THE MANAGEMENT

Bum Bright
General Partner

H. R. (Harvey Roberts) Bright, better known as "Bum," has smoothly guided the Cowboys into a new era since his limited partnership acquired the club in the spring of 1984.

Bright put together the ownership group and masterminded the complicated purchase of the Cowboys from founder Clint Murchison, Jr. Bright serves as general partner of the limited partnership.

With Bright at the helm, the Cowboys began their second 25 years by moving into their state-of-the-art headquarters and training facility. Bright also guided the renovation of Texas Stadium, including the addition of 118 Crown Suites and the installation of two DiamondVision color scoreboards.

Born in Muskogee, Okla., Bum moved to Dallas with his family when he was eight years old. He earned a degree in petroleum engineering from Texas A&M University in 1943 before serving 2½ years as a captain in the Army Corps of Engineers.

Bright entered the oil business following his military service. He is senior partner of Bright & Company, a Dallas-based oil and gas production firm. He also has extensive holdings in the banking industry.

Bright is chairman of the board of directors of Children's Medical Foundation of Texas and past chairman of the board of regents of Texas A&M. He and wife Peggy live in Dallas. Bum has four children — Carol, Margaret, Chris and Clay.

Tex Schramm
President-General Manager

The trademark stability of the Cowboys' front office team traces to the leadership of the club's first and only general manager, Texas E. Schramm.

Managing partner of the Cowboys' ownership group, Schramm has directed the daily operation of the Cowboys since 1960 when Clint Murchison, Jr., founded the franchise. Schramm is regarded as one of the greatest innovators in pro football history.

A native of Los Angeles with family roots in San Antonio, Texas, Schramm earned a degree in journalism from the University of Texas. He joined the Los Angeles Rams as publicity director in 1947 after two years as a sports writer and sports editor at the Austin American-Statesman. In a 10-year career with the Rams he rose from publicity director, to assistant to the president, to general manager. During his tenure he brought Pete Rozelle into the NFL as the Rams' publicity director.

Schramm left the Rams in 1957 to join CBS Television as assistant director of sports. He put together the first network telecast of the Olympics, but, following those Winter Games of 1960 in Squaw Valley, Calif., Schramm returned to pro football upon being hired by Murchison to run the NFL's new Dallas franchise.

After the Cowboys won Super Bowl XII, Schramm was named NFL Executive of the Year by The Sporting News, and in 1978 he received the Bert Bell Award for outstanding executive leadership in the NFL. Tex serves as chairman of the NFL's Competition Committee and on the executive committee of the NFL Management Council.

Tex and wife Marty live in Dallas. They have three daughters — Mardee, Christi and Kandy. Tex was named a 1987 Father of the Year by the Dallas Father of the Year Committee and the New York based Father's Day Council, Inc.

Gil Brandt
Vice President-Personnel Development

Gil Brandt is the man responsible for finding the football players who have made the Cowboys a winning team for a remarkable 20 of the past 21 years.

Brandt has been the Cowboys' chief talent scout since the club's birth in 1960. He had served as a part-time scout for the Los Angeles Rams under General Manager Tex Schramm in the 1950s. When Schramm took command of the newly formed Dallas Cowboys in 1960, one of the first people he hired was Brandt. Schramm, Brandt and Coach Tom Landry form the triumverate which has guided the Cowboys since 1960.

Brandt helped pioneer many of the scouting techniques used by NFL clubs today, such as computer analysis of prospects, converting basketball players and track athletes into football players and finding top free agent rookies, such as Drew Pearson, Cliff Harris and Everson Walls.

A native of Milwaukee and a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Brandt worked as a baby photographer before his flair of discovering football talent led him into the NFL.

Gil and wife Dot live in Dallas with sons Chuck, Todd and Brig.

Don Wilson
Vice President-Treasurer

Don Wilson has overseen the financial management of the Cowboys since joining the club in 1971 as treasurer.

A native of Tulsa, Okla., Wilson received his bachelor of science degree in business administration from the University of Tulsa in 1955.

Wilson began his accounting career with Arthur Andersen & Co. in Oklahoma City as audit manager from 1955-65. In 1965 he moved to Bath, Maine, to become controller of Bath Iron Works Corporation until 1969.

Wilson served as a vice president of Parkwood Laminates, Inc., in Lowell, Mass., from 1969-71 before joining the Cowboys. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Don and wife Gloria live in Irving, Texas. Don has two sons, Michael and David.

Joe Bailey
Vice President-Administration

Joe Bailey has served as the Cowboys' vice president in charge of administration since 1977. Reporting directly to Tex Schramm on the day-to-day operations of all departments, he also negotiates contracts of all drafted and veteran players. Bailey's career with the Cowboys has included a wide variety of assignments, beginning with four years as a summer training camp aide in the early 1960's.

Bailey joined the Cowboys full time in 1970 as a scout after two years with Merrill Lynch in Washington, D.C. Bailey became the Cowboys' business manager in 1971 and handled that post until 1977 when he was elevated to vice president.

The Washington, D.C., native attended the University of North Carolina on a football-baseball scholarship, graduating in 1968 with a degree in political science. He attended the University of Grenoble, SMU, and took a leave of absence in 1985 to complete the Advanced Management Program of the Harvard University Graduate School of Business.

Joe serves on various boards including NFL Properties, NFL Films and the Plaza National Bank in Dallas. He is a member of the Salesmanship Club of Dallas. Joe and wife Julie live in Dallas with their children — Joe IV, Tara and Tyler.

Bob Ackles
Vice President-Pro Personnel

Bob Ackles joined the Cowboys in July 1986 as the club's first director of pro personnel following 11 years as general manager of the Canadian Football League's British Columbia Lions. He was considered one of the CFL's top administrators.

Ackles is responsible for scouting all NFL players and for dealing with other NFL teams on player personnel matters. He also supplies information on opposing players to the Cowboys' coaching staff.

Bob performed virtually every administrative duty during a 32-year career with the B.C. Lions. He had the unique distinction of joining the club in its first year of operation in 1954 as a 16-year-old waterboy.

He worked his way through college as the Lions' equipment manager and became assistant general manager before being elevated to general manager in 1975. Part of Ackles' responsibilities was keeping tabs on NFL players, including annual visits to NFL training camps. He visited the Cowboys' training camp six times between 1978 and 1985.

Under Ackles' leadership, the Lions became one of the CFL's winningest teams, moved into a new stadium and built a new training facility. In 1985 the Lions won the Grey Cup, emblematic of the CFL championship.

Bob and wife Kay have two sons, Steve and Scott.

THE COACH

The fire still burns brightly for Tom Landry in his 28th season as head coach of the Dallas Cowboys.

His 1986 team finished 7-9, the club's first losing record since 1964, and Landry did not like it.

"That was a terrible stretch we had the second half of last year (when the Cowboys lost seven of eight)," said Landry. "We've never had a stretch like that before in 27 years. . . .

"We've been knocked down before and come back, but we've never been on the skids like last year. And that is bad. That is really bad.

"The toughest thing we are going to have to do is regain confidence."

It comes as no surprise that the Landry method for restoring the team's confidence began with hard work.

"We worked harder in the offseason," he said. "The players worked more, the coaches worked more. We had more activity in the offseason program than we ever had before.

"Coaches worked with players much more than we'd done before. There's no easy way out of this thing."

Accordingly, just before training camp, Landry signed a new three-year contract.

Up until 1986, the Cowboys under Landry had enjoyed an unprecedented 20 consecutive winning seasons. Eighteen of those 20 years saw the Cowboys in the playoffs, and five ended in the Super Bowl.

"I don't know of any team that has come off a long winning streak and then not stayed down for awhile," Landry says. "That's the challenge we have.

"I coach because I enjoy bringing a team back when it's on a downward slope. When players can fight back and bounce back, it gets me excited."

But, as Landry prepared his team for the 1987 season, he knew the excitement would have to wait.

"We've just got to develop a mad temperament," he said. "Do you want to be a losing team or not?"

Thomas Wade Landry was born in Mission, Texas, on Sept. 11, 1924. He was an All-Regional fullback at Mission High School before enrolling at the University of Texas. Following one semester he joined the Air Corps and flew 30 B-17 missions with the Eighth Air Force in World War II.

In November 1945 he was discharged as a first lieutenant and returned to Texas where he became a star fullback and defensive back, earning All-Southwest Conference honors as a junior and co-captaining the Longhorns as a senior. With Landry's help Texas beat Alabama in the 1948 Sugar Bowl and Georgia in the 1949 Orange Bowl.

Landry played for the New York Yankees of the All-America Conference in 1949 before joining the NFL's New York Giants the next year. He was a mainstay in the Giants' defensive secondary through 1955, the last two years as a player-coach. He earned All-Pro honors in 1954.

Following his retirement as a player in 1955, Tom served as the Giants' defensive coach through 1959. Giants Head Coach Jim Lee Howell called him "the best defensive coach in the business."

Coach Landry and wife Alicia, whom he met at Texas, have three children — Tom Jr., an attorney and oilman, Kitty and Lisa. Kitty and her husband, former Texas quarterback Eddie Phillips, have two children.

Landry is an inspirational leader to many because of his principles and achievements. Tom devotes much of his spare time to the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and serves on the Board of Trustees of the National FCA.

In March, 1984, Mission High School dedicated Tom Landry Stadium in honor of its native son. Tom also was named national chairman of the NFL Alumni Association's 1984 Youth of America Week, and he received the 1984 American Exemplar Medal from the Freedom Foundation.

Coach Landry was a national 1983 Horatio Alger Award winner for his inspirational rise to prominence. In 1981 the NFL Alumni Association presented him with its highest honor, the Order of the Leather Helmet, for distinguished service to football.

In 1980 California Lutheran University, home of the Cowboys' annual training camp, established the Landry Medal, awarded annually to a person who has distinguished himself in his profession and serves as an inspiration to American youth.

Landry earned a degree in business at Texas and one in industrial engineering from the University of Houston. He has honorary degrees from California Lutheran (now California Lutheran University); John Brown University; Southwest Baptist College, and Abilene Christian University.

In 1987, he received the Distinguished American Award from the Walter Camp Football Foundation, and the Paul Brown Award from the Touchdown Club of Columbus, Ohio.

THE COACHING STAFF

Neill Armstrong
Research and Development

Neill Armstrong studies and evaluates all players and teams in the NFL. His reports provide the basis for the formulation of the Cowboys' game plans. Neill joined the Cowboys in 1982. He took over the R&D position from Ermal Allen, who held it for 14 years until his retirement in 1984.

Armstrong compiled a 30-34 record in four seasons (1978-81) as head coach of the Chicago Bears before coming to Dallas. Before joining the Bears he was an assistant coach with the Minnesota Vikings for nine years, seven as defensive coordinator.

Armstrong led Edmonton to the Canadian Football League playoffs three times during a six-year reign as head coach from 1964-69. Neill began his professional coaching career with the Houston Oilers in 1962-63 following seven years (1955-61) as an assistant at his alma mater, Oklahoma State.

A native of Tishomingo, Okla. (3/9/26), Armstrong was an All-America receiver at Oklahoma State (then Oklahoma A&M) from 1943-46. He was the Philadelphia Eagles' No. 1 draft choice in 1947. He played on two NFL championship teams in five seasons (1947-51) with the Eagles. He was a two-time all-star in three years with the CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1951, '53-54).

Neill and wife Jane have three children — Neill Jr., David and Gail — and five grandchildren.

Jim Erkenbeck
Offensive Line

Jim Erkenbeck, who in his first year as an NFL coach turned the New Orleans Saints offensive line into one of the best in the league, joined the Cowboys as offensive line coach in January replacing Jim Myers, who retired.

In 1985 the Saints were one of only two teams in the NFL to allow more than 55 sacks (58) and average fewer than four yards per rush (3.9). After Erkenbeck's arrival in 1986 the Saints became one of only four teams to allow fewer than 28 sacks (27) and average more than four yards per carry (4.1).

Prior to joining the Saints, Erkenbeck coached the offensive line of the Philadelphia Stars, who went to the USFL Championship game all three years of the league's existence and won the championship the last two seasons.

From 1972-76 Erkenbeck was the offensive line coach at the University of California where for four of those years (1972-75) he coached with Cowboys pass offense coordinator Paul Hackett.

After leaving California, Erkenbeck began his pro coaching career in the Canadian Football League. He was offensive coordinator at Winnipeg in 1977 and continued in that capacity with Montreal (1978-81) and Calgary (1982).

Following a college career at San Diego State where he earned three football letters and one track letter, Erkenbeck spent four years in the Marine Corps. He started his coaching career with El Capatian High School in San Diego.

His first college coaching experience came under Don Coryell at his alma mater where he coached the offensive and defensive lines from 1960-63. Erkenbeck went on to coach at Grossmont College in San Diego (1964-67), Utah State (1968) and Washington State (1969-71) before moving to California.

The father of two sons, Jeffrey and Jim, Erkenbeck (9/10/31) and his wife Jocelyne live in Roanoke, Texas.

Paul Hackett
Pass Offense Coordinator ● Quarterbacks

Paul Hackett joined the Cowboys in 1986 after three years as quarterbacks/receivers coach of the San Francisco 49ers. Under Hackett's guidance, 49ers quarterback Joe Montana was the NFC's highest-rated quarterback and led the NFC in TD passes in both 1984 and '85. Danny White was leading the NFC in passing in '86 when he suffered a broken wrist midway through the season.

As a senior at UC Davis in 1969 Paul led the Far Western Conference in passing. He began his coaching career the next year at his alma mater before moving on to the University of California in 1972. While at Berkeley Hackett coached All-America Steve Bartkowski, who led the NCAA in passing in 1974, and the late Joe Roth, who led the Pac 8 in passing in 1975.

Following a four-year hitch at Cal, Hackett was named quarterbacks coach at the University of Southern California. With the Trojans he coached Vince Evans and Paul McDonald, who set 17 USC, Pac-10 and NCAA records.

Hackett began his pro coaching career with the Cleveland Browns in 1981. He spent two years as the quarterbacks coach before moving to San Francisco in 1983.

A native of Burlington, Vt. (7/5/47), Paul and wife Elizabeth have two sons — David and Nathaniel.

Al Lavan
Running Backs

Following eight years of coaching in college and the pros, Al Lavan became the Cowboys' running backs coach in 1980. Under Lavan the Cowboys' running game has remained one of the most respected in the NFL.

Lavan coached running backs at Stanford in 1979 after two years at Georgia Tech handling receivers and running backs. He directed defensive backs and special teams for the Falcons in 1975 and '76.

Lavan began his coaching career in 1972 as receivers coach at his alma mater, Colorado State. He moved to Louisville to coach defensive backs in 1973 before being named receivers coach at Iowa State in 1974. The next season he returned to the Falcons as a coach.

A native of Pierce, Fla. (9/13/46), Lavan was a defensive back and place kicker at Colorado State and was drafted in the eighth round by Philadelphia in 1968. He played defensive back for the Eagles in 1968, then for Atlanta in 1969 and '70.

Al and wife Bessie have three children — Travis, Douglas and Maeleeke.

Alan Lowry
Receivers

Alan Lowry was named Cowboys receivers coach in 1987 after five years as their special teams coach and five seasons as defensive backfield coach of his alma mater, the University of Texas.

Lowry is one of the few football players in Southwest Conference history to earn All-Conference honors both as an offensive and defensive star. He was a defensive back at Texas in 1970 and '71 when the Longhorns won a national and two conference championships. Lowry was All-SWC in 1971.

In 1972 Lowry was switched to quarterback and earned conference honors again in leading Texas to a 10-1 season, including a come-from-behind victory over Alabama in the Cotton Bowl.

After receiving his degree in physical education, Lowry served as an assistant coach at Virginia Tech in 1974. He joined the Wyoming staff under Fred Akers in 1975, but resigned that post in the summer of 1976.

Lowry worked for the Cowboys' scouting department in the fall of 1976 before joining Akers' staff at Texas in December 1976.

Lowry is a native of Irving, Texas (11/21/50), home of Texas Stadium. Alan and wife Donna live in Roanoke, Texas with daughter Marta Jean.

Dick Nolan
Defensive Backs

After four years as receivers coach with the Cowboys, Dick Nolan returned to a familiar role as the Cowboys defensive backs coach in 1986, reuniting the original "Doomsday Defense" coaching staff of Nolan and Ernie Stautner. After a year as a player-coach in 1962, Dick coached the Cowboys defensive backs from 1963-67, developing All-Pros Mel Renfro and Cornell Green.

Nolan left the Cowboys to become head coach of the San Francisco 49ers from 1968-75. His teams won the NFC West championship in 1970, '71 and '72. He was NFC coach of the year in 1970.

Nolan joined New Orleans as linebackers coach in 1977 and was head coach of the Saints from 1978-80. Dick was the defensive coordinator of the Oilers in 1981 before returning to Dallas in 1982.

Nolan and Tom Landry were defensive back teammates with the New York Giants in 1954 and '55 when Tom was a player-coach. Nolan also played under Landry in 1956, '57 and '59 when Tom was New York's defensive coach. Nolan played for the Chicago Cardinals in 1958 before returning to the Giants for the next three seasons.

Born in Pittsburgh, Pa. (3/26/32), and raised in White Plains, N.Y., Nolan was a two-way star football player at the University of Maryland from 1951-53. He played offensive and defensive halfback on Maryland's 1953 national championship team.

Dick and wife Ann have six children — Richard Jr., Nancy, Michael, Kelly, Lisa and Jimmy — and three grandchildren.

Mike Solari
Special Teams

Mike Solari, who spent the 1986 season as offensive line coach and offensive coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh, joined the Cowboys as special teams coach in 1987.

Solari, who also helps Jim Erkenbeck with the offensive line, directed a Pittsburgh attack that averaged 371.7 yards per game in 1986.

After becoming offensive line coach at Cincinnati in 1981, Solari moved on with head coach Mike Gottfried in 1983 to Kansas and in 1986 to Pittsburgh where he was given the added responsibilities of offensive coordinator.

Following an outstanding career at San Diego State where he was named most valuable offensive lineman and received a National Football Foundation Hall of Fame Award for his academic and athletic excellence, Solari began his coaching career at Mission Bay High School in 1976 working with the offensive line and directing the wrestling team.

He joined the college ranks in 1977 as offensive line coach at Mira Vista Junior College in Oceanside, Calif. Solari then moved down the coast to U.S. International in San Diego in 1979. The following season he coached the offensive line at 1980 NCAA Division II champ Boise State.

A native of Daly City, Calif. (1/16/55), Solari and wife Patti have two daughters, Tamara and Stephanie.

Ernie Stautner
Defensive Coordinator ● Defensive Line

Under the direction of Pro Football Hall of Famer Ernie Stautner, the Cowboys consistently field excellent defenses and All-Pro defensive linemen like Bob Lilly, George Andrie, Harvey Martin, Randy White, Ed Jones and John Dutton.

The Cowboys' famed "Doomsday Defense" began to emerge shortly after Stautner's arrival as defensive line coach in 1966. Ernie also helped fashion "Doomsday II," which carried Dallas to its second Super Bowl title in 1977.

Stautner was an All-Pro defensive end and tackle with the Pittsburgh Steelers where he played for 15 years (1950-64) despite being relatively small at 6-0, 230 pounds. A veteran of nine Pro Bowls, he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1969, his first year of eligibility. In 1982 he was voted to the Steelers' 50th anniversary team.

Ernie was born in Cham, Bavaria (4/20/27), but grew up in Albany, N.Y. Following a World War II Marine Corps hitch (1943-46), he enrolled at Boston College and developed into a two-way star lineman.

Ernie directs the annual Ernie Stautner Football Camp for Boys every June at Texas Stadium.

Ernie has three children — Joe, Terri and Carol.

12

Jerry Tubbs
Linebackers

The only original Cowboys player still with the club is Jerry Tubbs, who came to Dallas in the 1960 expansion draft from the San Francisco 49ers.

Jerry was the Cowboys' first starting middle linebacker and one of four in club history. As a coach he developed his successors at the critical middle spot, Lee Roy Jordan, Bob Breunig and Eugene Lockhart. Tubbs, Jordan and Breunig all played in the Pro Bowl.

Tubbs played for the Cowboys for eight seasons (1961-67), serving as player-coach the last two. He was the Cowboys' first All-Pro and Pro Bowl linebacker (1962) and was known as one of the most aggressive players in the game.

Jerry has coached four Pro Bowl linebackers in Dallas — Jordan, Breunig, Chuck Howley and Thomas Henderson.

Born in Breckenridge, Texas (1/23/35), Jerry was inducted into the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame in 1971. He was an All-America center-linebacker for Bud Wilkinson's unbeaten Oklahoma teams from 1954-56. Tubbs was the Walter Camp Award winner in 1956 as the nation's outstanding player.

In '85 Sooners Illustrated magazine ranked Tubbs No. 4 on the list of the 10 all-time greatest Oklahoma football players.

Tubbs was drafted in the first round by the Chicago Cardinals in 1957 and also played for the 49ers before coming to Dallas.

Jerry and wife Marlene have two children — Alan and Kayla.

Bob Ward
Conditioning

Dr. Bob Ward has Cowboys players enthusiastically participating in his innovative conditioning programs, which include weightlifting, aerobic conditioning, martial arts, flexibility training and nutrition.

Working with computers and emphasizing futuristic concepts, Ward directs the Cowboys' voluntary offseason conditioning program, using biomechanics to devise individual programs for each player. He also supplies each player with a training program during the season.

Ward was track coach for 11 years at Fullerton College in California before joining the Cowboys in 1975.

A graduate of Whitworth College in Spokane, Wash., Ward was an NAIA Little All-America in football and competed at the National NAIA track meet in the shot put and discus. He received his master's degree in physical education from the University of Washington and his doctorate from Indiana University.

Bob has trained extensively in the martial arts and taught Cowboys players various martial arts techniques that can be used in football. A member of Delta Force, a U.S. Army think-tank, he founded the National Association of Speed and Explosion with George Dintiman.

A native of Huntington Park, Calif. (7/4/33), Bob and wife Joyce have two children — Shannon and Erin.

13

DON COCHREN   KEN LOCKER   BUCK BUCHANAN

DON COCHREN, Trainer

Don Cochren joined the Cowboys in 1965 after experience in college, military and Canadian Football League training.

A graduate of Purdue, Cochren earned his physical therapy certificate at Pennsylvania. He was trainer at Case Institute (now Case-Western Reserve) in Cleveland for two years, with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL for four years and at University of New Hampshire for one year before coming to Dallas. He also served as a physical therapy officer in the Air Force for two years.

Don was one of 28 trainers selected from colleges and professional sports teams to serve the United States team at the 1980 Winter Olympics in Lake Placid, N.Y. In 1984 Don received the 25-year honor award from the National Athletic Trainers Association.

A native of Princeton, Ind. (2/6/32), Don and wife Jan have four children — Jan, Scott, Wendy and Chris.

KEN LOCKER, Assistant Trainer

Ken Locker works with Don Cochren and supervises the Cowboys' medical rehabilitation program. Locker came to the Cowboys in 1973 after four years as assistant trainer and interim head trainer at North Texas State University.

Locker received his master's degree in physical education from Texas Woman's University. He served two years as trainer of World Championship Tennis, traveling with the men's tour in 1975 and '76.

In 1982 Ken was trainer for NBC's "Survival of the Fittest" competition in New Zealand. He served as a group coordinator of the Dallas Blood Center and was on the executive board of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society.

Ken is a native of Seminole, Texas (7/23/51). He and wife Pam live in Roanoke, Texas, with daughters Baylee Arrena and Berkley Anne.

BUCK BUCHANAN, Equipment Manager

William T. "Buck" Buchanan joined the Cowboys in 1973 after supervising athletic programs in the Air Force for 20 Years.

SMSgt. Buchanan was a non-commissioned officer in charge of athletics and programs at the U.S. Air Force Academy Prep School in Colorado Springs for four years. He was awarded the Bronze Star for his performance during a 1968-69 tour of duty in Thailand.

Buck was born in Ballinger, Texas (5/24/33). He and wife Geraldine have two children — Bucky and Julie and a grandson William Thomas, II.

What To Look For In 1987

The Cowboys winning their 22nd league opener in the past 23 seasons. Dallas holds the NFL record of 17 straight opening-game victories from 1965-81. The Cowboys are the best opening-day team in NFL history with a 22-4-1 (.833) record.

The Cowboys returning to the playoffs for the 11th time in the past 13 years and the 19th time in the past 22 years. Dallas holds the NFL record of nine consecutive playoff appearances from 1975-83.

The Cowboys improving their all-time Texas Stadium record of 100-29 (.775), including playoff games from 1971-85. Dallas has sold out 19 straight games at Texas Stadium and 87 of the past 93 games since 1976.

The Cowboys improving their NFC-best 39-18 (.684) record against the AFC in games against AFC East foes Buffalo, Miami, New England and the N.Y. Jets.

The Cowboys having a winning record for the 21st time in the past 22 seasons. The team's 20 straight winning seasons from 1966-85 is the longest ever in the NFL and the third longest ever in pro team sports behind the New York Yankees' 39 straight winning seasons from 1926-64 and the Montreal Canadiens' 32 in a row from 1951-52 to 1982-83. The Washington Redskins own the longest active streak of winning seasons in the NFL at five.

Dallas improving on its 14-4-1 (.763) record on Thanksgiving Day. In the game immediately following the Thanksgiving Day game, the Cowboys' record is 16-3 (.842). In all games following the Thanksgiving Day game, Dallas has a record of 37-19 (.661).

Tom Landry improving his career record of 260-157-6, including playoffs. Only the late George Halas (325 victories) and Miami's Don Shula (263) have more NFL victories than Landry.

Tony Dorsett insuring his spot among the best running backs in NFL history. Currently fourth on the all-time rushing list with 11,580 yards, he needs 540 yards to catch Franco Harris in third place and 732 yards to catch Jim Brown in second place. Tony already is second to Walter Payton in rushing-receiving yards with 14,825. Dorsett needs 591 total yards to catch Jim Brown in second place on the NFL's all-time combined yards list, which includes return yardage. Tony also is tied for ninth on the NFL's all-time TDs rushing list with 71. Dorsett and Payton are the only two backs in NFL history to rush for more than 11,000 yards and catch more than 360 passes each. Tony is seventh on the NFL's list of all-time pass receivers among running backs. Dorsett needs 37 receptions to become only the fourth running back in NFL history to catch 400 passes.

Danny White breaking several team career passing records. Danny enters the 1987 season with career totals of 2,546 attempts, 1,517 completions, 19,068 yards and 142 touchdowns. Roger Staubach holds all four records with 2,958 attempts, 1,685 completions, 22,700 yards and 153 touchdowns. Danny needs 932 passing yards to become only the second Cowboys player to pass for 20,000 yards. With Danny White as the starting QB the Cowboys are 64-29 (.688), 40-9 (.816) at Texas Stadium.

Randy White earning All-Pro honors for the ninth year to extend his club record and being named to the Pro Bowl for the tenth year. Bob Lilly was named to a club-record 11 Pro Bowls. Randy also has started a club-high 108 straight games.

Doug Cosbie becoming the Cowboys' all-time leading receiver among tight ends. Cosbie needs 16 catches to move past Billy Joe DuPree, who caught 267 passes. Cosbie also needs 370 receiving yards to match DuPree's 3,565 career yards, a club record for tight ends.

THE PLAYERS

DOUG COSBIE

Vince Albritton ★ 36

PRO: Vince Albritton is the type of player Tom Landry wants in his secondary. "What we are going to stress this year is aggressive tackling," says Landry. "Vince is a hitter and a tackler and that's what we're looking for." Albritton recorded 42 tackles last season, more than doubling the total from his first two years while playing mainly as a linebacker in the 4-0 pass defense. In his first career start at strong safety in place of Bill Bates vs. Washington (10/12), Albritton had four tackles and recovered a fumble to set up a Dallas TD. Playing most of the second half against the Redskins in Washington (11/23) Albritton netted five tackles and forced a fumble. He earned a special teams game ball from the coaches for his performance against St. Louis (10/26). After earning a spot on the roster as a free agent defensive back in 1984, Albritton was moved to linebacker in 1985. Vince pulled a hamstring in training camp in 1985 and was placed on injured reserve after the San Diego preseason game. He was re-activated with seven games remaining and played well on special teams and as a linebacker in the 4-0 defense. As a rookie Albritton appeared in all 16 games on special teams and in the 4-0 defense. GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (16/0), 1985 (7/1), 1986 (16/1). Total — 39/2.

COLLEGE: Vince played safety, linebacker and cornerback at Washington. Playing strong safety his senior year, he led the Husky secondary in tackling and played in the Japan Bowl. An honorable mention All-West Coast and second team All-Pac 10 pick in 1983, Albritton was a teammate of Steve Pelluer at Washington.

PERSONAL: Vince Denader Albritton attended McClymonds High School, where he concentrated mostly on baseball. He led the football team to the Oakland Athletic League title in his senior year when he intercepted a league-leading and school-record eight passes, earning him All-OAL honors. He majored in speech communications at Washington.

Brian Baldinger ★ 62

PRO: After missing the 1985 season recovering from knee surgery, Brian Baldinger returned in 1986 to provide solid backup support to the offensive line. A versatile performer who has played every offensive line position plus tight end since joining the Cowboys, Baldinger opened camp last year at guard before moving to backup center midway through the summer. Last season he lined up as a third tight end in short-yardage situations. He caught a 27-yard pass from that position against Houston in preseason. "We've got a good swing man in Baldinger, who's a competitor and a good person for your team," Tom Landry says. "He can play center, guard and even tackle if we need him there." One of the team's hardest workers, Baldinger was in the thick of the battle for a starting guard spot in 1985 training camp when he was injured. When regulars were injured in 1984, Baldinger started two games at guard and two at tackle, acquitting himself well and catching the coaches' attention. GAMES/STARTS: 1982 (4/0), 1983 (16/0), 1984 (16/4), 1985 (IR), 1986 (16/0). Total — 52/4.

COLLEGE: Baldinger was an All-Coastal Conference tight end at Nassau Community College on Long Island before transferring to Duke, where he switched to guard. Brian started 11 games his senior year and was considered the most improved player on the squad.

PERSONAL: Brian David Baldinger (BALL-ding-er) of Massapequa Park, N.Y., hails from an extremely athletic family. His father Jim played football at Navy and brothers Rich and Gary, both Wake Forest products, play for the Kansas City Chiefs. Brian participated in football, basketball and track at Massapequa High School and is one of the stars of the Cowboys' off-season basketball team. He received his degree from Duke in psychology, has a residential real estate license and owns thoroughbred race horses. Brian donates his time to the Special Olympics in Bonham and Dallas, the Dallas March of Dimes, and he has spoken on behalf of the "Just Say No" anti-drug campaign.

Gordon Banks ★ 87

WIDE RECEIVER • STANFORD • 5th YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 173 • BORN: 3/12/58 • FA FOR '85

PRO: Gordon Banks went into training camp last year as a relative unknown quantity to the Cowboys coaches. He had played in three games, including the Rams playoff game, as a punt returner, but little was known about his abilities as a receiver. "We just didn't get to know Gordon in 1985," says Tom Landry. "That's why we were a little surprised when he started doing so well in practices at training camp. He's a hustler, works hard and does everything you want him to do." Banks impressed the coaches so much that they made him a starter in the season opener against the Giants, in place of injured Mike Renfro. He caught 15 passes for 178 yards before Renfro returned to the lineup in game six. Against St. Louis (9/29) Banks caught four passes for 49 yards to earn an offensive game ball from the coaches. He also turned in a 56-yard kickoff return, the clubs' longest of the year, while filling in for Robert Lavette. In his final game as a starter against Denver (10/5) Banks caught a season-high five passes for 40 yards. After taking over the punt return duties in the season's seventh week, Banks went on to lead the team with a 5.9 average including a season-long 20-yard return vs. the Giants (11/2). Dallas signed Banks with two games remaining in the 1985 regular season. The only player to catch a pass in all 54 USFL games, Banks finished his career as the Oakland Invaders' all-time leading receiver with 187 catches for 2,907 yards in three years. With a career-high 64 catches in 1984, Banks caught over 60 passes in each of his three USFL seasons. He had a career-high 1,115 yards receiving in 1985. Banks was signed as a free agent out of college by the New Orleans Saints, where the head coach his rookie year was current Cowboys defensive backs coach Dick Nolan. He played two years with the Saints before he was released during training camp in 1982. GAMES/STARTS: 1980 (7/0-N.O.), 1981 (6/1-N.O.), 1985 (2/0), 1986 (16/5). Total — 31/6 (18/5-Dallas)

COLLEGE: Banks was a four-year letterman in both track and football at Stanford where he recorded a 10.33 100-meter dash. He started opposite All-America Ken Margerum at wide receiver for the Cardinal.

PERSONAL: A native of Los Angeles, Calif., Gordon Gerard Banks attended Loyola High School. He is president of GBI Enterprises, a Dallas company dealing in gold and silver commodities. He serves on the Board of Directors of the Doug Cosbie Youth Foundation and the David Albritton Finally Free Outreach program, which speaks out against drug abuse. A member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Banks earned his degree in political science from Stanford. Gordon lives in Carrollton, Tex. with his wife Derozette.

Bill Bates ★ 40

SAFETY • TENNESSEE • 5th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 204 • BORN: 6/6/61 • FA FOR '83

PRO: When Tom Landry outlined his goals for the Cowboys' defensive secondary in 1987, his words must have made Bill Bates very happy. "We've got a lot of experience in the secondary," said Landry, "but what we're going to stress this year is aggressive tackling. We don't care about the finesse guys. We want only guys who are aggressive." Landry sounded as if he were describing Bates. Joining the club as a free agent in 1983, Bill quickly made a name for himself on special teams and was the NFC's special teams representative on the '84 Pro Bowl team. Last year, Bates was ready to make a serious bid for the starting strong safety position held by Dextor Clinkscale. When Clinkscale never reported (ending up in Indianapolis), Bates was ready and started 15 games. He played the first half of the season recovering from a broken finger suffered in the opener against the Giants, and missed the first Washington game with a severely sprained ankle that bothered him the rest of the year. Despite all that, Bill trailed only free safety Michael Downs in total tackles in the secondary, and led all defensive backs with 2½ quarterback sacks. "Bill Bates is a great kid who plays hard and tackles well," says Landry. "He'll improve each year because he works at it. He'll hit anybody and, boy, is he a competitor. He's the type of player you need on the field." GAMES/STARTS: 1983 (16/1), 1984 (12/2), 1985 (16/0), 1986 (15/15). TOTAL: 59/18.

COLLEGE: Bates played both safety positions in four years as a starter at Tennessee. He was named second-team All-Southeastern Conference his junior and senior years. Bates was known as the Vols' hardest hitter, surest tackler and as a team leader. He intercepted nine passes and recovered six fumbles in his career.

PERSONAL: William Frederick Bates was born and raised in Knoxville, Tenn., where he excelled in football, basketball and as a sprinter on the track team at Farragut High School. He was all-state in football and basketball. A 1985 NFL Man of the Year finalist, Bill supports the United Way, the Dallas-area Boys Clubs, the Special Olympics in Tennessee, the United Children's Fund of Dallas, the Dallas Wednesday's Child Program benefitting orphans and the March of Dimes. He also serves as a spokesman for the Dallas-Fort Worth Ronald McDonald Houses. Bill and wife Denise, a fashion model, live in North Dallas.

Kevin Brooks ★ 99

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • MICHIGAN • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 273 • BORN: 2/9/63 • D-1 FOR '85

PRO: Kevin Brooks appeared on his way to winning the starting defensive left tackle position last summer when his season was derailed by a dislocated kneecap suffered in a preseason game at San Diego. Surgery sent him to the injured reserve list for the first seven games. He returned to the active roster on Oct. 25 but played a backup role through the final nine games. After his impressive showing last summer, Brooks again figured prominently in Tom Landry's plans for 1987. "We've aged in the defensive line and this is where we must improve," Landry says. "That's why Kevin Brooks has to be a starter this year. He's a young guy with great physical assets. He can make a big impact if he can stay healthy and work." Brooks is capable of playing any of the defensive line positions. He worked at all four spots during his rookie year. GAMES/STARTS: 1985 (11/0), 1986 (9/0). Total — 20/0.

COLLEGE: After spending his freshman year as a 6-4, 215-pound outside linebacker, Brooks matured physically and was switched to defensive tackle. He was a three-year starter, leading the Wolverines his senior year in tackles for losses (13) and sacks (6).

PERSONAL: Born and raised in Detroit, Kevin Craig Brooks was an All-America, all-state and team MVP his senior year at MacKenzie High School. He was a member of the National Honor Society and received his school's scholar-athlete award. He earned his degree from Michigan in pre-law. Kevin supports the Big Brothers program in Dallas and speaks on behalf of the Justice Department's "Just Say No" anti-drug program. He and wife Sonja live in Irving, Texas.

Thornton Chandler ★ 85

TIGHT END • ALABAMA • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 245 • BORN: 11/27/63 • D-6A FOR '86

PRO: The sleeper of the Cowboys' 1986 college draft was tight end Thornton Chandler, whom Dallas selected in the sixth round. Known mainly for his blocking ability in Alabama's run-oriented offense, Chandler impressed everyone with his pass-catching skills early in training camp. "Thornton Chandler was a pleasant surprise," says Tom Landry. "He's a good receiver in the short to medium range and he complements Cosbie well because he's a good blocker." The fifth tight end taken in the 1986 draft, Chandler's first two pro catches went for touchdowns. He missed the Denver game (10/5) due to an ankle injury. GAMES/STARTS: 1986 (15/1).

COLLEGE: Thornton Chandler finished third on the Alabama squad with 16 catches for 244 yards in 1985 and was considered one of the most improved players on the Crimson Tide. In three seasons Chandler averaged 15.8 yards per catch (32-504) including a career-long 52 yarder as a sophomore against Mississippi in 1983. He played at Florida A&M as a freshman in 1981 before transferring to Alabama.

PERSONAL: A native of Jacksonville, Fla., Thornton Greene Chandler was an All-America tight end at Raines High School. As a senior he caught 10 passes for 170 yards and two touchdowns against Lake City. Chandler's father Tommy was a defensive end on the same Matthew Gilbert High School team as former Cowboys receiver Bob Hayes. Chandler's father and Hayes also played together at Florida A&M. Thornton worked toward his degree in recreation administration at Alabama in the offseason. He has a son, Thornton Chandler, Jr. (6/10/80).

Darryl Clack ★ 42

RUNNING BACK • ARIZONA STATE • 2nd YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 218 • BORN: 10/29/63 • D-2 FOR '86

PRO: Darryl Clack made the best of every opportunity presented him in 1986. He earned kickoff return duties along with Robert Lavette in training camp and responded by averaging 22.2 yards per return. He would have placed fifth in the NFC with one more return, which would have qualified to be among the league leaders. Over a two-game stretch against San Diego (11/16) and Washington (11/23), Clack averaged 36.3 yards, including returns of 46 and 51 yards. Against Detroit (9/14) Clack saw some time at fullback late in the game. He again took advantage of the playing time by averaging 4.8 yards per rush on three carries and catching an 18-yard pass. The coaches noticed Clack's talents and promoted him to second-string tailback in the offseason. "Darryl has great ability," says Tom Landry. "He's fast, he moves like a back, and he's got good size. He's also a great receiver." GAMES/STARTS: 1986 (16/0).

COLLEGE: A four-year starter and two-time All-PAC 10 selection, Clack suffered a fractured fibula in the second game of his senior year and missed the final seven games of the regular season. He rushed for 1,052 yards and caught 32 passes for 385 yards as a junior. Clack became the first player in Arizona State history to gain over 100 yards rushing and receiving in the same game.

PERSONAL: A native of San Antonio, Texas, Darryl Earl Clack moved to Security, Colorado, following the eighth grade. He earned all-state football honors, was an eight-time Colorado dash champion and lettered in basketball at Widefield High School. A member of the Sun Devils track team for three years, Clack returned to Arizona State in the offseason to work on his degree in physical education. While in Phoenix he also spoke to area high schools about staying in school and staying away from drugs.

Doug Cosbie ★ 84

TIGHT END • SANTA CLARA • 9th YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 238 • BORN: 3/27/56 • D-3 FOR '79

PRO: There were plans in 1987 for a revival of The Cosbie Show, which proved such a big hit for the Cowboys a few seasons ago. Last year Doug Cosbie's production fell more than 50 percent, mainly because of Herschel Walker's extensive use as a receiver. But Tom Landry, who calls Cosbie "one of the best tight ends in football," says, "We'll use Cosbie a lot more this year. He's an excellent pass-catcher who has already proven what he can do." Doug was voted to three straight Pro Bowls (1983-84-85) and set a team record for receptions by a tight end in each of those seasons. He also owns the club season mark for receiving yards by a tight end, 793 in 1985. A 1986 team co-captain, Doug is the Cowboys' seventh all-time leading receiver and is closing fast on the No. 6 spot held by the man he succeeded, Billy Joe DuPree (267-3,565). In 1984 Cosbie led the team with 60 receptions. In '83 he broke by four DuPree's 1976 team record for catches by a tight end of 42. In '82, when Cosbie took over the starting job, he led NFC tight ends with 30 catches. Doug shared the position with DuPree as a play messenger in 1981. In the NFC Championship Game that season he caught a 21-yard TD pass to send the Cowboys ahead of San Francisco 27-21 in the fourth quarter. A Dallas newspaper once described Cosbie as "the consummate Cowboy - the diplomat, the hard worker, the willing learner, the unknown collegiate with the unlimited talent, the draft find." Doug was the fourth tight end selected in 1979 draft after Kellen Winslow (San Diego), Dan Ross (Cincinnati) and Ronnie Lee (Miami). He was taken with a choice obtained in a trade with Seattle for Bill Gregory. Doug has not missed a game in his career. GAMES/STARTS: 1979 (16/1), 1980 (16/0), 1981 (16/0), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/16), 1986 (16/15). Total — 121/73.

COLLEGE: Cosbie caught 120 passes for 1,721 yards and 10 touchdowns in four years at Santa Clara, three as a starter. In his senior year he served as team captain and was voted the club's offensive MVP and honorable mention All-Pacific Coast. He also attended Holy Cross College in Worcester, Mass., and DeAnza Junior College in Cupertino, Calif.

PERSONAL: Douglas Durant Cosbie is a native of Mt. View, Calif., where he attended St. Francis High and played football, basketball and track. Doug was the 1984 Cowboys winner of the NFL Man of the Year contest, which recognizes the NFL's top citizen-athletes. Doug gives his time to a variety of civic causes, including the Youth for Tomorrow Home in Roanoke, Texas, and the John Weber Ministries of Dallas, the Special Olympics for the handicapped, Multiple Sclerosis, the American Heart Association and Cystic Fibrosis. Doug also is forming the Doug Cosbie Youth Clinic for troubled adolescents and their families in the Dallas area. Doug has a degree in marketing. He enjoys horseback riding. He and wife Sherry live in McKinney, Texas, with children Matthew Douglas (8/19/80), Kari Kirrene (7/2/83) and Andrew Richard (8/17/86), who is called "Drew" after former Cowboys receiver Drew Pearson.

LINEBACKER ● BOSTON COLLEGE ● 4th YEAR
HT: 6-2 ● WT: 245 ● BORN: 11/22/62 ● D-4 FOR '84

PRO: Steve DeOssie's play on special teams and in goal-line situations has made him a familiar figure to Dallas fans despite his backup role at middle linebacker. The Cowboys' biggest linebacker and a rough-and-tumble player, Steve has been involved in many a spectacular collision during his pro career. "Steve DeOssie is big, smart and mobile," says Tom Landry. "He's got a chance to do something at middle linebacker. He's already excellent on special teams and on our goal-line defense because he's an aggressive hitter." GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (16/0), 1985 (16/0), 1986 (16/0). Totals — 48/0.

COLLEGE: DeOssie was a four-year starter at middle linebacker for Boston College, earning All-East honors twice and being named second team AP All-America in 1983. A captain his senior year, Steve was the Eagles' leading tackler from 1981 through '83.

PERSONAL: Steven Leonard DeOssie and his wife Diana have three children — Nichole (5/24/83), and twins Zak and Christina (5/25/84). Steve was an All-State football, basketball and baseball player at Don Bosco High School in Roslindale, Mass. Steve works with the Winter Special Olympics in New Mexico and the Big Brothers program in the Dallas area. He and his wife also contribute their time to the American Red Cross in Dallas. DeOssie also enjoys motorized hang gliding.

Tony Dorsett ★ 33

RUNNING BACK ● PITTSBURGH ● 11th YEAR
HT: 5-11 ● WT: 189 ● BORN: 4/7/54 ● D-1 FOR '77

PRO: After a 1986 season spent battling unfamiliar leg injury gremlins, Tony Dorsett looked ahead to 1987 and a charge at some memorable names in the NFL record book. Dorsett entered the '87 campaign with 11,580 career rushing yards to rank fourth among the league's all-time running backs behind Walter Payton, Jim Brown and Franco Harris. Tony needed 541 yards to pass Harris (12,120) and 733 to overtake the legendary Brown (12,312). Payton, of course, keeps adding to his record total at Chicago. The man Tom Landry calls "the best running back for his size I've ever seen" was slowed by ankle and knee injuries in 1986 but still led the Cowboys in rushing for the 10th consecutive season. Dorsett underwent arthroscopic surgery on both knees Jan. 23, 1987 (his "11,000-yard checkup"), and was a full-speed participant in the Cowboys' offseason conditioning program. Tony has been a remarkably durable performer throughout his career, missing only three games in nine years prior to the '86 campaign. He did not play in three games last year, but never was at maximum efficiency after suffering a severely sprained ankle in the season opener against the Giants and an injured knee vs. Atlanta in Game Three. "Dorsett and Herschel Walker will be our backfield," says Landry. "We've got to keep both of them on the field as much as possible. When you have those two on the field, anything can happen." Dorsett has five runs of 75 yards or longer to his credit, including one NFL record that never will be broken — a 99-yard scamper against the Minnesota Vikings on Jan. 3, 1983. He had a 91-yard screen pass touchdown from Roger Staubach against the Baltimore Colts in 1978. Tony had 46 100-yard rushing days prior to 1987 and the Cowboys were 42-4 (27-1 at Texas Stadium) when he topped the 100 mark. Eight times he bettered the 1,000-yard mark for a season, missing only in the strike-shortened 1982 schedule with 745 and last year with 748. Dorsett carried the ball 2,625 times in his first 10 years — more than the career totals of Brown (2,359), O.J. Simpson (2,404) and Earl Campbell (2,187) — and averaged 4.4 yards a carry. He has played when he was hurt, played despite well-publicized setbacks in his personal life and has emerged as one of the NFL's all-time greatest. And, this year, he may even have luck on his side. "I need 733 to pass Jim Brown," Tony mused during the offseason. "My number is 33 and I had my COLLEGE: Dorsett crowned a brilliant collegiate career by winning the 1976 Heisman Trophy as the nation's outstanding player. Dorsett rushed for an NCAA career-record 6,082 yards and 58 TDs and led Pitt to the 1976 national championship with a 12-0 record. He broke or tied 14 NCAA records, was a four-time All-America and the first player in NCAA history with four 1,000-yard seasons and three 1,500-yard seasons.

PERSONAL: Off the field Aliquippa, Pa., native (Hopewell High) Anthony Drew Dorsett enjoys a variety of civic and business interests. He has given his time to the Tony Dorsett/United Negro College Fund Golf Tournament, Pearl S. Buck Foundation, the Dallas Ballet, Easter Seals, the American Heart Association, the United Way, the Make-a-Wish Foundation, Hands Across America, the Dallas Civic Opera and the Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation. His business interests include Southwestern Drilling Mud Company, California Gold tanning salon, real estate in California and Chicago and U.S.A. Wet (a sports drink). He is taking broadcasting classes.Tony has a son, Anthony Drew Dorsett, Jr. (9/14/73), a budding football and basketball star in Atlanta, Ga.

Michael Downs ★ 26

SAFETY • RICE • 7th YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 204 • BORN: 6/9/59 • FA FOR '81

PRO: The player who coordinates the Cowboys' pass defense is Michael Downs, one of the club's all-time best free agent finds. A defensive captain the past two seasons, Downs led the Cowboys in interceptions last year for the second time in three years, compiled his fifth 100-tackle season in six years and led the secondary in tackles for the sixth year in a row. He is the eighth leading interceptor in team history, one behind another free agent free safety who became All-Pro, Cliff Harris. Downs has been a starter since the first game of his rookie year and, despite his slender frame, the unheralded free agent from Rice has missed only one game, the second of his rookie season when he was sidelined by a pulled hamstring. Downs has started 94 consecutive games (including playoffs) at free safety. In his breakthrough year of 1984 Michael led the team in tackles for the second time and was the Cowboys' top pass interceptor with seven. He was named All-Pro by the Pro Football Writers Association and Sports Illustrated. He was voted to UPI's All-NFC team in 1984 and 1985. Downs ranks in Cowboys history with other great free agent finds like Cornell Green, Cliff Harris, Drew Pearson and Everson Walls. He also excells at blocking kicks, including a fourth-quarter blocked punt at San Diego last year that sparked a comeback victory. "Michael now has the experience to direct the secondary," Tom Landry says. "He's a competitor and a guy who can make plays." GAMES/STARTS: 1981 (15/15), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/16), 1986 (16/16). Total — 88/88.

COLLEGE: Despite being a three-year starter and a co-captain at Rice, Downs' play as a senior was hampered by a pinched nerve in his shoulder and he was not drafted. The Cowboys signed him as a free agent, along with fellow Dallas native and fellow future All-Pro Everson Walls, making 1981 a vintage year for Cowboys free agents.

PERSONAL: Michael Lynn Downs attended South Oak Cliff High School in Dallas, the same school as former teammate Harvey Martin. Michael earned degrees at Rice in business, political science and physical education. He has worked in youth marketing for the Dr Pepper Company of Dallas. During the '85 season he wrote a weekly column for the Dallas Morning News. He is manager of the Hoopsters, the players' offseason basketball team. Michael and wife Vanessa live in Dallas with daughter Carolyn (6/9/84).

John Dutton ★ 78

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • NEBRASKA • 14th YEAR
HT: 6-7 • WT: 268 • BORN: 2/6/51 • TRADE, BALT., '79

PRO: Every year, it seems, the offseason newspapers feature "Who Will Replace John Dutton?" stories, and every year John Dutton is the Cowboys' starting left defensive tackle. Last spring, Tom Landry said, "John Dutton probably played as well last year as he's ever played for us. But at 36, he's at an age now where it's hard to be a regular over a 16-game season. So we must be ready to move in with younger players." Dutton's response was the normal one for him. He was at the Cowboys' training center every day during the offseason — before 7 a.m. — and reported to camp ready to do the same job he'd been doing since being made the Baltimore Colts' No. 1 draft choice in 1974. In April, the Cowboys drafted Nebraska defensive lineman Danny Noonan in the first round. Noonan was an eight-year-old in Lincoln, Neb., when Dutton was a consensus All-America at Nebraska as a senior in 1973. "I don't even want to think about it," laughed John. In 1986, Dutton registered five quarterback sacks, his best total as a Cowboy, despite being relieved on passing downs. John came to the Cowboys from the Colts midway in the 1979 season (for first and second-round draft choices in '80) to fill the gap left by Ed Jones' one-year sabbatical to pursue a boxing career. After playing both end and tackle, Dutton became the regular left tackle in 1981 and had started 88 of 89 games there heading into the 1987 season. GAMES/STARTS: 1974 (14-Balt.), 1975 (14-Balt.), 1976 (14-Balt.), 1977 (14-Balt.), 1978 (12-Balt.), 1979 (8/4), 1980 (16/0), 1981 (16/16), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/15), 1986 (16/16). Total — 181 (Dallas — 113/92).

COLLEGE: A two-year starter and senior captain, Dutton was a consensus All-America in 1973. He played in two Orange Bowls and one Cotton Bowl with Nebraska. The Cornhuskers won the national championship in his sophomore season. John also threw the discus for the Nebraska track team.

DUTTON, Cont.

PERSONAL: John Owen Dutton and wife Ginny live in Dallas with son Mason (8/4/79) and daughter Hayden Lee (8/21/83). They also own 80 acres in Lincoln, Neb. Ginny, a ballet dancer, studied under the reknowned Edward Villela. John attended Rapid City (S.D.) High School and attracted more scholarship offers for basketball than football. He has a degree in business administration. Dutton works with Miller Beer Distributors of Dallas.

Ron Fellows ★ 27

CORNERBACK ● MISSOURI ● 7th YEAR
HT: 6-0 ● WT: 173 ● BORN: 11/7/58 ● D-7A FOR '81

PRO: Ron Fellows rebounded from an injury-marred 1985 season to lead the Cowboys in 1986 in passes defensed with 15 and finish second in interceptions with five, including his third career touchdown, a 34-yard return to cap a 31-7 Monday night victory at St. Louis. Ron received a game ball from the coaching staff for his performance that night against the Cardinals. He accounted for four turnovers (two interceptions, two fumble recoveries) against Chicago. The Cowboys' starting right cornerback the past three seasons, Fellows is an outstanding athlete who was converted to defense as a rookie after playing wide receiver in college. He has been the only draft choice in the Cowboys' starting defensive backfield the past three seasons. "Ron is probably our best pure cover man because of his speed and quickness," Tom Landry says. "With his physical ability, he has the potential to be a top player." By the 11th game of his rookie year of 1981, Fellows was being used at right corner on passing downs. He continued in that capacity for two more seasons before taking over the right corner position full-time from Dennis Thurman. He has shown a knack for the big play during his career, scoring touchdowns with a blocked field goal and two intercepted passes and making several key contributions in pivotal games. He missed five starts in '85 with a sprained right knee that required arthroscopic surgery after that season. GAMES/STARTS: 1981 (16/0), 1982 (9/0), 1983 (16/0), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (13/11), 1986 (16/16). Total — 86/43.

COLLEGE: Fellows played cornerback at Butler, Kan., Community College before transferring to Missouri where he became a receiver midway through his junior year of '79. In '80 he led the Tigers with 33 catches for 586 yards and four TDs. He was chosen Big Eight player of the week after catching six passes for 99 yards against Iowa State. Fellows was a hurdler in junior college.

PERSONAL: South Bend, Ind., native Ronald Lee Fellows studied elementary education at Missouri. Ron, wife Lillie and son Ron, Jr. (11/16/85), live in Dallas. Ron is a partner in a Dallas courier service, Lone Star Delivery.

Todd Fowler ★ 46

TIGHT END ● STEPHEN F. AUSTIN ● 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-3 ● WT: 221 ● BORN: 6/9/62 ● S1 FOR '84

PRO: Todd Fowler has been a valuable asset to the Cowboys the past two seasons. The versatile third-year man can play fullback, tight end and is outstanding on special teams. "He's smart, he knows our system and the thing is he's a great competitor," says coach Tom Landry. "He doesn't have the great speed, but he has a toughness about him. He'll block and catch and he'll run tough." Fowler received a game ball for his special teams play against San Diego (11/16) and recovered a fumbled punt vs. Denver (10/5) to set up a Dallas touchdown. Fowler was placed on injured reserve in preseason 1985 with a knee injury. He was activated before the St. Louis game (11/4) and in that game, his first in the NFL, he played all of the second half at fullback due to an injury to Newsome. Fowler was drafted by Dallas in the first round of the NFL supplemental draft of USFL players in 1984. In two seasons with the Houston Gamblers he rushed for 1,405 yards and 14 TDs in 262 carries. He also caught 51 passes for 540 yards and three touchdowns. He set a USFL single-game rushing mark with 208 yards vs. Denver in 1984. GAMES/STARTS: 1985 (8/0), 1986 (16/0). Total — 24/0.

COLLEGE: After two years as a strong safety and tight end at Henderson (Texas) Junior College, Fowler transferred to Stephen F. Austin. A second-team All-Lone Star Conference selection at tight end his senior year, Fowler caught 48 passes for 469 yards in his two years with the Lumberjacks.

PERSONAL: A native of Van, Texas, 50 miles east of Dallas, Fowler was a second-team all-state tight end at Van High School where he was coached by his father Mal, who played fullback at TCU in the early '50s. After leading his team to the state championship his senior year, Todd, who also lettered in track, was named to the All-East Texas All-Decade team as a strong safety. Fowler runs Free State Drilling, an east Texas oil company, along with his brother Jeff. He spent the offseason working toward his physical education degree from Stephen F. Austin.

Mike Hegman ★ 58

LINEBACKER ● TENNESSEE STATE ● 12th YEAR
HT: 6-1 ● WT: 227 ● BORN: 1/17/53 ● D-7 FOR '75

PRO: The dean of the Cowboys' linebackers, Mike Hegman provides the steadying influence for the young corps. Hegman finished strong in 1986 with a season-high eight tackles in two of the last three games, @ L.A. Rams (12/7) and vs. Philadelphia (12/14). In the season finale against Chicago he forced a fumble and recorded six tackles. Even though he was replaced on passing downs, Hegman led all linebackers in passes defensed with six. Against St. Louis (10/26) Hegman earned a game ball with a sack and two passes defensed. "Mike's the kind of football player who doesn't make many mistakes and he's got great football instincts," says linebacker coach Jerry Tubbs. The best evidence of those instincts came in Super Bowl XIII when Hegman swiped the ball from Pittsburgh's Terry Bradshaw and raced 37 yards for a second-quarter touchdown. A starter since 1979 when Thomas Henderson was released with four games left in the season, Hegman recovered a fumble in the endzone for a TD at Philadelphia (10/19) and had two interceptions against Seattle (11/27) in his first full season as a starter in 1980. He suffered a dislocated elbow in the playoff opener vs. the Rams (12/28) and missed the final two playoff games. His bad luck continued in the 1981 season-opener against Washington (9/6) when he broke a bone in his right forearm and missed the next five games. In '83 Mike returned a fumble nine yards for a touchdown against the Raiders (10/23) to put Dallas ahead in the fourth quarter. In '84 Mike intercepted a career-high three passes and earned coaches' game balls for wins over the Eagles and the Colts. He set another career-high in 1985, this time for sacks with 5½. Hegman also earned a defensive game ball for his play against Philadelphia (11/24). GAMES/STARTS: 1976 (14/0), 1977 (14/1), 1978 (16/3), 1979 (16/5), 1980 (16/16), 1981 (11/10), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/15), 1986 (16/16). Total — 160/107.

COLLEGE: Hegman transferred from Alabama A&M and made Tennessee State's football team as a walk-on. He played middle linebacker on State's 10-0 1973 team, led the club in tackles in '74 and played on the same defense with Ed "Too Tall" Jones.

PERSONAL: A native of Memphis (Northside High), Michael William Hegman has a degree from Tennessee State in physical education. Mike has participated in fund-raising events for St. Jude's Children's Hospital in Memphis, the Special Olympics and the Muscular Dystrophy Association. He has a daughter, Mikia (8/22/76).

Manny Hendrix ★ 45

CORNERBACK • UTAH • 2nd YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 178 • BORN: 10/20/64 • FA FOR '86

PRO: More than 20 years ago, the Cowboys turned an outstanding college basketball player from Utah State into an All-Pro defensive back. Manny Hendrix may not become another Cornell Green, but there are enough similarities to make you wonder. Like Green, Hendrix was a top college basketball player from Utah, the University of, who signed with the Cowboys as a longshot free agent rookie. Like Green, Hendrix is a gifted athlete who made the club on his first try. "Hendrix has a great chance to succeed because he has the speed and natural ability to cover," Tom Landry says. "He just has to learn the game." Prior to last summer, Hendrix last played football at South Mountain High School in Phoenix, where he earned All-America honors at cornerback. The Cowboys released Hendrix last Aug. 26, then re-signed him on Sept. 23. He played in 13 games, gaining valuable experience as an extra defensive back in the "4-0" pass defense. He recovered a fumble in a victory over Washington last Oct. 12. GAMES/STARTS: 1986 (13/0).

COLLEGE: Hendrix finished his basketball career as Utah's eighth all-time leading scorer with 1,493 points (12.1 per game). A four-year starter and senior co-captain, he was named honorable mention All-WAC his sophomore and junior years and second-team all-conference as a senior.

PERSONAL: Manuel Hendrix starred in football, basketball and track at South Mountain High School in Phoenix. Heavily recruited to play college football, he wanted to play basketball and chose Utah, the only school to recruit him for basketball. Manny studied communications at Utah. He took classes there toward his degree last offseason. Manny married his high school sweetheart, Kammie Baker. They have three daughters — Sharee (11/18/82), Sandra (2/13/84) and Crystal (6/13/85) — and live in Coppell, Texas. Manny supports the Big Brothers program in Salt Lake City and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Johnny Holloway ★ 23

CORNERBACK ● KANSAS ● 2nd YEAR
HT: 5-11 ● WT: 182 ● BORN: 11/8/63 ● D-7 FOR '86

PRO: Two factors were key to Johnny Holloway making the successful transition from college wide receiver to pro defensive back — aggressiveness and strength. "You get excited about someone like Holloway," says Coach Landry. "He has a great deal of strength for a guy his size. He's also aggressive and tough, which is unusual for a former receiver." Holloway spent most of his initial season on special teams, but he did see some playing time covering the third wide receiver in passing situations. Playing in all 16 games, Holloway had more passes defensed (four) than any non-starter and was the only Cowboys rookie with an interception. Against St. Louis (9/29) Holloway picked off a Neil Lomax pass in the endzone to prevent a Cardinals' touchdown. GAMES/STARTS: 1986 (16/0).

COLLEGE: Holloway finished fourth in the Big Eight in receiving with 32 catches for 358 yards in his only full season with the Jayhawks in 1985. He was averaging 18.1 yards, per catch as a junior, but an ankle injury in the third game ended his season. Before the injury Holloway caught six passes for 141 yards, including a 70-yard touchdown against Florida State. Originally signed out of high school by Northwestern, Holloway transferred to Butler Junior College in 1983.

PERSONAL: Johnny Owen Holloway grew up in Houston, Texas where he was the Texas prep long jump champion his junior year at Lamar High School with a 24-8 leap. A liberal arts major at Kansas, Holloway sold ice cream in the Astrodome while in high school. He speaks at Irving recreation centers and schools about the importance of education.

Garth Jax ★ 53

LINEBACKER ● FLORIDA STATE ● 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-2 ● WT: 225 ● BORN: 9/16/63 ● D-11 FOR '86

PRO: An 11th-round draft choice in 1986, Jax impressed coaches with his special teams play in the pre-season but was released on the last cut. One week later, when Mike Renfro was placed on injured reserve, Jax was re-signed. That turned out to be a good move for all concerned, because in the season's fourth game Garth received a game ball for his special teams play against the Cardinals. Two weeks earlier, he played the entire second half of a victory over Detroit when Mike Hegman was injured. Jax appeared in all 16 games as a rookie, playing on all the special teams. "He has good mobility and instincts," says Tom Landry. "He made a solid contribution last year." GAMES/ STARTS: 1986 (16/0).

COLLEGE: Jax had an injury-plagued career at Florida State, including a kidney and spleen injury his junior year that put his football future in question. Garth came back in '85 to start and lead the Seminoles with six quarterback sacks despite being hampered all year by a broken thumb and a bruised shoulder. His best games included 13 tackles against Tulane as a senior and 13 against South Carolina as a junior.

PERSONAL: James Garth Jax is a Houston native who led his Jesuit High School team to the 4-A state title three of his four years. He was an all-stater as a senior. Garth's stepfather, Phil Abraira, holds the Florida State records for longest punt return, 92 yards against North Carolina, and highest season average per punt return, 20.1 in 1969.

Jim Jeffcoat ★ 77

DEFENSIVE END ● ARIZONA STATE ● 5th YEAR
HT: 6-5 ● WT: 260 ● BORN: 4/1/61 ● D-1 FOR '83

PRO: Despite an ankle injury that troubled him throughout the last half of the season, Jim Jeffcoat led the Cowboys in quarterback traps for the first time in 1986 while increasing his previous best for the third straight year. Since becoming a starter at right end in '84, the tenacious Jeffcoat totaled 37½ sacks (11½, 12 and 14) to lead the Cowboys in that category over the three-year period. A tough, intense competitor, Jim never missed a game in his first four seasons. He had streaks of 64 consecutive games played and 48 consecutive starts heading into the '87 campaign. "Jim should be improved this year," Tom Landry said during the off-season. "He had a sprained ankle most of last season and didn't perform well with it. But, he's a hard worker. He gives you everything he's got. And he produces traps." Jeffcoat holds the club record for most sacks in a game, nailing Joe Theismann five times in a 1985 victory over Washington. Last year, he had 3½ sacks in a win at Detroit. In addition to his pursuit of quarterbacks, Jim has scored a couple of touchdowns in key situations. Against the Giants in '85, he rumbled 65 yards with a pass tipped by Ed Jones to turn the tide in the game that clinched the NFC East title for Dallas. And, in '84, he recovered a late New Orleans fumble in the end zone to propel the Cowboys to an overtime victory in a game in which they trailed 27-6 entering the fourth quarter. GAMES/STARTS: 1983 (16/0), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/16), 1986 (16/16). Total — 64/48.

COLLEGE: A three-year starter at Arizona State, Jim earned All-Pac 10 and honorable mention All-America honors after anchoring the 1982 Sun Devil defense that led the nation. He was named outstanding defensive player in Arizona State's 1983 Fiesta Bowl victory over Oklahoma, making 16 tackles, causing a fumble and getting a QB sack.

PERSONAL: From a family of six children, James Wilson Jeffcoat, Jr., is a Cliffwood, N.J., native who earned high school All-America honors at Matawan Regional High. He also lettered in wrestling. Jim, who graduated from Arizona State with a degree in communication, works with Special Olympics, Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Leukemia Society in Dallas, and the Boys Club in Arlington. In 1986, Jim presented the Sickle Cell Anemia Foundation of Dallas with $100 for each of his 14 quarterback traps. He lives in Carrollton with his wife Tammy.

Ed Jones ★ 72

DEFENSIVE END • TENNESSEE STATE • 13th YEAR
HT: 6-9 • WT: 273 • BORN: 2/23/51 • D-1A FOR '74

PRO: In the history of the Dallas Cowboys, Ed "Too Tall" Jones ranks as one of the unforgettables, a certifiably larger-than-life character. And not just because of his massive size. Too Tall was the first pick in the 1974 NFL draft, the only time the Cowboys have had the first selection. He left football after the 1978 season to pursue a boxing career, and won all six of his fights before deciding to return to the Cowboys in '80. He then rose to the stardom that had been predicted for him. He was voted to three straight Pro Bowls, in 1981-82-83, and was named All-Pro by NEA in '81 and AP in '82. He also has been indestructible, having never missed a game in his career (199 including playoffs). He has started every game since his second season. Now in the twilight of his career, Jones is determined to rebound from an admittedly subpar 1986 season. "Football has been very good to me," Jones says. "That's why it's time to think about going out on a positive note. If I'd retired at the end of last season, I would have been a very frustrated individual. Going out on a losing season would have been very sour." In re-dedicating himself, Too Tall joined Herschel Walker and Jim Jeffcoat for 7 a.m. offseason workouts at the Cowboys' headquarters. Jones always has been at his best in the biggest games. Two years ago when the Cowboys upset the Giants for the division title, Too Tall was the key figure in the biggest play of the year. He batted Phil Simms' pass into the hands of teammate Jeffcoat, who ran 65 yards for a touchdown to dramatically swing the momentum in the Cowboys' 28-21 December victory for the NFC East crown. He also led the team in sacks for the first time that year with a career-high 13. Knocking down passes has been a Too Tall specialty. He has batted away 61 in the past seven seasons, including a career-high 16 in 1984. GAMES/STARTS: 1974 (14/0), 1975 (14/14), 1976 (14/14), 1977 (14/14), 1978 (16/16), 1979 (DNP), 1980 (16/16), 1981 (16/16), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/16), 1986 (16/16). E. JONES, Cont.

COLLEGE: Jones was a two-time All-America at Tennessee State where he also played two seasons of basketball. A college teammate dubbed him "Too Tall." Jones did not begin playing football until his senior year at Merry High in Jackson, Tenn.

PERSONAL: Edward Lee Jones, a native of Jackson, Tenn., is a partner in Dallas-based Imperial Investors. He has a degree in health and physical education, and all seven of his brothers and sisters also earned their college degrees. The multi-talented Jones has appeared in two movies and made a guest appearance on the TV comedy "Diff'rent Strokes." He enjoys singing rhythm and blues (especially "Stormy Monday") and has released a record. He has been active in promoting the Special Olympics and other charity causes.

Crawford Ker ★ 68

GUARD • FLORIDA • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 285 • BORN: 5/5/62 • D-3 FOR '85

PRO: Crawford Ker's first year as a starter left most observers predicting future stardom for the big guard from Florida. "Ker has the most potential of any of our offensive linemen," Tom Landry says, "but he's going to have to work at it if he wants to be a top guy." Willingness to work is no problem for "Big Daddy" Ker. He is an avid weightlifter who has bench-pressed a Cowboys-record 540 pounds. He also conditions himself by pushing pickup trucks and taking karate and boxing lessons. After a college career at tackle, Ker made an impressive debut with the Cowboys at guard. A tight back forced him to miss the last 11 games of his rookie season, however. He became the starting right guard after Kurt Petersen went down with a knee injury early in camp last year. Ironically, Crawford's first start was the preseason game in London where his Scottish-native parents lived before coming to the United States. He earned a game ball from the coaches in a victory over Detroit. GAMES/STARTS: 1985 (5/0), 1986 (16/16). Total — 21/16.

COLLEGE: Ker was a walk-on at Western Arizona Junior College, earned a scholarship, then became a JC All-America. He transferred to Florida and started 13 games at tackle, earning second-team All-Southwestern Conference and honorable mention All-America honors from Associated Press in 1984. He was a college teammate of the Cowboys' 1987 third-round draft choice, Jeff Zimmerman, another huge guard.

PERSONAL: Crawford Francis "Big Daddy" Ker was born in Philadelphia, but moved with his parents to Florida where he became an all-conference football star at Dunedin, Fla., High School. Crawford's parents, Anne and George Ker, are natives of Scotland who moved to the United States in 1956. George Ker served as a royal guard at London's Buckingham Palace.

Robert Lavette ★ 29

RUNNING BACK ● GEORGIA TECH ● 3rd YEAR
HT: 5-11 ● WT: 190 ● BORN: 9/8/63 ● D-4 FOR '85

PRO: Robert Lavette is a naturally gifted runner who posted some big numbers on his way to the pros, rushing for nearly 10,000 yards in high school and college. His dilemma in Dallas so far has been getting stuck behind two of the game's all-time greats, Tony Dorsett and Herschel Walker. "Lavette is not a big, explosive type like Herschel," Tom Landry says, "but he is a playmaker. If you use him enough, he'll make a play. Our problem has been not being able to find him playing time." Lavette has averaged 5.2 yards per carry during the past two preseasons (47 rushes, 245 yards). He enjoyed a spectacular night against the Raiders last preseason in Los Angeles, rushing for 79 yards and a touchdown on 10 carries, catching four passes for 38 yards and returning a kickoff 43 yards. Lavette's biggest contribution in regular season has been as a kickoff and punt returner. Lavette was the eighth running back taken in the 1985 draft. GAMES/STARTS: 1985 (12/0), 1986 (16/0). Total — 28/0.

COLLEGE: Lavette finished his career as Georgia Tech's all-time leading rusher, receiver and scorer. In setting 19 school records in four seasons, he rushed for 4,066 yards. He also caught 114 passes for 862 yards and scored 46 touchdowns. He had 18 100-yard rushing games and accounted for 5,393 total yards, an average of 125.3 per game. As a sophomore in '82 he rushed for a career-high 203 yards on 38 carries against No. 1-ranked Georgia, outgaining Herschel Walker by 40 yards.

PERSONAL: At Cartersville, Ga., High School, Robert Lee Lavette, Jr., gained 5,870 career rushing yards and was named Georgia Class AA back of the year as a junior and senior. He set nine school career records, seven season marks and three single-game records. Robert has four brothers and three sisters.

Eugene Lockhart ★ 56

LINEBACKER ● HOUSTON ● 4th YEAR
HT: 6-2 ● WT: 235 ● BORN: 3/8/61 ● D-6A FOR '84

PRO: Eugene "The Hitting Machine" Lockhart is the latest name on the short but illustrious list of Dallas Cowboys middle linebackers. It started with Jerry Tubbs, followed by Lee Roy Jordan, Bob Breunig and Lockhart. That's it, in 28 years. In 1985, Lockhart's first full year as a starter replacing the retired Breunig, the Machine led the Cowboys in tackles, fumble recoveries and forced fumbles. His only interception of the year resulted in a 19-yard return for the winning touchdown against Pittsburgh (10/13). In '86, he led the team in tackles for the second year in a row and led the linebackers in sacks with a career-high five. "Lockhart is a tough, aggressive tackler in the middle," Tom Landry says. "He's got a good knack at the point of attack." Hitting was what the coaches noticed about Lockhart in his rookie training camp. Other players nicknamed him "Eugene the Hitting Machine" for the trail of dazed ballcarriers he left on the Thousand Oaks practice field. When chronic back problems forced the veteran Breunig to the sidelines in '84, Lockhart became the only rookie ever to start at middle linebacker for the Cowboys. He was named to most of the all-rookie teams. He wound up with eight starts his rookie year. A tireless worker, Lockhart is one of the team's most enthusiastic participants in offseason conditioning. GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (15/8), 1985 (16/15), 1986 (16/16). Total — 47/39.

COLLEGE: A two-year starter at outside linebacker, Lockhart led Houston in 1983 with 134 tackles. A tri-captain, he earned All-Southwest Conference honors and his team's most valuable player award his senior year. A 1981 reserve for the Cougars, Lockhart won a starting berth in 1982 following a strong 1981 finish and fine performance in the spring.

PERSONAL: Eugene Lockhart, Jr., was an all-district performer in football, basketball and baseball at Crockett High School in his native Crockett, Texas. He also ran the mile for the track team and was a National Honor Society member. He earned his degree in marketing at Houston, where he also was a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Eugene donates his time to the American Cancer Society in Dallas, nursing homes in Crockett and other worthwhile causes. He owns Lockhart-Love One-Hour Photo in Dallas with former Houston teammate and St. Louis Cardinals running back Randy Love. Eugene and wife Sharon live in Carrollton, Texas, with son Bryan (10/3/86).

Paul McDonald ★ 14

QUARTERBACK ● SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA ● 8th YEAR
HT: 6-2 ● WT: 185 ● BORN: 2/23/58 ● FA FOR '86

PRO: After Danny White was lost for the season to injury, Dallas needed a veteran NFL quarterback who could quickly learn the offense and provide depth behind young quarterbacks Steve Pelluer and Reggie Collier. The Cowboys found Paul McDonald, who met all requirements. Having worked with Hackett at USC and Cleveland, he was familiar with most of the offense and he was smart enough to learn what he didn't know in a short time. The lefthanded quarterback also played six years for Cleveland. He was released by the Browns following the 1985 season. McDonald was signed by Seattle for 1986 but released before the start of the regular season. A starter in all 16 games for the Browns in 1984, McDonald endured 53 sacks that year and was still able to complete 55% of his passes for 3,472 yards. His best passing day in the NFL came against New England (10/7/84) when he had a career high 320 yards on 23 of 37 (62.2%) passing and 1 TD. McDonald also completed a career-high 75% (18 or 24) against New Orleans (10/28/84) and completed 13 straight passes vs. Houston (11/25/84). A backup to Brian Sipe for four years, McDonald led the Browns to the playoffs in 1982 after Sipe was injured. In his only appearance at Texas Stadium with the Browns, McDonald was 9 of 15 for 151 yards, 1 TD, 1 interception. He did not throw a pass in 1985, spending the season behind Gary Danielson and Bernie Kosar. The seventh quarterback taken in the 1980 draft (Marc Wilson, Mark Malone, Gene Bradley, Eric Hipple, Rusty Lisch and Ed Luther), McDonald was drafted with the Browns' second pick in the fourth round. McDonald played with an All-Heisman Trophy backfield at USC (Charles White-Marcus Allen) and can do so in the pros with Tony Dorsett and Herschel Walker. GAMES/STARTS: 1980 (16/0-Clev.), 1981 (12/0-Clev.), 1982 (9/3-Clev.), 1983 (16/2-Clev.), 1984 (16/16-Clev.), 1985 (16/0-Clev.), 1986 (1/0). Total — 70/21 (1/0-Dallas).

COLLEGE: McDonald led the Trojans to two Rose Bowl victories and a national championship. He completed his collegiate career holding the NCAA record for lowest interception percentage in a career at 2.3% (13 in 561 attempts). An All-PAC 10, second-team All-America and All-Academic selection as a senior, McDonald also set a PAC 10 record by throwing 143 straight passes without an interception.

PERSONAL: A native of Montebello, Calif., Paul McDonald attended Bishop Amat High School in La Puente, Calif. While in Cleveland he spearheaded "Paul's Pals" to benefit children with cancer, leukemia and other blood disorders. McDonald earned his degree in business from USC and is now working towards his MBA. Paul and wife Allyson have a son, Michael (5/11/85).

Timmy Newsome ★ 30

RUNNING BACK ● WINSTON-SALEM STATE ● 8th YEAR
HT: 6-1 ● WT: 237 ● BORN: 5/17/58 ● D-6 FOR '80

PRO: Versatile Timmy Newsome was the Cowboys' third leading receiver in 1986 and teamed with Tony Dorsett and Herschel Walker to form Tom Landry's latest offensive innovation — the full-house backfield. Newsome is a fine blocker and receiver who gives the Cowboys experienced depth in the backfield. He has played both the fullback and tailback positions. He was the starting fullback from late in the 1984 season until late last year when Walker took over. Newsome also serves as a third tight end. "Newsome is a steady player who contributes," Landry says. "He does everything we ask. He's an excellent receiver with size, power and speed." Last season Newsome enjoyed career highs in receptions (48) and receiving yards (421). He has caught passes in 23 straight games, longest current streak on the team. GAMES/STARTS: 1980 (16/1), 1981 (15/0), 1982 (9/0), 1983 (16/0), 1984 (15/4), 1985 (14/14), 1986 (16/12). Total — 101/31.

COLLEGE: Newsome was a two-time NAIA first-team All-America and 1979 player of the year in the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association. In four years at Winston-Salem, Timmy rushed for 3,833 yards (6.1 per carry) and 38 touchdowns. He led the conference in rushing and scoring three times. Newsome earned his degree in business with a concentration in computer science.

PERSONAL: Timothy Arthur Newsome is a native of Ahoskie, N.C., and was a star athlete at Ahoskie High. In the offseason he works as a computer program analyst for Shared Financial Systems of Dallas. He has done public service work for the state of North Carolina's alcohol and drug abuse prevention program. Timmy and wife Audrey live in Dallas.

Nate Newton ★ 61

GUARD • FLORIDA A&M • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 305 • BORN: 12/20/61 • FA FOR '86

PRO: Nate Newton is one of those promising young players about whom coaches get excited. Newton has a 33-inch vertical leap, can dunk a basketball, bench press 500 pounds and has probably the quickest feet of any of the Cowboys' offensive linemen. The only thing holding him back has been a love affair with food. Not long after the 1986 season Nate weighed nearly 350 pounds. One of new offensive line coach Jim Erkenbeck's first moves was to inform Newton and everyone else that the nickname "The Kitchen," which gained Nate a lot of local attention last year, was dead. Then, Newton was placed on a strict diet under the supervision of team physician Dr. J.R. Zamorano. By June 1 he had lost more than 40 pounds and Erkenbeck was highly enthusiastic about Newton's 1987 prospects. "He's big and very strong and he's unusually quick," says Erkenbeck. "Those qualities are hard to find in the same guy. Plus, he's showed me this spring that he has the type of dedication it will take for him to become a good football player." Nate was signed in training camp last year after two seasons with the Tampa Bay Bandits of the USFL. The Redskins signed him as a free agent out of college in 1983, but he was released just before the season. GAMES/STARTS: 1986 (11/0).

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman at Florida A&M, Newton played on both the offensive and defensive lines. He was a team captain and was named All Conference as a senior.

PERSONAL: Nathaniel Newton is a native of Orlando, Fla., where he played football and basketball at Jones High School. His younger brother Tim is the Minnesota Vikings' nose tackle.

Steve Pelluer ★ 16

QUARTERBACK • WASHINGTON • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 208 • BORN: 7/29/62 • D-5A FOR '84

PRO: The apprenticeship of Steve Pelluer ended abruptly last year with the injuries that sidelined Danny White for nine games. Rushed into the starting quarterback role ahead of schedule, Pelluer became an unfortunate victim of the Cowboys' November-December swoon. The Cowboys, however, did not let the frustrations of the losing streak detract from their belief in Steve Pelluer. "Steve has a great future for us," Tom Landry says. "We have a lot to work with in Pelluer. He is probably the most gifted quarterback we've ever had as far as mobility. The guy is uncanny in his ability to escape the pass rush. He's got a good, accurate arm, plus he's big and very poised. If we can protect him and get a consistent running game, Pelluer can win for us." Steve directed consecutive victories over Washington and Philadelphia in October. He pulled out a fourth-quarter comeback victory at San Diego and nearly rallied the Cowboys past the Giants in New York when he completed 28-of-38 passes for 339 yards, all season highs. He received game balls from the coaching staff for the victories over Washington and San Diego. Against Seattle, Pelluer completed 14 straight passes to break the team record of 12 in row set by Roger Staubach in 1978 and tied by Danny White in '83. Pelluer made a dramatic NFL regular-season debut in the fourth quarter of the Dec. 15, 1985 game against the Giants at Texas Stadium to decide the NFC East championship. Danny White and Gary Hogeboom had been knocked out of the game with injuries and Pelluer was called on to protect a 21-14 lead. On his second series he coolly directed a 72-yard touchdown drive for what proved to be the winning touchdown in a 28-21 Dallas victory. The key play was Pelluer's 28-yard pass to rookie Karl Powe on a third-and-15 from the Dallas 48. GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (1/0), 1985 (2/0), 1986 (16/9). Total — 19/9.

COLLEGE: En route to Pac 10 offensive player of the year honors in 1983, Pelluer set six Washington records, including season completion percentage (67.2) and most consecutive passes thrown without an interception (137). He also led Washington to a school total offense mark of 4,365 yards in '83. The Huskies' second all-time leading passer, Steve completed 436-of-755 passes for 4,603 yards and 30 touchdowns. He was All-Pac 10, All-West Coast and honorable mention All-America in '83. As a sophomore he led the Huskies to the Pac 10 title and a 28-0 victory over Iowa in the Rose Bowl.

PERSONAL: Born in Yakima, Wash., and raised in Bellevue, Wash., Steven Carl Pelluer (peh-LOO-ur) captained the football and basketball teams

He is involved in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Special Olympics, serves on the board of the Doug Cosbie Youth Clinic and speaks on behalf of the Justice Department's "Just Say No" anti-drug campaign. Steve's grandfather (Carl Gustafson), father (Arnie Pelluer) and brother (Scott) all played football at Washington State. Scott, linebackers coach at Boise State, was a 1981 Cowboys draft choice who went on to play linebacker for the Saints. Another brother, Arnie, is a junior linebacker at Stanford.

Jesse Penn ★ 59

LINEBACKER   ●   VIRGINIA TECH   ●   3rd YEAR
HT: 6-3   ●   WT: 218   ●   BORN: 9/6/62   ●   D-2 FOR '85

PRO: "Jesse Penn has a lot of physical ability," Tom Landry says. "If he can harness it and discipline himself to the system, he surely could make an impact." Penn has shown flashes of being the big-play linebacker Landry covets. As a rookie, he started against Cincinnati in place of the injured Jeff Rohrer, made five tackles and returned a blocked punt 49 yards for a touchdown. In '85 preseason, one of his two interceptions went for 77 yards and a touchdown against Green Bay. Last year, starting for injured Rohrer at Detroit, Penn was named the Haggar Cowboys Star of the Game after making six tackles, forcing one fumble and recovering two. He had 2½ QB traps in '86 playing in the "4-0" pass defense. He earned a game ball from the coaches for his special teams play in a victory at Philadelphia. GAMES/STARTS: 1985 (16/1), 1986 (15/0). Total — 31/1.

COLLEGE: A two-year starter at standup defensive end, a position similar to outside linebacker, Penn intercepted eight passes to set a Virginia Tech career record for linemen. Jesse capped his senior year with outstanding performances in the Independence Bowl against Air Force and in the Blue-Gray game. The Cowboys rated Penn the top outside linebacker in the 1985 draft.

PERSONAL: A native of Martinsville, Va., Jesse Andrew Penn earned all-state honors in football and All-America honors in track at Martinsville High. He majored in communications at Virginia Tech.

Kurt Petersen ★ 65

GUARD • MISSOURI • 7th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 272 • BORN: 6/17/57 • D-4 FOR '80

PRO: Kurt Peterson attempted a comeback in 1987 after spending the entire 1986 season on injured reserve following summer knee surgery. Prior to that, Kurt had been the starting right guard since his second season with the Cowboys, and in 1982 earned second-team All-Pro honors from the Newspaper Enterprise Association. Petersen, who played defense at Missouri, was switched to the offensive line in his rookie training camp and made the transition amazingly well. GAMES/STARTS: 1980 (16/0), 1981 (16/14), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (14/14), 1984 (13/13), 1985 (16/16). 1986 (injured reserve). Total — 84/66.

COLLEGE: A linebacker his junior year, Petersen was moved to defensive tackle his senior season to give Missouri more inside quickness. A senior co-captain, Kurt tied for the team lead in fumble recoveries with four.

PERSONAL: St. Louis native (Lutheran High School) Kurt David Petersen has a degree in industrial engineering. Kurt is an outdoorsman who enjoys fishing, hunting, gardening and archery. Kurt, wife Karen and their children Aimee Lynn (12/20/84) and Kyle David (1/20/86) live in Dallas, Texas.

WIDE RECEIVER • ALABAMA STATE • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 178 • BORN: 1/17/62 • D-7A FOR '85

PRO: Tom Landry has not forgotten what Karl Powe showed him two years ago. "We've still got hope for Karl Powe," the Cowboys' head coach says. "He has a lot of potential with his speed and hands. But he's a former track man and he's had trouble with injuries. I've got him on a program to build up his upper body." After showing flashes of brilliance in his rookie year, expectations for Powe were great entering the '86 season. But a neck injury suffered in the opener against the Giants sent him to the sidelines for the rest of the year. In 1985 Powe was a longshot seventh-round draft choice with superior athletic ability but not much football background. He was mostly a backup receiver at Alabama State. He made the Cowboys based on his potential. But his steady development during the course of the year paid off in the Cowboys' division-title clinching victory over the Giants in December. Powe caught a crucial 28-yard pass from another unlikely hero, third-string quarterback Steve Pelluer, on a third-and-15 situation in the fourth quarter to keep alive what proved to be the winning touchdown drive. In the regular season finale the next week, starting for injured Tony Hill against San Francisco. Powe caught seven passes for 127 yards — biggest numbers for a Cowboys rookie receiver since Drew Pearson in 1973. Powe's 14 receptions in 1985 were most by a Cowboys rookie receiver since all-time hero Pearson's 22 in '73. And it was then assistant coach Drew Pearson who spent long hours with Powe all that year, schooling him in the art of NFL receiving. GAMES/STARTS: 1985 (15/1), 1986 (1/0). Total — 16/1.

COLLEGE: Powe was a backup wide receiver through most of his career at Alabama State, mostly because he chose to participate in track (100M, 200M) instead of spring football. Still, Karl caught 40 passes for 817 yards (a 20.5 average) and six touchdowns in three seasons. In '84 Powe led the SWAC in kickoff returns with a 27.3 average.

PERSONAL: Karl Alonzo Powe (POE) is a native of Mobile, Ala., where he attended Blount High School, earning letters in football, basketball, baseball and track. In 1986 he served as King of the Mobile Mardi Gras. He received his degree in psychology and human services from Alabama State. Karl has a daughter, Kasheena (8/17/83). He and wife Lacynthia, also from Mobile, live in Dallas.

TACKLE • NOTRE DAME • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-9 • WT: 283 • BORN: 12/19/59 • D-5 FOR '82

PRO: When Phil Pozderac was a gangling rookie in 1982, he got the attention of the veteran defensive linemen when he refused to back down in a number of training camp altercations. "He has a mean streak and for a rookie he's hard to intimidate," noted Ed Jones at the time. "He doesn't back down, and the more physical you get with him the more he comes at you." Pozderac's competitive nature was a big reason he survived some penalty calls in crucial situations last year. "For a while there," says offensive line coach Jim Erkenbeck, "Poz was probably the best-known offensive lineman in the country, for all the wrong reasons. I admire him for not giving up when everybody and his brother were taking shots at him." Poz started 10 games in '86, playing both right and left tackle, and was listed as the starting right tackle heading into 1987 training camp. He received a game ball for his play on the left side in the Cowboys' season-opening victory over the eventual Super Bowl champion Giants. At 6-9, Pozderac is one-half inch taller than "Too Tall" Jones and is the NFL's tallest player. GAMES/STARTS: 1982 (7/0), 1983 (16/2), 1984 (15/14), 1985 (14/8), 1986 (16/10). Total — 68/34.

COLLEGE: Pozderac started 23 consecutive games at right tackle his final two seasons at Notre Dame. His teammates voted him Notre Dame's most valuable player in 1981. He also won AP honorable mention All-America honors in '81. Pozderac entered Notre Dame carrying only 220 pounds on his 6-9 frame.

PERSONAL: Philip Maurice Pozderac (poz-DEH-rick) starred in football and basketball at Garfield Heights, Ohio, High School. He was born in Cleveland. Phil received his degree from Notre Dame in business finance. Phil and wife Kim live in Carrollton, Texas.

Tom Rafferty ★ 64

CENTER ● PENN STATE ● 12th YEAR
HT: 6-3 ● WT: 262 ● BORN: 8/2/54 ● D-4 FOR '76

PRO: Tom Landry, discussing the outlook for the Cowboys' 1987 offensive line, had a revealing way of looking at those prospects. "Once you get past Rafferty," he said, "everything is up for grabs." The one constant in the Cowboys' forward wall since the mid-1970s has been Rafferty, who has never missed a game and has started in 167 of 168 regular season and playoff contests since 1977. His string of 165 consecutive regular season games (183 including playoffs) is the third longest in club history. He should pass Cornell Green (168) this year and would tie Bob Lilly (196) if he played in all 16 games in '87 and '88. The players around him keep getting bigger and younger, but Rafferty's always there in the middle doing his job. Tom came to the Cowboys as an All-America guard in 1976, and was a four-year starter on the right side until moving to center in 1981. In the late '70s, Rafferty was a member of the Cowboys' "Irish Line," along with teammates John Fitzgerald, Pat Donovan and Jim Cooper. Tom, with Herb Scott, cleared the way for Tony Dorsett's historic 99-yard touchdown run against Minnesota in January of '83. GAMES/STARTS: 1976 (14/0), 1977 (14/14), 1978 (16/16), 1979 (16/16), 1980 (16/16), 1981 (16/16), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/15), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/16), 1986 (16/16). Total — 165/150.

COLLEGE: A four-year starting guard at Penn State, Rafferty earned All-America honors from the Football News and the Football Writers Association in 1975. The Cowboys rated him the top pulling guard in the 1976 draft.

PERSONAL: Thomas Michael Rafferty was born in Syracuse and raised in Fayetteville, N.Y., where he became a high school All-America lacrosse player in addition to starring in football and basketball at Fayetteville-Manlius High School. He received a degree in physical education from Penn State and for his master's in business from the University of Dallas. Tom and wife Donna live in Dallas with son J. Michael (7/14/81) and daughter Rachel Elizabeth (3/6/84).

Mike Renfro ★ 82

WIDE RECEIVER • TCU • 10th YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 187 • BORN: 6/19/55 • TRADE, HOU., '84

PRO: After an outstanding season in 1985, Mike Renfro injured his shoulder in the first preseason game of 1986 and spent the first four weeks of the season on injured reserve. He regained his old form towards the end of the year, averaging 18.8 yards per catch over the last four games and catching a touchdown pass in each of the last two. In the season finale against the Bears (12/21) Renfro led the team with five catches for 76 yards. Coach Landry called Renfro "as valuable a player as we had" in 1985 when Dallas captured the NFC Eastern Division championship. In the title clinching victory over the Giants (12/15), Renfro caught four passes for 123 yards and two touchdowns, including a 58-yarder. In other key division victories, he had a career-high 10 catches for 141 yards and two touchdowns against the Giants (10/6) and five receptions for 99 yards, including a 55-yard touchdown in the season-opener against Washington (9/9). He received the coaches' offensive game ball for each of the three wins. "Mike is an excellent player for your team," says Landry. "He works hard. He's disciplined. And he comes up with the big play." Entering 1985 Renfro had season-highs of 39 catches in 1981, 583 receiving yards in 1984 and three touchdowns in 1982. He shattered those marks catching 60 passes for 955 yards and a team-high eight touchdowns. In his first seven years in the NFL Mike had never had a 100-yard receiving day. In 1985 he had three 100-yard games, including two in a row to end the season. With 277 career catches he needs 23 to reach the 300-catch plateau. Acquired from Houston for Butch Johnson in the spring of 1984, Renfro was expected to play a role as a "possession" receiver in special situations. He performed beyond

For good measure he threw a 49-yard scoring pass to Doug Donley in a 23-17 victory over the Eagles (9/16). Renfro's move to Dallas was something of a homecoming for him, since he was born and raised in the area and his father — former All-Pro wide receiver Ray Renfro — was an assistant coach for the Cowboys from 1968 through 1972. As a teenager, Mike was a Dallas ballboy. COLLEGE: Renfro was a three-time All-Southwest Conference choice at TCU and ended his college career owning school records for career receptions (162), yards (2,739) and touchdowns (17). His 10 touchdown catches as a senior set a Southwest Conference record.

PERSONAL: Michael Ray Renfro was born and raised in Fort Worth, where he attended Arlington Heights High School. Mike has a degree in business man-agement and works in the offseason for the Dugger Development real estate firm in Fort Worth. He and his wife Denise live on a 30-acre spread in Aledo, Tex. near Fort Worth with daughter Klayton Alicia (12/19/85) and son Michael Clinton (7/21/87). Mike is spokesperson for the Edna Gladney Home in Fort Worth and works with Week of Champions, where high school athletes in the metroplex learn about sportsmanship and leadership.

LINEBACKER • YALE • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 227 • BORN: 12/25/58 • D-2 FOR '82

PRO: In his second year as the Cowboys' starting right outside linebacker, Jeff Rohrer continued to show solid improvement. He led the team in tackles against the Redskins (twice), the Rams and the Cardinals, and wound up trailing only middle linebacker Eugene Lockhart in total tackles for the season, 121-111. In addition, Jeff registered two quarterback traps, forced four fumbles and recovered a fumble. In all, it was a very good year for the former All-Ivy Leaguer who spent the first three years of his pro career making a name for himself on special teams. "He's big, strong and very aggressive," says Tom Landry. "Jeff is a smart, steady player." Rohrer became the subject of much media attention last season when he wore an earring for a month to win a bet with a friend. Landry, who has been in football since before face masks, just shrugged it off and Jeff won the bet. GAMES/STARTS: 1982 (8/0), 1983 (16/0), 1984 (16/0), 1985 (15/12), 1986 (16/16). Total — 71/28.

COLLEGE: Rohrer was the highest NFL draft choice from Yale since 1969 when the Cowboys chose Calvin Hill in the first round. In 1981 Jeff was named to the Coaches All-Ivy League and the Coaches All-New England first teams after leading Ivy co-champ Yale in tackles with a school-record 136 stops (71 solo).

PERSONAL: Jeffrey Charles Rohrer was a National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete at Mira Costa High School in his native Manhattan Beach, Calif. He received his degree from Yale in administrative sciences. His hobbies include ceramics, scuba diving and karate. Jeff supports the Special Olympics program for the handicapped.

PUNTER • SAN DIEGO STATE • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 188 • BORN: 7/10/62 • FA FOR '85

PRO: Mike Saxon's punting averages went down in 1986 but his effectiveness went up. Saxon pinned opponents inside their 20-yard line an NFL-high 28 times last year. In the season opener against the Giants (9/8), he averaged 43.5 yards per punt with four inside the 20 and a net average of 39.1 to earn a coaches game ball. Saxon booted a career-long 58 yarder against Denver (10/5) and matched it two weeks later against Philadelphia (10/19). His 86 punts in 1986 set a Cowboys record, eclipsing Danny White's mark of 82 from 1984. "Mike improved over his first year with us," says Tom Landry. "We expect that to continue." Saxon began his rookie season in the NFL as if he were a 10-year veteran. On his first punt as a professional in a season-opening nationally televised Monday night game against Washington (9/9), Mike booted a 57 yarder, which turned out to be his longest of the season. He went on to have his best game of the year, averaging 48.8 yards per kick with a net average of 43.3, and four punts inside the opponent's 20. In his only playoff appearance Mike set a club playoff record with a 46.9 average on seven kicks against the Rams (1/4). Saxon's 41.9 average for the '85 season was the best ever by a Cowboys' rookie and the best by any Cowboys punter since Ron Widby's 43.3 average for the 1969 season. An 11th-round draft choice by Detroit in 1984, Mike was released on the final cut after averaging 43.5 yards per kick in preseason. GAMES/STARTS: 1985 (16/0), 1986 (16/0). Total — 32/0.

COLLEGE: A walk-on at San Diego State, Saxon set school records for punting average in a game (54.8 vs. BYU in '83), a season (45.5 in '83) and a career (44.1). An honorable mention All-America, Saxon also holds the record for the longest punt in Aztecs history with an 80 yarder against BYU in 1982. Mike attended Pasadena City College before moving on to San Diego State.

PERSONAL: A native of Whittier, Calif., Michael Eric Saxon starred in baseball and as a wide receiver, defensive back and punter at Arcadia High School. Mike spent the offseason in Newport Beach, Calif. and worked with Ben Agajanian's youth kicking camps in Long Beach and Dallas. Saxon majored in business management at San Diego State.

SAFETY •	COLORADO •	4th YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 203 •	BORN: 6/1/62 •	D-2 FOR '84

PRO: After an injury-riddled 1986 season, Victor Scott has a good chance to claim a starting safety spot this season. "The guy you really have hopes for at safety is Victor Scott." says Tom Landry. "Last year a broken wrist ruined his season, but with his speed and aggressive tackling ability, he could be a good one at that position. He has the talent to be a top player in this league." Scott injured a hamstring in preseason and missed the season opener against the Giants (9/8). After playing in the next four games he broke his wrist against Denver (10/5) and did not return until the final game of the year. After earning four special teams game balls in 1985, Scott's teammates voted him a special teams captain for 1986. He contributed a key play in 1985 when he intercepted Phil Simms' pass with 46 seconds remaining to kill the Giants' hopes in the 28-21 Dallas victory that crowned the NFC East champion. Scott started two games, including his first as a pro vs. Atlanta (10/27), at cornerback in place of injured Ron Fellows. He led the secondary in quarterback traps, with three, and returned an interception 26 yards for a touchdown against Washington (9/9). As a rookie in 1984 Scott made a diving interception, his first as a pro, to set up Dallas' winning TD against St. Louis (11/11). GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (16/0), 1985 (16/3), 1986 (5/0). Total — 37/3.

COLLEGE: A two-time All-Big Eight selection and a 1983 second-team All-America, Scott set Colorado career records of 24 pass deflections and three interceptions returned for touchdowns in four years as a starting cornerback. He intercepted 10 passes and blocked four field goals and two extra point attempts in his career.

PERSONAL: Born in St. Louis, Mo., and raised in East St. Louis, Ill., Victor Ramone Scott starred in football, basketball and baseball at East St. Louis High School. Victor and wife Wanda live in Irving, Texas, with sons Victor Ramone II (9/25/85) and Dionte (10/24/86). Mike Sherrard ★ 86

WIDE RECEIVER • UCLA • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 187 • BORN: 6/21/63 • D-1 FOR '86

PRO: Rarely was Mike Sherrard's name mentioned in 1986 without the word "impact" used in the same sentence. Coach Landry had longed for a talented game breaker for the past several years and last season he found his man in the Cowboys' first-round draft pick. After missing most of training camp and the preseason schedule, Sherrard was expected to progress gradually. However, against Atlanta (9/21) in the season's third game, he gave everyone a glimpse of the future by catching a 22-yard pass from Danny White, faking a defender out of his path and strolling into the end zone untouched. The following week against St. Louis (9/29) he turned an underthrown pass into a 27-yard touchdown and against Washington (10/12) Sherrard took the ball away from Darrell Green, while both were falling in the endzone, for a 27-yard TD. He finished the season with a team-high five touchdown catches, all from 20 yards or more and was starting at wide receiver by the season's 13th week. Sherrard also led the team in average yards per catch (18.2). His 41 receptions are the most by a Cowboys rookie since Bob Hayes had 46 in 1965. "Mike Sherrard should be a Pro Bowl player," says Tom Landry. "He's got that kind of ability. Our deep passing attack will be built around him." Against San Diego (11/16) Sherrard averaged 28.8 yards per catch on four receptions, including a 68-yarder for the games' first TD. He finished second in fan voting for NFL rookie of the year behind Miami's John Offerdahl. GAMES/STARTS: 1986 (16/4).

COLLEGE: Sherrard went from a walk-on at UCLA to the school's all-time leading receiver with 124 career catches. He also holds school records for catches in a season (48 in 1983) and career receiving yards (1,937). Despite fracturing his clavicle in the fifth game of his senior season, the PAC 10 All-Academic pick came back to catch four passes, including a touchdown in the Rose Bowl and earned a spot in the Hula Bowl.

PERSONAL: Michael Watson Sherrard is a native of Chico, Calif. where he lettered in football, basketball, track and baseball at Chico High School. His mother Cherie ran the 110-meter hurdles at the 1964 Olympic Games in Tokyo, where one of her teammates was former Cowboys receiver Bob Hayes. Sherrard is also a cousin of Washington foe Darrell Green. He earned his degree in history from UCLA. Mike works with the St. Phillip's School and Community Center in Dallas and with Dream Factory, which grants wishes to children who are ill.

DEFENSIVE TACKLE ● NEVADA-RENO ● 7th YEAR
HT: 6-7 ● WT: 265 ● BORN: 12/20/57 ● FA FOR '80

PRO: Despite playing in only 11 games in 1986, and those mostly in third-down situations, Don Smerek registered 4½ quarterback sacks to rank just behind the Cowboys' four defensive line starters in that category. "He's a good, tough third-down pass rusher," says Tom Landry. "He takes people on." The injury bugaboo struck Smerek in '86, as it has several times before. He went on injured reserve with a knee injury and missed the first five games of the season. In '85, he missed six games with a shoulder injury. Knee surgery cost him 14 games of the '82 season, and he missed all of his rookie campaign (1980) after going on injured reserve with broken ribs. Still, Don keeps battling back with the same determination that kept him with the Cowboys in the first place after signing as a free agent from a small school. GAMES/STARTS: 1981 (2/0), 1982 (7/0), 1983 (15/0), 1984 (16/0), 1985 (10/1), 1986 (11/0). Total — 61/1.

COLLEGE: Smerek was an All-Big Sky choice at defensive end following his senior season at Nevada-Reno.

PERSONAL: Donald Frederick Smerek was born in Waterford, Mich., and raised in Henderson, Nev., outside Las Vegas. Don was a football and basketball star at Basic High in Henderson. He received his degree from Nevada-Reno in physical education. In the offseason he works for Craig Properties, a Dallas real estate firm.

PRO: Glen Titensor has started every game at left guard for the Cowboys since earning the job five games into the 1984 season. Titensor, center Tom Rafferty and right guard Crawford Ker form an ever-improving interior of the Cowboys' offensive line that started every game in 1986. Rafferty and Titensor have started together for the past 43 games. Titensor's solid play the past two seasons, after four seasons as a backup center and guard, has been a bright spot for Dallas. A defensive lineman in college, Titensor is following in the footsteps of Blaine Nye, John Fitzgerald, Pat Donovan and Kurt Petersen, who were defensive linemen in college and became top offensive linemen with the Cowboys. He quickly shook off knee surgery in 1982, missing only a month of action, and has shown steady improvement ever since. GAMES/STARTS: 1981 (16/0), 1982 (3/0), 1983 (15/1), 1984 (15/12), 1985 (16/16), 1986 (16/16). Totals — 81/45.

COLLEGE: After spending two years at UCLA backing up Manu Tuiasosopo, Titensor transferred to BYU and became a two-time All-Western Athletic Conference choice at defensive end. He was also AP honorable mention All-America in '79 and '80. Glen was named BYU defensive player of the week five times in '79 and led the team with 13 sacks in 1980.

PERSONAL: Glen Watson Titensor (TIGHT-en-sir), a native of Westminster, Calif., starred in football and track at Bolsa Grande High School in Garden Grove, Calif. Glen's hobby is making custom furniture. He has participated in the American Heart Association Jumpathon program and teaches classes to 14 and 15-year old boys at a Dallas-area church. Mark Tuinei ★ 71

TACKLE	●	HAWAII	●	5th YEAR
HT: 6-5 ● WT: 283 ● BORN: 3/31/60 ● FA FOR '83

PRO: Finally Mark Tuinei has found a home at left tackle. The "Marco Polo" of the Cowboys has travelled from position to position since joining the team as a free agent in 1983. He originally made the club as a defensive tackle where he played as a backup, contributing on special teams and short-yardage defenses. Before training camp in 1985, the coaches moved Tuinei to offense behind Tom Rafferty at center where he played in several games. In training camp last year, Tuinei worked at all three offensive line positions and it appeared he was going to stay at offensive tackle. However, injuries to Kevin Brooks and Don Smerek early in the season forced Tuinei to split time between offensive and defensive tackle. Against Denver (10/5) Mark led all Cowboys defensive linemen with six tackles while playing in place of injured Randy White. The following week against Washington (10/12) he was named starting left offensive tackle and stayed there for the remainder of the season. "Mark shows a lot of potential," says Tom Landry. "He's an athlete. He's got quick feet, he can move and he's bigger than you think he is." GAMES/STARTS: 1983 (10/0), 1984 (16/0), 1985 (16/0), 1986 (16/11). Total — 58/11.

COLLEGE: Tuinei played his first two collegiate seasons at UCLA. He started at defensive tackle his sophomore year, finishing fifth in tackles. He then transferred to Hawaii. He suffered through an injury-plagued senior year, playing in seven games, including five starts.

Herschel Walker ★ 34

RUNNING BACK ● GEORGIA ● 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-1 ● WT: 223 ● BORN: 3/3/62 ● D-5A FOR '85

PRO: When the Cowboys landed Herschel Walker last year, they knew they were getting something good. They just didn't know exactly how good. This dazzling combination of world-class speed and power was an immediate sensation. It didn't take long for "awesome" to become the word commonly used to describe Herschel's abilities. Despite missing half of training camp, learning a new system and being used in a unique variety of positions, Walker was one of the NFL's most productive players in his first season in the league. He was the only NFL player last year to gain more than 700 yards both rushing and receiving. No Cowboys player ever had gained more than 600 yards both rushing and receiving in a season. He led NFC running backs in receiving yards and yards per rushing attempt, had the NFL's longest run from scrimmage and second longest pass reception (both in same game vs. Philadelphia). He led the Cowboys in total yards, set club records of 76 receptions in a season and 292 yards from scrimmage in a game (against Philadelphia 12/14) and tied Tony Dorsett's club season mark of 12 rushing touchdowns. He accomplished all that despite being slowed all of November by a sprained ankle. Herschel joined the Cowboys on Aug. 13, 1986 following the demise of the USFL. The Cowboys had gambled a fifth-round draft choice to acquire Walker's NFL rights in 1985 while he was playing for the USFL's New Jersey Generals. Herschel dominated the USFL, gaining more than 7,000 yards rushing and receiving and scoring 61 touchdowns in three seasons. His 2,411 yards rushing in 1985 is a pro football single-season record. He had 14 100-yard games in 1985, including 11 in a row and three of more than 200 yards. His top career rushing game was a league-record 233 yards against the Houston Gamblers in 1985. Walker led the USFL in rushing in '83 and '85 and was the league's MVP in '85. He topped the 100-yard mark 26 times in 53 games over three seasons. He broke long runs of 88, 83, 80, 69 and 62 yards, and caught two 50-yard touchdown passes, a 65-yarder and a 68-yarder. In teaming Walker with Dorsett, the Cowboys are the third NFL team to have two Heisman Trophy winning running backs in the same backfield. The others are New Orleans (Earl Campbell and George Rogers) and the Los Angeles Rams twice (Tom Harmon and Les Horvath; Les Horvath and Bruce Smith). It is the second time the Cowboys have paired Heisman Trophy winners in the same backfield, QB Roger Staubach and Dorsett teaming in 1977, '78 and '79. GAMES/STARTS: 1986 (16/9).

COLLEGE: Herschel Walker won the 1982 Heisman Trophy to cap a magnificent three-year collegiate career that saw him rush for 5,259 yards. That total ranks him third on the NCAA's all-time rushing list behind Pittsburgh's Tony Dorsett with 6,082 yards and Southern Cal's Charles White with 5,598. Walker finished third in the Heisman voting as a freshman behind George Rogers and Hugh Green, and he came in second as a sophomore in 1981 to USC's Marcus Allen. Herschel was only the seventh junior to win the award. A three-time unanimous All-America, Walker set 10 NCAA records, 15 Southeastern Conference records and 30 University of Georgia marks in his career. In 33 games he rushed for an average of 159.4 yards per game, 5.3 yards per carry, scored 52 touchdowns, had 266 runs for first downs and 162 runs of more than 10 yards each. In 1980 he rushed for 1,616 yards to break Dorsett's NCAA freshman record and lead Georgia to the national championship with a 12-0 record, including the 1981 Sugar Bowl victory over Notre Dame in which Herschel rushed for 150 yards and two touchdowns to earn MVP honors. Earlier that season Walker rushed for 283 yards in only his sixth college game. Herschel set the NCAA sophomore rushing mark of 1,891 yards in 1981. His 5,259 yards from 1980-82 is the NCAA record for rushing yards in three seasons. Walker had four 200-yard games in 1980 and 11 100-yard games in 1981. Walker left Georgia after his junior year to sign with the Generals on Feb. 23, 1983.

PERSONAL: Herschel Junior Walker is one of seven children (four sons, three daughters) raised by Willis and Christine Walker of Wrightsville, Ga. Herschel was named for his grandfather. Herschel's father is a foreman at the Englehard chalk mine in Wilkerson, Ga. PARADE magazine named Herschel the national high school back of the year in 1979 after he rushed for 3,167 yards and 45 touchdowns as a senior at Johnson County High School. He rushed for 6,137 yards and 86 touchdowns in his high school career. He also excelled in track as a sprinter in high school and college. Herschel majored in criminal justice at Georgia, where he also met his wife, the former Cindy DiAngelis of Brooklyn, N.Y. Herschel won the 1987 SuperStars competition in the offseason. He has a second degree black belt in Tai Kwan Do, a Korean form of martial arts. Herschel contributes to numerous civic and charitable groups, including the Justice Department's "Just Say No" anti-drug campaign.

Everson Walls ★ 24

CORNERBACK • GRAMBLING • 7th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 193 • BORN 12/28/59 • FA FOR '81

PRO: When he was a senior at Berkner High School in the Dallas suburb of Richardson, Everson Walls became a defensive back. Beginning with that season, continuing through four years at Grambling and on into six seasons with the Cowboys, Walls intercepted 70 passes. He has the knack. An unheralded free agent rookie in 1981, Everson led the NFL in interceptions. Just to prove it was no fluke, he did it again the next year to become the only man ever to lead the league in thefts in each of his first two seasons. Then, in 1985, Walls became the only player ever to lead all NFL players in interceptions three times. He didn't repeat in 1986, finishing with three steals, but Tom Landry says it was only because he was "playing sounder football. He's the best we have back there." Walls' 37 career interceptions through '86 placed him third on the Cowboys' all-time list behind Mel Renfro (52 in 14 seasons) and Charlie Waters (41 in 11). He was third in the NFC among active interceptors behind Minnesota safety John Harris (44 in nine years) and Chicago safety Gary Fencik (38 in 11). Everson was an All-Rookie choice in '81, an All-Pro in '82, '83 and '85, and played in four Pro Bowls in his first six seasons. And to think he was almost overlooked coming out of college. "I took it as a challenge that nobody drafted me," said Walls. "From the first day, I wanted to prove they were wrong." Everson never missed a game his first six seasons, going 89-for-89 including 85 straight starts. In 1984, Walls — then just 24 — became the youngest player voted by the fans to the Cowboys' 25th Anniversary All-Time Team. GAMES/STARTS: 1981 (16/14), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/16), 1986 (16/16). Total — 89/87.

COLLEGE: Walls led the nation in 1980 with a Grambling-record 11 interceptions for 140 yards in 11 games. He was named first-team All-Southwestern Conference his senior year. In his junior year he picked off four passes for 91 yards and a touchdown.

PERSONAL: Everson Collins "Cubby" Walls of Dallas was a football, basketball and track star at Richardson Berkner High School. He grew up within two miles of the Cowboys' old practice facility. He earned a degree in accounting from Grambling. Everson supports the Big Brothers of Arlington, Texas, the American Heart Association and the Foster Parents program. He, wife Shreill and daughter Charis (8/16/84) live in Dallas.

QUARTERBACK ● ARIZONA STATE ● 12th YEAR
HT: 6-3 ● WT: 197 ● BORN: 2/9/52 ● D-3A FOR '74

PRO: Danny White's value to the Dallas Cowboys was never more evident than the second half of the 1986 season. Through the first eight games of the year the team was 6-2 and White was enjoying his best season. Despite missing the Denver (10/5) and Washington (10/12) games with a hip injury, he led the NFL in touchdown percentage, turning eight percent of his attempts into TDs, and his 99.0 passer rating was tops in the NFC and second in the NFL. Against Atlanta (9/21) he completed 76.7% (23 of 30) of his passes and threw for four touchdowns. White's dream season came to an abrupt halt at the hands of the Giants (11/2) when a sack by Carl Banks in the first quarter broke his wrist. "If Danny White comes back okay from the broken wrist, we'll be in good shape." says Tom Landry. "This system is a natural for him. That's why we were so successful early last year." White is on a tremendous roll dating back to the 1985 season. In the last 11 games that he's played (last four in 1985, seven in 1986) he has thrown for 22 touchdowns, only eight interceptions and completed 62.3% of his 257 pass attempts for a 101.3 passer rating. The Cowboys have scored 32 straight times, including 27 touchdowns, that they've been inside the opponents' 20-yard line with White at quarterback. Despite injuries that forced him to miss two regular-season games and parts of three other games, White led Dallas to the NFC Eastern Division title in 1985. In his last four games (he missed the San Francisco game due to injury) Danny led the Cowboys to three victories over NFC East teams, keying the Cowboys' division championship. In those games he completed 63% of his passes, threw for 10 touchdowns and was intercepted only three times. The Cowboys are 40-9 (.816) at Texas Stadium and 64-29 (.688) overall with White in the starting lineup. This season White has a chance to break several of Roger Staubach's club passing records. Danny enters 1987 with career totals of 2,546 attempts, 1,517 completions, 19,068 yards and 142 touchdowns. Staubach holds all four records with 2,958 attempts, 1,685 completions, 22,700 yards and 153 touchdowns. With 932 passing yards this season Danny can become only the second Cowboys player to reach the 20,000-yard plateau. After being drafted in the third round by Dallas in 1974 (as part of a trade with Houston that also produced Ed Jones for Tody Smith and Billy Parks), White signed with Memphis of the now-defunct World Football League and spent two seasons there before joining the Cowboys in 1976. Danny punted for the Cowboys from 1976-84 and is a risk-taking type who has run for first downs 15 times in 19 attempts from punt formation. GAMES/STARTS: 1976 (14/0), 1977 (14/0), 1978 (16/1), 1979 (16/0), 1980 (16/16), 1981 (16/15), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (14/6), 1985 (14/14), 1986 (7/6). Total — 152/83.

COLLEGE: White finished his career as the NCAA's all-time leading passer, setting seven NCAA passing records. His passing and running placed him second in the nation in total offense in 1973. Danny played the infield for ASU's baseball team and was drafted by four major league teams. Both Danny and his father, Wilford "Wizzer" White, a former ASU All-America halfback who played for the Chicago Bears in 1951 and '52, are in the Arizona State Sports Hall of Fame. NOTE: Danny White's father is NOT U.S. Supreme Court Justice Byron "Whizzer" White.

PERSONAL: Wilford Daniel White is a native of Mesa, Ariz., and graduated from Westwood High in that Phoenix suburb. Danny is chairman of the annual Danny White/Boy Scouts of America golf tourney, and does public service work in the Dallas area for any number of worthwhile causes. He was named a 1982 Dallas Father of the Year and the 1983 Cowboys Man of the Year. Danny, wife Jo Lynn and their four children — Ryan (4/26/73), Geoffrey (1/4/76), Heather (9/3/78) and Reed (7/29/83) — live in Fairview, Texas, near Dallas.

Randy White ★ 54

DEFENSIVE TACKLE ● MARYLAND ● 13th YEAR
HT: 6-4 ● WT: 265 ● BORN: 1/15/53 ● D-1A FOR '75

PRO: Randy White, never talkative, was positively mum on the subject of his aching right shoulder the past couple of seasons. Finally, last January, he underwent surgery. "Nobody realized how beat up he was," said Tom Landry, "including me. He didn't miss a game, but he had a pulled hamstring and a torn-up shoulder, and no one knew about the shoulder. After the season, they operated on him and found the thing was all torn apart. But, they got a good repair on it. We expect him to be ready." There was no doubt in White's mind that he would be ready. The nine-time Pro Bowl selection would just as soon forget 1986. "That was an embarrassing year for me," says White, "and it was an embarrassing year for a lot of guys around here. The sooner we get started wiping that out, the better." Despite his assortment of injuries in '86, and the continuing double and triple-team blocking by opponents, White again was the runaway leader among Cowboys linemen in tackles, had 6½ quarterback sacks, knocked down three passes and recovered two fumbles. And, White never let up as the Cowboys suffered through their disastrous slide in the second half of the season. In the campaign's next-to-last game, a 24-21 loss to Philadelphia at home, Randy had 12 solo tackles, five assists, a sack and a fumble recovery. "That was as good as I've ever seen him play," said defensive coordinator Ernie Stautner. When White first joined the team in 1975, the Cowboys spent two seasons trying to turn him into a middle linebacker. However, it is not in Randy's nature to backpedal into pass coverage. When he settled at right defensive tackle in '77, he was co-MVP (with teammate Harvey Martin) in the Cowboys' 27-10 Super Bowl XII victory over Denver and made the Pro Bowl for the first time. His march to the Hall of Fame since then has been relentless. "When Randy White lines up on you," Landry once said in a classic description of his great tackle, "he doesn't care whether you're All-Pro or whether you're a rookie. You're going to get the same treatment. That makes him unique in this game." R. WHITE, Cont.

football's top lineman that year. He was the second player selected in the 1975 draft with a choice obtained by the Cowboys from the New York Giants for quarterback Craig Morton. Atlanta selected quarterback Steve Bartkowski before the Cowboys took White.

PERSONAL: Randy Lee White was a football, basketball and baseball star at Thomas McKean High School in his hometown of Wilmington, Del. He is a fanatical bass fisherman. Randy, wife Vicci and daughter Jordan Leigh (5/6/79) live in Dallas. Randy received the 1980 Field Scovell Award for athletic excellence from the Dallas All-Sports Association. He supports the Association of Blind Athletes, the United Way, the American Heart Association and the Dallas County Foster Parents Association. He also has done work with the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Dallas.

THE ROOKIES

(1987 Draftees)

NOONAN   FRANCIS

DANNY NOONAN   •   Defensive Tackle   •   Nebraska

Ht: 6-4   •   Wt: 282   •   Born: 7/14/65   •   D-1

When Danny Noonan first walked on the practice field at Nebraska as a 220-pound defensive lineman and saw the huge linemen such as 270-pound All-America Dean Stienkuhler, he adopted the Cornhuskers weightroom as his second home.

His work habits became legendary around the Lincoln campus as he built himself up to 282 pounds and boasted a bench press of 500 pounds. Noonan constantly was after the Cornhuskers strength coach to leave the weightroom open an extra half hour and to open it on weekends. In December Noonan attended an All-America banquet and was extremely upset to find no weightlifting facilities were available, forcing him to miss three workouts. Of course when the Cowboys called to inform Noonan that he had been selected, he was at the Nebraska weight facility. His wife had to phone him there to give him the news.

His passion for weightlifting, his competitiveness and his quickness spurred comparisons with Cowboys defensive tackle Randy White, but even the eight-time All-Pro admits "I didn't bench press 500 coming out of college."

A three-year letterman, Noonan was overshadowed much of his collegiate career in the Big Eight by All-America defensive linemen Tony Casillas (Oklahoma), Leslie O'Neal (Oklahoma State) and Jim Skow (Nebraska). After each was taken in the first three rounds of the 1986 NFL draft, Noonan began to get some recognition.

The consensus All-America and all-Big Eight pick compiled 53 tackles and a team-high seven sacks while anchoring a Cornhuskers' defense that ranked second in the nation, allowing 235.5 yards per game and only 2.4 yards per carry.

"He's got size, speed and the quickness you look for in a defensive lineman," said Tom Landry. "I think he's very versatile."

The first Nebraska nose tackle since Rich Glover (1971-72) to earn All-America honors, Noonan was selected earlier in the draft than any other Cornhuskers' defensive lineman since current Cowboy John Dutton was picked fifth in the first round by Baltimore in 1974. "Overall he's the best defensive lineman we've had here in the 25 years I've been around," said Nebraska head coach Tom Osborne.

Noonan played defensive tackle his first two seasons at Nebraska before he was switched to nose tackle in spring practice in 1985. Against Illinois that year he had a career-high three sacks. Noonan also recorded a career-high nine tackles in Nebraska's two biggest games in '85 — vs. Oklahoma and vs. Michigan in the Fiesta Bowl. He earned honorable mention All-America and second team all-Big Eight honors behind Casillas.

A native of Lincoln, Noonan was born six miles from the University of Nebraska campus. He led his Lincoln Northeast High School team to the state championship game in 1982 while netting all-state and All-America honors. A criminal justice major, Noonan married his wife Penny a week after the Nebraska-Oklahoma game in 1986.

RON FRANCIS   •   Cornerback   •   Baylor
Ht: 5-9   •   Wt: 201   •   Born: 4/7/64   •   D-2

Throughout his collegiate career Ron Francis quietly did the things he needed to do to help the Baylor football team. Some noticed — he was a consensus All-SWC pick the past two seasons and SWC defensive player of the year in 1985 — but mostly he was overshadowed by teammate Thomas Everett, who was a consensus All-America.

Francis, who led the Southwest Conference in interceptions each of the past two years, impressed his coaches and NFL scouts. "He's the greatest kid in America," said Baylor coach Grant Teaff. "Ron has always been willing to do whatever we asked him to do here."

The Cowboys showed their appreciation of Francis' ability by drafting him in the second round (Everett was drafted in the fourth round). "We grade cornerbacks in two areas — quickness and competitiveness, and he graded very high in both," Landry said. "The first thing a corner's got to have is coverage and he's got that ability. The only defensive back rated ahead of him on our list was Rod Woodson." Woodson was the 10th player drafted.

After recruiting Francis as a running back, the Baylor coaches switched him to cornerback where he started four games as a freshman. He was academically ineligible for the 1983 season, but instead of transferring to a junior college he worked the summer to pay his tuition.

While redshirting he practiced with the Bears as a running back on the scout team. One week the Baylor coaches asked Francis to simulate the quick quarterbacks of the University of Houston. "Frankly, he did a better job than the Houston quarterback was doing," said Teaff. So when he became eligible in 1984 he was Baylor's starting running back.

Francis averaged 95.6 yards per game with three 100-yard efforts before suffering a pulled hamstring in the fifth game. He finished the season with 558 yards on 127 carries and five touchdowns, but was moved back to cornerback the following season.

Last year against Texas, Francis had a career-high three interceptions. He played an outstanding game in 1985 against SWC champion Texas A&M with two interceptions and a career-high eight tackles. In four years Francis saw limited duty as a return man, averaging 8.9 yards on nine punt returns and 12.8 yards on five kickoff returns.

A physical education major, Francis lettered in football and track at LaMarque (Tex.) High School. His brother James started at linebacker for Baylor as a freshman last year.

JEFF ZIMMERMAN ● Guard ● Florida
Ht: 6-3 ● Wt: 310 ● Born: 1/10/65 ● D-3

In January the only fault NFL scouts could find with Jeff Zimmerman was his weight, which at that time was around 345 pounds. By mid-April Zimmerman not only erased that negative but added a positive factor to his resume. He enrolled in a Diet Center in Orlando and lost 35 pounds. "Jeff showed some dedication and some discipline by losing the weight," said Tom Landry. "He had been rated highly by us, but losing the weight really made a big difference."

A two-time All-America, and the first Florida lineman to earn All-America honors as an underclassman, Zimmerman possesses good quickness for a 300-pounder. When asked if he had ever seen a player so big move so fast, former Florida Coach Charley Pell said, "I've never seen anything that big move at all."

With Zimmerman joining Cowboys starting guard and former Gator teammate Crawford Ker, Dallas has one side of the 1984 Florida line billed as "The Great Wall." Four NFL draft choices came from that group. Ker (3rd round, Dallas, 1985) started at tackle. Next to him was Zimmerman. The other starting tackle was Lomas Brown (1st, Detroit, 1985) and the other guard was Billy Hinson (5th, Denver, 1985).

After two seasons as starting guard Zimmerman was switched to tackle in 1986. Despite a pulled groin in mid-season, he grew more comfortable in his new role and excelled at pass protection. He played in both the Senior Bowl and the Blue-Gray Classic following his senior year.

The third Florida offensive lineman drafted by Dallas in the past four years (Ker and John Hunt, 9th round, 1984), Zimmerman backed up Hunt at guard in 1983. He moved into the starting lineup in 1984 and earned honorable mention All-America honors. He spent most of his career clearing a path for NFL first-round picks Neal Anderson and John L. Williams and protecting Kerwin Bell, the most prolific passer in Florida history.

A native of Orlando, Fla., Zimmerman was a Parade All-America at Evans High School. He majored in physical education at Florida. His hobbies are weightlifting and tennis.

KELVIN MARTIN ● Wide Receiver ● Boston College
Ht: 5-9 ● Wt: 161 ● Born: 5/14/65 ● D-4

As roommates at Boston College, Kelvin Martin and Troy Stradford used to argue over which of their pro teams, Dallas or Miami, was better. Little did they know that each would be selected in the 1987 draft by the team they had pulled for since grade school. "I've lived and died for the Cowboys ever since I was seven," said Martin. If both make their respective teams, they could play against each other when the Cowboys host the Dolphins on Nov. 22.

While at Boston College, Martin provided the spark for one of the most potent offenses in the nation. He finished among the top ten punt returners in the country the past three seasons and averaged 15.3 yards per return over the past two years. As the Eagles' starting flanker Martin led the nation with a 19.6 average per catch in 1985 and set a Boston College record with 10 touchdown catches in 1984.

Martin set school career records for receptions (133), receiving yards (2,377) and touchdown receptions (28). No other player in Boston College history ever caught more than 14 TD passes.

After a banner year in 1985 when Martin caught 49 passes for 958 yards and earned first team all-America and All-East honors, his productivity fell off in 1986 due to Boston College's switch to a run-oriented offense. The Eagles' co-captain still managed to catch 41 passes for 545 yards and eight touchdowns and was named honorable mention All-America and first-team all-East. He capped his career by catching nine passes for 98 yards, including the game-winning TD with :32 left, to earn offensive MVP honors in the 1987 Hall of Fame Bowl.

The Dallas air must agree with Martin. In the 1985 Cotton Bowl Martin opened the scoring against Houston with a 63-yard touchdown catch from Doug Flutie. Last year when Boston College played SMU in Texas Stadium, Martin caught a 32-yard touchdown pass and returned a punt 85 yards for another TD. He finished the day with six catches for 92 yards and averaged 34 yards per punt return (4-136).

A native of Jacksonville, Fla., Martin earned all-city and all-conference honors at Ribault High School where he was a teammate of former Cowboys receiver Leon Gonzalez. He majored in speech communications at Boston College.

EVERETT GAY   ●   Wide Receiver   ●   Texas
Ht: 6-2   ●   Wt: 204   ●   Born: 10/23/64   ●   D-5

The addition of a rugged off-season conditioning program by the basketball coach at Wheatley High School in Houston a few years ago may benefit the Cowboys. Gay, a high school basketball star, was looking for an option to the extra work. "Lots of running," Gay said. "So I figured I'd go out for football and get away from that."

With his great size, leaping ability and large hands, Gay went on to become a football star. He impressed NFL people by catching four passes for 73 yards in the 1986 Blue-Gray all-star game. The Blesto scouting combine rated Gay as the best wide receiver in the draft.

A two-year letterman, Gay averaged 19.6 yards per catch on a team-high 22 receptions, including a 69-yard touchdown, in 1985. Last season Gay increased his output with 26 catches for 341 yards.

A native of Houston, Gay also starred in track in high school. He played basketball during the summer with Akeem Olajuwon, Moses Malone and Clyde "The Glider" Drexler. He was nicknamed "Little Glide" by the NBA stars because of his acrobatic dunks at Fonde Recreation Center. Gay majored in sociology at Texas.

JOE ONOSAI   ●   Offensive Line   ●   Hawaii
Ht: 6-3   ●   Wt: 283   ●   Born: 12/10/65   ●   D-6

Throughout his career at the University of Hawaii, 283-pound Joe Onosai entertained dreams of being the Rainbows' regular fullback. However, Hawaii Head Coach Dick Tomey needed the versatile Onosai in his offensive line. The closest Onosai ever came was as a fullback in short-yardage situations.

A three-year starter at guard, Onosai also started at tackle and center when injuries hit the offensive line. Against Long Beach State in 1985, Onosai played all three positions. The 1986 co-captain earned all-WAC second-team honors in 1985 and 1986.

A native of Honolulu, Onosai averaged 13.8 yards per carry as a junior at University Lab High School. As a senior he was named offensive player of the year while leading his team to the prep championship. Onosai serves as a spokesman against juvenile delinquency in the Samoan community.

KEVIN SWEENEY   •   Quarterback   •   Fresno State
Ht: 6-0   •   Wt: 191   •   Born: 11/16/63   •   D-7

Kevin Sweeney, the most prolific passer in NCAA history, has an ideal football background. His father, Jim, has been a football coach since 1951 and coached Sweeney at Fresno State.

When Sweeney was 10 he threw the ball with John Elway while both their fathers coached at Washington State. Later in 1973 while Sweeney's dad was a coach at the East-West Shrine Game, Sweeney adopted Danny White as his player to hang around with for the week.

As a high school sophomore Sweeney went to Jim Hart's football camp while his dad coached with the Cardinals. After his dad took the job with Fresno State in 1980, Sweeney worked with Steve DeBerg, whom he credits with helping him the most with his throwing motion.

A four-year starter, Sweeney holds the NCAA career mark with 10,623 passing yards and shares the NCAA mark for most games of 200 or more passing yards with 31. The two-time PCAA co-offensive player of the year holds the conference's career records for completions (781) and touchdowns (66).

An accurate, strong-armed passer, Sweeney had the lowest interception percentage (2.37) among the top 25 rated passers in the NCAA last year. He set a PCAA mark with a career-high four touchdowns against New Mexico State and had a career-long 95-yard touchdown pass vs. Oregon State in 1985.

When Kevin was a senior in high school, his older brother Jim was recruiting him for Washington while his father was doing the same for Fresno State. His older brother phoned his dad and told him, "The father I loved was the one who let me go to school where I wanted." The elder Sweeney replied, "That's right, but you couldn't throw like Kevin does."

Born in Bozeman, Mont., Sweeney attended Bullard High School in Fresno. He broke Pat Haden's state record for TD passes in a season with 35 his senior year and was Northern California offensive player of the year. Sweeney majored in business at Fresno State.

KEVIN GOGAN   •   Tackle   •   Washington
Ht: 6-7   •   Wt: 295   •   Born: 11/2/64   •   D-8

If Kevin Gogan's huge body had cooperated, he'd be calling signals and blocking the plate as a baseball catcher instead of opening holes and blocking defensive ends as an offensive tackle.

As a freshman in high school Gogan was a six-foot catcher for Sacred Heart High School in Pacifica, Calif. Then he began to grow. As a sophomore he was 6-4 and as a junior 6-6. The umpires couldn't see around Gogan so he was moved to first base and hit .417 as a senior. Despite comparisons to Boog Powell, Gogan chose to concentrate on football because he "liked contact sports."

A three-year starter at right tackle for the Huskies, Gogan earned honorable mention all-PAC 10 honors as a junior and was an honorable mention All-America and second team all-PAC 10 pick last year. The 1986 Washington co-captain, who missed two games with a sprained knee, played in the Hula Bowl.

Gogan led his high school to two city championships as an offensive and defensive tackle. The general studies major at Washington enjoys collecting old coins and working on old cars.

ALVIN BLOUNT ● Running Back ● Maryland
Ht: 5-9 ● Wt: 197 ● Born: 2/12/65 ● D-9

Alvin Blount fits the mold of the NFL running back of the '80's. The four-year letterman is an effective runner both inside and outside, a good receiver and a solid blocker. He led the Terps in rushing the last two seasons, caught 64 career passes and opened holes for fullback Tommy Neal (11th round, Denver), who averaged 4.5 yards per carry in 1986.

A co-captain in 1986, Blount averaged 5.1 yards per carry in college. His best season came in 1985 when he gained 828 yards on 171 carries. He finished his collegiate career with six 100-yard games, including a career-high 214 yards vs. Clemson in 1984. Against Virginia in '84 Blount had a career-long 72-yard touchdown run. He caught a career-long 52-yard touchdown pass against Wake Forest in 1984 then matched it later in the year against North Carolina.

A backup tailback as a freshman, Blount shared time at running back with Neal in 1984. He became the full-time tailback in 1985.

A running back and defensive back at Eleanor Roosevelt High School in Greenbelt, Md., Blount also lettered in baseball and track. He majored in communications at Maryland.

DALE JONES ● Linebacker ● Tennessee
Ht: 6-1 ● Wt: 234 ● Born: 3/8/63 ● D-10

It was a scene right out of the movie "Vision Quest." For a whole summer Dale Jones would run six miles to his job on a farm in his hometown of Cleveland, Tenn. He would work all day and then run the six miles home at night.

His dream of playing football at the University of Tennessee had been postponed. Even though he was an all-state defensive end at Bradley Central High School, Jones had been labeled too small coming out of high school. He spent the summer running, lifting weights and drinking $300 worth of weight-gain powder to increase his size.

Jones turned down a scholarship offer from Tennessee State and enrolled in Tennessee Military Institute where he led the team in tackles. He also gained the attention of the Tennessee coaches, who finally offered him a scholarship.

As a freshman he began the season as the Volunteers' third-string right outside linebacker. After three games he was the starter. In 1984 he led the team in forced fumbles and finished second in tackles.

A two-time all-SEC pick, "The Hit Man" had 82 tackles, five forced fumbles, five sacks, two fumble recoveries and one interception, earning him SEC defensive lineman of the year honors from the Atlanta Touchdown Club in 1985. Late in the game against Alabama, Jones blocked a Mike Shula pass and intercepted it to secure Tennessee's first SEC title since 1969.

The 1986 tri-captain recorded a career-high 16 tackles against Vanderbilt and a career-high 2½ sacks vs. Kentucky. He played in the Hula Bowl and was a finalist for the Dick Butkus Award given to the nation's outstanding linebacker. He finished his Volunteers career with 349 tackles, 11 forced fumbles and 14½ sacks.

The youngest of 13 children, Jones majored in sociology at Tennessee.

JEFF WARD ● Placekicker ● Texas
Ht: 5-9 ● Wt: 169 ● Born: 12/4/64 ● D-11

The blood in Jeff Ward's veins is certainly from an NFL background. In 1964 while she was pregnant with Jeff, Ginger Ward worked for Cowboys Director of Player Development Gil Brandt. His father, Ed, was an NFL side judge from 1978-83.

GOGAN BLOUNT JONES WARD ARMSTRONG

Some Texas opponents over the past four years believe there is only ice in Ward's veins. Nicknamed "Emergency" for his game-winning field goals, Ward made deciding kicks in the last minute against Oklahoma and Texas Tech in 1984 and against SMU and Rice in 1986. He earned All-America honors and played in the Blue-Gray all-star game last year.

"Jeff has proved time and time again that he is a pressure football player," said former Longhorns coach Fred Akers.

A four-year letterman, Ward holds the Southwest Conference record for career field goals with 58. He missed only one extra point in 109 attempts. After making a school record 54 straight PATs, Ward missed one and then went on to tie the mark with 54 straight to end his career.

He also holds UT records for field goals in a season with 19 in 1985, field goal accuracy in a season, making 15 out of 16 (.938) in 1983, and career points with 282. Against Arkansas in 1985 Ward kicked a school-record five field goals, accounting for all the team's points in a 15-13 win over the Razorbacks.

The three-time All-SWC pick made over 74% of his field goal attempts (58 of 78), including 88% (36 of 41) of those from inside the 40 and 82% (53 of 65) from inside the 50. In two games at Texas Stadium, Ward made four of five field goal attempts.

Born in Dallas, Ward moved to Austin, Tex., when he was 11. He was an All-America soccer player and lettered in football and baseball at Westlake High School. Ward majored in liberal arts at Texas.

SCOTT ARMSTRONG ● Linebacker ● Florida
Ht: 6-1 ● Wt: 230 ● Born: 12/17/63 ● D-12

As an 11-year-old living in Iowa, Scott Armstrong watched Florida play Nebraska on television and decided he wanted to play football for the Gators. Following his sophomore year in high school his dream moved closer to reality when his family moved to Ocala, Fla.

After his senior season Florida didn't offer Armstrong a scholarship and his family couldn't afford for him to walk-on there. He accepted a scholarship from Liberty Baptist College where he played fullback for a season until his family had the finances for him to walk-on at Florida.

Armstrong earned a scholarship playing on the scout team while redshirting the 1983 season. He gained a starting job at inside linebacker in 1984 and led the team in tackles until a groin pull forced him to miss the final four games. Against Mississippi State that year he had a career-high 13 tackles.

In 1985 he intercepted a pass against Florida State and finished fourth on the team in tackles with 74, including 12 stops vs. LSU. Last year Armstrong led the Gators in tackles with 130 and ended his collegiate career starting 17 straight games.

Armstrong lettered in football and track at Forest High School in Ocala. He majored in building construction at Florida.

Other Cowboys
With Pro Experience

CARL AIKENS, a 6-0, 183-pound wide receiver from No. Illinois, caught two passes for 21 yards in preseason with Green Bay last year before he was released prior to the regular season. He also spent time in training camp with Cincinnati in 1986, and Indianapolis and St. Louis in 1985.

RAY ALEXANDER, a 6-4, 190-pound wide receiver from Florida A&M, finished second in the CFL in receiving yards (1,590) and third in catches (88) while playing for Calgary in 1986. He caught eight passes for 132 yards, 41 long and one touchdown in eight games with the Denver Broncos in 1984.

EVAN ARAPOSTATHIS, a 5-9, 160-pound punter from Eastern Illinois, averaged 38.0 yards on 30 punts with five inside the opponents 20 and a net of 32.5 yards for St. Louis in 1986. Arapostathis (uh-RAP-o-stah-this) was released by the Cardinals after the fifth game. Dallas signed him prior to its 1987 training camp.

STEVE CISOWSKI, a 6-5, 275-pound offensive lineman from Santa Clara, was drafted in the eighth round by the Giants in 1986 and released in training camp. A starter in 43 straight games at either guard or tackle for the Broncos, he earned All-Western Football Conference honors in 1985.

VINCE COURVILLE, a 5-9, 170-pound wide receiver from Rice, caught 29 passes for 556 yards in two seasons with Houston of the USFL. He also averaged 22.4 yards per kickoff return (27-605) with the Gamblers.

CHRIS DULIBAN, a 6-2, 216-pound linebacker from Texas, was drafted by Dallas in the 12th round in 1986. He injured a shoulder in training camp and spent the 1986 season on injured reserve. Duliban had 10 sacks and 98 tackles for the Longhorns his senior year.

MIKE DWYER, a 6-3, 280-pound defensive tackle from Massachusetts, signed as a free agent with the Bears in 1986, but was released in preseason. He earned Division I-AA All-America honors as a senior when he led the team in sacks (12½) and fumbles recovered (4).

STEVE FOLSOM, a 6-5, 245-pound tight end from Utah, signed as a free agent with Dallas after three seasons with Philadelphia/Baltimore of the USFL. He caught 73 passes for 775 yards, 45 long and seven TDs in his career with the Stars. Originally drafted by Miami in the 10th round in 1981, Folsom played three games with the Philadelphia Eagles late in 1981 after the Dolphins released him in preseason.

BRIAN FRANCO, a 5-8, 165-pound placekicker from Penn State, signed as a free agent with Dallas after kicking for Jacksonville of the USFL. In two years with the Bulls Franco made 78% (39-50) of his field goal attempts and 96% (63-66) of his extra point attempts. He was with Minnesota for two weeks in training camp last season.

E. J. JONES, a 5-11, 212-pound running back from Kansas, went to training camp with Kansas City in 1984 and 1985, and with Chicago last season. With the Chiefs he was released before the season began both years. In 1986 the Bears placed him on injured reserve before the final cutdown and released him after the fourth regular season game. Jones gained 43 yards on 10 carries with the Chicago in preseason.

FRAN McDERMOTT, a 5-10, 182-pound defensive back from St. Mary's (Calif.), played five seasons with Saskatchewan of the Canadian Football League. An All-Canadian selection in 1982, he led the Roughriders twice in interceptions and twice in punt returns.

RAY McDONALD, a 5-11, 181-pound wide receiver from Florida, was drafted by New England in the seventh round in 1986 and released in the final cuts. He caught 38 passes for 612 yards with a long of 55 and 7 touchdowns in three seasons for the Gators.

LELAND MELVIN, a 5-11, 178-pound wide receiver from Richmond, was selected in the 11th round by Detroit in 1986. He caught three passes for 45 yards before the Lions released him in late August. Melvin holds Richmond records for catches in a career (198) and in a season (65 in 1985).

CARL MILLER, a 5-10, 204-pound running back from Arkansas, was signed as a free agent by Dallas last year and spent the 1986 season on injured reserve. He led the Southwest Conference in kickoff returns with a 23.3 average in 1985.

ERIC MORAN, a 6-5, 282-pound offensive tackle from Washington, played three seasons with Houston before his release following the 1986 season. Moran was drafted in the 10th round by Dallas in 1983 while he was playing for Los Angeles of the USFL. Moran joined the Cowboys in 1984 following his release by the Express, but was waived in the final cuts.

BEN RUDOLPH, a 6-5, 271-pound defensive lineman from Cal. State Long Beach, played six seasons (1981-1986) for the New York Jets. He was released following the 1986 season and signed as a free agent by Dallas. Rudolph recorded nine career sacks while playing mainly as defensive end in pass situations.

ROGER RUZEK, a 6-1, 185-pound placekicker from Weber State, played two seasons (1984-85) for the New Jersey Generals of the USFL. He connected on 34 of 48 (.708) field goal attempts and 100-105 extra point attempts for 202 points in two years.

STEVE SAVARD, a 6-1, 222-pound linebacker from NW Missouri State, signed with Dallas as a free agent in 1986, but was released in the final cuts. A two-time All-MIAA selection, Savard compiled 430 tackles and 10 interceptions at NW Missouri State.

ROBERT "BUZZ" SAWYER, a 6-1, 201-pound punter from Baylor, signed with Atlanta as a free agent in 1986 but was released before the season began. He holds the Baylor career record for punting average (43.4) and had Baylor's top two punting seasons, averaging 44.9 in 1984 and 44.8 in 1985.

JOE SHEARIN, a 6-4, 265-pound center from Texas, signed as a free agent with Dallas after three seasons in the NFL. A seventh round draft pick in 1982, he played with the Rams for three seasons. In 1985 he signed with Tampa Bay where he played 10 games. He was waived by the Bucs in training camp in 1986.

REGGIE SMITH, a 6-4, 291-pound tackle from Kansas, played two seasons with Tampa Bay of the USFL where he was a teammate of Nate Newton. He joined the Denver Broncos late in training camp last year but was released before the season began.

ROBERT SMITH, a 6-7, 270-pound defensive lineman from Grambling, signed with Dallas as a free agent. He played in 16 games as a reserve defensive end and tackle for Minnesota in 1985. Smith was released by the Vikings before the 1986 season began.

RUSS SWAN, a 6-4, 225-pound linebacker from Virginia, went to camp with Dallas as a free agent in 1986 but was waived on the final cut. A four-year starter at Virginia, Swan led the team with 125 tackles in 1985.

DAVID TROUT, a 5-6, 175-pound placekicker from Pittsburgh, played three seasons (1983-85) with the Stars of the USFL and one season (1981) with the Pittsburgh Steelers. In four years as a pro Trout has made 66.2% (76-116) of his field goal attempts and 93.9% (124-132) of his extra point attempts.

MARK WALEN, a 6-5, 265-pound defensive lineman from UCLA, was drafted by Dallas in the third round in 1986, broke his right ankle prior to training camp and was placed on injured reserve for the season. The 1985 PAC 10 Defensive Player of the Year recorded 20 sacks and 185 tackles during his college career.

JOHN WARREN, a 5-10, 180-pound defensive back from Virginia Union, signed as a free agent with Dallas after playing with the L.A. Express of the USFL. He started eight games for the Express as a rookie in 1985.

BOB WHITE, a 6-5, 270-pound offensive lineman from Rhode Island, was drafted in the seventh round in 1986 by the Jets, who released him before the season began. A second-team All-America pick in 1985, White started two seasons at center, one at left tackle and one at right tackle.

ROBERT WILLIAMS, a 5-10, 195-pound defensive back, played running back in college and went to camp as a free agent wide receiver with Washington in 1986. The Redskins released him before the season started. He played behind Ron Francis at Baylor when both were running backs in 1984.

LLOYD YANCEY, a 6-4, 275-pound guard from Temple, was drafted by Dallas in the sixth round in 1986. A two-year starter at right tackle for the Owls, Yancey injured his knee in training camp and spent the season on injured reserve.

LUIS ZENDEJAS, a 5-9, 160-pound placekicker from Arizona State, signed with Dallas as a free agent after kicking for Arizona of the USFL. He made 73% (36-41) of his field goals for the Outlaws as a rookie in 1985. He went to training camp with Minnesota last year but was released before the season began.

Ring of Honor

The Cowboys honor former players who made outstanding contributions to the club by inducting them into the Ring of Honor at Texas Stadium. Their names and the years they played are prominently displayed in silver on the wall below the press box at Texas Stadium. Members of the Cowboys' Ring of Honor:

BOB LILLY, defensive tackle, 1961-74. Nicknamed "Mr. Cowboy," Bob Lilly was the franchise's first draft choice in 1961, the first name in the Ring of Honor in 1975 and its first inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1979. A seven-time All-Pro, Lilly was named to a club-record 11 Pro Bowls. He was a two-time All-SWC pick and an All-America at Texas Christian University before being drafted by Dallas.

DON MEREDITH, quarterback, 1960-68. Don Meredith led the Cowboys to their first winning season and their first NFL Championship Game in 1966. Signed by Clint Murchison, Jr., before Dallas was granted its NFL franchise, "Dandy Don" played in two Pro Bowls and was named NFL player of the year in 1966. A two-time All-America at SMU, Don's name was added to the Cowboys' Ring of Honor in 1976.

DON PERKINS, running back, 1961-68. Don Perkins was the first Cowboys player to rush for more than 6,000 yards. A six-time Pro Bowl selection, Perkins finished among the top ten NFL rushers in each of his eight seasons. He was named NFL rookie of the year in 1961 and All-Pro in 1962. Perkins was signed before Dallas was granted its NFL franchise. A three-time All-Skyline pick at New Mexico, he was inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1976.

CHUCK HOWLEY, linebacker, 1961-72. When Chuck Howley retired in 1973, Tom Landry said "I don't know that I've seen anybody better at linebacker than Howley." A six-time All-Pro, Howley was the most valuable player in Super Bowl V. The Cowboys traded for Howley, who was drafted by Chicago in 1958. He was All-America center at West Virginia. A six-time Pro Bowl selection, Howley was added to the Ring of Honor in 1977.

MEL RENFRO, defensive back, 1964-77. Mel Renfro was named to the Pro Bowl his first ten seasons in the NFL. He is the club's all-time interceptor with 52 and kickoff returner with a 26.4-yard career average. Renfro was drafted in the second round in 1964 after a career as an All-America halfback and world class sprinter at Oregon. A five-time All-Pro, Renfro was inducted into the Cowboys' Ring of Honor in 1981.

ROGER STAUBACH, quarterback, 1969-79. Roger Staubach led the Cowboys to six NFC Championship Games, four Super Bowls and two Super Bowl titles. A great clutch performer, Staubach led Dallas to comeback victories 23 times, 14 in the last two minutes or overtime. A five-time Pro Bowler, he was drafted by Dallas in 1964 after winning the Heisman Trophy and Maxwell Award at the Naval Academy. Inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1983, Roger was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1985.

"MAKE WAY FOR TOMORROW"

The NFL Films production of "Make Way for Tomorrow – Looking Ahead with the Dallas Cowboys" is available free of charge to groups wishing to show it.

The 30-minute, 16mm sound and color movie is narrated by Brad Crandall and tells the story of the Cowboys' action-packed 1986 season and the team's prospects for 1987. The film features veteran Cowboys standouts like Tony Dorsett, Randy White and Danny White plus exciting newcomers Herschel Walker, Mike Sherrard and Steve Pelluer.

"Make Way for Tomorrow" is the 21st consecutive Cowboys highlights film produced and directed by NFL Films Editor-in-Chief Bob Ryan.

The film is sponsored by GTE and may be obtained for group showings by calling the Cowboys' office at 214/556-9900.

Historical Highlights

NFL FRANCHISE — Clint Murchison, Jr., and Bedford Wynne were awarded an expansion franchise in the NFL at the annual league meeting in Miami Beach, Fla. The Cowboys were to play as a "swing" team, playing every other team one time during the first season, although listed in the Western Conference standings (January 28).

COWBOYS STOCKED — A player pool was set up in a league meeting at L.A., with each of 12 NFL teams freezing 25 names on its roster and the Cowboys allowed to pick three from each team for a total of 36 veterans. Dallas, once given the list, had to select its 36 players within 24 hours (March 13).

TRAINING STARTS — Rookies report to first Cowboys camp at Pacific U., in Forest Grove, Oregon (July 9).

FIRST PRE-SEASON GAME — The Cowboys, less than six months in existence, get their first test and drop a 10-16 pre-season game to San Francisco in Seattle (August 6).

FIRST HOME GAME — In their Dallas debut, in the Salesmanship Club preseason game, the Cowboys led the world champion Baltimore Colts into the final minute before a 62-yard pass from Johnny Unitas to Lenny Moore gave the Colts a 14-10 victory (August 19).

FIRST VICTORY — In a preseason game at Louisville, Ky., the Cowboys beat New York's Giants, 14-3, with Frank Clarke catching touchdown passes of 73 yards (Eddie LeBaron) and 74 yards (Don Meredith) (August 27).

FIRST LEAGUE GAME — In their first league game, Dallas fell to Pittsburgh, 35-28, with Bobby Layne leading a fourth-period Steeler rally (Sept. 24, Saturday night).

STREAK SNAPPED — Dallas snaps a 20-game loss streak by tying New York, 31-31, at Yankee Stadium (Dec. 4).

TRAINING STARTS — Rookies launch training at new campsite — St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn. (July 9).

FIRST LEAGUE WIN — Scoring ten points in the final 56 seconds, the Cowboys score their first NFL victory, 27-24, over Pittsburgh in the '61 league opener in the Cotton Bowl. Allen Green's 27-yard field goal on the game's final play won it before 23,500 (Sept. 17).

1962

TRAINING STARTS — Team begins training at new campsite — Northern Michigan College in Marquette, Mich. (July 13).

PENALTY HISTORY — For the first time in anyone's memory in an NFL game, points were awarded for a penalty. The Cowboys were detected holding in the end zone on a 99-yd. TD pass from LeBaron to Clarke, and Pittsburgh was awarded a safety. The Steelers eventually won, 30-28 (Sept. 23).

100-YARD FIRSTS — Cowboys Amos Marsh returned a kickoff 101 yards and Mike Gaechter returned a pass interception 100 yards, both plays for fourth-quarter TDs in a 41-19 win over Philadelphia in Dallas. It was the first time in NFL history that two 100-yard runs had been made in the same game, much less by the same team in the same quarter. (Oct. 14).

SHIFT TO KANSAS CITY — The rival Dallas Texans of the AFL announce they are moving the franchise to Kansas City (Feb. 8).

154

CALIFORNIA TRAINING SITE — The Cowboys open training at California Lutheran College in Thousand Oaks, Calif. (July 12).

HOWTON SETS RECORD — Bill Howton broke Don Hutson's all-time receiving mark with a 14-yard catch against Washington (there). Hutson's record was 7,991 yards and the catch gave Howton an even 8,000 yards (Sept. 29).

1964

LANDRY CONTRACT — With one year to go on his original contract, Tom Landry is signed to a ten-year extension, in effect giving him an 11-year pact, possibly the longest in major pro sports history (Feb. 5).

1965

FIRST SELLOUT — An overflow crowd of 76,251 jams the Cotton Bowl for the Cleveland game, notching the team's first home sellout. Cleveland won, 24-17 (Nov. 21).

1966

PLAYOFF BOWL — After defeating New York, 38-20, in the season finale (and winning five of their last seven games) to get into the Playoff Bowl at Miami, the Cowboys fall to Baltimore, 35-3 (Jan. 15).

MERGER — Peace comes to pro football with Cowboys GM Tex Schramm completing two months of negotiations with AFL's Lamar Hunt, merging the two leagues under the NFL banner (June 8).

SCHRAMM ELEVATED — Texas E. Schramm, Vice-President and General Manager of the Cowboys from the beginning, was named President of the club by owner Clint Murchison, Jr., who retained the title of Chairman of the Board.

NEELY CASE SOLVED — Dallas and Houston reached agreement in the Ralph Neely case. Neely remained with Dallas with Houston receiving the Cowboys Nos. 1, 2 and two fifth place picks in the 1967 draft (Nov. 17).

THE CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys won their first championship, capturing the Eastern Conference title with a 10-3-1 record, but lost the NFL Championship Game to Green Bay, 34-27.

TEXAS STADIUM — On Dec. 23, owner Clint Murchison, Jr., formally announced plans to build Texas Stadium in suburban Irving. The stadium, to be financed through a bond-option plan, would be ready for the 1970 season. The stadium would seat a minimum of 58,000.

SECOND CHAMPIONSHIP — Under the NFL's new format, the Cowboys easily won the Capitol Division and defeated Cleveland, Century Division winner, 52-14, in the Cotton Bowl for the Eastern conference championship. However, on Dec. 31 in Green Bay, the Cowboys lost their second bid for an NFL title, falling to the Packers, 21-17, in the 13 degree below weather.

1968

WIN CAPITOL — For the second straight year the Cowboys won the Capitol Division, but for the first time in three years the Cowboys did not win the Eastern Championship, being upset at Cleveland, 31-20, on December 21st. Dallas won the Runner-Up Bowl over Minnesota, 17-13.

1969

TEXAS STADIUM — Ground was broken for Texas Stadium in suburban Irving on January 25, and on June 29 Bert Rose was named general manager of the stadium.

ORIGINALS RETIRE — An era ended for the Cowboys in July. On July 5th at a press conference in Dallas, quarterback Don Meredith, the last of the original Cowboys, announced his retirement. Then, on July 18th, the day the veterans were to report to training camp, all-time rushing great Don Perkins officially retired.

REPEAT CAPITOL WINS — Once again the Cowboys rolled to the Capitol Division Championship with an 11-2-1 season. However, the Cowboys failed to win the Eastern Championship when on Dec. 28, the Cowboys lost to Cleveland, 38-14, in the Cotton Bowl.

FIVE STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys won their last five games to finish 10-4, claim the Eastern Division championship and make the playoffs for the fifth year in a row. They defeated Detroit, 5-0, in the opening round to get a shot at the National Conference championship.

FIRST NFC TITLE — The Cowboys captured the biggest prize of their 11-year history on Jan. 3 when they downed San Francisco, 17-10, for the NFC crown. A 16-13 loss to Baltimore in the Super Bowl Jan. 17 left Dallas with one major goal still unrealized.

TEXAS STADIUM — The Cowboys opened a new era in their sparkling Irving, Tex., home with a 44-21 victory over the New England Patriots on October 24. Duane Thomas scored the first touchdown in the new stadium, a 56-yard run just two minutes and 16 seconds after the opening kickoff. Attendance was 65,708.

SIX STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys won their last seven games to finish 11-3, claim the Eastern Division championship and make the playoffs for the sixth year in a row. They defeated Minnesota, 20-12, in the opening round.

SECOND NFC TITLE — For the second consecutive year, the Cowboys met the San Francisco 49ers in the National Conference showdown. This time Dallas won, 14-3, to qualify for its second straight Super Bowl.

FIRST WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys downed the Miami Dolphins, 24-3, to win Super Bowl VI in New Orleans on Jan. 16. It was the 10th victory in a row for Dallas as Roger Staubach passed for two touchdowns and was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

FIRST 1,000-YARD BACK — Calvin Hill became the first Dallas player to rush for 1,000 yards when he gained 111 on Dec. 9 against the Washington Redskins in Texas Stadium. Hill wound up with 1,036 yards for the season on a record 245 carries.

SEVEN STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys qualified for the NFL playoffs a record seventh consecutive year, their 10-4 record earning them the National Conference Wild Card berth. Roger Staubach passed for two touchdowns in the last 1½ minutes to give the Cowboys a 30-28 victory at San Francisco in the first round. Then, at Washington on New Year's Eve, Dallas was foiled in its bid for a third straight NFL title when the Redskins won, 26-3.

100 VICTORIES — The Cowboys and Coach Tom Landry recorded their 100th victory with a 40-3 Texas Stadium win over the New Orleans Saints on Sept. 24.Landry, the only head coach the Cowboys have had, ended the season with a career mark of 108-80-6 to rank ninth on the list of the NFL's all-time winningest coaches.

EIGHT STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys regained the NFC Eastern Division title with a 10-4 record and broke their own NFL record by reaching the playoffs for the eighth year in a row. Dallas defeated Western Division champion Los Angeles in the first round, 27-16, but fell to Central Division winner Minnesota in the NFC Championship Game, 27-10.

1974

FIRST TOP DRAFT CHOICE — For the first time in their history, the Cowboys had the very first choice in the NFL college draft. The No. 1 pick came to Dallas from Houston in exchange for Tody Smith and Billy Parks. The Cowboys selected Ed "Too Tall" Jones, a 6-9, 260-pound defensive end from Tennessee State.

PLAYOFFS MISSED — The Cowboys' record-breaking string of eight straight years in the NFL playoffs was broken when the club's 8-6 record failed to qualify.

LILLY HONORED — "Mr. Cowboy" was honored on Bob Lilly Day at Texas Stadium at halftime of the Philadelphia game on Nov. 23. It was the first such recognition ever given to a Dallas player. Lilly never missed a game in 14 years with the Cowboys, earning All-Pro honors seven times at defensive tackle before retiring prior to the '75 season.

TEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys' 10-4 record earned them the NFC Wild Card berth in the playoffs. The composite record over 10 straight winning seasons was 101-37-2.

THIRD NFC TITLE — After shocking Minnesota in the first round, 17-14 on Roger Staubach's 50-yard "Hail Mary" pass to Drew Pearson, the Cowboys traveled to Los Angeles for the NFC showdown. Staubach threw four touchdown passes, three to Preston Pearson, and Dallas won, 37-7. Pittsburgh won Super Bowl X on Jan. 18 in Miami, 21-17.

MEREDITH, PERKINS HONORED — Former Cowboys greats Don Meredith and Don Perkins joined Bob Lilly in the "Ring of Honor" at Texas Stadium during halftime ceremonies at the New York Giants game on Nov. 7.

ELEVEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys won the NFC Eastern Division title with their 11-3 record, giving them their 11th straight winning season and 10th playoff berth in that period. A 14-12 first round loss to Los Angeles — the first time Dallas had lost in the first round under the current playoff setup — ended the season.

1977

HOWLEY HONORED — Former All-Pro linebacker Chuck Howley, a Cowboy from 1961 through 1973, became the fourth member of the Ring of Honor. Howley was honored during ceremonies at halftime of the Detroit Lions game on Oct. 30.

TWELVE STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — Getting off to an 8-0 start, their best ever, the Cowboys rolled to a 12-2 record, the championship of the NFC East, and their 12th consecutive winning season. They opened their 11th visit to the playoffs in those 12 years with a 37-7 first-round victory over the Chicago Bears at Texas Stadium.

FOURTH NFC TITLE — Dallas crushed the Minnesota Vikings at Texas Stadium, 23-6, for National Conference crown No. 4 and the right to meet the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XII.

SECOND WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys stopped the Denver Broncos, 27-10, to win Super Bowl XII in New Orleans on January 15, 1978. In the process, Dallas tied Minnesota for most Super Bowl appearances (four) and Green Bay, Miami and Pittsburgh for most Super Bowl victories (two). Defensive linemen Harvey Martin and Randy White were named co-Most Valuable Players in the game.

THIRTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — After a mediocre 6-4 start, the Cowboys won six straight games to finish the expanded regular season with a 12-4 record and their 10th division crown. It marked the Cowboys' 13th consecutive winning season and 12th trip to the playoffs in that span. Dallas rallied to beat Atlanta 27-20 in a divisional playoff at Texas Stadium, sending the Cowboys to their seventh NFC championship game in the past nine years.

FIFTH NFC TITLE — Dallas shut out the Rams in Los Angeles 28-0 in the National Conference title game to advance to the Super Bowl a record fifth time, including three of the last four. In the first Super Bowl rematch, Pittsburgh edged the Cowboys 35-31 for the NFL championship on Jan. 21 in Miami's Orange Bowl.

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY — The Cowboys celebrated their 20th anniversary season at halftime of the St. Louis Cardinals game at Texas Stadium on Oct. 21. Stars from each of those 20 seasons plus Coach Tom Landry were introduced during the halftime ceremonies.

FOURTH STRAIGHT NFC EAST TITLE — Rallying from a mid-season slump, the Cowboys won their final three games to finish with an 11-5 record, their 11th division championship, including the past four NFC East titles, and 14th consecutive winning season. The Cowboys made their 13th trip to the playoffs in those 14 years, but were eliminated by Los Angeles 21-19 in a divisional playoff at Texas Stadium.

STAUBACH RETIRES — At a press conference at Texas Stadium on March 31, quarterback Roger Staubach announced his retirement after 11 record-breaking years with the Cowboys. Staubach held all major Cowboys passing records and was the all-time leading NFL passer.

LILLY ENTERS HALL OF FAME — Bob Lilly, a seven-time All-Pro defensive tackle in his 14-year career with the Cowboys from 1961-74, became the first Cowboys-only player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Enshrined along with Lilly on Aug. 2 at Canton, Ohio, were Herb Adderley, who played for the Cowboys from 1970-72, Jim Otto and Deacon Jones.

FIFTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — Behind new starting quarterback Danny White, the Cowboys rolled to their 15th consecutive winning season with a surprising 12-4 record, tied for best in the league with Philadelphia and Atlanta. The Cowboys lost the NFC East title to Philadelphia on a tie-breaker, but entered the playoffs for the 14th game in 15 years, this time as a wild card team. The Cowboys beat Los Angeles 34-13 at Texas Stadium in the NFC Wild Card Game and rallied past the Falcons at Atlanta 30-27 to advance to the NFC Championship Game at Philadelphia. But the Cowboys lost 20-7 in their bid for a sixth Super Bowl appearance.

LANDRY'S 200th VICTORY — Tom Landry joined George Halas and Curly Lambeau as the only coaches with 200 NFL victories when the Cowboys beat Los Angeles 34-13 on Dec. 28 at Texas Stadium in the NFC Wild Card Game, raising Landry's record to 200-119-6, counting regular season and playoff games.

RENFRO HONORED — Former All-Pro defensive back Mel Renfro, the Cowboys' all-time leading pass interceptor, became the fifth member of the Cowboys' Ring of Honor. Renfro, who played for Dallas from 1964 through 1977, was honored during halftime ceremonies of the Cowboys-Miami Dolphins game at Texas Stadium Oct. 25.

TWELFTH DIVISION CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys regained the NFC Eastern Division Championship, their 12th division title since 1966, with a 12-4 record and tied Oakland's NFL mark of 16 consecutive winning seasons. Entering the playoffs for the 15th time in that span, the Cowboys advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the ninth time in 12 years by routing Tampa Bay 38-0 at Texas Stadium. But for the second year in a row Dallas lost the conference title game. San Francisco scored a last-minute touchdown at Candlestick Park to edge the Cowboys 28-27 for a berth in Super Bowl XVI.

200TH REGULAR-SEASON VICTORY — The Cowboys beat Washington 24-10 at RFK Stadium on Dec. 5 for the club's and Coach Tom Landry's 200th regular-season victory.

SEVENTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys finished the strike-shortened regular season with a 6-3 record to establish an NFL record of 17 consecutive winning seasons. Entering the playoffs for a record-tying eighth straight year and for the 16th time in 17 years, the Cowboys beat Tampa Bay 30-17 and Green Bay 37-26, both at Texas Stadium, to advance to the NFC Championship Game for the third year in a row. But again the Cowboys come up short, losing 31-17 at Washington.

STAUBACH HONORED — Former quarterback Roger Staubach, who led the Cowboys to four Super Bowls, became the sixth member of the Ring of Honor during halftime ceremonies of the Cowboys-Tampa Bay game on Oct. 9.

NEW HEADQUARTERS — Ground was broken on Nov. 29 for the Cowboys' new headquarters and training facility at The Valley Ranch in northwest Dallas County.

EIGHTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys extended their NFL record to 18 consecutive winning seasons with a 12-4 finish. The club also set a league record with its ninth straight playoff appearance, qualifying as a wild card entry. The Los Angeles Rams eliminated the Cowboys from the playoffs, however, with a 24-17 upset victory at Texas Stadium in the NFC Wild Card Game on Dec. 26.

SILVER SEASON — The Cowboys kicked off their 25th anniversary with a news conference at Texas Stadium on Jan. 27. Club President Tex Schramm announced the Cowboys would celebrate their 25th anniversary during 1984 under the theme "Silver Season."

OWNERSHIP CHANGES HANDS — The sale of the Cowboys from the Murchison family to an 11-member limited partnership headed by Dallas businessman H. R. "Bum" Bright was approved by NFL owners on March 19 at the league's annual meeting in Honolulu. The sale was completed on May 18.

COWBOYS CENTER — The Cowboys and Triland International announced plans on March 27 for Cowboys Center, an innovative joint venture that will develop business opportunities in a conference center, Cowboys ShowPlace, athletic club, sports arena, office park, housing, and retail and restaurant outlets on 200 acres at The Valley Ranch, adjacent to the Cowboys' new headquarters.

NINETEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys defeated the Eagles 26-10 in Philadelphia to extend their NFL record to 19 consecutive winning seasons. The Cowboys finished 9-7 and missed the playoffs for the first time in 10 years and only the second time in 19 years.

STAUBACH ENTERS HALL OF FAME — Roger Staubach, the master of the comeback victory during his 11-year career as a Cowboys quarterback, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. Enshrined with Staubach on Aug. 3 at Canton, Ohio, were Pete Rozelle, Joe Namath, O. J. Simpson and Frank Gatski. Staubach joined Bob Lilly as the only players who spent their entire career with the Cowboys to be elected to the Hall of Fame.

TEXAS STADIUM IMPROVEMENTS — Texas Stadium unveiled a new look when the Cowboys opened their preseason schedule against Green Bay on Aug. 10. The stadium became the first two DiamondVision color scoreboards, and the addition of 118 Crown Suites gave Texas Stadium more private suites, 296, than any stadium in the nation.

COWBOYS RANCH OPENS — Cowboys players and coaches reported on Aug. 27 to the team's new headquarters and training facility at Cowboys Center in Valley Ranch.

DORSETT PASSES 10,000 YARDS — On a 19-yard sweep around left end, Tony Dorsett became the sixth player in NFL history to rush for 10,000 yards. Dorsett's feat highlighted a 27-13 victory over Pittsburgh at Texas Stadium on Oct. 13.

THIRTEENTH DIVISION CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys edged the New York Giants 28-21 on Dec. 15 at Texas Stadium to capture the NFC Eastern Division championship for the first time since 1981. Picked in most season previews to finish third or fourth in the division, the Cowboys rallied for their NFL record 20th consecutive winning season, a 13th division title in 20 years and a playoff berth for the 18th time in that span. But in their NFL record 36th playoff game appearance, the Cowboys fell 20-0 to the Los Angeles Rams in Anaheim Stadium on Jan. 4.

COWBOYS GO TO LONDON — The Cowboys began preparations for their first trip to a foreign country when the NFL announced on March 12 that the Cowboys would play the Super Bowl champion Chicago Bears in a preseason game at London's Wembley Stadium on Aug. 3.

100TH WIN AT TEXAS STADIUM — Dallas defeats St. Louis 37-6 for the club's 100th victory at Texas Stadium. Since the facility opened in 1971 the Cowboys have compiled a 100-25 (.800) record.

STREAK BROKEN — The Cowboys' streak of 20 consecutive winning seasons from 1966 through 1985, third longest in professional sports history, came to an end when the club finished with a 7-9 record after losing seven of its last eight games. Only baseball's New York Yankees (39 straight winning seasons, 1926-64) and hockey's Montreal Canadiens (32 from 1951-52 through 1982-83) surpassed the Cowboys' accomplishment. After the 1986 season, the Washington Redskins' five straight winning campaigns (1982-86) represented the NFL's longest active streak.

FOUNDER DIES — Cowboys founder Clint Murchison, Jr., dies after a long illness. Murchison, who owned the club until 1984, acquired the expansion Dallas franchise in the NFL in 1960. He hired Tex Schramm as general manager, gave Tom Landry a 10-year contract when his coaching career was in doubt in 1964 and was instrumental in the building of Texas Stadium.

COWBOYS CENTER

Cowboys Center is a unique project joining the Cowboys, their fans and the business community on 200 acres in Valley Ranch, a 2,500-acre, master-planned commercial and residential community in northwest Dallas County.

Called "Emerald City for the Cowboys" in a Sept. 2, 1985 story in Newsweek, Cowboys Center will add Cowboys ShowPlace, a hotel-conference center, tennis club, sports medicine clinic, retail and restaurant pavilion and office park to the already existing Cowboys headquarters and North Texas Ice Arena.

The focus of Cowboys Center will be Cowboys Ranch and Cowboys Show-Place, giving the club an ideal working environment and Cowboys fans a wide range of opportunities to interact with the team.

COWBOYS RANCH:

The Cowboys moved into their state-of-the-art headquarters and training facility in August 1985. The complex includes three grass football fields, locker and training room facilities, meeting rooms, weight training and exercise areas, running trails, racquetball, basketball and tennis courts and a video lab. All coaching, scouting and administrative offices are located in the 80,000-square foot structure of Arizona sandstone, along with a ticket office, souvenir shop, Dallas Cowboys Travel Agency, Cowboys Cheerleaders Dance Academy, offices for the Cowboys Weekly, a press room with a research library, a television studio plus a variety of lounge areas. Tours are available (see page 169.)

COWBOYS SHOWPLACE:

The crown jewel of Cowboys Center, Cowboys ShowPlace will enable fans to spend an unforgettable day with the Cowboys through exhibits utilizing sight, sound and touch. Fans will enter ShowPlace through a seven-story glass star and a sculpture garden of 10-foot high football players in the foreground. Laser-disc projection, interactive videos, holograms and a Magic Motion Machine are some of the 80 planned attractions. The variety of displays and innovative gadgetry will make ShowPlace a must for all football fans.

Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders

When the Cowboys introduced the 'new' Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders at Texas Stadium in 1972, they wanted to have a bright new look on the playing field and add another form of entertainment for the football fan. Little did they know that they were starting something that one day would become what is now considered a phenomenon.

Those who participated in the Cheerleaders' formation couldn't have foreseen what would happen on a sunny day in Miami four years later when, at Super Bowl X, the cheerleaders would capture the imagination of a nation. With a stroke of luck and a winning football team it all came together.

The phenomenon, however, has not been restricted to Texas Stadium and the television eye that has carried their image across the country. Armed Forces in remote outposts throughout the world, children and veterans in hospital wards plus state fair and college audiences have all experienced the joy of the D.C.C. Because of their freshness and smiles, their beauty and talent, these young women bring a touch of happiness to everyone they meet.

Cowboys on Radio

The Cowboys again in 1987 will have the largest radio network in the National Football League as Texas State Network begins its sixth season broadcasting Cowboys games to America. With KRLD Radio of Dallas serving as the flagship station, TSN's Dallas Cowboys Network will be carried on 156 stations in 13 states. Play-by-play announcer Brad Sham is joined again this year by analyst Dale Hansen. In addition, TSN will carry all Cowboys games in Spanish on 12 stations in two states via the Dallas Cowboys Radio Network with broadcasters Armando Quintero and Mario Montez.

Cowboys on Television

"Dallas Cowboys Weekly"

Cowboys President Tex Schramm and co-host Lee Martin began their 10th season in 1987 bringing Cowboys fans the inside story on the team through the "Dallas Cowboys Weekly" television show. This popular look at how the Cowboys work is presented in a lively, half-hour, magazine-style format every week during the season from training camp through the playoffs. Produced and syndicated by Lee Martin Productions, "Dallas Cowboys Weekly" is seen on an nine-state network of 30 stations, the largest network in the nation for a show about a sports team.

ARIZONA: Phoenix, Dimension Cable; ARKANSAS: Little Rock, KRZB; CALIFORNIA: Oxnard, KTIE: ILLINOIS: Chicago, Sportsvision; LOUISIANA: Shreveport, KMSS; NEW MEXICO: Albuquerque, KGSW; Las Cruces, KASK; Roswell, KBIM; NEW YORK: New York, The Sports Channel; OKLAHOMA: Ardmore, KXII; Oklahoma City, KAUT; Tulsa, KGCT; TEXAS: Abilene, KTAB; Amarillo, KAMR; Austin, KTVV; Beaumont, KFDM; Corpus Christi, KZTV; Dallas/Fort Worth, KXAS; El Paso, KDBC; Harlingen, KGBT; Houston, KHTV; Laredo, KVTV; Longview, KLMG; Lubbock, KLBK; San Angelo, KIDY; San Antonio, KSAT, Rogers Cable, Sports Channel; Temple/Waco, KCEN: Wichita Falls, KAUZ.

"The Tom Landry Show"

Coach Tom Landry gives fans a personal analysis of his team every week from the opening of the regular season through the playoffs in "The Tom Landry Show." Landry and host Brad Sham provide a video-taped review of each week's Cowboys game, a preview of the upcoming opponent, special features and interviews plus predictions of upcoming NFL games. The show is produced and syndicated by Lee Martin Productions and seen on more stations, 30 in nine states, than any coach's show in the nation.

Cowboys in Print

"Dallas Cowboys Weekly"

The largest team publication in sports is the "Dallas Cowboys Weekly," circulation 72,000. Edited by Steve Perkins, the 13-year-old Weekly reaches Cowboys fans across the nation 32 times a year with game action photos and stories, the popular "Ask Tex Schramm" column, "Tom Landry's View," At Home with the Cowboys, the Cheerleaders centerfold, lots of color action photos and more.

"Dallas Cowboys Annual Season Preview Magazine"

The club created its newest publication in 1986. The "Dallas Cowboys Annual Season Preview" is a full-color magazine published in July and filled with stories and photos about the team and its prospects for the upcoming season, plus a full-color Cowboys Cheerleaders swimsuit feature. The magazine is available on newsstands or with a subscription to the Cowboys Weekly newspaper. A Spanish-language edition is available in Mexico.

"Dallas Cowboys Bluebook"

This hard-cover annual collector's item is available in bookstores and is a Cowboys fan's only authoritative reference guide. Published by Taylor Publishing Company of Dallas, Bluebook VIII includes team and individual statistics and records, player biographies, color photos, plus features on players, coaches, the front office and the Cowboys Cheerleaders.

The Cowboys and You

Cowboys Center

This innovative multi-use project will offer Cowboys fans a variety of experiences from tours of the club's headquarters, to a day at Cowboys ShowPlace, to ice skating at the North Texas Ice Arena, all on 200 acres in Valley Ranch (see page 162).

Cowboys Tickets

The Cowboys limit their annual season ticket sales to 50,000, leaving nearly 15,000 tickets per game available to fans on a single-game basis. The Cowboys have sold out 87 of their past 93 games at Texas Stadium. Ticket outlet information is available on the inside front cover of this book.

Dallas Cowboys Travel

Dallas Cowboys Travel is a fast-growing, full-service travel agency specializing in corporate and personal travel for a variety of clients. Special "Cowboys Weekend" packages, including accommodations at the D-FW Hilton, game-day brunch, game tickets, tours of Cowboys Ranch and transfers to the game and airport, are available through Cowboys Travel. Cowboys Travel has two offices in the Dallas area, including the main office in Cowboys Ranch (214/556-2800).

Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders Fitness & Dance Academy

Located in Cowboys Ranch, the Cowboys Cheerleaders Fitness & Dance Academy offers aerobics, jazz, ballet and tap to females and males of all ages in a modern studio setting. The instructors are the Cowboys Cheerleaders' choreographers and former Cheerleaders. The studio also is used for rehearsals by the Cowboys Cheerleaders. Call 214/556-9999 for further information.

Cowboys Ranch Tours & Cowboys Pro Shop

Public tours of the club's new headquarters and training facility now are available. Call Cindy Birne at 214/556-9900 for information. The Cowboys' Pro Shop offers both Cowboys and Cowboys Cheerleaders souvenir merchandise, including authentic game jerseys and coaches' sweaters, t-shirts, caps, etc. The Pro Shop is located next to the Cowboys Ticket Office in Cowboys Ranch.
