped his career by earning consensus All-Big Eight and second-team All-America honors in 1980. He was a finalist for the 1980 Lombardi Award, which goes to the nation's top collegiate lineman. Howard also received All-Big Eight honors his junior year.

PERSONAL: Howard Glen Richards, Jr., was a football, basketball and baseball star at Southwest High School in St. Louis. His uncle is Ernie McMillan, former offensive tackle and now a scout for the St. Louis Cardinals. Howard studied communications at Missouri. He serves as a spokesman for the Dallas-Fort Worth Ronald McDonald Houses, supports the Boys Clubs programs in the Dallas area, the Sickle Cell Anemia Association of Texas, Operation Child Find, the Texas School for the Deaf in Austin and has spoken at Dallas area schools on sportsmanship and leadership. Howard and wife Rhonda live in Dallas.

Jeff Rohrer ★ 50

LINEBACKER • YALE • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 232 • BORN: 12/25/58 • D-2 FOR '82

PRO: Jeff Rohrer began his third season in Dallas with a chance to win a job at middle linebacker after spending his first two years as an outside linebacker. With the departure of Bruce Huther, the Cowboys entered training camp without an experienced backup to starting middle linebacker Bob Breunig. "We'll look at Rohrer first behind Breunig because he played inside at Yale," Tom Landry explained. "Jeff has a lot of potential. You've got a lot to work with from an athletic standpoint. He's got excellent size and movement." Rohrer got into eight games on special teams as a rookie and contributed a fumble recovery that set up a field goal in the playoffs against Green Bay. Last year Rohrer played on the short-yardage and goal line defenses in addition to contributing on special teams. GAMES: 1982 (8), 1983 (16). Total — 24.

COLLEGE: Rohrer was the highest NFL draft choice from Yale since 1969 when the Cowboys chose Calvin Hill in the first round. In 1981 Jeff was named to the Coaches All-Ivy League and the Coaches All-New England first teams after leading Ivy co-champ Yale in tackles with a school-record 136 stops (71 solo).

PERSONAL: Jeffrey Charles Rohrer was a National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete at Mira Costa High School in his native Manhattan Beach, Calif. He received his degree from Yale in administrative sciences and now works as vice president of sales and marketing for Phoenix Masonry in Dallas. He also has his real estate sales license. His hobbies include ceramics, scuba diving, golf and karate. Jeff supports the Special Olympics program for the handicapped.

Chris Schultz ★ 66

TACKLE   •   ARIZONA   •   2nd YEAR
HT: 6-8 • WT: 265 • BORN: 2/16/60 • D-7 FOR '83

PRO: Despite limited experience at offensive tackle, Chris Schultz showed fine potential at the position last year in his first training camp. Shultz played only one year in college at offensive tackle and was drafted by the Cowboys in the seventh round mainly because of his physical characteristics. He possesses excellent size and quick feet, two of the key qualities necessary for success in the offensive line. Chris got into five games last year on special teams. Schultz was drafted in the seventh round by the Canadian Football League Toronto Argonauts in February of 1982. GAMES: 1983 (5).

COLLEGE: After earning three letters as a defensive tackle, Schultz was switched to offense as a senior, won the starting left tackle position and performed well for the Wildcats. He was the strongest member of the Arizona team with a 365-pound bench press.

PERSONAL: Born in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, Chris Schultz was raised in Burlington, Ontario, where he lettered for four years each in football and basketball at Aldershoot High School. He studied psychology at Arizona.

Herbert Scott ★ 68

GUARD ● VIRGINIA UNION ● 10th YEAR
HT: 6-2 ● WT: 260 ● BORN: 1/18/53 ● D-13 FOR '75

PRO: The Cowboys' most honored active offensive lineman is quiet, unassuming Herbert Scott, who lets his performance on the field speak for itself. Rising from the obscurity of being a 13th-round draft pick from little Virginia Union, Scott, a two-time All-Pro, made the team in 1975 as one of the "Dirty Dozen" rookies who helped lead the Cowboys into Super Bowl X. Scott beat out former All-Pro John Niland, who was traded to Philadelphia. The following year Scott won the regular left guard position and in 1978 began collecting a host of honors. The Cowboys' starting left guard the past eight seasons, Scott was named first-team All-NFC four straight years (1978-81) by UPI, and by the Sporting News in 1979. He was chosen by his peers to play in the Pro Bowl three times in a row (1979-81). In 1980 Herb became the club's first All-Pro offensive lineman since Rayfield Wright in 1975 when he was named first-team All-NFL by the AP and the Newspaper Enterprise Association. Herb achieved All-Pro status again in 1981, according to AP, the Sporting News and NEA (second team). A knee injury in the preseason finale against Houston derailed Scott's 1982 season. He missed the first three games after playing in 64 straight and started only one while sharing his position with Howard Richards. Scott rebounded to form last year, starting 16 games. Known to teammates as "Pooch," Scott is an outstanding open field and pass blocker and is seldom penalized. Says Tony Dorsett, "When Herb goes after a guy, the next thing you see are feet in the air." GAMES: 1975 (14), 1976 (14), 1977 (11), 1978 (16), 1979 (16), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (6), 1983 (16). Total — 125.

COLLEGE: Scott was a three-time All-Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association selection at Virginia Union. He played guard, tackle and even caught one pass as a tight end. He also was a top shot putter for the track team. In May 1982 Herb was inducted into the CIAA Hall of Fame.

PERSONAL: Herbert Carnell Scott, Jr., attended Kellam High School in Virginia Beach, Va. Earlier in his career Herb taught high school math and science in the offseason in Virginia Beach. In February 1982 "Herbert Scott Day" was celebrated in Richmond, Va., home of Virginia Union. Herb's hobby is gospel singing. He is the lead baritone in Dallas' Believers Tabernacle Choir. Herb's wife Gayle is a social worker at the Denton State School for the handicapped. Herb, Gayle and son Ryan Carnell (11/24/80) live in Lucas, Texas.

Rafael Septien ★ 1

KICKER ● SOUTHWEST LOUISIANA ● 8th YEAR
HT: 5-10 ● WT: 171 ● BORN: 12/12/53 ● FA FOR '78

PRO: Rafael Septien is the Cowboys' all-time leading scorer with 585 points, the only player in club history to score 500 points and the second most accurate field goal kicker in NFL history. Septien's 69.10 career field goal percentage (123-of-178) trails only the 72.0 percent (113-of-157) of San Diego's Rolf Benirschke. In 1983 Septien totaled 123 points to break his own club season scoring record by two points. His 81.5 percent field goal rate last year broke Efren Herrera's 1976 team season mark of 78.3. Rafael's 42-yard FG in overtime beat Tampa Bay last year (10/9). In leading the Cowboys in scoring in each of the past six seasons, Septien has been uncannily accurate inside the 40-yard line, converting 93-of-105 (88.6 percent) from that range. He's also been superb in the playoffs. Rafael holds the NFL playoff records for field goal accuracy and consecutive field goals made. He has converted 18-of-21 playoff field goal tries for an 85.7 rate, including 15 in a row from Super Bowl XIII (1/21/79) to the 1982 NFC title game (1/22/83). Septien is the third leading scorer in NFL playoff history with 95 points, trailing George Blanda's 115 and Franco Harris' 102, and he's third in playoff field goals with 18 behind Blanda's 22 and Toni Fritsch's 20. Rafael's also made all 41 of his playoff extra point attempts, eight shy of Blanda's NFL record. Septien's best season was in 1981 when he tied Detroit's Ed Murray for the NFL scoring lead, set team records with 121 points, 27 field goals and nine consecutive field goals made, tied the club record of four field goals in a game twice and became the Cowboys' all-time career field goal leader. His 1981 performance earned Septien consensus All-Pro honors, his first trip to the Pro Bowl and Pro Football Weekly's Golden Toe Award as the NFL's top kicker. Drafted by New Orleans in the 10th round in 1977, Septien was released during training camp and signed by the Rams. A consensus all-rookie selection in '77, Septien was released by the Rams after the final '78 preseason game. The Cowboys immediately signed him (8/30) to replace Efren Herrera, who had been traded to Seattle. The biggest moment of his first Cowboys season came at St. Louis (10/15) when he kicked a 47-yarder into the wind 3:28 into overtime for a 24-21 victory. Rafael won two games in '79 with dramatic kicks, a 22-yarder off the left upright with 1:16 left to beat St. Louis (9/2) and a 22-yarder with three seconds remaining to top the Giants 16-14 (11/4). In 1980 he set a club record with 59 extra points. Rafael has scored in every game he's played for Dallas, 102 straight, including playoffs. GAMES: 1977 (14-L.A.), 1978 (16), 1979 (16), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9), 1983 (16). Total — 104 (90-Dallas).

COLLEGE: Septien received All-Southland Conference honors his final two seasons at Southwest Louisiana. He kicked nine field goals of more than 50 yards, including a 50-yarder on his first attempt. His long was 57 against Lamar in '74.

PERSONAL: Jose Rafael Septien Michel (rah-fay-EL sep-tee-EN), a Mexico City native (Collegio Vista Hermosa High School), is the son of the late Carlos Septien, a member of two Mexican World Cup soccer teams. A fine all-around athlete, Septien is the team's best racquetball player. He is president of Septien and Associates, a Dallas public relations firm. He also is active in local drug and alcohol abuse prevention programs, Happy Hill Farm Children's Home, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and the March of Dimes. Rafael has appeared in three movies and 40 commercials in Mexico. He and wife Linda live in Dallas.

Cleo Simmons ★ 85

TIGHT END ● JACKSON STATE ● 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-2 ● WT: 225 ● BORN: 10/21/60 ● FA FOR '83

PRO: One of the Cowboys' top special teams players last year was rookie free agent Cleo Simmons, who also served as the third tight end behind Doug Cosbie and Billy Joe DuPree. Simmons was a longshot to make the team, considering the Cowboys drafted another tight end, Chris Faulkner of Florida, in the fourth round. But Simmons proved the better player and was kept over Faulkner. Simmons was released on the final roster cut last summer, but was re-signed a few days later after running back James Jones was placed on injured reserve. GAMES: 1983 (11).

COLLEGE: Simmons was Jackson State's leading receiver and scorer and a first-team All-Southwestern Athletic Conference selection in 1982 after catching 46 passes for 712 yards and seven touchdowns. He was named Chevrolet Player of the Game for his performance in a vic'ory over Grambling. Cleo was a two-year starter with career totals of 54 catches for 894 yards and eight touchdowns.

PERSONAL: Cleo Simmons is a native of Mobile, Ala., where he played football and basketball at Murphy High School. He played linebacker and defensive back in high school. He majored in education at Jackson State.

Don Smerek ★ 60

DEFENSIVE LINEMAN ● NEVADA-RENO ● 4th YEAR
HT: 6-7 ● WT: 255 ● BORN: 12/20/57 ● FA FOR '80

PRO: The emergence of Don Smerek has been an important development for the future of the Cowboys' veteran defensive line. Although Smerek has played defensive left tackle the past two years, Tom Landry gave him first shot at retired Harvey Martin's right end position in 1984. Until Harvey's retirement, Smerek was considered the heir to 12-year veteran John Dutton's left tackle position, where Smerek has logged lots of playing time the past two years. "Smerek is ready to move into a starting position," Tom Landry says. "He's a very tough, competitive defensive player. He showed good ability as a pass-rusher last year at tackle in the '4-0' defense. He's got some experience now and should be able to make the switch to end." It's been a remarkable comeback for Smerek, who spent most of his first two seasons on the injured list. After signing with Dallas as free agent in 1980, Smerek fractured ribs in training camp and was on the injured reserve list all season. He made the active roster as a reserve defensive lineman in 1981 but injured a knee in the second game, underwent surgery and spent the rest of the year on injured reserve. He battled his way back onto the roster in 1982 and proved a valuable asset down the stretch and the playoffs filling in for Dutton, who was injured. Last year Don replaced Dutton on passing downs and finished fourth on the club in QB sacks with six. Smerek is one of the strongest Cowboys, with a bench-press of 435 pounds. GAMES: 1981 (2), 1982 (7), 1983 (15). Total — 24.

COLLEGE: Smerek was an All-Big Sky choice at defensive end following his senior season at Nevada-Reno.

PERSONAL: Donald Frederick Smerek was born in Waterford, Mich., and raised in Henderson, Nev., outside Las Vegas. Don was a football and basketball star at Basic High in Henderson. He received his degree from Nevada-Reno in physical education. In the offseason he works for Craig and Associates, a Dallas investment firm.

Ron Springs ★ 20

RUNNING BACK • OHIO STATE • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 218 • BORN: 11/4/56 • D-5C FOR '79

PRO: In multi-talented Ron Springs, the Cowboys have a fullback who can block, catch passes and gain the tough inside yards. Ron's talents were quite evident his rookie year when he played halfback behind Tony Dorsett, but in order to get him into the lineup with Dorsett a switch to fullback was necessary in 1980. "Ron played better in 1983 at fullback than ever before," Tom Landry says. "He's a tough, hard-nosed, slashing-type runner. He has good speed, catches the ball well and has improved his blocking." In 1983 Ron led NFL running backs in receiving and set a club record with 73 catches, breaking Frank Clarke's 1964 club mark of 65. Springs combined for more than 1,000 yards rushing and receiving for the first time in his career. He finished his fifth season as the Cowboys' eighth all-time leading rusher and 10th all-time leading receiver. Against Tampa Bay last year (10/9) he tied his club record for running backs by catching 11 passes for a career-high 126 yards, including a career-long 80-yard touchdown reception. Against the Raiders (10/23) he threw his second career TD pass, a 15-yarder to Danny White. Ron has combined for more than 100 yards rushing and receiving in a game eight times in his career, including a career-high four times in 1983. His top moment in '82 came in a 24-10 victory at Washington (12/5) in which he broke a career-long 46-yard TD run in the closing minutes. In '81 Springs combined for 984 yards rushing and receiving, scored a team-high 12 touchdowns and tied Tony Hill for the club lead in receptions with 46. He caught a 32-yard TD pass late in the fourth quarter for the winning score in a dramatic 28-27 comeback victory over Miami (10/25). Springs won the fullback job in 1980 training camp, but he twisted an ankle in the third game and didn't regain the position from Newhouse until the '81 season. Only the 139th player chosen in the '79 draft, Springs filled in well for Dorsett at tailback in three '79 victories when Tony was ailing. In the season opener at St. Louis (9/2) Ron threw a 30-yard fourth-quarter TD pass to Tony Hill on his first NFL attempt. In the dramatic comeback victory over Washington (12/16) that won the NFC East crown, Springs rushed for 79 yards and a TD, and caught six passes for 58 yards, including a 26-yard TD late in the fourth quarter. Ron also led the team in kickoff returns in '79. GAMES: 1979 (16), 1980 (15), 1981 (16), 1982 (9), 1983 (16). Total — 72.

COLLEGE: Springs rushed for 1,800 yards and scored 25 touchdowns in 1976 at Coffeyville, Kan., Junior College and was named junior college player of the year. He led Ohio State in rushing and receiving as a junior with 1,166 yards on the ground and another 90 on 16 receptions. He managed 585 yards rushing in an injury-marred senior year. Springs also ran sprint relays for the Buckeyes track team.

PERSONAL: Ronald Edward Springs is a native of Williamsburg, Va. (Lafayette High), where they've named a street after him (Ron Springs Drive). Ron studied communications at Ohio State. He owns a home appliance rental company in Dallas called Rentex. He and wife Adriane live in Dallas.

Dennis Thurman ★ 32

PRO: Dennis Thurman is an achiever, someone who knows how to accomplish his goals no matter what shortcomings others may think he has. Despite not being drafted until the 11th round in 1978, Thurman has become a valuable and versatile member of the defensive secondary. Thurman backed up the corner and safety positions his first two years, started at free safety in 1980, started at right corner in '81, '82 and '83, and this year returned to his natural free safety position. Dennis is the sixth leading interceptor in club history and is tied with Oakland's Willie Brown for third place on the NFL's list of all-time leading playoff interceptors with seven. Last season Thurman led the club with six interceptions and recorded his fourth career touchdown when he recovered a fumble in the end zone at St. Louis (9/11). In '82 Dennis served as a defensive captain and got his second career regular-season touchdown interception, a 60-yarder at Minnesota (1/3/83). Two weeks later he tied an NFC playoff record with three interceptions to key a win over Green Bay (1/16), including a 39-yard touchdown return. Thurman became a starter in 1980 at free safety, his position in college, following Cliff Harris' retirement and an injury to Randy Hughes. His first interception return for a TD came that season at St. Louis (11/2) when he went 78 yards in the fourth quarter of a narrow victory. He co-led the club in interceptions in '80 with Charlie Waters with five. He also served as special teams captain. In '81 Dennis intercepted nine passes, third highest season total in team history and tied for third in the NFL that season. He was named second-team All-NFC by UPI. His 96-yard interception return to the four, second longest in team history, was a key play in the season-opening triumph at Washington (9/6). Thurman tied a club record with three interceptions in the victory over Philadelphia (12/13) which clinched the NFC East title. He also had two interceptions in the playoff victory over Tampa Bay (1/2/82). His 187 yards in interception returns in '81 were second best in team history to Cornell Green's 211 in 1963. GAMES: 1978 (16), 1979 (16), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9), 1983 (16). Total — 89.

COLLEGE: Thurman intercepted passes in seven straight games en route to leading the nation in interception return yardage in 1976 with 180 yards on eight steals. He had 13 career interceptions, six pass breakups, seven fumble recoveries and was a two-time consensus All-America safety at Southern Cal. He started five games at flanker during his freshman and sophomore years.

PERSONAL: Dennis Lee Thurman was a football quarterback, basketball and baseball star at Santa Monica High School in his native Los Angeles. He was recruited by major league baseball teams and college basketball programs before accepting a college football schol-

Glen Titensor ★ 63

CENTER • BRIGHAM YOUNG • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 251 • BORN: 2/21/58 • D-3 FOR '81

PRO: Glen Titensor shows great promise of adding to the success of something that's become a Cowboys trademark — converting defensive linemen to offensive linemen. Following in the tradition of Blaine Nye, John Fitzgerald, Pat Donovan and Kurt Petersen, all college defensive linemen who became top offensive linemen with the Cowboys, Titensor made the switch as a rookie and impressed his coaches with his rapid development. A versatile athlete with great quickness, Titensor has worked at both center and guard. He played the second half at Minnesota and the entire game against Tampa Bay at center last year for Tom Rafferty, who had suffered a foot injury. Glen missed five of nine games in '82 due to a knee injury. He underwent surgery in November of '82 for cartilage repair, but returned a month later and was available during the playoffs. In his rookie season Titensor played briefly at left guard during the Tampa Bay playoff game (1/2/82) for Herbert Scott, who had sustained a minor injury. GAMES: 1981 (16), 1982 (4), 1983 (15). Total — 35.

COLLEGE: After spending two years at UCLA backing up All-America defensive tackle Manu Tuiasosopo, Titensor transferred to BYU

Everson Walls ★ 24

CORNERBACK • GRAMBLING • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 194 • BORN: 12/28/59 • FA FOR '81

PRO: Three years ago Everson Walls was an undrafted rookie free agent struggling to make an impression at the Cowboys' training camp in Thousand Oaks, Calif. Now he's a certified star, with All-Pro and Pro Bowl credentials to bolster the claim. Improbable perhaps, but Walls has shown a knack for defying the odds. He has been named to the Pro Bowl in each of his first three seasons. He owns the Pro Bowl career record of four interceptions, two in each of his first two appearances. Walls was an All-Rookie choice in 1981, a consensus All-Pro in 1982 and an Associated Press All-Pro in 1983. The NFL Alumni Association named Everson the 1982 NFL defensive back of the year. Walls is the only player to lead the NFL in interceptions in each of his first two seasons, the only Cowboys player ever to lead the league in interceptions twice and only the second player to lead the NFL two years in a row, Philadelphia's Bill Bradley being the first in 1971-72. Walls is one of just eight men who have led the NFL in interceptions twice. Nobody has led the league three times. Since becoming a DB as a high school senior in Dallas, Walls has intercepted 56 passes in eight seasons. "He's Superman," teammate Dennis Thurman says. "That's what we call him. There isn't a play he can't make." "Cubby," as he's known, became the starting left cornerback in the fifth game of the 1981 season. He finished with a team-record and league-leading 11 interceptions, breaking Mel Renfro's club mark and becoming the first rookie since Detroit's Lem Barney in 1967 to lead the NFL. He stole two more passes and recovered a fumble in the NFC Championship Game (1/10/82). He also became only the sixth free agent rookie to be voted to the Pro Bowl. Because of his obvious talent on pass defense, Cubby's superior tackling ability is often overlooked. He was second in solo tackles in each of his first two years and fifth last season. GAMES: 1981 (16), 1982 (9), 1983 (16). Total — 41.

WALLS, Cont.

COLLEGE: Walls led the nation in 1980 with a Grambling-record 11 interceptions for 140 yards in 11 games. He was named first-team All-Southwestern Athletic Conference. In his junior year he picked off four passes for 91 yards and a touchdown.

PERSONAL: Dallas native Everson Collins "Cubby" Walls was a football, basketball and track star at Richardson Berkner High School. He grew up within two miles of the Cowboys' practice facility. He earned a degree in accounting from Grambling. Everson supports the Big Brothers of Arlington, Texas, and the American Heart Association. He and wife Shreill live in Dallas.

Mike Walter ★ 59

LINEBACKER • OREGON • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 238 • BORN: 11/30/60 • D-2 FOR '83

PRO: Mike Walter is making the transition from standup defensive end at Oregon to outside linebacker. His rookie year was spent learning the position and contributing on special teams. "The toughest part is the recognition," Walter says. "Playing defensive end you don't have to be as patient. At linebacker, you have to do a lot more reading." Says linebackers coach Jerry Tubbs, "Mike's a hard worker. It's a tough transition, but he made progress last year." An enthusiastic player and natural leader, Walter displayed characteristics as a collegian that convinced the Cowboys he could be a fine NFL linebacker. "He showed us great football traits, especially mentally," Tom Landry said. "He has quick feet, can backpedal well and has great instincts. If he can make the conversion, he's going to be a very good linebacker." GAMES: 1983 (15).

COLLEGE: A three-year starter at defensive end after being switched from linebacker during his sophomore year, Walter played in 44 consecutive games for Oregon and led the Ducks his final two years in sacks and tackles for losses. Teammates voted him club MVP in 1982 when he captained the squad. That season the first-team All-Pac 10 defensive ends were Walter and Arizona State's Jim Jeffcoat, the Cowboys' 1983 No. 1 draft choice.

PERSONAL: Michael David Walter is a native of Eugene, Ore., where he starred in football, basketball and track at Sheldon High School. Mike returned to Oregon in the offseason to study toward his degree in telecommunications and literature. His hobbies are backpacking, cross-country skiing and fly fishing. He is active with the Toys for Tots program in Dallas.

John Warren ★ 5

PUNTER • TENNESSEE • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 207 • BORN: 11/8/60 • FA FOR '83

PRO: After a three-year search, the Cowboys finally found a punter last year to replace Danny White and allow him to concentrate fully on playing quarterback. John Warren, a free agent from Tennessee, impressed the coaching staff in training camp with his strong leg and high kicks. He opened the season as the replacement for White, who had held the punting job since 1976. In the eighth game, however, against the Raiders (10/23), Warren suffered a freak injury, twisting his right knee while running downfield to cover one of his punts. Warren saw no action during the second half of the season. His best game was against St. Louis (9/17) when he averaged 46.0 yards on five punts, including a long kick of 54 yards. Warren is adept at lofting punts high and out of bounds inside the opponents' 20-yard line. He placed eight punts out of bounds inside the 20 last year. GAMES: 1983 (9).

COLLEGE: Warren averaged 40.3 yards per kick as Tennessee's No. 1 punter his freshman and sophomore years. He backed up All-America Jimmy Colquitt his final two seasons and served as the Vols' "pooch" punter, called on to punt inside the 50. He averaged 37.2 yards per kick his final two seasons for a career average of 39.8 yards. He also played baseball (outfield-catcher) at Tennessee.

PERSONAL: John Sheppard Warren is a native of Jesup, Ga., where he starred in football and baseball at Wayne County High School. John was drafted out of high school by the Cincinnati Reds as a catcher-outfielder but accepted a football scholarship at Tennessee instead. John and wife Karen live in Knoxville, Tenn., in the offseason. John graduated from Tennessee with a degree in education.

Danny White ★ 11

QUARTERBACK ● ARIZONA STATE ● 9th YEAR
HT: 6-2 ● WT: 193 ● BORN: 2/9/52 ● D-3A FOR '74

PRO: Danny White cleared an illustrious place in football history for himself in 1983. In his fourth season as the Cowboys' starting quarterback White broke or tied eight club passing records and finished the season as the No. 2-rated quarterback in NFL history with an 84.2 rating, higher than Roger Staubach's 83.5 career rating and second only to Joe Montana's 90.0. White set club season records last year for passing attempts (533), completions (334), yards (3,980) and touchdowns (29). He also established team records for completion percentage in a game of 87.5 (21-of-24 at Philadelphia 11/6) and for number of completions in a game of 31 (at San Diego 11/13). He tied the club records of five touchdown passes in a game (at the Giants 10/30) and of 12 consecutive pass completions (at Philadelphia 11/6). He also ended the season with a 60.18 career completion percentage, second in league history to Montana's 63.53. Danny took over from Staubach in 1980 and has led the Cowboys to the playoffs in each of his four seasons as the starter, including three straight trips to the NFC Championship Game (1980-81-82). The Cowboys are 45-18 (71.4 percent) under White, including 5-3 in the playoffs. He was the NFC's second-leading passer in 1981 and '82 and in his first Pro Bowl appearance after the '82 season threw the winning touchdown pass in the last minute. White's 63.2 completion percentage in '82 is another club record he owns, giving him at least a share in 11 Cowboys passing records. Danny has directed four dramatic comeback victories. In 1980 he tossed a 28-yard fourth-down TD pass to Tony Hill with 45 seconds left to beat St. Louis 27-24 (11/2), and in the playoffs he threw two TD passes to Drew Pearson in the final 3:40, the winner with 42 seconds remaining, to overcome Atlanta 30-27 (1/4). In 1981 White completed two touchdown passes in the final four minutes to rally Dallas to a 28-27 triumph over Miami (10/25). In last year's opener at Washington (9/5) he threw three touchdown passes and scored on a one-yard sweep, all in the second half, to rally the Cowboys from a 23-3 halftime deficit to a 31-30 victory. Drafted in 1974 with a choice from Houston for Tody Smith and Billy Parks (a trade which also yielded Ed Jones), White joined the Cowboys in 1976 after two years with the World Football League's Memphis Southmen. He completed 183-of-350 passes (52.3 percent) for 2,635 yards and 21 touchdowns for Memphis. Danny also is the Cowboys' all-time leading punter. GAMES: 1976 (14), 1977 (14), 1978 (16), 1979 (16), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9), 1983 (16). Total — 117.

COLLEGE: White finished his career as the NCAA's all-time leading passer. In leading ASU to a three-year record of 32-4, White set seven NCAA passing records. Also a fine runner, he finished second in the nation in total offense in 1973. Danny played the infield for ASU's outstanding baseball team and was drafted by four major league teams — Cleveland, New York Mets, Oakland and Houston. Both Danny and his father, Wilford "Whizzer" White, a former ASU All-America halfback who played for the Chicago Bears in 1951-52, are in the Arizona State Sports Hall of Fame.

PERSONAL: Wilford Daniel White is a native of Mesa, Ariz. (Westwood High), a suburb of Phoenix. Danny is chairman of the annual Danny White/Boy Scouts of America Invitational Golf Tournament. He also promotes the Dallas area Parkinsonism Society, Muscular Dystrophy Association, United Way, Dallas Lighthouse for the Blind, Dallas Citizens Safety Advisory Board and the Arizona National Guard. He was named a 1982 Dallas Father of the Year and the 1983 Miller Cowboys Man of the Year for his community involvement. Danny's hobbies are fishing, singing and playing the piano. He released an album in 1982 on which he sings called "Country Cowboy." Danny, wife Jo Lynn and their four children — Ryan (4/26/73), Geoffrey (1/4/76), Heather (9/3/78) and Reed (7/29/83) — live in Wylie, Texas.

Randy White ★ 54

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • MARYLAND • 10th.YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 263 • BORN: 1/15/53 • D-1A FOR '75

PRO: It is a rare player who, while still at the peak of his abilities, already has fashioned a career good enough to land him in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Such is the case with Randy Lee White, who last season joined Hall of Famer Bob Lilly as the only Cowboys players ever named All-Pro six consecutive years. "Randy White is the premiere defensive tackle in the business," says Tom Landry. "He's got such great intensity and competitiveness. We've never had a player and I've never seen a player, other than probably Ernie Stautner, who could match Randy's intensity from game to game. When Randy White lines up on you, he doesn't care whether you're All-Pro or whether you're a rookie. You're going to get the same treatment. That makes him unique in this game." The Cowboys' strongest player (he has bench-pressed 501 pounds), the one dubbed "Manster" (half man, half monster) by former teammate Charlie Waters, White immediately became one of the NFL's top defensive players in 1977 upon taking over the starting right tackle position following two seasons as a backup middle linebacker. Despite being consistently double-teamed, Randy has been named All-Pro the past six seasons (1978-83) and to the Pro Bowl the past seven (1977-83). In '77 Randy capped his first season as a starter by earning the co-MVP award for Super Bowl XII with Harvey Martin. In '78 White succeeded Martin as the Seagram's Seven Crowns of Sport defensive lineman of the year and also was voted NFC defensive player of the year by UPI and the Kansas City Committee of 101. In '81 Randy was named International Trucks lineman of the year and in '82 the NFL Alumni Association chose White defensive lineman of the year. Last season Randy enjoyed one of his best years, leading the team in QB traps, earning three coaches' game balls and being named defensive MVP by the media in six of the club's 12 victories. "Randy is a unique combination of extreme quickness, speed and strength," says Bob Lilly, who played the same right tackle position as White. Randy tied Martin for the club lead in QB traps in '78 with a career-high 16. Last year at Seattle (12/4) he had a career-best 3½ QB traps in a game. Randy got his first career interception in the 1981 NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (1/10/82). GAMES: 1975 (14), 1976 (14), 1977 (14), 1978 (16), 1979 (15), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9), 1983 (16). Total — 130.

COLLEGE: A ccnsensus All-America at defensive end in 1974, White won both the Outland Trophy and Vince Lombardi Award as college football's top lineman that year. He was the second player selected in the 1975 draft with a choice obtained by the Cowboys from the New York Giants for quarterback Craig Morton. Atlanta selected quarterback Steve Bartkowski before the Cowboys took White.

PERSONAL: Randy Lee White was a football, basketball and baseball star at Thomas McKean High School in his hometown of Wilmington, Del. Randy lives in Dallas and also owns a 22-acre farm in Landenberg, Pa. He enjoys hunting and fishing in his spare time. Randy serves as chairman of the Lake Texoma Celebrity Open Striped Bass Tournament benefitting the Leukemia Society of America. Randy, wife Vicci and daughter Jordan Leigh (5/6/79) live in Dallas. Randy received the 1980 Field Scovell Award for athletic excellence from the Dallas All-Sports Association. He supports the Association of Blind Athletes, the United Way, the American Heart Association and the Dallas County Foster Parents Association.

THE ROOKIES

(1984 Draftees)

CANNON   SCOTT

BILLY CANNON • Linebacker • Texas A&M
Ht: 6-4 • Wt: 231 • Born:10/8/61 • D-1

Outside linebacker Billy Cannon, Jr., is a superior athlete who played four positions for the Texas A&M football team while also developing into a top major league baseball prospect as an Aggie outfielder. He was drafted by the New York Yankees and Los Angeles Dodgers.

A rare combination of size and speed, Cannon, son of former Heisman Trophy winner and pro football star Billy Cannon, played wide receiver his freshman year at A&M, safety his sophomore and junior seasons and outside linebacker his senior year. He returned kickoffs his first two seasons and punts his final three. He earned four letters in football and three in baseball.

"He played linebacker only one year in college," Tom Landry says, "but he played strong safety the year before that and the strong safety plays only five yards off the line of scrimmage. Besides, Cannon is a good fundamental player. He's one of those players who's going to progress rapidly because he's never been a one-sport player. He's never been able to lift weights in the offseason because he's always been playing baseball."

Cannon is the first player from Texas A&M ever drafted by the Cowboys. The irony is that the Texas A&M board of regents president is new Cowboys general partner H. R. "Bum" Bright.

A&M Coach Jackie Sherrill compares Cannon to star NFL linebackers Hugh Green and Rickey Jackson, both of whom he coached at the University of Pittsburgh. "He rates with Green and Jackson and he's bigger than both of them. Billy will be a Pro Bowl player for the Cowboys. He's got speed and quickness and he'll get even bigger with some weight training. He goes after people. He likes to hit. And he's a solid person."

Because of Cannon's speed, Landry said he could play either weak or strong linebacker and should be a solid special teams contributor.

Cannon made a smooth transition from safety to outside linebacker in his senior year. He finished as the Aggies' seventh-leading tackler with 60 stops. He also recovered three fumbles and had four QB sacks. Cannon played in the Japan Bowl and the Hula Bowl all-star games.

From a safety position Cannon ranked fifth on the team in tackles as a junior with 64. He led the secondary with 58 tackles as a sophomore safety. He intercepted three passes in his career. He started six games of his freshman year at wide receiver, catching 11 passes for 118 yards to finish as the Aggies' fourth leading receiver.

Cannon ranked second in the Southwest Conference in kickoff returns in 1980 with a 20.8 yards per return average on 14 returns (291 yards). In 1982 he finished third in the conference in punt returns with a 9.0-yard average on 31 returns (280 yards). In his career he returned 86 punts for a 7.6-yard average and one touchdown and returned 22 kickoffs for a 21.1-yard average.

A native of Baton Rouge, La., Cannon was a two-time all-state performer in football and baseball at Broadmoor High School. His father, Billy, Sr., won the Heisman Trophy in 1959 while playing for LSU, then enjoyed an 11-year pro career with the Houston Oilers (1960-63), Oakland Raiders (1964-69) and Kansas City Chiefs (1970) as a running back and tight end.

The Cannons mark only the third father-son combination both drafted in the first round, following Dub and Bert Jones, and Ed and Brad Budde.

Billy majored in building construction at A&M. His wife's name is Rise.

VICTOR SCOTT • Cornerback • Colorado
Ht: 6-0 • Wt: 192 • Born: 6/1/62 • D-2

A two-time All-Big Eight Selection and a 1983 second-team All-America choice, Victor Scott set Colorado career records with 24 pass deflections and three interceptions returned for touchdowns in four years as a starting cornerback.

Solid in both pass coverage and run support, Scott started 43-of-44 games during his career at Colorado, intercepted 10 passes and also excelled on special teams. He blocked four field goals and two extra point attempts in his final two seasons.

With Dennis Thurman moving from cornerback to safety this year, Scott will compete with veterans Ron Fellows and Rod Hill for the starting right corner position. "We drafted Scott with the anticipation of him starting someday," Tom Landry says. "But he'll have to play very well to beat out our veterans this year. He also has the potential to play safety because of his ability to hit and tackle."

As a senior Scott returned four interceptions for 150 yards, including a 71-yard touchdown return against Kansas State. He was Colorado's defensive captain and MVP, and he played in the Hula Bowl and Senior Bowl all-star games.

Scott led Colorado in interceptions as a junior with four for 69 yards, including two for touchdowns. He earned Big Eight defensive player of the week honors after intercepting three passes, including touchdowns of 30 and 25 yards, at Oklahoma State.

Born in St. Louis, Mo., and raised in East St. Louis, Ill., Scott earned all-league, city, metro and state honors at East St. Louis High School. He was selected to the Chicago Tribune Super 22 all-star team and nominated to play in the state high school all-star contest. He caught six passes for 116 yards while leading his team to victory in the state championship game. He also lettered in basketball.

Scott was obtained with a choice obtained from Houston through Minnesota in the April 13 Butch Johnson-for-Mike Renfro trade.

FRED CORNWELL • Tight End • USC
Ht: 6-6 • Wt: 238 • Born: 8/7/61 • D-3

Fred Cornwell became known as an outstanding blocker and clutch pass receiver in three years as Southern Cal's starting tight end.

A big target with good hands, Cornwell had his most productive season in 1983 when he caught 22 passes for 236 yards and a touchdown. In his career he caught 34 passes for 343 yards and two touchdowns. Cornwell's biggest moment came in 1981 when he caught a seven-yard touchdown pass from John Mazur with two seconds left to give USC a 24-21 victory over Oklahoma at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

A senior co-captain, Cornwell earned second-team All-Pac 10 honors in 1983 and played in the Blue-Gray all-star game.

"Fred has excellent hands and the ability to catch the critical underneath pass," USC Coach Ted Tollner says. "He was also a stabilizing force for our young offense. He knows how to win big games. He's got great maturity, poise and confidence. He's also as good a run-blocking tight end as I saw in the Pac-10."

Born in Osborne, Kan., and raised in Saugus, Calif., Cornwell starred in football, basketball and track (shot put) at Canyon High School. He majored in civil engineering at USC.

STEVE DeOSSIE • Linebacker • Boston College
Ht: 6-2 • Wt: 249 • Born: 11/22/62 • D-4

A big, strong and tough middle linebacker who excelled at stopping the inside run, Steve DeOssie started for four years at Boston College, leading the team in tackles in each of his final three seasons. The day after the draft DeOssie became the first Cowboys draft choice to sign with the club.

Compared in style to the Los Angeles Raiders' Matt Millen, DeOssie was a two-time All-East selection and an Associated Press second-team All-America in 1983. He was chosen to play in the Senior Bowl all-star contest, but did not participate due to an injury.

A Boston College tri-captain in 1983, DeOssie led his team in tackles for the third straight year with 111, although a separated shoulder suffered early in the season slowed him somewhat. He had a career-high 135 tackles in 1982. In his sophomore year he sacked Dan Marino twice and made eight other tackles in a near-upset of Pittsburgh.

DeOssie recovered nine fumbles in his career. Early in his career at BC he played fullback, serving as a blocker in short-yardage situations. He also has experience as a long snapper. He finished his career with 447 tackles.

Growing up in Roslindale, Mass., DeOssie starred in football and baseball (catcher) at Don Bosco High. He almost chose to attend Harvard over BC. Steve and wife Diana have three children, including twins.

STEVE PELLUER   •   Quarterback   •   Washington

Ht: 6-4   •   Wt: 208   •   Born 7/29/62   •   D-5A

Following a disappointing junior season, Steve Pelluer made an impressive comeback in 1983, setting a host of records and earning the Pac-10 offensive player of the year award.

Pelluer led Washington to a single-season total offense mark of 4,365 yards last year. He set six school individual records during 1983, including best completion percentage (67.2) and most consecutive passes thrown without an interception (137).

He was the third-rated passer in the Pac-10 (15th in Division 1A) with 132.2 rating points and fourth-ranked passer in yards per game, 210. Pelluer was victorious in 23-of-29 starts as the Huskies' quarterback.

Pelluer finished as Washington's second all-time leading passer and second leading total offense leader. He completed 436-of-755 passes for 4,603 yards and 30 touchdowns. He was All-Pac 10, All-Coast and honorable mention All-America in 1983. He also played in the Hula Bowl.

As a sophomore in 1981, Pelluer led Washington to the Pac-10 title and a 28-0 Rose Bowl victory over Iowa in which he completed 15-of-29 passes for 142 yards.

Steve's grandfather (Carl Gustafson), father (Arnie Pelluer) and brother (Scott Pelluer) all played football at Washington State. Scott Pelluer was the Cowboys' fourth-round draft choice in 1981 and is now a reserve linebacker with the New Orleans Saints.

Born in Yakima, Wash., and raised in Bellevue, Wash., Pelluer captained the football and basketball teams at Interlake High School. He was a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete in 1979 when he earned all-state honors as a quarterback.

Steve studied architecture at Washington and is active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

The Cowboys drafted Pelluer with a choice from Tampa Bay for linebacker Danny Spradlin.

NORM GRANGER • Running Back • Iowa
Ht: 5-9 • Wt: 221 • Born: 9/14/61 • D-5B

Norm Granger is built like a fullback yet possesses the speed to be considered a breakaway threat. A three-year starter at fullback after being recruited as a tailback by Iowa, Granger earned a reputation as a tough inside runner and an excellent blocker.

Granger gained 1,062 yards and scored five touchdowns on 194 carries in four years at Iowa. His best rushing season came last year when he carried 62 times for 429 yards (6.9 per carry) and two TDs.

He caught 43 passes for 389 yards and two touchdowns in his career, including highs of 25 receptions for 260 yards in 1982. Granger also returned 25 kickoffs in his career for 785 yards and one touchdown. As a freshman he led the Big 10 with a 29.9 yards per kickoff return average (11 returns for 329 yards).

Granger earned AP honorable mention All-Big 10 honors as a sophomore and senior. He was the only Hawkeye ever to captain the team for two years. In Iowa's 1981 Rose Bowl loss to Washington, Granger was the Hawkeyes' only offensive weapon, rushing for 80 yards on 13 carries.

Norm graduated from Barringer High in Newark, N.J., where he was a high school All-America running back, gaining 1,900 yards and 13 TDs as a senior. He also won the Newark Academic Scholar-Athlete Award. He majored in sports medicine at Iowa.

EUGENE LOCKHART • Linebacker • Houston
Ht: 6-2 • Wt: 231 • Born: 4/2/61 • D-6A

Eugene Lockhart, a two-year starter at outside linebacker, led Houston in 1983 with 134 tackles and earned All-Southwest Conference honors and his team's most valuable player award.

A Houston tri-captain in 1983, Lockhart earned AP All-SWC defensive player of the week honors for his role in limiting Texas to less than 100 yards in total offense, although Houston lost 9-3.

A 1981 reserve for the Cougars, Lockhart won a starting berth in 1982 following a strong 1981 finish and fine performance in the spring.

A Crockett, Texas, native, Lockhart was an all-district performer in football, basketball and baseball at Crockett High School. He also ran the mile for the track team and was a National Honor Society member. He majored in marketing at Houston.

Lockhart was selected with a draft choice obtained by the Cowboys from the Chicago Bears for tight end Jay Saldi.

MIKE REVELL • Running Back • Bethune-Cookman
Ht: 5-11 • Wt: 199 • Born: 1/23/62 • D-8

Despite a lack of experience against top competition, Mike "Sweetback" Revell showed Cowboys scouts the size, speed and quickness of an NFL running back prospect.

In eight games in 1983, Revell rushed 75 times for 414 yards (5.5 yard average) and four touchdowns. His long gain was 47 yards. He also caught four passes for 24 yards.

Revell starred at Hernando High School in his hometown of Brooksville, Fla. He was a speech communications graduate at Bethune-Cookman.

JOHN HUNT • Guard • Florida
Ht: 6-4 • Wt: 254 • Born: 11/6/62 • D-9A

John Hunt turned in two solid seasons as a starting offensive guard at Florida, starting the final 22 games of his career and earning second-team All-Southeastern Conference honors in 1983.

Despite suffering a broken hand last Oct. 8 against Vanderbilt, Hunt was considered a big reason for Florida's improved running game in 1983. His coaches valued his consistent level of play.

Hunt is a native of Orlando, Fla., where he attended Edgewater High School. He studied business administration at Florida.

Hunt was chosen by the Cowboys with a draft choice from the Colts for kicker Raul Allegre.

NEIL MAUNE • Guard • Notre Dame
Ht: 6-4 • Wt: 263 • Born: 11/4/60 • D-9B

Neil Maune started the past two seasons at guard for Notre Dame. A physically talented lineman, Maune began his career with the Irish as a defensive lineman. He switched to offensive guard in the spring of 1981 after missing most of 1979 and all of 1980 with a shoulder injury.

A resident of Marthasville, Mo., Maune received high school All-America mention as a two-way tackle at St. Francis Borgia High School in Washington, Mo. He was chosen the Missouri prep lineman of the year in 1978. He majored in government at Notre Dame.

BRIAN SALONEN • Tight End • Montana
Ht: 6-3 • Wt: 229 • Born: 7/29/61 • D-10

Division 1AA All-America Brian Salonen broke or tied four national records en route to becoming the most prolific receiver in University of Montana history.

Salonen's 68 receptions in 1983 tied Dan Ross' 1978 Division 1AA record for tight ends. Salonen set a Division 1AA season mark for tight ends of 6.8 catches per game, and he established Division 1AA career records for tight ends of 151 receptions and 1,882 yards.

Last year Salonen set seven school receiving records. He caught 68 balls for 832 yards and nine touchdowns, including six games with more than 100 yards receiving. All were records. He finished his career with 151 catches for 1,882 yards and 12 touchdowns, also Montana records.

A senior co-captain, Salonen was a three-time All-Big Sky selection and played in the East-West Shrine Game last season. He was a second-team Academic All-America in 1983. He also served as Montana's deep snapper.

At Great Falls High in his hometown of Great Falls, Mt., Brian earned all-state honors in football and basketball. He studied business in college.

DOWE AUGHTMAN • Defensive Tackle • Auburn
Ht: 6-2 • Wt: 264 • Born: 1/28/61 • D-11

Two-time All-Southeastern Conference nose tackle Dowe Aughtman controlled the middle of Auburn's defensive line with his bulk and strength.

In 1983 the senior co-captain finished third on the team in tackles with a career-high 85, including seven for losses of 20 yards. He tied his career high of 11 tackles in a game against Texas and Maryland. In 1982 Aughtman made 75 tackles, nine for losses totaling 37 yards. He fared well in two career outings against Nebraska's Outland Trophy winner, center Dave Rimington, now with the Cincinnati Bengals.

The 1983 Auburn media guide described Aughtman as "a good ole country boy who likes to play football, ride around in a truck and chew tobacco."

Aughtman grew up in Brewton, Ala., where he attended T.R. Miller High School. He was enrolled in adult education at Auburn.

CARL LEWIS • Wide Receiver • Houston
Ht: 6-3 • Wt: 187 • Born: 7/1/61 • D-12

Considered by many to be the world's greatest athlete, Carl Lewis could be the 1980s' version of Bob Hayes, the 1964 Olympic sprint champion who revolutionized pro football as a wide receiver with the Cowboys in the 1960s.

Although he has never played football, Lewis' remarkable athletic ability makes him an intriguing prospect as a receiver and kick returner.

Voted the 1983 Sportsman of the Year by AP and UPI, Lewis has been ranked No. 1 in the world in the 100 meters and long jump by Track and Field News the past four years in a row. He is a potential Olympic Gold Medalist in four events — long jump, 100 meters, 200 meters and 400-meter relays. He has set numerous world and national records during his unparalleled career.

Lewis was raised in Willingboro, N.J. His sister Carol, also a University of Houston track star, is the nation's top-ranked women's long jumper.

Other Cowboys
With Pro Experience

ROD BONE, a 6-2, 196-pound safety from Notre Dame, rejoins the Cowboys after being released in training camp last year. Bone was a free agent in 1983. A Las Cruces, NM native (2/4/61), Bone played all positions in the defensive backfield during his career with the Fighting Irish. Rod was a prep All-America at Mayfield High School in Las Cruces.

BRYAN CALDWELL, the Cowboys' 1983 third-round draft choice, injured a knee during his first week of training camp and spent last season on injured reserve. A 6-4, 248-pound defensive end, Caldwell played on the same defensive line at Arizona State as Cowboys' 1983 No. 1 draft pick Jim Jeffcoat and free agent Mike Langston. After spending 1981 at Mesa Community College regaining his academic eligibility, Caldwell returned to ASU in 1982 and earned second-team All-Pac 10 honors. A native of Westminster, CA (5/6/60), Caldwell was one of the top defensive players in the nation when he came out of Fountain Valley High School in 1978.

MITCH KRENK, a 6-4, 225 pound tight end from Nebraska, was signed as a free agent in 1983 by the Seattle Seahawks. A native of Nebraska City, NE (11/19/59), Krenk joined the Cornhuskers as a walk-on and was named to the National Strength Coaches All-America Team. Mitch caught 18 passes for 250 yards and two touchdowns during his Cornhusker days.

ERIC MORAN, the Cowboys' 1983 10th round draft choice, played with the Los Angeles Express of the USFL last year. He was released prior to the 1984 USFL season. A 6-5, 282 pound offensive tackle, Moran was a second-team All-Pac 10 and All-Pacific Coast selection at the University of Washington in 1982. He entered Washington as a 282-pound defensive tackle and departed 55 pounds later as a two-year starter at offensive tackle. A native of Spokane, WA (6/10/60), Moran's father was a 10th-round draft choice for the New York Giants in 1964 and played defensive tackle for the Giants from 1964-67.

KIRK PHILLIPS, a 6-1, 195-pound wide receiver from Tulsa, spent the 1983 season on injured reserve after injuring his thumb in training camp. A native of Spiro, OK (7/31/60), Phillips was an All-Missouri Valley Conference pick in 1982. In his career he caught 40 passes for 760 yards with a long gain of 70 yards and two touchdowns.

GREGG VELDMAN is a 6-3, 255 pound tight end from Moorhead State who joined the Cowboys as a free agent in 1983. Veldman missed the 1983 season with injuries to his Achilles tendon. A native of St. Paul, MN (7/27/60), Veldman was an All-Northern Intercollegiate Conference selection his senior season at Moorhead State. Gregg caught 85 passes for 1,254 yards and seven touchdowns during his career.

COWBOYS CENTER

AT THE VALLEY RANCH

The Dallas Cowboys and Triland International announced plans on March 27, 1984 for the development of Cowboys Center, the most imaginative real estate project ever undertaken by a sports team.

Cowboys Center will be located on 200 acres in The Valley Ranch, a 2,400-acre, master-planned commercial and residential community in northwest Dallas County.

Cowboys Center will include the club's headquarters and training facility, a visitors center, an executive conference center and hotel, an athletic club and sports medicine clinic, an office park, retail pavilion and condominium community.

Cowboys Center at The Valley Ranch is a joint venture between Triland International, Inc., of Dallas and the Dallas Cowboys Football Club.

The project was conceived in March 1983. During the past year extensive research has been conducted on determination of concepts and feasibility.

Triland Development, Inc., an affiliate of Triland International and developer of The Valley Ranch, has been named managing partner of the venture by the owners. Triland Development is responsible for the design, development and marketing of the project.

Here's a breakdown of the components of Cowboys Center:

COWBOYS HEADQUARTERS:

The Cowboys' new headquarters will include three football fields, locker and training room facilities, meeting rooms, weight training areas, running trails, racquetball and basketball courts and a film lab. All coaching, scouting and administrative offices will be located in the 80,000-square foot building, along with a ticket office, retail merchandise outlet, Cowboys Cheerleader rehearsal studio, offices for the Cowboys Weekly, a press room with a research library plus a variety of lounge areas.

COWBOYS SHOWPLACE:

The Dallas Cowboys ShowPlace will offer an experience of sight, sound and touch celebrating the history of the team. Focal point of the center will be a 70mm IMAX theater programmed to exhibit a Cowboys multi-media presentation as well as other IMAX movies. There will be a variety of displays and other gadgetry that will make the Visitors Center a must for Cowboys fans.

82
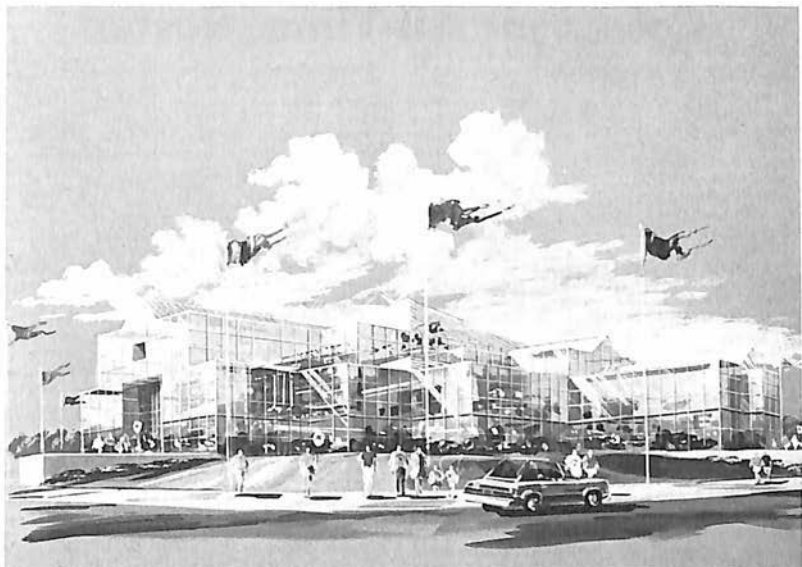

CONFERENCE CENTER:
A 300-room executive conference center and hotel operated by renowned Scanticon International of Princeton, N.J., will provide state-of-the-art meeting and conference facilities.

SPORTS CENTER:
In addition to swimming, tennis, racquetball, basketball, running and exercise equipment, the Cowboys Sports Center will include a sports medicine clinic and a 3,000-seat indoor sports arena. A variety of programs will be offered to visitors and guests.

RESIDENTIAL CENTER:
A condominium community in the southeast corner of Cowboys Center will be integrated into the entire development. It will be located across the street from the outdoor recreational facilities associated with the Sports Center. A landscaped canal will line the western boundary.

OFFICE CENTER:
More than 50 acres of prime office sites will utilize the executive conference center and hotel, the sports club and retail/restaurant pavilion within Cowboys Center as central amenities. The Valley Ranch residential area will provide employers with a potential work force of 25,000.

RETAIL CENTER:
Indoor and outdoor dining, specialty shops and a pedestrian bridge connecting this area to Cowboys Headquarters will highlight the Retail Center. The dining and shopping opportunities will add to the "city-within-a-city" concept.

Historical Highlights

NFL FRANCHISE — Clint Murchison, Jr., and Bedford Wynne were awarded an expansion franchise in the NFL at the annual league meeting in Miami Beach, Fla. The Cowboys were to play as a "swing" team, playing every other team one time during the first season, although listed in the Western Conference standings (January 28).

COWBOYS STOCKED — A player pool was set up in a league meeting at L.A., with each of 12 NFL teams freezing 25 names on its roster and the Cowboys allowed to pick three from each team for a total of 36 veterans. Dallas, once given the list, had to select its 36 players within 24 hours (March 13).

TRAINING STARTS — Rookies report to first Cowboys camp at Pacific U., in Forest Grove, Oregon (July 9).

FIRST PRE-SEASON GAME — The Cowboys, less than six months in existence, get their first test and drop a 10-16 pre-season game to San Francisco in Seattle (August 6).

FIRST HOME GAME — In their Dallas debut, in the Salesmanship Club preseason game, the Cowboys led the world champion Baltimore Colts into the final minute before a 62-yard pass from Johnny Unitas to Lenny Moore gave the Colts a 14-10 victory (August 19).

FIRST VICTORY — In a preseason game at Louisville, Ky., the Cowboys beat New York's Giants, 14-3, with Frank Clarke catching touchdown passes of 73 yards (Eddie LeBaron) and 74 yards (Don Meredith) (August 27).

FIRST LEAGUE GAME — In their first league game, Dallas fell to Pittsburgh, 35-28, with Bobby Layne leading a fourth-period Steeler rally (Sept. 24, Saturday night).

STREAK SNAPPED — Dallas snaps a 10-game loss streak by tying New York, 31-31, at Yankee Stadium (Dec. 4).

TRAINING STARTS — Rookies launch training at new campsite — St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn. (July 9).

FIRST LEAGUE WIN — Scoring ten points in the final 56 seconds, the Cowboys score their first NFL victory, 27-24, over Pittsburgh in the '61 league opener in the Cotton Bowl. Allen Green's 27-yard field goal on the game's final play won it before 23,500 (Sept. 17).

1962

TRAINING STARTS — Team begins training at new campsite — Northern Michigan College in Marquette, Mich. (July 13).

PENALTY HISTORY — For the first time in anyone's memory in an NFL game, points were awarded for a penalty. The Cowboys were detected holding in the end zone on a 99-TD pass from LeBaron to Clarke, and Pittsburgh was awarded a safety. The Steelers eventually won, 30-28 (Sept. 23).

100-YARD FIRSTS — Cowboys Amos Marsh returned a kickoff 101 yards and Mike Gaechter returned a pass interception 100 yards, both plays for fourth-quarter TDs in a 41-19 win over Philadelphia in Dallas. It was the first time in NFL history that two 100-yard runs had been made in the same game, much less by the same team in the same quarter (Oct. 14).

SHIFT TO KANSAS CITY — The rival Dallas Texans of the AFL announce they are moving the franchise to Kansas City (Feb. 8).

CALIFORNIA TRAINING SITE — The Cowboys open training at California Lutheran College in Thousand Oaks, Calif. (July 12).

HOWTON SETS RECORD — Bill Howton broke Don Hutson's all-time receiving mark with a 14-yard catch against Washington (there). Hutson's record was 7,991 yards and the catch gave Howton an even 8,000 yards (Sept. 29).

1964

LANDRY CONTRACT — With one year to go on his original contract, Tom Landry is signed to a ten-year extension, in effect giving him an 11-year pact, possibly the longest in major pro sports history (Feb. 5).

1965

FIRST SELLOUT — An overflow crowd of 76,251 jams the Cotton Bowl for the Cleveland game, notching the team's first home sellout. Cleveland won, 24-17 (Nov. 21).

1966

PLAYOFF BOWL — After defeating New York, 38-20, in the season finale (and winning five of their last seven games) to get into the Playoff Bowl at Miami, the Cowboys fall to Baltimore, 35-3 (Jan. 15).

MERGER — Peace comes to pro football with Cowboys GM Tex Schramm completing two months of negotiations with AFL's Lamar Hunt, merging the two leagues under the NFL banner (June 8).

SCHRAMM ELEVATED — Texas E. Schramm, Vice-President and General Manager of the Cowboys from the beginning, was named President of the club by owner Clint Murchison, Jr., who retained the title of Chairman of the Board.

NEELY CASE SOLVED — Dallas and Houston reached agreement in the Ralph Neely case. Neely remained with Dallas with Houston receiving the Cowboys Nos. 1, 2 and two fifth place picks in the 1967 draft (Nov. 17).

THE CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys won their first championship, capturing the Eastern Conference title with a 10-3-1 record, but lost the NFL Championship Game to Green Bay, 34-27.

TEXAS STADIUM — On Dec. 23, owner Clint Murchison, Jr., formally announced plans to build Texas Stadium in suburban Irving. The stadium, to be financed through a bond-option plan, would be ready for the 1970 season. The stadium would seat a minimum of 58,000.

SECOND CHAMPIONSHIP — Under the NFL's new format, the Cowboys easily won the Capitol Division and defeated Cleveland, Century Division winner, 52-14, in the Cotton Bowl for the Eastern conference championship. However, on Dec. 31 in Green Bay, the Cowboys lost their second bid for an NFL title, falling to the Packers, 21-17, in the 13 degree below weather.

1968

WIN CAPITOL — For the second straight year the Cowboys won the Capitol Division, but for the first time in three years the Cowboys did not win the Eastern Championship, being upset at Cleveland, 31-20, on December 21st. Dallas won the Runner-Up Bowl over Minnesota, 17-13.

1969

TEXAS STADIUM — Ground was broken for Texas Stadium in suburban Irving on January 25, and on June 29 Bert Rose was named general manager of the stadium.

ORIGINALS RETIRE — An era ended for the Cowboys in July. On July 5th at a press conference in Dallas, quarterback Don Meredith, the last of the original Cowboys, announced his retirement. Then, on July 18th, the day the veterans were to report to training camp, all-time rushing great Don Perkins officially retired.

REPEAT CAPITOL WINS — Once again the Cowboys rolled to the Capitol Division Championship with an 11-2-1 season. However, the Cowboys failed to win the Eastern Championship when on Dec. 28, the Cowboys lost to Cleveland, 38-14, in the Cotton Bowl.

FIVE STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys won their last five games to finish 10-4, claim the Eastern Division championship and make the playoffs for the fifth year in a row. They defeated Detroit, 5-0, in the opening round to get a shot at the National Conference championship.

FIRST NFC TITLE — The Cowboys captured the biggest prize of their 11-year history on Jan. 3 when they downed San Francisco, 17-10, for the NFC crown. A 16-13 loss to Baltimore in the Super Bowl Jan. 17 left Dallas with one major goal still unrealized.

TEXAS STADIUM — The Cowboys opened a new era in their sparkling Irving, Tex., home with a 44-21 victory over the New England Patriots on October 24. Duane Thomas scored the first touchdown in the new stadium, a 56-yard run just two minutes and 16 seconds after the opening kickoff. Attendance was 65,708.

SIX STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys won their last seven games to finish 11-3, claim the Eastern Division championship and make the playoffs for the sixth year in a row. They defeated Minnesota, 20-12, in the opening round.

SECOND NFC TITLE — For the second consecutive year, the Cowboys met the San Francisco 49ers in the National Conference showdown. This time Dallas won, 14-3, to qualify for its second straight Super Bowl.

FIRST WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys downed the Miami Dolphins, 24-3, to win Super Bowl VI in New Orleans on Jan. 16. It was the 10th victory in a row for Dallas as Roger Staubach passed for two touchdowns and was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

FIRST 1,000-YARD BACK — Calvin Hill became the first Dallas player to rush for 1,000 yards when he gained 111 on Dec. 9 against the Washington Redskins in Texas Stadium. Hill wound up with 1,036 yards for the season on a record 245 carries.

SEVEN STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys qualified for the NFL playoffs a record seventh consecutive year, their 10-4 record earning them the National Conference Wild Card berth. Roger Staubach passed for two touchdowns in the last 1½ minutes to give the Cowboys a 30-28 victory at San Francisco in the first round. Then, at Washington on New Year's Eve, Dallas was foiled in its bid for a third straight NFL title when the Redskins won, 26-3.

100 VICTORIES — The Cowboys and Coach Tom Landry recorded their 100th victory with a 40-3 Texas Stadium win over the New Orleans Saints on Sept. 24. Landry, the only head coach the Cowboys have had, ended the season with a career mark of 108-80-6 to rank ninth on the list of the NFL's all-time winningest coaches.

EIGHT STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys regained the NFC Eastern Division title with a 10-4 record and broke their own NFL record by reaching the playoffs for the eighth year in a row. Dallas defeated Western Division champion Los Angeles in the first round, 27-16, but fell to Central Division winner Minnesota in the NFC Championship Game, 27-10.

1974

FIRST TOP DRAFT CHOICE — For the first time in their history, the Cowboys had the very first choice in the NFL college draft. The No. 1 pick came to Dallas from Houston in exchange for Tody Smith and Billy Parks. The Cowboys selected Ed "Too Tall" Jones, a 6-9, 260-pound defensive end from Tennessee State.

PLAYOFFS MISSED — The Cowboys' record-breaking string of eight straight years in the NFL playoffs was broken when the club's 8-6 record failed to qualify.

LILLY HONORED — "Mr. Cowboy" was honored on Bob Lilly Day at Texas Stadium at halftime of the Philadelphia game on Nov. 23. It was the first such recognition ever given to a Dallas player. Lilly never missed a game in 14 years with the Cowboys, earning All-Pro honors seven times at defensive tackle before retiring prior to the '75 season.

TEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys' 10-4 record earned them the NFC Wild Card berth in the playoffs. The composite record over 10 straight winning seasons was 101-37-2.

THIRD NFC TITLE — After shocking Minnesota in the first round, 17-14 on Roger Staubach's 50-yard "Hail Mary" pass to Drew Pearson, the Cowboys traveled to Los Angeles for the NFC showdown. Staubach threw four touchdown passes, three to Preston Pearson, and Dallas won, 37-7. Pittsburgh won Super Bowl X on Jan. 18 in Miami, 21-17.

MEREDITH, PERKINS HONORED — Former Cowboys greats Don Meredith and Don Perkins joined Bob Lilly in the "Ring of Honor" at Texas Stadium during halftime ceremonies at the New York Giants game on Nov. 7.

ELEVEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys won the NFC Eastern Division title with their 11-3 record, giving them their 11th straight winning season and 10th playoff berth in that period. A 14-12 first round loss to Los Angeles — the first time Dallas had lost in the first round under the current playoff setup — ended the season.

1977

HOWLEY HONORED — Former All-Pro linebacker Chuck Howley, a Cowboy from 1961 through 1973, became the fourth member of the Ring of Honor. Howley was honored during ceremonies at halftime of the Detroit Lions game on Oct. 30.

TWELVE STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — Getting off to an 8-0 start, their best ever, the Cowboys rolled to a 12-2 record, the championship of the NFC East, and their 12th consecutive winning season. They opened their 11th visit to the playoffs in those 12 years with a 37-7 first-round victory over the Chicago Bears at Texas Stadium.

FOURTH NFC TITLE — Dallas crushed the Minnesota Vikings at Texas Stadium, 23-6, for National Conference crown No. 4 and the right to meet the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XII.

SECOND WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys stopped the Denver Broncos, 27-10, to win Super Bowl XII in New Orleans on January 15, 1978. In the process, Dallas tied Minnesota for most Super Bowl appearances (four) and Green Bay, Miami and Pittsburgh for most Super Bowl victories (two). Defensive linemen Harvey Martin and Randy White were named co-Most Valuable Players in the game.

THIRTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — After a mediocre 6-4 start, the Cowboys won six straight games to finish the expanded regular season with a 12-4 record and their 10th division crown. It marked the Cowboys' 13th consecutive winning season and 12th trip to the playoffs in that span. Dallas rallied to beat Atlanta 27-20 in a divisional playoff at Texas Stadium, sending the Cowboys to their seventh NFC championship game in the past nine years.

FIFTH NFC TITLE — Dallas shut out the Rams in Los Angeles 28-0 in the National Conference title game to advance to the Super Bowl a record fifth time, including three of the last four. In the first Super Bowl rematch, Pittsburgh edged the Cowboys 35-31 for the NFL championship on Jan. 21 in Miami's Orange Bowl.

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY — The Cowboys celebrated their 20th anniversary season at halftime of the St. Louis Cardinals game at Texas Stadium on Oct. 21. Stars from each of those 20 seasons plus Coach Tom Landry were introduced during the halftime ceremonies.

FOURTH STRAIGHT NFC EAST TITLE — Rallying from a mid-season slump, the Cowboys won their final three games to finish with an 11-5 record, their 11th division championship, including the past four NFC East titles, and 14th consecutive winning season. The Cowboys made their 13th trip to the playoffs in those 14 years, but were eliminated by Los Angeles 21-19 in a divisional playoff at Texas Stadium.

STAUBACH RETIRES — At a press conference at Texas Stadium on March 31, quarterback Roger Staubach announced his retirement after 11 record-breaking years with the Cowboys. Staubach held all major Cowboys passing records and was the all-time leading NFL passer.

LILLY ENTERS HALL OF FAME — Bob Lilly, a seven-time All-Pro defensive tackle in his 14-year career with the Cowboys from 1961-74, became the first Cowboys-only player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Enshrined along with Lilly on Aug. 2 at Canton, Ohio, were Herb Adderley, who played for the Cowboys from 1970-72, Jim Otto and Deacon Jones.

FIFTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — Behind new starting quarterback Danny White, the Cowboys rolled to their 15th consecutive winning season with a surprising 12-4 record, tied for best in the league with Philadelphia and Atlanta. The Cowboys lost the NFC East title to Philadelphia on a tie-breaker, but entered the playoffs for the 14th time in 15 years, this time as a wild card team. The Cowboys beat Los Angeles 34-13 at Texas Stadium in the NFC Wild Card Game and rallied past the Falcons at Atlanta 30-27 to advance to the NFC Championship Game at Philadelphia. But the Cowboys lost 20-7 in their bid for a sixth Super Bowl appearance.

LANDRY'S 200th VICTORY — Tom Landry joined George Halas and Curly Lambeau as the only coaches with 200 NFL victories when the Cowboys beat Los Angeles 34-13 on Dec. 28 at Texas Stadium in the NFC Wild Card Game, raising Landry's record to 200-119-6, counting regular season and playoff games.

RENFRO HONORED — Former All-Pro defensive back Mel Renfro, the Cowboys' all-time leading pass interceptor, became the fifth member of the Cowboys' Ring of Honor. Renfro, who played for Dallas from 1964 through 1977, was honored during halftime ceremonies of the Cowboys-Miami Dolphins game at Texas Stadium Oct. 25.

TWELFTH DIVISION CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys regained the NFC Eastern Division Championship, their 12th division title since 1966, with a 12-4 record and tied Oakland's NFL mark of 16 consecutive winning seasons. Entering the playoffs for the 15th time in that span, the Cowboys advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the ninth time in 12 years by routing Tampa Bay 38-0 at Texas Stadium. But for the second year in a row Dallas lost the conference title game. San Francisco scored a last-minute touchdown at Candlestick Park to edge the Cowboys 28-27 for a berth in Super Bowl XVI.

200TH REGULAR-SEASON VICTORY — The Cowboys beat Washington 24-10 at RFK Stadium on Dec. 5 for the club's and Coach Tom Landry's 200th regular-season victory.

SEVENTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys finished the strike-shortened regular season with a 6-3 record to establish an NFL record of 17 consecutive winning seasons. Entering the playoffs for a record-tying eighth straight year and for the 16th time in 17 years, the Cowboys beat Tampa Bay 30-17 and Green Bay 37-26, both at Texas Stadium, to advance to the NFC Championship Game for the third year in a row. But again the Cowboys come up short, losing 31-17 at Washington.

STAUBACH HONORED — Former quarterback Roger Staubach, who led the Cowboys to four Super Bowls, became the sixth member of the Ring of Honor during halftime ceremonies of the Cowboys-Tampa Bay game on Oct. 9.

NEW HEADQUARTERS — Ground was broken on Nov. 29 for the Cowboys' new headquarters and training facility at The Valley Ranch in northwest Dallas County.

EIGHTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys extended their NFL record to 18 consecutive winning seasons with a 12-4 finish. The club also set a league record with its ninth straight playoff appearance, qualifying as a wild card entry. The Los Angeles Rams eliminated the Cowboys from the playoffs, however, with a 24-17 upset victory at Texas Stadium in the NFC Wild Card Game on Dec. 26.

SILVER SEASON — The Cowboys kicked off their 25th anniversary with a news conference at Texas Stadium on Jan. 27. Club President Tex Schramm announced the Cowboys would celebrate their 25th anniversary during 1984 under the theme "Silver Season."

CLUB SOLD — The sale of the Cowboys from the Murchison family to an 11-member limited partnership headed by Dallas businessman H. R. "Bum" Bright was approved by NFL owners on March 19 at the league's annual meeting in Honolulu. The sale was completed on May 18.

COWBOYS CENTER — The Cowboys and Triland International announced plans on March 27 for Cowboys Center, an innovative joint venture that will develop business opportunities in a conference center, Cowboys ShowPlace, athletic club, sports arena, office park, housing, and retail and restaurant outlets on 200 acres at The Valley Ranch, adjacent to the Cowboys' new headquarters.

THE SIDELINES

Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders

Although the Cowboys have had sideline cheerleaders since their first season, the current phenomenon of the Cowboys Cheerleaders began in 1975.

The Cowboys saw the opportunity to develop a more exciting form of sideline entertainment for football fans. A decision was made to increase the size of the cheerleading squad by holding open auditions in the spring of 1976. About 250 women came to Texas Stadium that year. The number of applicants annually now exceeds 2,000.

In capturing the imaginations of people everywhere, the multi-talented Cheerleaders have made numerous national television appearances, including two highly rated made-for-TV movies about the squad and two special "Love Boat" episodes. The Cheerleaders also have appeared at many charity events and state fairs around the nation.

The Cowboys Cheerleaders also are popular around the world. The squad made its first overseas tour in December 1978, a well-received 10-day visit to Japan. Since 1979 the Cheerleaders have made 10 very successful tours of United States military bases in Korea, West Germany, Greece, Turkey, the Philippines, Lebanon and the Indian Ocean for the United Services Organization (USO) and the Department of Defense.

THE COWBOYS BAND

The 28-member Dallas Cowboys Band, a brass arrangement featuring a variety of musical sounds from country and western to rock 'n roll, again will be a central ingredient during Cowboys games at Texas Stadium in 1984. Under the direction of Bill Lively, associate vice president for development at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, the Cowboys Band is a vital part of all Texas Stadium pre-game, halftime and post-game activity. The Cowboys Band also is available for conventions, community concerts and other occasions.

RING OF HONOR

The Cowboys honor former players who made outstanding contributions to the club by inducting them into the Ring of Honor at Texas Stadium. Their names and the years they played are prominently displayed in silver on the wall below the press box at Texas Stadium. Members (and the year inducted) of the Cowboys' Ring of Honor:

1975 — Bob Lilly	1977 — Chuck Howley
1976 — Don Meredith	1981 — Mel Renfro
1976 — Don Perkins	1983 — Roger Staubach

Cowboys on Radio

The Cowboys again in 1984 will have the largest radio network in the National Football League as Texas State Network begins its third season broadcasting Cowboys games to America. With KRLD Radio of Dallas serving as the flagship station, TSN's Dallas Cowboys Network will be carried on 164 stations in 16 states. Play-by-play announcer Brad Sham heads up the broadcast. In addition, TSN will carry all Cowboys games in Spanish on 15 stations in four states via the Dallas Cowboys Spanish Radio Network with broadcasters Armando Quintero and Mario Montez.
